There were two sails in the boat and a bit of a mast, and there was no special danger in attempting to carry a few feet of duck, for the boat was a staunch one, but enough water came in over the low gunwales to make it indeed necessary to "bail her right smart."

To return once more to the fair cause of all the mischief. Effie experienced no special difficulty or danger in transferring herself to the deck of the yacht, but her unlucky little boat closed its performances for the day—and its career as a boat—by clumsily colliding with its larger neighbor, and was swamped at once. Perhaps the crew of the yacht connived at what was certainly the easiest method of getting rid of a great bother.

There were a number of ladies aboard, some of whom Effie knew, but she refused all offers of sympathy or assistance, preferring to treat the adventure as a joke, though in no way displeased to find herself suddenly turned into a sort of heroine and the centre of much attention.

"Ah, Miss Brown," said the gallant major, "it might have terminated in anything but a joke, if we had failed to see your signal. What a fortunate set of people we are to be able take you out of so unpleasant a predicament."

Effie began to feel a natural depression of spirits after her strong excitement, and thought it best to adjourn to to the cabin for a while. She slept for an hour or so, and was finally awakened by the rough motion of the boat.

"Oh, Mrs. Anderson," she asked of a lady who was sitting near her, "What can be the matter? What can make the boat tumble so? I thought we should have been in Coldhaven by this time."

"Don't be alarmed, my dear; Major Gordon says that there is not wind enough to make it at all unsafe, though I must say it is a good deal unpleasant. The major is on deck now, and Miss Van Zandt is with him. She is a regular built sailor, and seems to enjoy this sort of thing much better than I do, at any rate."

Concluded to-morrow.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
COMPOUND FLUID
Extract Catawba
GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

For Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Bilious Affections, Sick or Nervous Headache, Costiveness, etc., purely Vegetable, and containing no Mercury, Minerals or Deleterious Drugs.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving; consequently do not produce the desired effect. The CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. Price, 50 cents per box.

B

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is diuretic and blood-purifying, and cures all diseases arising from Habits of Dissipation, and Excesses and Imprudences in Life, Impurities of the Blood, etc., superseding Copaiba in Affections for which it is used, and Syphilitic Affections—in these Diseases used in connection with HELMBOLD'S Rose Wash.

LADIES.

In many affections peculiar to Ladies, the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy—as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrus State of the Uterus, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from Indiscretion or Habits of Dissipation. It is prescribed extensively by the most eminent physicians and Midwives for enfebled and delicate constitutions, of both sexes and all ages (attended with any of the above diseases of symptoms.)

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to the parts, thereby restoring Lost Functions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequently in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. Price $1.50 per bottle.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED
ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of Cutaneous Affection. It speedily eradicates Pimples, Spots, Scorbutic Dryness, Roughness of the Cutaneous Membrane, etc., dispels Redness and Incipient Inflammation, Hives, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scaldhead, Itch, Ring Worm, Frost Bites, and all purposes for which Salves or Ointments are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and the complexion to healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But powerful as it is, it is yet gentle, and free from effects of the skin. H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principal claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a Toilet Appendage of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant form the those properties required for Safety and Efficacy—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

D

Full and explicit directions accompany the medicines.

Evidence of the most responsible and reliable character furnished on application, with hundreds of thousands of living witnesses and upward of 50,000 unsolicited certificates and testimonials, many of which are from the highest sources, including eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Statesmen, etc. The proprietor has never resorted to their publication in the newspapers; he does not do this from the fact that his articles rank as Standard Preparations, and do not need to be propped up by certificates.

IN THE TUNNEL.

BY BRET HARTE.

"Didn't know Flynn—
Flynn of Virginia—
Long as he's been 'yar?
Look ee here, stranger,
What her you been?

Here in this tunnel
He was my pardner,
That same Tom Flynn—
Working together,
In wind and weather,
Day out and in.

Didn't know Flynn!
Well, that is queer;
Why it's a sin
To think of Tom Flynn—
Tom with his cheer,
Tom without fear—
Stranger, look 'yar!

Thar in the drift,
Back to the wall,
He held the timbers
Ready to fall;
Then in the darkness
I heard him call:
'Run for your life, Jake!
Run for your wife's sake!
Don't wait for me.'
And that was all
Heard in the din,
Heard of Tom Flynn—
Flynn of Virginia.

That's all about
Flynn of Virginia;
That lets me out
Here in the damp—
Out of the sun—
That 'ar demed lamp
Makes my eyes run;
Well, there—I'm done!

But, sir, when you'll Hear the next fool
Asking of Flynn—
Flynn of Virginia—
Just you chip in,
Say you knew Flynn;
Say that you've been 'yar."

WATER FOR STOCK.—An important question to be answered by farmers is, "How shall we provide water for our stock?" Many wells that furnished an abundance of water for use through the drought of the past summer, now fail to yield a supply. Running water was formerly considered a luxury, to be enjoyed only by the favored few; but it is now regarded as a necessity on every well regulated farm. Many farmers who could not find springs with sufficient head, have put in hydraulic rams, and others are contemplating similar improvements. Those only who are deprived of the advantages of good watering places on their farms can fully appreciate the privilege they confer, the amount of suffering they prevent and the labor they save.

After one has driven out to stock once or twice a day from a well all the water they get, for a few weeks, he will value as never before a flowing stream. It is surprising how little attention is given to this subject of water, when so much is depending upon it, and when so little expense would in most cases be sufficient to provide a remedy for the evil. Wells may be resorted to when nothing better can be provided; but experience proves that running water, such as is furnished by springs or streams, and which can be conducted to the places where it is most wanted, is not only the best for stock but far the most economical in the end.

There are but few farms on which water works of this kind may not be constructed, and the water conveyed in pipes wherever desired, and nothing but a little energy and skill would be required to bring an abundant supply of pure spring water to the farmer's door, to his stock-yard and sheep-fold.

ATTEND TO THE BEES.—Now is the time to see that the bees have plenty of honey, if not give them something to lengthen out their failing store. I use white candy, one pound of which will last a swarm a month or six weeks, and it does not stimulate breeding. As often as once a week see that the fly holes are not closed up with ice and dead bees. Put something in front to shade the fly holes to keep the sun from shining on the hives, which induces the bees to fly out and perish on the snow. Give them plenty of upward ventilation, and see that they have a chance where the cold north wind does not come upon them. Give them the little attention they need and they will pay as well as the pig and calves, and a little better.

SAND INSTEAD OF STRAW.—J. S. Ives, of Salem, Mass., writes as follows to the Country Gentleman: "You are correct in the assertion, that Massachusetts farmers advocate the use of sand absorbents for bedding cattle. I have used it more or less for the past fifteen years, and consider the manure much improving, as the sand retains the urine much better than hay or straw. Fresh sand I think equally as good as that taken from the sea shore. Cattle should be bedded three inches deep. We also consider it very advantageous to the health of cattle. Farmers in our vicinity collect it in August and store in a dry shed. By winter it will become dry, and will not freeze in the coldest weather."

COMPOUND FLUID

Extract Catawba

GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

FOR LIVER COMPLAINTS, JAUNDICE, BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, SICK OR NERVOUS HEADACHE, COSTIVENESS, ETC. PURELY VEGETABLE, CONTAINING NO MERCURY, MINERALS OR DELETERIOUS DRUGS.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills, are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c.,

In all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous Matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of CUTANEOUS AFFECTION. It speedily eradicates PIMPLES, SPOTS, SCORBUTIC DRYNESS, INDURATIONS of the CUTANEOUS MEMBRANE, etc., dispels REDNESS AND INCIPIENT INFLAMMATION, HIVES, RASH, MOTH PATCHES, DRYNESS OF SCALP OR SKIN, FROST BITES, and all purposes for which SALVES or OINTMENTS are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation; used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

SATURDAY, MARCH 4, 1871.

☞ If the "sober, second thought of the people," as we used to hear in Van Buren's time, "is always right," its verdict in the case of the nineteen Senators who screened Andrew Johnson is unspeakably plain. Of the nineteen, but two now remain in the Senate. Not one, either Democrat or Republican, has yet been re-elected, for the two now in office have not reached the expiration of their term. The Chief Justice, whose sympathies were so clearly on the same side, is laid aside from his work. It is a remarkable record for three years.

☞ The New York Post (free trade), speaking of the House vote on the repeal of the coal duty, says it is worthy of note that the Democrats re-elected to the next House five of their men who were well known protectionists, and that the Republicans re-elected seventeen whose opposition to cheap coal, cheap salt and cheap blankets for the people were equally well known. The Democrats rejected two of the monopolists and the Republicans rejected twenty-two.

☞ The Republican members of the House of Representatives have renominated all the old officers. Speaker Blaine and Clerk McPherson were nominated by acclamation. Sergeant-at-Arms N. G. Ordway (of N. H.) was re-nominated on the first ballot, receiving 76 votes to 22 for Gen. Herron and 20 for Col. Stokes. Postmaster Wm. S. King was re-nominated on the 2d ballot. The Democrats have nominated Gen. Morgan of Ohio for Speaker.

New Hampshire Items.

The house and barn of Perley Putnam in Laconia were burned recently. Insured $3000; Loss $6000.

On the 26th ult., in Lancaster, some boys were trying to run a hand-car, and one, named McDuffie of Jefferson, had one arm caught by the crank, breaking and crushing the bones near the elbow in a fearful manner.

☞ The important fact is telegraphed from Paris that "a handsome Prussian lady sobbed aloud" at the magnificent sight of the 30,000 Germans marching into Paris. Bah!

☞ The remains of the late Capt. N. B. Harrison have been interred at Oak Hill cemetrey, Washington.

OLD TIME CHRONICLES, No. 30.

BY UNCLE JOSEPH.

VERY LARGE MEN.—Daniel Lambert was born in England, town of Leicester, March 13, 1770. At the age of 19 he began to grow corpulent. At 28 he weighed 448 lbs. He finally weighed 739. Height 5 feet, 11 inches; girt 9 feet, 4 inches. Died at Stamford, June 21, 1809, aged 39.

One of the largest men that we have an account of in our State was Caleb Towle, a native of Hampton, who passed the last years of his life in Centre Harbor. He was a little short of 5 feet, 10 inches, in height. Around his body he measured 6 feet, 4 inches. In one year, not long before his death, he gained 32 pounds. The last time he was weighed, some months before his decease, his weight was 515 pounds. He died Oct, 1, 1822, aged 36 years.

But another beat him in corpulency, in New Hampshire,—Daniel Brackett of Newmarket. He was born in the town and lived at Ash Swamp, near the centre of the old town before it was divided. In stature he was short, being 5 feet, 8 inches. He was a farmer, had a family, was of good habits, intelligent, and as is common with those quite fleshy, cheerful and lively in conversation, enjoying a hearty laugh. For some years he could not perform much labor. He died in 1838, aged 56. His weight was 600 pounds.

It was found most convenient to have his coffin of plank, and his remains were drawn to the grave on a drag by a pair of oxen. He left many friends, few or no enemies.

—Henry Ward Beecher says that every country place should have that very coquette among trees, the Aspen. It seems never to sleep. Its twinkling fingers are playing in the air at some arch fantasy almost without pause. If you set at a window with a book, it will wink and blink, and beckon and coax, until you cannot help speaking to it. That must be a still day that does not see the Aspen quiver. A single leaf will sometimes begin to wag, and not another on the whole tree will move! Sometimes a hidden breath will catch at a lower branch, then shifting will leave them still, while it shakes a topmost twig. It is the daintiest fairy of all the trees. One should have an Aspen on every side of his house, that no window should be without a chance to look upon its nods and becks, and to rejoice in its innocent witchcraft.

☞ The house of John Prescott of Kittery Point was somewhat damaged by fire during the absence of the family on Friday, March 2nd. Mr. Riley who was hauling wood for Mr. Prescott, saw smoke issuing from a window, gave the alarm, and with others succeeded in putting out the fire, after it had burned the kitchen and its contents, clothing, &c. A little delay in discovering the fire would have occasioned the destruction of the house. Insured in Kittery and Eliot.

☞ In our record of deaths this morning will be found that of Miss Mary W. Drown, who had attained the ripe old age of eighty-two years and nine months, and during that lengthy period of existence never needed the attendance of a physician until within a week of her decease, thus enjoying over eighty-two years of uninterrupted good health. Such an instance, though not without a parallel, is very rare. Though having to contend with many peculiarly adverse circumstances thro' many years of her life, she nevertheless possessed an equable temper, and always exhibited a kindness of heart which distinguished her as one ever ready to sympathize with and assist the unfortunate.

—The Board of Aldermen in Portsmouth contains a Democratic lawyer, who indulges in weekly harangues up on the trite subject of economy. "There is nothing half so sweet in life" as economy in public affairs to the Democracy—when in the minority! but when in power, it is, of course, "a horse of a different color."—Concord Monitor.

Not only of a "different color," but of a different breed altogether. The Democracy are always willing to ride into power on the white horse "economy," but once they get in, either by deluding simple minded and trusting economists or by that specious humbug "a citizens' ticket," the speckled Democratic mule is harnessed to the Treasury, and jerks it right into the middle of the Democratic camp, whence it never escapes with any money in it.

☞ The schooner now building at the yard of Messrs. Tobey & Littlefield, tor parties in Dover and Portsmouth, is to be a centre-board vessel, built of New Hampshire pasture oak, with a length on deck of 75 feet, breadth of beam 22 feet, depth of hold 5 feet, and measuring 75 tons. She is intended for general freighting business, will carry a heavy cargo on a very light draft of water, and will be commanded by Capt. Thomas C. Coleman of Dover. Messrs. Tobey & Littlefield have on hand, besides what they will use in constructing the schooner, about 100 tons of well-seasoned New Hampshire oak; such excellent ship timber should not be allowed to be idle. This schooner is the only vessel now on the stocks in this vicinity.

FREE THE BRIDGES.—Our contributor "Strawberry Bank," in his article opposing the annexation of Newcastle, advances as one argument against that scheme that we should have to buy the connecting bridges—thus assuming that the city could not tolerate a toll-gate between its two divisions. If annexation will certainly result in abolishing the toll, we regard that as a powerful argument in favor of the proposed union, whatever the cost of the abolition. Taxing the means of communication between different sections of country is a relic of barbarism, and one which conservative England got rid of by purchasing at great cost the numerous turnpikes in that country, and freeing them to the public.

The toll at Portsmouth Bridge should also be done away with; and we would suggest to our unionists as a means of bringing about so desirable a result, that as soon as they have transformed Newcastle into the Island Ward of this city, they take steps to annex Kittery, which annexation is quite feasible since the Navy Department last year by some geographical legerdemain shifted that town from Maine into New Hampshire.

—Gen. Sheridan is in Paris.

☞ The joint conference committee on the naval appropriation bill consists of Senators Sprague, Cragin, and Stockton, and Representatives Washburne, Stevens and Hale. The committee agreed on an amendment satisfactory to the line officers of the Navy, preserving the section providing for executive officers, and giving the staff officers relative rank only.

☞ The York County tax for 1870 is $112,352.71; a decrease of $22,442.87 from last year.

☞ The expenditures of Biddeford last year for police were $3270.55.

—Mr. Henry Benecke of Chicago left a note for the Coroner, explaining that his suicide was an act of considerateness for his wife, who was in "great want of another husband."

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS, whether transient notices or by yearly contracts, are inserted in both the Daily Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, or in either one of these papers only, as desired. And while there is no better advertising medium in this County, our rates are reasonable, especially to regular yearly patrons.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

An Insalubrious Season.

Spring is welcome, but not its diseases. We should be glad to have the bloom without its fogs, its vapors, its sudden changes of temperature, and the agues, fits of indigestion, billious attacks, and other harassing disorders which they engender. As this cannot be, it behooves all sensible people to do the best they can to escape such serious drawbacks on the poetry of the season. Ask any physician what the weak and delicate ought to do when miasma infects the air. The answer will be "tone and regulate the system." But how? That is the important question. A dozen medical men would probably recommend as many different medicines. On the other hand, the thousands who have tested the virtues of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS as an invigorant and alterative, will recommend but one, the wholesome preventive and restorative in which their own experience has taught them to trust. A course of this rare vegetable stimulant, commenced now, would save many a pang to the feeble and debilitated. It would be wise economy too, for it would probably preclude the necessity for medical advice. Without disparagement to a profession which all intelligent men and women respect and honor, it is just as well, if possible, to keep out of the doctors' hands, and there would have comparatively few cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia, billiousness, nervousness and general debility to attend to, if this agreeable and healthful specific were in universal use.

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a tolerably bad case of disease of the lungs to perfect health. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid taking cold; and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as in more northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterman. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but, who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

One hundred miles farther down the river is a place which I would prefer for this purpose, in winter, if a home is more even, and the air dry and bracing. Mellonville and Enterprise are located there, should give a decided preference to Mellonville: it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The sea-air in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times; but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Illicoma, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My friend Dr. Crane, of Jacksonville, Florida, has liberal to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature; and it is not necessary to say, that, should give a decided preference to Mellonville: it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The sea-air in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times; but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Communication.

ANNEXATION.—Messrs. Editors:—The article in your paper relating to the proposed annexation of Newcastle to Portsmouth was prompted by no sinister motive, we hope, but a sad misunderstanding of the facts in the case. For instance, your correspondent appears to be annoyed by the fact that a few gentlemen were invited, by the courtesy of one of the leading bank presidents of this city, to sit a few minutes in the bank parlor and talk the subject over in a social way; and we can assure your correspondent that the "call" to which he refers was not "in the meal," as the meeting was composed of prominent gentlemen of both political parties and the movement is in no sense a political one; and the bank does not "hold the debt of Newcastle." Neither are their "school houses wretched, their streets execrable, and everything dilapidated," as he says. On the contrary, Newcastle has two large school houses, nearly new, furnished last summer after the exact pattern of Portsmouth school houses and fully equal to hers, so that she will probably need no expense there for a long time. Her roads, like Portsmouth streets, are not "execrable," though naturally at this season of the year quite muddy, but will compare favorably with many of the streets in Portsmouth.

But the most absurd of all his statements is his reference to the general "dilapidation" which exists there. To this we simply say, that we challenge him to find a population of 800, within 100 miles of "Strawberry Bank," which taken together are more temperate, industrious, frugal, virtuous and honest, who own a larger proportion of the property they occupy, than the people of Newcastle; so that the most refined of our citizens need not fear any harm from this source.

Again he says, we shall have to build them a Ward Room, and speaks of a "fire engine, &c.; so far as the Ward Room is concerned, we are informed they already have a nice ball which would be used for this purpose, so that charge is dead; as to the engine, we can only say they have lived (the present and past generations) 200 years without one, and could live longer. But even in case of fire the engine company's from the centre of Portsmouth could get there as soon as to other portions of the city, and as the ladies of Newcastle are very handsome, and the firemen as a class are young men, we believe the latter would not object to going there when needed.

The other item in the bill of objections reminds us of the country storekeeper, who charged one of his customers at the bottom of his bill with $10 for sundries; and when called upon to explain said it was to cover what he might have forgotten. We presume your correspondent used his item for the same purpose. The fact that the bridges cost only $7,500, and that for the past five years it has cost but $600 on an average for expenses of running them, takes much of the terrible look from the face of the bridge bugbear.

His conclusion is, that Portsmouth or "Strawberry Bank" is to "drift to sea;" and this is a serious matter indeed. But on examination of the rocks and ledges which underlie and surround her, and our failure to discover any evidence of immediate dissolution or removal, we conclude that this objection like the others exists only in imagination, and that the chances are very favorable for this section of the country to remain as it has for the past eighteen centuries.

The truth is, Messrs. Editors, your correspondent is not opposed to annexation, but has simply written the article referred to, to draw out the facts, and we wish we had at this moment some statistics, which can be easily obtained, to prove that the annexation of Newcastle would be the most judicious step Portsmouth could take. If Boston, with all her wealth, territory and population is laboring so hard and spending so much money to annex all the cities and towns around her, without gaining an inch of harbor facilities or water front, it does seem that Newcastle, with her splendid harbor, her unequalled locations for summer hotels and summer residences, with a large amount of U. S. property within her limits, including (what is to be one of the most important forts on the coast) with capital and enterprise waiting to take the fields and develop her resources, and other considerations which we have neither time nor space to notice here, should be sufficient argument to induce every business man and mechanic to labor for this enterprise, for it is very evident that Portsmouth must reap the benefit. Her banks would get the deposits, her mechanics, laborers and sailors get employment, and all feel the effect of the change which would inevitably take place. We have "no axe to grind" in this matter, nor any interest beyond that of a citizen. But we must confess that after looking this matter carefully over we are decidedly in favor of annexation upon public grounds, and believe it will be the starting point in a series of enterprises which will result in restoring the glory of this ancient and honorable city and bringing back her former prestige as a sea port; and we hope that no such trivial objection as the debt of Newcastle, which in reality is only $2 per head on our present population, will be allowed to stand in the way of this important movement.

A CITIZEN.

CITY MATTERS.—The city debt was reduced $4719.11 last year. Net debt Dec. 31, 1870, $176,051.21. The gross debt was $261,103.93, uncollected taxes from 1856 to 1870, inclusive, and assignments of government bounties, being counted among the assets. Collector Shannon reports the sum of $27,427.98 on deposit and on hand. The sum of $5371.59 of the city debt was paid during the year. Excess of expenditures over appropriations, $693.06.

The estimated net income from the City Farm was $4964.45. Cost of supporting the poor, $13,568.65.

Six hundred and fifteen persons were lodged in the Station House during the year; $781.43 were collected from fines and $243 for dog licenses.

Chief Engineer Stephen L. Marston recommends the sale or exchange of S. F. Engine No. 1 for a Manchester machine, because No. 1 is too heavy to haul rapidly, cannot be relied on and breaks down when in use. The machine was built at Roxbury by Campbell & Whittier. Mr. Marston also recommends larger supply pipes for the reservoirs.

Street Commissioner Ham reports about 1200 feet of sidewalk laid; a larger amount than usual. The cost to the city was $2045.23.

The expenditures for Schools were $19,172.13, of which $16,802.76 were for salaries. There are 87 scholars in the Boys' and 90 in Girls' High Schools. Whole number of scholars attending school during 1870, 2078; number attending Dec. 31st, 1524; average attendance 1416—boys 1064; girls 1014.

CITY COUNCIL, MARCH 2.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, the Mayor being absent, Aldermen Fernald was chosen Chairman.

The City Clerk presented to the Board a copy of Weston's Map of Manchester, forwarded by the City Clerk of Manchester in accordance with instructions of the Manchester City Council, "with the friendly greetings of Manchester."

A vote of thanks for the elegant gift was passed, with "wishes for the continuation of friendly relations between the two cities."

Henry Wallade and Charles Roberts, Bank Watchmen, and Levi Moulton, at the Plains, were appointed special Police, without pay.

A warrant was received from County Treasurer Lougee for the County tax, for the ensuing year — $24,286.82. This is an increase of $2464.77 over last year.

Petition of J. D. Pillow and others to change the name of Penn Street to Rockingham Street was referred to the Committee on Streets.

The Mayor was authorized to advertise for propositions to deliver stone at such places as may be named—proposals to be received by March 20th.

—Our citizens and others in favor of the Dover & Portsmouth R. R., and the New Jail, are getting impatient in seeing nothing done towards them. We are informed by those having the matters in charge that everything is being done that can be for both projects, and that we shall soon hear from them.—Dover Local Record.

ON A COMPLETED ROAD,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway.

The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mortgage issue dealt in at the Stock Exchange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis; for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 9½ per cent. interest, instead of 5 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving a margin in gain of about 20 per cent. in price for re-investment.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. f24WaS

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Root and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cause it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. 1yrdawfeb16

SAFE AND PROFITABLE.

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO

OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.

SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!

JAY COOKE & CO.,

Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the

FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS

—OF THE—

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres for Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at THE PAR PRINT. PREMIUM (or 110,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacific, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eodSmdaSmw8s6

WHAT AN OLD BOAT DID.

Effie lay still, wide awake, and thinking pretty seriously. She knew very well from the motion of the vessel that the sea must be quite rough; and then she thought of poor Everard, hunting for her over the stormy waters, "perhaps in a miserable little boat like mine," and at that thought she began to be almost as anxious for him as he had been for her. Then she remembered how unkindly she had treated him that morning, and how disappointed he had looked as he turned to go away. And then what a musical voice he had, and how eloquently he had pleaded!

"Poor Everard! I almost wish I had never met with Major Gordon."

But then she called to mind how gallantly the Major had acted to her as he helped her out of the boat, and how much interest he had taken in her, and how glad he had seemed at the opportunity of serving her, and she felt for a moment—giddy little coquette that she was—almost as if she was already mistress of the cabin in which she was lying. The air of the cabin was close, however, and Effie began to feel certain unpleasant and most unromantic effects from the pitching and rolling motion. In fact, she began to fear that she should be seasick.

"Dear Mrs. Anderson, do let us go on deck awhile! I'm not in the least afraid."

"Very well, my dear, if you are not too tired. There is nothing but a strong wind, and the night is a beautiful one."

On deck they went, and the first fresh air made Effie feel better. They could not see many persons, for several of the passengers had gone to bed; but one little group near the wheel attracted Effie's attention at once, and as she grasped her friend's arm and clung more closely to her—for security, of course—she whispered:—

"Why, Mrs. Anderson, he has got his arm around her!"

"Oh, that's just to keep her from falling overboard, I suppose; and then, you know, they have been engaged so long that it does not make much difference."

It was well for Effie that there was not light enough to show the heightened color of her face; for, surely enough, Major Gordon's arm was around Miss Van Zandt, and she had certainly not known that they were engaged.

Whether vexation is calculated to aggravate mal de mer is not stated in the books, but certainly Effie began to feel sickish again, and before long begged to be taken below once more.

This time she went to bed at once and lay there having a quiet cry, and brooding over the tumbling ruins of her castles in the air. Visions, too, of Everard Fiske turning sadly away from her at the rock, or about in his boat on his fruitless search after her, intruded themselves more and more pertinaciously upon her mind. The seasickness, although not severe, was quite enough to make her thoroughly miserable.

The wind was not favorable, and it was broad day before the yacht was able to tack into the little harbor of Coldhaven, and land its rather weary cargo of pleasure-seekers on shore.

There had been no danger, but a good deal of discomfort, and several of the ladies declared, very earnestly, that they would never do such a thing again.

Effie went on shore, looking very pale and "blue," in the same boat-load with Major Gordon and Miss Van Zandt, and it did not amuse her in the least to see how well and cheerful they looked. She had kept her fears about Everard to herself while on board the yacht, but when they arrived at the hotel, and she found herself the centre of a rejoicing, questioning and half weeping crowd of friends, who looked upon her almost as one returned from the dead, she restrained herself no longer, and her first inquiry was after her rejected lover.

"Why, did he not come back in the yacht?"

"No, indeed, we have seen nothing of him at all."

"Oh, dear me! and his poor mother has been half distracted all night about him. He must be lost. What shall we say to his mother?"

They were saved the trouble, for just then the little crowd opened, and Mrs. Fiske—a good and noble-looking old lady, whose dark eyes and trembling lips told only too mournful a story of her anxiety—came forward, exclaiming:—

"Oh, Effie, where is Everard?"

What sudden revelation of herself to herself had been going on in Effie's heart during that brief minute it would be difficult to say, but certain it is that in reply she only burst into a flood of tears, and throwing her arms around the neck of Mrs. Fiske, exclaimed:—

"O, mother! mother! I don't know! I don't know!"

There were a few surprised glances exchanged among the ladies, but the unexpected revelation of Effie's heart only added enormously to the tragic interest of the occasion; and as there seemed little else to be done, a good many of them began to weep almost as bitterly as the mother and the heart-broken girl.

"Why," sobbed one fair sympathizer, "I never dreamed that they were engaged, and you know how Effie always treated him!"

Unfortunately this reached the ears of the repentant Effie.

"Yes, I know! It's all my fault—and now I shall never see him again!"

"Please, ma'am," here interrupted an almost breathless waitress, "there's a note for Mrs. Fiske, and one of the gentlemen thinks it's in Mr. Everard's handwriting."

It certainly was, but on opening it, after the first flush of joy was over, Mrs. Fiske's face became suddenly grave.

"Effie, dear, will you come with me to my room?"

Effie followed as if in a dream. She hardly knew what she had said or done, but at all events she wanted to know what was in the note. As soon as they were alone and the curious eyes of the company shut out, Mrs. Fiske handed it to her. Alas for Effie! it read thus:

"Dear Mother:—After a pretty stormy time of it, we got our boat safely ashore in Swan Creek, and I was hurrying back to save you from any anxiety, but from the head of the cove I saw the yacht was in, and by using my glass I found that Effie was safe. She will not care to see me, and I promised her not to be there this morning. Tell her I did my best, but that I am now almost sorry that I got to land again. I am going to Newport, but you can write or telegraph what you want to do. When I see you I will explain. The boy who delivers this will tell you about my trunks, and bring me any word from you. Your loving son, EVERARD."

"Now, Effie, can you tell me what all this means? I cannot understand it."

"It means—oh, I can't tell! I have been so bad! It means—oh, Mrs. Fiske, can't you send for him not to go?"

"I certainly will, if you say so, but Everard is a very willful fellow, and in this case he may not obey me."

Good Mrs. Fiske knew better than that, but the old lady had a sort of instinct that it would do no harm to keep Effie a little longer in an humble and penitent frame of mind.

A note was sent, containing a little more than an earnest, motherly appeal to her son that he should come to her at once, as she had immediate and pressing need of him. Like a dutiful son, as he was, he obeyed prompt, and as the head of the bay was not long distance from the cove where the hotel stood, it was but an hour or so—he chose the hour when the guests were likely to be at dinner—before the young man was folded in his mother's arms. The old lady had him all to herself for a moment, but quickly remembered that she must not be selfish even with an only son.

"What did you want me for, mother? It is better that I should go away for a while. Effie has at last told me to go."

"Oh, Everard," sobbed a broken voice from a curtained window-seat near him. "I didn't tell you any such thing, and you didn't wait for an answer!"

Everard's color went and came as he advanced towards the speaker. Effie had risen, and her face was a perfect April of blushes, smiles and tears.

"Well, Effie, can you answer me now, and once for all? Shall I go, or stay?"

Effie buried her face in the old lady's bosom, as she faintly replied.

"Mother, what do I want you to stay?"

Mrs. Fiske had too much tact to remain in the little parlor any longer.

HOW FIGHTING JOE HOOKER BECAME A BRIGADIER.—Donn Piatt writes to the Cincinnati Commercial: I heard Mr. Lincoln tell how Hooker, at the breaking out of the war, hastened from California to Washington to tender his services. His California life had been a hard one, and he approached Mr. Lincoln with its marks upon him. The President turned him over to McClellan. The young Napoleon was magnificent among his staff of princes and rich men's poodles, and the seedy, red-faced soldier was snubbed. There really was no vacancy. Not discouraged, he again sought Lincoln, to be again sent to McClellan. The last time he begged for employment, he said:

"Mr. President, there is no use sending me to Gen. McClellan. I have tried that twice. Unless you can give me employment I must give it up. I believe I know as much about this killing business as any one, and I know, moreover, that I am willing to do what they will not do, and that is fight." This did not move old Abe, and he again asserted that he could not interfere with McClellan. As Joe turned away, however, the President said that he saw his eyes filled with tears, and calling him back, he said that he would for once interfere, and so commissioned him Brigadier-General. I suspect that the tears seen on that occasion came more from weak eyes than a broken heart, for old Joe was not much of a weeping-willow, and was more likely to give old Abe some language more powerful than polite, than to sob over him. But this was the story told by his excellency as a historical fact, and not a joke.

ROGUES FALLING OUT.—Mamma—"What is baby crying for, Maggie?"

Maggie—"I don't know."

Mamma—"And what are you looking so indignant about?"

Maggie—"That nasty, greedy dog's been and took and eaten my 'pungetake!"

Mamma—"Why, I saw you eating a sponge-cake a minute ago!"

Maggie—"O, that was baby's!"—Punch.

—A school-girl in Fernandina, Fla., a few nights ago, turned down the wick of her kerosene lamp, and as it continued to smoke, she placed a book on the top of the chimney. In a moment a fearful explosion took place, which set fire to her dress, to the curtains, and to the adjacent wood-work, and she was fatally burned, dying the next morning.

—It's as true of advertising as of anything else in this world—if it is worth doing at all, it is worth doing well.

—The astronomical Spring will begin on the 20th of March.

MUSTY OATS.—A South Carolina correspondent, after reporting the loss of a horse, supposed to result from eating musty oats, says:—"I am certain more horses die in the South from eating damaged oats than from all other causes. As the oats are cut rather green, and often with many green weeds among them, it is very difficult to keep them from moulding more or less in the centre. Many animals die from this cause, which are supposed to have had blind staggers, as in the case of mine. Another horse died recently near me in the same way, after being fed on oats mostly sound, but some of the bundles musty in the middle."—Md. Farmer.

LADIES.

IN MANY AFFECTIONS PECULIAR TO LADIES, THE EXTRACT BUCHU IS UNEQUALLED BY ANY OTHER REMEDY,—AS IN CHLOROSIS OR RETENTION, IRREGULARITY, PAINFULNESS OR SUPPRESSION OF CUSTOMARY EVACUATIONS, ULCERATED OR SCHIRRUS STATE OF THE UTERUS, LEUCORRHŒA OR WHITES, STERILITY, AND FOR ALL COMPLAINTS INCIDENT TO THE SEX, WHETHER ARISING FROM INDISCRETION OR HABITS OF DISSIPATION. IT IS PRESCRIBED EXTENSIVELY BY THE MOST EMINENT PHYSICIANS AND MIDWIVES FOR ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS, OF BOTH SEXES AND ALL AGES (ATTENDED WITH ANY OF THE ABOVE DISEASES OR SYMPTOMS.)

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c., In all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of CUTANEOUS AFFECTION. It speedily eradicates PIMPLES, SPOTS, SCORBUTIC DRYNESS, INDURATIONS of the CUTANEOUS MEMBRANE, etc., dispels REDNESS and INCIPIENT INFLAMMATION, HIVES, RASH, MOTH PATCHES, DRYNESS OF SCALP OR SKIN, FROST BITES, and all purposes for which SALVES or OINTMENTS are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation; used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

MONDAY, MARCH 6, 1871.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

The Nashua Telegraph says the signs of the times point to an old-fashioned Republican victory in Hillsborough County.

Senator Patterson has arrived home from Washington and will speak until election.

A Concord correspondent of the Boston Advertiser claims a Republican majority of 2000 for Governor. He says "with Rev. James Pike for governor, and Hon. Wm. B. Small, General Aaron F. Stevens and General Simon G. Griffin in Congress, New Hampshire will have reason to be proud of the character of her leading political men, and will continue to hold her honored position in the ranks of the loyal States."

DEMOCRATIC.—The duty on coal is retained through the instrumentality of Senator Vickers, (Democrat) of Maryland, who, by threatening to talk against time, prevented a vote on the bill to repeal it.

THE FORTY FIRST CONGRESS expired at noon on the 4th inst. In the Senate a report was made exonerating Senator Sprague of complicity in the alleged cotton frauds in Texas.

The bill for the abolition of the office of Admiral in the Navy failed in the Senate.

All the appropriation bills passed both Houses.

The conference committee report on the naval appropriation bill provides that staff officers shall have the relative rank of line officers, instead of rank with line officers. The executive officers' clause is not essentially changed.

Mr. Cragin explained that the secretary of the navy was authorized by the bill to detail line officers to act as aids or executives of commanding officers, who, when not impracticable, shall be next in rank to the commanding officer and when executing orders of the commanding officer shall take precedence over all officers on board the ship or at the naval station, and orders from whom are to be regarded as proceeding from the commanding officer; staff officers to take the precedent of line officers, with whom they have relative rank, according to the length of service in the army, in the reckoning of which six years are to be allowed staff officers to compensate for the time of line officers spent at the naval academy.

Senator Trumbull endeavored to get the House bill abolishing the duty on coal through the Senate, but the Senators from Pennsylvania, Maryland and West Virginia showed their determination to talk it to death, and it was abandoned.

The House defeated the bill increasing pensions 20 per cent.

Messrs. Logan, Cox and Sargent had a running debate on red stone and corruption.

☞ The recent criticisms of the N. Y. Tribune on the artistic abilities of Miss Vinnie Ream have brought out the statement that Whitelaw Reid, the managing editor of that paper, is a rejected suitor for the hand of the ambitious sculptress. Mr. Reid says it is just possible that such is the case, but he doesn't remember it, and he never saw Miss Ream but once, and then through an opera-glass, at a distance of two or three hundred feet. It is no wonder that he cannot say positive that he offered to marry her. For a good-natured bachelor and hard-working editor, he is the oftenest married, rejected, or about to be married, rejected or divorced, of any we know. The papers have engaged him two or three times to ladies whom he had seen, but hadn't fully determined to marry; and in one instance to a lady who never existed, and probably never will exist, the sister of an only child, whose mother is a widow on the shady side of fifty. If the entertainment keeps on in this way much longer it would be well for him to go to Salt Lake City and adopt the religion of the Mormons. He could then open his heart to all comers, and if he was as entertaining in marrying as he is in managing a newspaper he could furnish material for a matrimonial notice every week or two.

THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY have secured the passage of their bill through Congress, and it has been signed by the President. John C. Fremont heads the list of incorporators. The line extends from Marshall, Texas, to San Diego, California. Provision is also made for a connection eastward with New Orleans, and westward with San Francisco.

Our Correspondence.

KITTERY, ME., March 4.

Messrs. Editors: Rev. James DeNormandie of your city delivered his popular lecture on "The Sea" before the Citizens Lyceum at Armory Hall, on Wednesday evening, 22d ult., to one of the best audiences of the season. The lecture was very interesting and instructive.

Rev. Geo. W. Bicknell will deliver the next lecture of the course on Monday evening, March 6; subject "Enthusiasm."

The Ladies' Benevolent Society gave interesting entertainments at their vestry on Thursday and Saturday evenings of last week; by which their treasury was replenished to the extent of $50; and Mr. M. V. B. Stimson became the owner of a handsome patchwork quilt, and Miss Nellie Lewis of a loaf of cake.

The M. E. Society gave a fair at their spacious vestry on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. Pecuniarily the fair is reported a success.

The Kittery Educational Society is a new institution in this place. Among other benefits anticipated from the efforts of this society is the establishment of a public Reading Room in this village, which will prove a source of much good. The society hold weekly meetings at the school-house in this district, and they are said to be very interesting. Success to all such enterprises.

There appears to be a little fluttering among the dealers in "ardent" in Kittery since the appointment of Deputy Sheriff Philbrick, who will very quietly yet effectually discharge the duties incumbent upon the position he holds, and put a stop to all flagrant violations of law and order, and in particular will enforce the law against dram shops and tippling houses, in which he will have the full sympathy of good citizens everywhere.

The members of the G. A. R. closed a very successful course of social dances on Friday night, March 3d, at Armory Hall. These dances have been productive of much innocent amusement the past winter, and have of course been well conducted. But the weather is getting too warm for "hops" now.

☞ The Littleton Republic arises and goes after its brethren in the following cheerful style:—

At last, thanks to the powers above (for it must be a special Providence, rather than any merit in the "Democratic party,") there is a live white man in the Senate! Gen. F. P. Blair has grappled with the Mongrel demon, and mumbo-jumboism trembles to the Texan border, with dread of the coming retribution. Even the half dead and alive ginger bread Democrats of the House wake up with the roaring of the Missouri lion, and promise to become of some use to the world hereafter.

☞ The Manchester Union is responsible for the following items. No one else has the news:

New Hampshire is a Democratic State.

If Elder Pike is elected at all, it will be by bribery.

Sinclair was honestly elected Governor in 1868.

Can intelligent people believe such nonsense? But we need not ask that question, for such statements are not intended for intelligent people, but for the most ignorant class of democratic voters, many of whom religiously believe all the absurd mis-statements and wilful perversions of truth in their party papers — apparently not being aware that Old Cloven Foot long ago withdrew his claim to the title of "Father of Lies" in favor of copperhead editors generally, being convinced that he had no longer any right to it.

THE NATIONAL DEBT is being reduced every month. The maximum War Debt, July 31, 1865, was $2,755,995,275; annual interest $151,832,051. At the close of Johnson's administration, March, 1869, the total debt was $2,491,399,904, annual interest, $126,389,550. On the 1st of this month, the debt had been reduced to $2,283,145,431, and the annual interest to $114,852,089. The gold in the Treasury amounts to $103,174,209; currency, $20,854,605.63. Total Treasury circulation July 31, 1865, $721,950,796; March 1, 1869, $499,140,644; March 1, 1871, $484,830,546. Total funded debt, $1,922,343,700.

☞ Walter Brown, the champion oarsman, died at the residence of his mother at Newburg, N. Y., Friday noon, at the age of 28 years. At the destruction of his boat house at Boston some weeks since, he over-exerted himself, and took a severe cold, from the effects of which he never recovered. He was under medical treatment for some time, the physicians pronouncing his ailment to be Bright's disease. Failing to receive any benefit, he went to Newburg, but continued to grow worse until his sufferings were relieved by death. His disease is said to have been enlargement of the spleen. He leaves a wife in Portland, Me.

PARIS has been evacuated by the Germans, the terms of peace being arranged.

New Hampshire Items.

A pauper, named James Eaton, clandestinely left the Rockingham County Farm a few days ago, and traveled on foot to Seabrook, twelve miles, with no covering to his feet. He is now at the hotel at Seabrook, with his feet in a shocking condition, they having been badly frozen during his foolish tramp.

Brevities.

South Carolina is to fund its debt.

Gov. Clayton of Arkansas will have his impeachment trial March 11th.

The Nebraska House of Representatives has passed a resolution impeaching Gov. Butler for misappropriating public funds—31 to 6.

Senator Revels will probably be re-elected from Mississippi, as Gov. Alcorn has resigned the seat to which he was elected.

The Arizona Indians are active—in the scalping line.

JUST HOW IT IS.—The new naval rank bill which has passed Congress gives the staff what they did not ask for and does not give them what they did ask for. That is called compromise, in Washington.

☞ The U. S. Frigate California has again received sailing orders to proceed to San Francisco without touching at any port, and will probably start within ten days.

☞ The steamers Newport & Old Colony, forming the line to Boston, via Newport and Fall River, will leave New York at 5 P. M. until further notice, instead of 4 P. M. as heretofore.

There was a little girl,
And she had a little curl
That hung right down on her forehead,
And when she was good
She was very good, indeed,
But when she was bad she was horrid.

☞ Job Printing done at this office.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

IN WET WEATHER the peg in a boot will swell, in dry weather they shrink;—this renders the boot liable to rip or gape. The ingenious CABLE SCREW WIRE fastening obviates these difficulties, besides furnishing a more durable, economical, dryer and better fitting boot. Ask any dealer for the CABLE SCREW WIRE BOOTS AND SHOES.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

An Insalubrious Season.

Spring is welcome, but not its diseases. We should be glad to have its bloom without its fogs, its vapors, its sudden changes of temperature, and the agues, fits of indigestion, bilious attacks, and other harassing disorders which they engender. As this cannot be, it behooves all sensible people to do the best they can to escape such serious drawbacks on the poetry of the season. Ask any physician what the weak and delicate ought to do when miasma infects the air. The answer will be "tone and regulate the system." But how? That is the important question. A dozen medical men would probably recommend as many different medicines. On the other hand, the thousands who have tested the virtues of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS as an invigorant and alterative, will recommend but one, the wholesome preventive and restorative in which their own experience has taught them to trust. A course of this rare vegetable stimulant, commenced now, would save many a pang to the feeble and debilitated. It would be wise economy too, for it would probably preclude the necessity for medical advice. Without disparagement to a profession which all intelligent men and women respect and honor, it is just as well, if possible, to keep out of the doctors' hands, and there would have comparatively few cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia, biliousness, nervousness and general debility to attend to, if this agreeable and healthful specific were in universal use.

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

"Against what?" asks the reader. Why, against the POISONS, vile, maddening and deadly, advertised as "superior to all Hair Dyes." But, on second thoughts, the call "to arms!" is unnecessary. The wretched trash is already being driven out of the market. It has received the coup de grace from

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The popularity of this time-tried article increases every four. Everybody is talking of the "natural shades" it imparts, and there is no conceivable reason why it should not be used, being (as Professor CHILTON states in his certificate) PERFECTLY HARMLESS. As a dressing after dyeing, use 1mdawfeb27

PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF HAMLET'S SOLILOQUY.

To insure or not to insure? That is the question.
Whether 'twill be nobler for my family to suffer
The stings and arrows of outrageous fortune
Or take a policy against those dangers,
And, by insuring, end them? To trust, to fear,
Perchance, and by a policy to end
The heartache and the thousand natural shocks
That flesh is heir to. Yes, my application's
Devoutly to be wished; apply, insure,
And pay the premium: ay—there's the rub
For in that time what premiums may come!
Before I shuffle off this mortal coil,
Does make me pause, tightens my purse,
And makes me rather pay the bills I have
Than fly to others I know not of.
Thus does meanness make brutes of us all.

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a tolerably bad case of diseased lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important point is for the patient to avoid taking cold; and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as in more northern latitudes. Perhaps it is a point I can recommend to a good hotel is kept there by Peterman. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

Ten hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more equable, and there is no malaria. Mellonville and Enterprise are located in it. I should give a decided preference to Mellonville: it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times that that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the disease is cured.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My reasons for saying so are, that patients are less liable to take cold there than in any place I know of even temperature; and it is not necessary to say, that, where a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds, he is certain to die shortly: therefore my advice is, go well down into the State, out of the way of the biting east winds and fogs. Mellonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat, or cough; but, for those whose lungs are diseased, a more southern point is usually recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1859, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a week. A great deal of this was, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take vast quantities of "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well-established fact, that nearly one-third of all deaths of consumption, especially those of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England one-third of the population of this territory die of this disease. In the Middle States, it does not prevail so largely; still there are many thousands of cases of them. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh colds as they are about scarlet fever, small-pox, &c.! but they are not: they take what they term a little cold, which they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and more severe still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to buy a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and, if I know myself, I can commend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action. I first test, when they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, I instruct all the patients of the physician who prescribes for cold, cough, or night sweats, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, "lest we have to have a corpse on his hands before long."

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where a freer use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary. My object is, to give tone to the stomach,—to get up a good appetite. It is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry. I have hopes of such. With a relish for food, and the gratification of that relish, comes good blood, and with it more flesh, which is closely followed by a healing of the lungs,—then the cough loosens and shakes, the creepy chills and clammy night sweats no longer prostrate and annoy, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease, if taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The fact stands undisputed on record, that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of what seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption. Go where you will, you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand, and act on the liver better than calomel, and leave none of its hurtful effects behind. In fact, they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have partaken too freely of fruit, and diarrhœa ensues, a dose of the Mandrakes will cure you. If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of the Mandrakes, and they will relieve you in two hours. If you would obviate the effect of a change of water, or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night, and you may throw back and cut water-melons, pears, apples, plums, peaches, or corn, without the risk of being made sick by them. They will keep the liver active in damp situations against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 A.M., to 3 P.M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily see for themselves they are curable or not. But I desire it distinctly understood, that I cannot cure all, or even a large proportion, although they may be benefited by taking strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they will be liable to take cold, and get up a fever with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, explicit and plain, so that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

New Advertisements to-day.

Garden Seeds, &c.—Mason & Scavey.

☞ The work of remodeling a portion of the Franklin House has commenced.

☞ U. S. Steamer Monongahela was put into the dry dock at the Navy Yard on Saturday.

☞ The Exeter News Letter recommends bear meat for Portsmouth people. We would recommend a diet of pork for our Exeter neighbors, if they can eat of their kind.

☞ When one of the "compos" of a newspaper establishment of this city asked "Who is this Bret Harte—a Chinaman?" our "devil" thought the "compos" deserved the prefix of "non."

☞ Fine watches and jewelry are advertised for sale at reduced prices, at Hutchinson's, the proprietor preferring to sell his stock cheap rather than to store it while his place of business is being remodelled.

☞ The bombardment heard daily at the southwest part of the city, is the blasting of rocks on the extension of Union Street, near South; and also on the opposite side of South Street, near the proposed extension of Wibird St., where Mr. Wm. Y. Evans is to build a new house. Several more lots on the new streets named, were sold last week, and the prospect is fair for considerable building this season.

☞ The astronomical Spring does not commence until the 20th of March, but common people, who are anxious to hail any kind of a Spring that will bring green grass and bright skies, commence theirs on the 1st. This year the clerk of the weather seems inclined to respect popular prejudice, and though he gave us a taste of March bluster on the morning of the first day of this month, he has since then given us some weather that would not badly disgrace May. The frost is leaving the surface of the ground, and skating and sleighing are known only by tradition; but there are doubtless yet left a few more days of the same sort as we had in January, and we may hope for cold noses and ears once more before straw hats come in vogue. Saturday brought a raw east wind, with promise of rain; but Sunday was a bright, mild day.

☞ There was a Masquerade at Congress Hall, Friday evening, which though a very well conducted affair of the kind was not a great success financially, only a moderate number of masqueraders attending, but a very fair crowd of spectators. [It wasn't advertised through a proper medium to attract the attention of the public, who were generally ignorant that such an affair was to come off.] The costumes generally were merely disguises, there being few attempts to represent characters. The most noticeable feature in dress was the attempt of some democratic wit!—heaven save the mark!—to be funny at the expense of Col. George Marston of Sandown. It was a dead failure, as democratic attempts at wit usually are. Another personage who attracted some attention was a dead man come back to earth to vote—probably some chap who has practised the game of post mortem voting in Ward Three until it has become a confirmed habit with him, as it has with so many other copperhead voters in that ward. There was a strong taint of the "two cent copper kettle" in the whole affair.

☞ Osgood Lodge, I. O. of O. F., closed its series of lectures and entertainments on Thursday evening last, at their Hall on Daniel Street. The closing lecture was given by Dr. N. B. Coleman, and although prevented by press of business from arranging his ideas in the manner he desired, it was well received as a scholarly production. He selected for his subject "Science," in its general relations, and particularly in its connection with the education of the young; the point of his discourse being the necessity of a national system of education as essential to the perpetuity of a republican form of government. Dr. C. is a vigorous writer and sound thinker, and evinces ability that will enable him to take rank with any of our local "stars."

The members of Osgood Lodge deserve praise for the commendable enterprise which they have displayed in endeavoring to get out of the ruts of fogyism and keep pace with the age, by inaugurating and successfully conducting this course of literary entertainments. Had they given more attention to the matter of informing the public of their doings in this direction, they would doubtless have secured a much larger attendance, and as a result more good would have been accomplished. But this may be attributed to a lack of experience in such matters, which time will readily correct.

☞ Newcastle town election to-morrow.

☞ Whitmore & Clark's Minstrels are coming March 17th.

☞ We are glad to hear that B. F. Shillaberio to take the lecture field again.

☞ Gen. Neal Dow will speak at the Temple to the Prohibitionists this evening.

☞ If a copperhead editor gets pay for but one third of the 174 Dailies he prints, how long will it take him to pay his board bill?

NAVAL.—Carpenter Joseph E. Cox has been ordered to this navy yard, and Carpenter Wm. M. Laighton has been detached and placed on waiting orders.

☞ Prof. Bidwell of Cambridge, Mass., will lecture in the Methodist Church on Wednesday evening. His previous lecture was so well received that he will have a crowded house.

☞ The house on Deer Street, formerly owned by the late Miss Harriet Brewster, was broken into one night recently, and a number of articles stolen; among them some brass andirons, several candlesticks, &c. The thieves got no great plunder, but have escaped safely (so far) with what they secured.

☞ Mate Edward E. Bradbury, U. S. N., has been promoted to be Master. Mr. Bradbury has a first class war record, having been in many battles and lost an arm in the service, besides being wounded in the side and having his remaining hand maimed; he well deserves his advancement. He is stationed at this Navy Yard.

☞ Among the improvements going on at the West End, we understand that Mr. Miller has laid out another new street called Hawthorn Street, extending from the present termination of Wibird Street, easterly across Union Street, to Willow Lane. Lots for building have been sold on Wibird and Hawthorn Streets, to Messrs. Oxford & Johnston and others.

☞ As the 4:45 P. M. train from Boston on the Eastern Railroad was entering the Lynn depot on Saturday, a horse harnessed to a cart laden with a stick of timber balked while on the track. The driver jumped off and escaped, but the horse was killed, and will not balk any more. An immense crowd gathered around the cars and swarmed over the platforms, and it took all the energy of Conductor West to clear his train.—A boy about 5 years old was killed at one of the crossings in Lynn by a late Salem train, Friday evening.

☞ On Sunday morning, Rev. Wm. H. Alden of the Middle Street Baptist Church preached his third Anniversary Sermon from the text: Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years, I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears—Acts 20: 31,—and closed his discourse by saying the circumstances that led to his settlement here and the events that have transpired since, are so pleasant that he was glad to review them; and that the letter from the Committee inviting him to spend his first Sabbath with this people, was so humbly worded—the imperfections of the Church made so openly, that he felt a desire at once to visit them. When the letter of invitation came to become their pastor, he said he quite readily accepted, and he could say at the close of the three years he never regretted his choice.

After the benediction had been pronounced, the pastor stated that he had just received a note requesting the congregation to be seated, when Hon. Horton D. Walker stepped upon the platform and in behalf of the Society surprised Mr. Alden with a congratulatory address, and a purse of $300. Mr. A. in replying, said he was not surprised, for there had been scarcely a week but what this people had by some token sealed their friendship, and he was convinced that he dwelt in the hearts of his hearers. Thus the forenoon services were made very interesting, and showed the Parish to be a prosperous one, and the relationship between the pastor and his people all that could be desired.

FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

ON A COMPLETED ROAD,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway.

The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mortgage issue dealt in at the Stock Exchange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis; for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obliging the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 9½ per cent. interest, instead of 6 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for re-investment.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. f24dWeS

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. 1yrdawfeb9

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO

OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40 000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.

SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!

JAY COOKE & CO.,

Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS

—OF THE—

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on the entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold; the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute security, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacifics, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eod3mdaSmwfe8d

[From the New York Independent.]

SOME QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

To the Commercial Editor of the Independent: Having a few thousand dollars that I shall not need in my business, and being naturally desirous of obtaining an investment which will produce the greatest income consistent with entire safety, I beg to ask you the following questions, which I shall be glad to have you answer, either privately or through the columns of THE INDEPENDENT.

1. Do you think that, as a rule, first mortgage railroad bonds are a desirable investment? In what do they differ from a first mortgage on ordinary real estate?

2. I notice you recommend Northern Pacific seven-thirties to investors. Why do you regard them as unusually secure?

3. Is the Government pledged to the payment of these Northern Pacific bonds?

4. I notice they are selling at par. Isn't this too high? Cannot good railroad securities be bought cheaper?

5. I hold a few five-twenties; do you believe the Government will soon call for their surrender?

6. What assurance have investors that Northern Pacific seven-thirties will not hereafter depreciate below the price at which they are now sold, compelling those who wish to realize on them to do so at a loss?

To the above the Independent answers:

I. Thus far the first mortgage bonds of American railways have proved to be among the very safest securities. In proportion to amount, they have probably shown a smaller percentage of loss in interest and principal than any other investment that has been accessible to the people. Such has been the history of railway securities. Of course there have been exceptional cases of mismanagement and loss; but far oftener have imperfect titles, lapsed insurance policies, and shrinkages of value rendered real estate mortgages a bad investment. There is a living principle underlying a railway bond, which applies to very few if any other securities. Thus:

1. Usually the solvency of a railroad depends mainly upon its traffic; and, as a rule, that traffic steadily increases as the road grows older and the population along its route becomes richer and denser. In a word, the income of a railroad (and hence its debt-paying ability) will ordinarily keep pace with the growth of population.

2. A railroad, once built, rapidly creates a business which is to render it profitable. It developes a carrying trade which did not before exist, and which grows much faster than the tributary population increases in numbers.

3. A railroad usually has back of it a strong corporation of capitalists and shrewd, energetic business men, on whose profits, financial standing, commercial reputation, and official positions depend the solvency and success of the road with which they are identified. This powerful combination of private interests constitutes a living power whose efforts tend constantly to increase the profitableness and soundness of the enterprise in whose interest they are enlisted.

4. Finally, after a railroad is built, every dollar expended in making improvements and extensions, adding new facilities for doing business, and in securing valuable alliances with connecting lines, adds to the security of its first mortgage bonds, by augmenting the productiveness and value of the property on which those bonds are based. It is in this way that a second mortgage may increase the safety of the first. With mortgages which rest upon improved real estate in our midst the security steadily deteriorates with time, as the improvements become less valuable. Railroads grow better and more prosperous with age, and furnish a constantly increasing security for the debt created in their construction. It is for these reasons that first mortgage bonds are among the very soundest securities that can be had.

II. The Northern Pacific Railroad has a threefold solidity, which renders it financially impregnable. 1. It has for its broad and firm foundation a real estate endowment of more than Twenty-two Thousand Acres of fertile Land to each mile of track—or an unencumbered farm of 500 acres (in addition to the ordinary and ample security of the road and its traffic) to secure each $1,000 bond brought by the public. 2. It has awaiting it a business which we believe is certain to render it self-sustaining from the first, and to give it a large surplus at an early day. 3. It is in the hands of men of known and acknowledged integrity, whose financial standing, whose business sagacity and thorough experience, furnish a complete guaranty that economy, energy, and fidelity will characterize its management.

III. Government does not in form guaranty the payment of Northern Pacific seven-thirties; but it indirectly insures their payment by donating unreservedly to the company sufficient productive lands to pay them twice over. The belt of country in which this superb domain is situated admirably combines the three elements essential to successful farming—viz: a naturally rich soil, a mild climate (the latitude being about two degrees below Paris, and six below London,) and sufficient rainfall.

IV. When there is no difference in point of safety, the comparative market value of various securities is mainly determined by their profitableness. In this view Northern Pacific gold seven-thirties, selling at par in currency, are by far the cheapest investment of which we have knowledge. Regarded as a source of income, they are cheaper at par than a six per cent. gold bond at 82, and cheaper than a six per cent. currency bond at 74 1-2. In other words, one hundred dollars invested in Northern Pacifics at par will produce a larger income than the same amount invested in a six per cent. gold security at 82.

V. We regard it as highly probable that a large proportion of the present holders of Government bonds will be compelled to give them up within a comparatively short time, and accept therefrom payment or a new five per cent. bond. Everything now indicates that the Government will soon be able to fund the bulk of its five-twenties at a lower rate of interest. Hence, we have uniformly advised our subscribers to convert their Government bonds into some first-class railroad security, having equal safety and greater permanence and productiveness.

VI. Of course, all securities, even those of the United States, are liable to occasional slight fluctuations in current price—the result of outside circumstances, and not of any change in real value. But the same causes which now render Northern Pacific seven-thirties an exceptionally strong and desirable security will naturally sustain them in the market so that those who wish to convert their bonds into cash can do so at any time without loss. Indeed, with their superabundant security, their high rate of interest, and the provision that they will always be received at ten per cent. premium in payment for the Company's lands, 7-3-10 per cent. Northern Pacific Bonds are far more likely to go above par in price than to fall below.

The Catalogue will consist of 112 pages, and as soon as published will be sent free to all who ordered Seeds from us by mail the last season. To others a charge of 15 cents per copy will be made, which is not the value of the Colored Plates. We assure our friends that the inducements we offer to purchasers of Seeds, as to quality and extent of Stock, Beauty and Freshness are unsurpassed. Please send orders for Catalogues without delay.

Our Colored Chromo for 1871

Will be ready to send out in January. The Chromo will represent Forty-two Varieties of showy and popular Flowers of natural size and color. We design it to be the best plate of Flowers ever issued. Size 19x24 inches. The retail value would be at least Two Dollars! we shall, however, furnish it to our customers at 75 cents per copy, and offer it as a Premium upon orders for Seeds. See catalogue when out.

DONN PIATT ON MARK TWAIN.—Donn Piatt, who met Mark Twain at a dinner party in Washington City recently, thus sketches the well-known humorist:

This was my first meeting with Mark Twain. I had seen his portrait in The Galaxy, and it gave me an insane idea of the humorist. I recollect, when I was a boy, that the enterprising Monsieur Dorfuille, in his museum in Cincinnati, had the head of the murderer named Hoover, who had been very properly hanged, preserved in a jar of alcohol, and on exhibition. This woodcut of Mark Twain looked to me more like Hoover's head than anything else, and was entirely unlike the countenance that beamed in on us last night.

One would not pick Mark out from a crowd as a humorist; indeed, one would not venture to pick him out as a literary character at all. He looks more like a member of the Ohio Legislature (if you know what that is) than anything else. That is, a sort of a man who had arrrowly escaped being made County Commissioner, and so was returned to the Legislature. He is not only careless about his clothes, but he is positively ignorant on the subject, and labors under the impression that the garment that hangs so loosely upon his shoulders is a coat.

From under his bushy hair his fabe peers out, presenting a square, well-proportioned forehead, keen gray eyes, and hooked nose, a well developed mouth, exhibiting a good deal of decision, and a chin that rounds out, supporting the whole, in no part of which will you find a particle of the humor for which he is distinguished. His face, on the contrary, is a sad one, and when all are in roars about him he continues in a state of dense solemnity. His voice is the most extraordinary voice I ever heard. It is a cross between Horace Greeley and Tim Lincoln. He drawls his words out in the most préposterous manner, that gives a drollery to what he says utterly beyond description.

It is quite impossible for him to produce in his conversation a serious effect. The exceeding droll quaintness of his solemn countenance, added to the drawl of his voice, makes one laugh when the speaker is really trying to be serious. For example: I had said to him that a contract to be funny at regular intervals struck me as rather heavy, and he replied by saying that was so; while he might be sufficiently entertaining to raise a laugh when left to himself, it became dreary stuff when brought out in that manner on contract.

"Only think," said he, "I knew that confounded thing had to be done, and, with a dear friend lying dead before me, and my wife half distracted over the loss, I had to get off my articles so as not to disappoint my publishers; and when I sat down with a board and penknife to engrave that map of Paris, I did so with a heavy heart and in a house of lamentation." Now this was rather a sad picture, and he meant to impress me with the sorrow he had felt, but yet it required the greatest struggle on my part to refrain from laughing as I heard it. I felt ashamed of myself afterward, for God knows there is no wit or humor in that unhappy story nor did Mr. Clemens mean there should be, and yet, like the homme qui rit, the effect is always there.

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c., In all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of CUTANEOUS AFFECTION. It speedily eradicates PIMPLES, SPOTS, SCORBUTIC DRYNESS, INDURATIONS of the CUTANEOUS MEMBRANE, etc., dispels REDNESS and INCIPIENT INFLAMMATION, HIVES, RASH, MOTH PATCHES, DRYNESS OF SCALP OR SKIN, FROST BITES, and all purposes for which SALVES or OINTMENTS are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation; used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

TUESDAY, MARCH 7, 1871.

CONGRESS.

On the 4th, the new Senators took the oath. Those who commence a new term are Messrs. Anthony, Caldwell, Cragin, Frelinghuysen, Perry, Hitchcock, Kelley, Logan, Morrill, Robertson, Stevenson, Saulsbury, Cooper, Wilson, Wright, Windom and West.

The names of Senators-elect Alcorn of Mississippi, and Clayton of Arkansas were not called.

The name of Vance of North Carolina was not called, as the legal and political disabilities of that gentleman had not been removed.

When the name of Goldthwait of Alabama was reached, Mr. Sherman objected to his being sworn in, and asked to have read a memorial signed by forty-five members of the Senate and House of Delegates of Alabama, protesting against that gentleman's admission.

The drunken Willard Saulsbury, whose senatorial term had expired, but who had not yet retired from his seat, here addressed the chair and objected to the reception of the paper.

Several members, aside—"The gentleman is no longer a member."

Mr. Saulsbury, bowed and resuming his seat—"Oh! I forgot." [Great laughter.]

The credentials were laid on the table.

Mr. McPherson, the clerk of the House, summoned the new House to order, and proceeded to call the names of members by States. The roll having been called, 222 members answered to their names, a full House consisting of 243. New Hampshire, Connecticut, Texas and California are unrepresented, because the elections in these States have not been held.

The name of Rogers of North Carolina was omitted at his own request, and that of Mr. Boles was not called in consequence of an irregularity in his certificate of election. Full delegations from Mississippi and Tennessee were admitted, though there was some informality in their credentials.

James G. Blaine, Republican, was then re-elected Speaker, receiving 126 of 219 votes cast, George W. Morgan of Ohio, Democrat, receiving 93.

The other Republican nominees for officers of the House were chosen.

A concurrent resolution by Mr. Dawes, that the House adjourn sine die on Wednesday, March 8, at 12 o'clock, was agreed to, 147 to 17.

FRANCE.

Paris has resumed its ordinary appearance. The government will preserve order.

The Prussian armies are marching homeward.

French prisoners are returning to their homes.

The reports that intrigues are actively prosecuted for the restoration of Bonaparte continue.

The delegates to the assembly from the province of Alsace, including M. Leon Gambetta, who was elected to represent an Alsacian constituency, have resigned their seats in a body, and will take no further part in the proceedings of the assembly. This action has been brought about by the decisive vote ratifying the preliminaries of peace by which the cession of Alsace was agreed to.

All restrictions as to persons passing into and out of Paris have been removed.

Victor Emmanuel has written to Emperor William, expressing his surprise and disappointment at the hard terms imposed on France, especially in regard to territory.

40,000 French troops have arrived at Paris.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

Senator Patterson spoke at Nashua, Monday evening, to an immense audience.

The Democrats of Rockingham County are working like beavers.

John L. Swift will address the Republicans of Exeter on Saturday next. Hope he will stay away from Portsmouth.

BREVITIES.

A treaty of commerce between Italy and the United States has been signed.

The impeachment of Gov. Clayton of Arkansas has been abandoned.

☞ In view of the resignation of Clayton, Senator elect from Arkansas, it is stated that Senator McDonald considers his chance for re-election beyond all question.

A GUN FROM THE EAST.—Portland re-elected Mayor Kingsbury, Republican, on Monday, by 300 majority—a Republican gain of about 50.

☞ Job Printing done at this office.

From our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, March 4th.

Editors Chronicle:—The 41st Congress is no more; at 12 M. to-day it ceased, under the inexorable fiat of the Constitution. The partings of Senators and members are of course sad to some. Who in Congress or out did not weep when Henry Clay, years ago, bid farewell to the Capitol and the Senate? How sad it was to hear the great Thaddeus Stevens tender his adieu in his last speech in the House? Then rancor, and personal jealousies and antagonisms are lost sight of as the strife for power or influence ceases.

There is a change in both Houses. By the terms of the Constitution, one third of the Senate are to leave or present credentials of new election; and in the House, all are to present new certificates. One little incident in the organization of the Senate took place to-day, at the expense of the retiring Senator Saulsbury, who forgetting that his term had expired, rose to "object" or speak, when he was gently reminded that his voice could no longer resound in that Hall. He bowed obedience amid the laughter of Senate and galleries. He was very much in the shade in which Johnson was said to be when he was sworn in Vice President.

Some three years ago Congress and the nation were moving in the impeachment of Andy Johnson. The impeachment failed through the votes and efforts of six Republican Senators; not one of the six has been re-elected, and but one remains in the Senate of the United States, to-day.

There has been a little preliminary sparring to-day over the election of some Senators, but nothing has developed anything for important legislation. It is quite probable that an effort will be made to repeal the present income tax, as a large number of Democrats are added to the House, and the opponents of the present system may now hope to prevail there. A financial measure of importance was adopted by the last Congress in authorizing the new 5 per cent. bonds to the amount of five hundred million dollars to be substituted for the 6 per cent. soon to be come due. It is believed Mr. Boutwell will be successful in the exchange.

President Grant has been in office two years to-day, and has paid nearly two hundred and five millions of the national debt, 1-10 of the whole, and at the same time the taxes have been greatly reduced. He has saved enough in running the government—through mere saving and retrenchment where the Johnson Democratic administration squandered—to reduce the debt ten per cent. Let the Democracy look at Mr. Johnson's policy—their own policy—and that of President Grant, and be silent as they ought; what a beautiful thing this is for the New Hampshire Democrats to chew when they are blowing against the administration of President Grant! What would they do, these Democrats, if they had the power with their hungry followers — how pay their political debts? How could the people pay them but by direct taxation? How would they pay the national debt but by a direct tax or repudiation? This is an issue coming.

Mr. Ordway's election the fifth time is an evidence of his popularity in that position, and his friends in New Hampshire will be pleased to know that he still is Sergeant at Arms.

Mr. Hale has been visiting Washington for a few weeks past, and steps in the Senate Chamber occasionally. He is warmly greeted; many remember him still and often speak of his wit and eloquence in debate. Not unfrequently we meet those who listened to the great debate of Webster and Hayne — and they speak of the wonderful effect of that great speech of the New England orator over the hero of South Carolina. Hayne was educated, they say, and made up especially to whip Webster, but his failure ruined his hopes and the hopes of the South.

We occasionally see something of Southern Chivalry here, but it is generally passing away. Any "hit" in the theatre that refers to that class is loudly cheered by their descendants—the same men or boys would defend the old slave pens of Georgetown or Alexandria just as much.

The naval rank bill that I feared in my last letter would fail, was through the exertions of Mr. Cragin attached to the Naval Appropriation bill—and has passed. In committee of Conference the words "rank with" were changed to "shall have the relative rank of." The word relative gives the staff what they sought a year ago, but not all they ask now. The committee have in this matter adopted the English system. L.

THE CATTLE PLAGUE is raging in the valley of the Lauder Nean, France, with such violence that 500 men are engaged in burying the dead animals.

Communication.

Messrs. Editors:—The article in your issue of Thursday regarding the strong sympathy of Senator Cragin for the Staff Officers of the Navy, as announced by him in the Senate recently, has been put in our pipe and smoked, in accordance with your suggestion; the fragrance was enriched and the pipe sweetened by the article.

The expression of such sympathy is indeed soothing, when in connection with it we bring the remembrance of the action of the committee of which Senator Cragin is chairman, and the knowledge of the part he took in connection with the amendments to Logan's and Stevens' bills. His sympathy for the Staff has been expressed frequently, but when he comes to act you always find him all right for the Line. He knows who are his friends. Put that in your pipe and smoke it, Messrs. Editors. REPUBLICAN.

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS, whether transient notices or by yearly contracts, are inserted in both the Daily Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, or in either one of these papers only, as desired. And while there is no better advertising medium in this County, our rates are reasonable, especially to regular yearly patrons.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING.—We have made great additions to our jobbing facilities—a mammoth Hand Press (the largest in Portsmouth,) new Display Type, Borders of various styles, &c. —and are prepared to execute with neatness and dispatch, all orders for FULL SHEET POSTERS, DATE SLIPS, PAMPHLETS, SERMONS, ADDRESSES, AUCTION BILLS, CONSTITUTIONS, BY LAWS, PROGRAMMES, HANDBILLS, CIRCULARS, ORDERS DANCES, BLANKS, BILL HEADS, RECEIPTS, TICKETS, BUSINESS, MARRIAGE, ADDRESS AND VISITING CARDS, LABELS, TAGS, and in fact PRINTING OF ANY DESCRIPTION, at SATISFACTORY PRICES. Orders received by mail, express, or at the CHRONICLE OFFICE will be promptly filled.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

IN WET WEATHER the peg in a boot will swell, in dry weather they shrink;—this renders the boot liable to rip or gape. The ingenious CABLE SCREW WIRE fastening obviates these difficulties, besides furnishing a more durable, economical, dryer and better fitting boot. Ask any dealer for the CABLE SCREW WIRE BOOTS AND SHOES.

If you desire rosy cheeks and a complexion fair and free from Pimples and Blotches, purify your blood by the use of Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Discovery. It has no equal for this purpose, nor as a remedy for severe Coughs or Bronchitis. Sold by druggists. To avoid Counterfeits see that it has on the outside wrapper, Dr. Pierce's private Stamp, issued by the U. S. Government expressly for stamping his medicines, and which bears his portrait, name and address upon it.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

An Insalubrious Season.

Spring is welcome, but not its diseases. We should be glad to have its bloom without its fogs, its vapors, its sudden changes of temperature, and the agues, fits of indigestion, bilious attacks, and other harassing disorders which they engender. As this cannot be, it behooves all sensible people to do the best they can to escape such serious drawbacks on the poetry of the season. Ask any physician what the weak and delicate ought to do when miasma infects the air. The answer will be "tone and regulate the system." But how? That is the important question. A dozen medical men would probably recommend as many different medicines. On the other hand, the thousands who have tested the virtues of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS as an invigorant and alterative, will recommend but one, the wholesome preventive and restorative in which their own experience has taught them to trust. A course of this rare vegetable stimulant, commenced now, would save many a pang to the feeble and debilitated. It would be wise economy too, for it would probably preclude the necessity for medical advice. Without disparagement to a profession which all intelligent men and women respect and honor, it is just as well, if possible, to keep out of the doctors' hands, and there would have comparatively few cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia, biliousness, nervousness and general debility to attend to, if this agreeable and healthful specific were in universal use.

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

"Against what?" asks the reader. Why, against the POISONS, vile, maddening and deadly, advertised as "superior to all Hair Dyes." But, on second thoughts, the call "to arms!" is unnecessary. The wretched trash is already being driven out of the market. It has received the coup de grace from

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The popularity of this time-tried article increases every hour. Everybody is talking of the "natural shades" it imparts, and there is no conceivable reason why it should not be used, being (as Professor CHILTON states in his certificate) PERFECTLY HARMLESS. As a dressing after dyeing, use 1mdawfeb27

Are You Going to Paint?

IF SO, USE THE

AVERILL CHEMICAL PAINT.

IT IS CHEAPER, HANDSOMER and more durable than the best of other Paints. One Thousand Gallons of it was sold in this City, in the year 1870, and not one complaint has come from those who have used it; but all speak in its favor; it is mixed ready for application, and is much easier put on than any other Paint, making a smooth, glossy surface for years, that can be cleaned with hot suds without injuring it. It is excellent for walls inside, in the place of paper.

I shall keep this season a large stock of Chemical Paints of all shades on hand, to accommodate customers with any amount, without delay in ordering it. Those who want to use the Chemical Paints and have had them misrepresented by those who deal in Lead and Oil, are invited to call and examine my Paints that have been on Buildings two years, and you will find them as fresh as if laid but one month.

I am prepared to do Painting by Contract, or by the day, using the Chemical Paint, or furnishing good experienced workmen by the day at very low wages. B. NORTON, only Agent for selling the

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that should be followed by a large class of scrofulous diseased lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important thing is for the patient to avoid taking cold; and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as in more northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterson. Last winter I saw several persons, there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

Ten hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even, and the best fruits of Florida, Mellonville and Enterprise are located there. I should give a decided preference to Mellonville: it is a quiet place, free from excitement, and therefore almost impossible take cold there. The tables in Florida include better, and patients complain at times that that is a good sign; as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to invalids with lungs sound. My reasons for saying so are, that patients are less liable to take cold since their residence there is a lower temperature; and it is not necessary to say, that, where a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds, he is certain to die sooner. Therefore my advice is, go well down into the State, out of the vicinity of fresh water, and avoid Fernandina, Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a forged liver, a disordered stomach, costive bowels, sore throat, or cough; but, for those whose lungs are diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1860, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia, every week, where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, covering every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and to be very cautious in regard to taking cold. A person may take vast quantities of "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Medicines. The climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well-established fact, that natives of Florida are free from consumption, which is so fatal in the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, consumption is more prevalent than any other terrible disease. In the Middle States, it does not prevail so largely; still there are many thousands of cases there. Now, if a very large proportion of all who would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh cold as they are about a scanty meal, small-pox, &c., but they are not: they take what they term a little cold, which they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to lay in a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action. I know, that when they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough, or night sweats, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, and in some cases where a freer use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary, my object is, to keep the bowels in good order,—to get up a good appetite. It is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry; it shows powers of digestion. With a relish for food, and the gratification of that relish, comes good blood, and with it more flesh, which is closely followed by a healing of the lungs,—then the cough loosens and abates, the creeping chills and clammy night sweats no longer presume upon my money, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, Is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The fact stands undisputed on record, that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of what seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption. Go and do likewise, and you will be most certainly cured. I have seen some consumptives who had been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on the liver better than calomel, and have none of its harmful effects behind. In fact, they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have constipation, or fevers, or fever and ague, or bilious colics, a dose of the Mandrakes will cure you. If you are subject to costiveness, take a dose of the Mandrakes, and they will relieve you in two hours. If you would obviate the effect of a change of water, or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night, and you may use drink water, and eat watermelons, pears, apples, plums, peaches, or corn, without the risk of being made sick by them. They will protect those who give to them attention against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9, A.M., to 3, P.M. Those who wish a thorough examination with stethoscope and lungs will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs; and patients can really know whether they are curable or not. But I desire it distinctly understood, that the value of my medicines depends entirely upon their being administered according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their lungs are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they are not so liable to take cold; yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them as well as my patient consultant, and can be bought from any druggist.

ANNEXATION OF NEWCASTLE.—Messrs. Editors: "Citizen's" reply to the writer's former article on the annexation of Newcastle, begins by charitably hoping that he had no sinister motive at the bottom of it, and ends by saying; "The truth is, Messrs. Editors, your correspondent is not opposed to annexation," &c.; and by misquoting the text and speech makes opportunity for some excruciatingly fine writing and great display of geological knowledge; neither was he annoyed because the meeting referred to was held in a bank parlor, nor is he annoyed by being told that it was so held by courtesy of "one of the leading bank presidents" (we are gratified to know we have "leading bank presidents"), he simply stated the fact of its being there held, and the obvious influence that the scheme would have the bank's influence.

"Citizen" assures us that the "cat" referred to was not in the meal, but from his denial as to that identical cat, he leaves us to believe there is one mousing about there somewhere. However this may be, and however much opinion may differ upon Newcastle being the Arcadia "Citizen" represents—and here let it be said most emphatically that the slightest reflection upon its inhabitants was never in the writer's mind—the fact remains that its people desire annexation for the avowed purpose of lessening their taxes, and in hope of a free bridge! That is all very well for them, but what do we gain by shouldering their burdens? Are our own so light that we can indulge in such philanthropic luxury? "Citizen" says that annexation will be of great benefit to our mechanics, &c. How? But perhaps the best comment on this is the announcement in your issue of the 3d inst. that a firm doing a very profitable business at Newcastle—prime movers in this matter, one of them on the committee to convince us of its benefits—have at this moment a fishing schooner building at Kennebunk! They have a right to go where they choose to get their vessels built, but don't let us hear any prating about benefits to our lately while the same parties to profit most by annexation build their vessels elsewhere!

We hope if this annexation is to be done that at least some sufficient reason will be given for it; but with miles of equally eligible sites for "hotels and summer residences," which there is no demand for, with no demand for its shores for ship-yards, or its water for our ships, having a thousand times more than we can use of each, and with all those which Newcastle has practically ours, we cannot for the life of us see what we are to gain by assuming a heavy debt and an increase of our burdensome taxation; and therefore I trust a large portion of our voters will be opposed to annexation.

STRAWBERRY BANK.

N. B. You say editorially in refering to the previous article that Conservative England has at great cost bought all her turnpikes and made them free—a great error. Enquiry of one lately there shows that toll gates are "almost as thick as mile stones."

[Possibly we were in error, never having seen England ourself; but we heard the statement made some years ago in the General Assembly of a British Colony, by a legislator who was advocating the abolition of a turnpike in that place. Politicians sometimes walk in ways that are dark, and that one may have made the statement on speculation, for effect; but he carried his point with it, for the toll he opposed was abolished.—Ed.]

☞ The wrecking steamer A. Winants arrived here Monday, on her way to Wells Beach, where steamer Clotilde is ashore.

☞ We are not obliged to the individual who sent us word that the U. S. S. Monongahela was taken into the Navy Yard Dry Dock, Saturday.

☞ The proposed amateur dramatic entertainment for the White Rover Relief Fund has been abandoned—for the reason that several persons who were expected to take part require too much urging to make it agreeable or safe for the committee having the matter in charge to go on with their preparations.

☞ Visitors to or residents of the city who feel a gnawing at the stomach, can call upon Parker at the Ladd Street Dining Rooms, with a full assurance that the proprietor will sustain the reputation he has already earned as a caterer to the wants of the inner man. Mr. Parker is continually adding to the attractiveness of his rooms, both internally and externally, as may be seen by giving him a call.

ANNEXATION. — Messrs. Editors:—Permit me to quiet the anxieties of "Strawberry Bank," who is all adrift in his calculations regarding the "obvious disadvantages" attending the annexation of Newcastle. It is a pity a man knowing so little about the town should have written so much. He assumes too much. The school-houses at Newcastle are sufficient for a much larger population, and are furnished with all the modern improvements; and the roads are as good as can be found in the vicinity of Portsmouth in any direction; the Town Hall has been found sufficient for the accommodation of all "Ward room" meetings; the fire engine at Fort Constitution is all they want at present, (did you ever hear of a fire down there?) and the bridges are kept in repair now at an annual cost of about four hundred dollars. Mr. "Bank's" statement that the bridge "is a mile or more" is as wild as his guess at the interest on the cost, and expense of keeping it in repair. His "various other claims" have not been presented yet. Strawberry forgets that Newcastle will have to "assume" its proportion of our debt, and the cost of the City Hall when we build it, if annexation takes place.

I think the idea of adopting our fair neighbor is a good one, and would secure us many advantages; ship building here has gone by, iron ships are fast taking the places of wooden bottoms, and we must look about us for something to do. The fishing business can be carried on here and at Newcastle more conveniently than at any place on the Atlantic coast of the United States. Gloucester harbor is so crowded with wharves and vessels that there is no room for another firm to carry on business there. Cape Cod is too far from railroad connections to compete with us for the western trade, and they are further away from the fishing grounds. There is one enterprising fishing establishment at the Island now, doing a large and successful business, and several other parties are ready to come as soon as the bridge is made free. The beautiful schooner built at Marcy's yard this winter is owned there. There is no doubt but a large number of fishing vessels would be built here if the enterprise now manifested at Newcastle should be encouraged by wise co-operation on the part of Portsmouth. We have come to a period in our history where we must do, or die. The quicker we abolish toll gates, the better our chance for life.

The elegant hotel now nearly finished, in our city, will doubtless attract numerous visitors, but would they not come oftener, and stay longer, and send for their friends to come, if they could follow the river to the sea, without finding toll gates shut in their faces? Civilized men turn back from such obstacles as they would from certain other gates. Supporting a toll gatherer and keeping the bridges in repair is a direct tax upon the business enterprise of both places. The fact that the bridges are maintained is proof that they are needed to accommodate the public; then why not make them free to the people? Open the road to Newcastle, and we need not envy New York its Central Park. ANN X.

FIRST MORTGAGE
7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,
ON A COMPLETED ROAD,
FREE OF U. S. TAX,
At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.
Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway.

The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mortgage issue dealt in at the Stock Exchange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 9½ per cent. interest, instead of 5 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for re-investment.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. f24dWaS

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!
DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
VINEGAR BITTERS,
Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.
WHAT ARE THEY!
THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Root and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. 1yrdawfeb16

SAFE AND PROFITABLE.
THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO
OF IOWA,
have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about
180 MILES OF RAILROAD,
which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open
The First Through Line Across the State
from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give
DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.
This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The
First Mortgage
7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,
which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.
The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.
Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.
Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.
SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!
JAY COOKE & CO.,
Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the
FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS
—OF THE—
Northern Pacific Railroad Co.
These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.
The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.
They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.
The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.
These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 110) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.
In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacific, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.
HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.
Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eod3mdo3mwfeb8

JOUVIN KID GLOVES, best quality for sale by CHAS. E. SHEDD & Co.

Morning Chronicle.

☞ The books are opened for Mr. Boutwell's new loan, under circumstances which seem encouraging to him. The Treasury policy has been steadily pursued with this end in view, and the result is an easy money-market, and an advance of all kinds of securities. For the first time ten-forties (five per cents.) and five-twenties (six per cents.) are really at par, says the Boston Advertiser. Along with this advance in the entire market the downward tendency of gold continues, which is much in Mr. Boutwell's favor. The Secretary gives preference to subscriptions in the following order:—

First—Subscriptions that may be first made for five per cent. bonds to the amount of $200,000,000, of which there will be reserved for twenty days one-half for subscribers in this country and one-half for subscribers in foreign countries.

Second—Subscriptions for equal amounts of each class of bonds.

Third—Subscriptions for equal amounts of bonds bearing interest at the rate of four and one-half per cent., and of bonds bearing interest at the rate of five per cent.

Fourth—Subscriptions for any five per cent. bonds that may not be subscribed for in preceding classes.

It is stated that $100,000,000 of the five per cents, or one-fifth of the entire issue, have already been taken and there is little doubt that a ready market will be found for the rest.

Our Correspondence.

KITTERY, ME., March 6.

Mr. John Pennell, an old and respected citizen of this place, died very suddenly on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. He had been absent from his home, chopping wood, and on returning complained of a pain in the region of the heart, and died in about 20 minutes. He was the oldest member of the Universalist Church in this town, and a Deacon. A recent act of Congress gave him a pension for service in the war of 1812, and he was much pleased at it, because it would enable him to help his Society in building the new Church they are to erect this year. It had been an expressed wish with him that he might go suddenly when called to leave this life, and but a day or two before he died he remarked that everything looked bright to him, beyond the grave. He will be buried Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The bluebirds are singing quite gaily this morning. Is it Spring? K. M.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF HAMLET'S SOLILOQUY.

To insure or not to insure? That is the question. Whether t'will be nobler for my family to suffer
The stings and arrows of outrageous fortune
Or take a policy against those dangers,
And, by insuring, end them? To fret, to fear,
No more; and by a policy to end
The heartache and the thousand natural shocks
That flesh is heir to. Yes, my application's
Devoutly to be wished; apply, insure,
And pay the premium! ay—there's the rub
For in that time what premiums may come]
Before I shuffle off this mortal coil
Does make me pause, tightens my purse,
And makes me rather pay the bills I have
Than fly to others I know not of.
Thus does meanness make brutes of us all.

[Re-published by Request.]
Plain Language from Truthful James.
(TABLE MOUNTAIN, 1870.)

Which I wish to remark—
And my language is plain—
That for ways that are dark,
And for tricks that are vain,
The heathen Chinee is peculiar,
Which the same I would rise to explain.

Ah Sin was his name;
And I shall not deny
In regard to the same,
What that name might imply,
But his smile it was pensive and child-like,
As I frequent remarked to Bill Nye.

It was August the third;
And quite soft was the skies;
Which it might be inferred,
That Ah Sin was likewise;
Yet he played it that day upon William
And me in a way I despise.

Which we had a small game,
And Ah Sin took a hand;
It was Euchre. The same
He did not understand;
But he smiled as he sat by the table,
With the smile that was child-like and bland.

Yet the cards they were stocked
In a way that I grieve,
And my feelings were shocked
At the state of Nye's sleeve;
Which was stuffed full of aces and bowers,
And the same with intent to deceive.

But the hands that were played
By that heathen Chinee,
And the points that he made,
Were quite frightful to see—
Till at last he put down a right bower,
Which the same Nye had dealt unto me.

Then I looked up at Nye,
As he gazed upon me;
And he rose with a sigh,
And said, "Can this be?
We are ruined by Chinese cheap labor"—
And he went for that heathen Chinee.

In the scene that ensued
I did not take a hand,
But the floor it was strewed
Like the leaves on the strand;
With the cards that Ah Sin had been hiding,
In the game "he did not understand."

In his sleeves, which we were long,
He had twenty-four packs—
Which was coming it strong,
Yet I state but the facts;
And we found on his nails, which were taper,
What is frequent in tapers—that's wax.

Which is why I remark,
And my language is plain,
That for ways that are dark,
And for tricks that are vain,
The heathen Chinee is peculiar—
Which the same I am free to maintain.

Our Correspondence.
STRATHAM, March 6.

The members of the Choral Society, together with their friends, numbering about fifty, visited the residence of Mr. J. W. Rollins in Stratham last Saturday evening and while Mr. Rollins was engaged with a decoy in the back part of the house the whole party entered the front through a low window on the piazza, and at a preconcerted movement commenced to sing, "Haman, Haman, long live Haman," (he having personated the character of Haman last winter in rendering the Cantata of Esther,) on hearing which he exclaimed, "What under heaven is that? it must be the spirits!" In this he was right, for more than fifty spirits, clad in corporeal flesh and suitable garments, had come to acknowledge their respect and regard for him for the manner in which he has acted as leader of the Society during the past year. After the usual salutations, Mr. Brown, as chairman of committee, made an appropriate speech and in behalf of the Society; presented Mr. Rollins with a fifty dollar Waltham watch and chain, as tangible evidence of their regard. In reply, Mr. Rollins stated that he had been fully remunerated by the pleasure he had experienced while acting as leader, and did not expect anything further. He spoke of the unanimity of opinion and feeling which had prevailed among the members of the Society as being remarkable. The party, after partaking of the usual refreshments and listening to a few songs, took leave, acknowledging the meeting to have been a perfect success. B.

SUN BATHING.—Dr. Dio Lewis, in his new book entitled "Our Girls," advocates the use of sun baths in summer, saying: "One good bath in the sunshine is worth more than many baths in the water, valuable as these are." There can be no doubt regarding the beneficial influence of the solar rays upon the unclothed human body, but the difficulty is how to get such a bath without the interference of the police.—*N. Y. These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills, are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c.,
In all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH
cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of CUTANEOUS AFFECTION. It speedily eradicates PIMPLES, SPOTS, SCORBUTIC DRYNESS, INDURATIONS of the CUTANEOUS MEMBRANE, etc., dispels REDNESS and INCIPIENT INFLAMMATION, HIVES, RASH, MOTH PATCHES, DRYNESS OF SCALP OR SKIN, FROST BITES, and all purposes for which SALVES or OINTMENTS are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation; used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 1871.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

Hon. E. H. Rollins has arrived home from Washington. He predicts a Republican triumph, next Tuesday.

Considerable surprise is manifested in Democratic circles over the fact that the Democratic State Committe has employed an ex-officer of the rebel army, now in business at Manchester, to print their whole State ticket to be used on the approaching election day. No Democratic publisher in Manchester, Concord or elsewhere was allowed the privilege of printing the ballots for their party, but the job was given to a man who was four years in the rebel service, and who, it is understood, has never yet repented of his treasonable course.

The Republicans of Dover had a grand rally, Monday evening, and listened to a stirring speech by Gen. Harriman.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS IN MAINE.—Kingsbury, Republican, has 292 majority for Mayor in Portland.

Lewiston elected a Democratic Mayor by 58 majority.

In Auburn there was no choice, Littlefield, Republican, lacking 13 votes.

Saco elected the Citizens' candidate by 70 majority. The city government will be composed mostly of Republicans.

Robinson, Republican, had 21 majority in Bath.

Gardiner chose Palmer, Republican, unanimously.

Atkins, Republican, was re-elected in Hallowell.

☞ Both Houses of Congress have adjourned till Thursday.

☞ On Monday night a family named Walker, consisting of four persons, living a short distance north of Elgin, Illinois, were found dead in their house. A letter was found, which explained that the father and mother had given laudanum to their children and taking it themselves, and were happy in believing that they would go with their children to a better world. They were earnest spiritualists.

THE DRUNKARDS OF THE U. S. SENATE.—With the end of the 41st Congress, the two members of the U. S. Senate who have made themselves prominent by excessive indulgence in drinking, throw off their official robes and retire to private life. The following pen picture of them is drawn by the Brooklyn Union:—

With Senator Saulsbury will vanish one of the most memorable faces and forms of the Senate. On the Democratic side of the Senate he is the grand-head, which Charles Sumner is on the Republican. Not to see Saulsbury with his hands deep in his pockets, glowering up and down behind the last tier of senatorial chairs, restive and defiant as a caged lion, with his pale, trim, temperate brother "Eli" in his seat, will be to see a new Senate. To look upon, he is a great leonine man, noble to behold, though he does chew tobacco and mock with stong drink. I have seen him at a street corner exchanging "chews" on terms of perfect hail fellow equality with one of the despised race, which he raged over the next day in the Senate as very little above that of the baboon. I have seen him empty his pockets in the gutter, and then drop down and lie in it; and I have seen him one of the grandest looking of grand men, clad in spotless black and faultless linen, walking beside Mrs. Jefferson Davis on a fair June Sabbath (which her husband spent in Fortress Monroe,) gallantly and devoutly carrying her prayer book to church. He stands more than six feet high, and is large in proportion. His head is covered with abundant black hair, just touched with silver. He has black eyes and finely cut features, and, when he is himself, a most winning expression.

In early life he studied for the Episcopal ministry, and even now when he assumes the "white choker," as he often does, looks like one. With him and Richard Yates, the 4th of March, depart the last but one of the inebriate senators. There may be plenty of "drinkers" left, but of "drunkards" I believe but one in the Senate of the United States.—"Poor Dick Yates", as his brethren so often call him. Probably never did living man battle harder than he has done with an overmastering appetite. An inherited one, born in his blood, no one not thus cursed can dream of the power of such a foe, nor judge by right the sin of the soul that at last sinks, vanquished. Brave, generous and child-hearted—(as the victim of the wine cup so often is)—Illinois loved this, her favorite son, loved him for himself and for all he had done for his native State, trusted him, bore with him, trusted him again—even when, through weakness of the will, he had betrayed her faith. How he struggled to be worthy of that trust in the highest legislative council of the nation, only he knows and his God. But there came an hour when it was too late, when affection, intellect and will went down forever before the insatiate foe, and Richard Yates, but the wreck of himself, to-day trembling in his seat, counts the days when his place will be filled by another.

"ABUSE PLAINTIFF'S ATTORNEY."—A celebrated English barrister was once applied to just as Court was in session, to conduct the defence in an important lawsuit. He at once communicated with the defendant's solicitor, accepting the defence and asking to be put in immediate possession of "the case," and by return mail received the answer, "No case—abuse plaintiff's attorney."

This is what the democrats are doing now; having no possible defence to make for their own misdeeds, they abuse "Elder Pike" by way of apology. Elder Pike, by their showing, is a very bad man—the worst possible one to make a Governor of that could be found. In the first place he is a religious man, so of course he can know nothing about the great democratic party's affairs, and can never govern to suit them—they being on the other side of the house from him.

But being religious is not his only fault in the eyes of the democracy. He was in the Union army during the rebellion, and they say he did no good there. Even if this were true, we don't see why the copperheads, who longed so ardently for the dissolution of the Union, should find fault with him for that. But they say the same thing of Grant, and indeed of nearly all the Union leaders except Blair, Hancock and McClellan—which last was the only one of the lot to make war entirely to their satisfaction, as instead of fighting he only made iron manufacturing lively by using up all the pickaxes and shovels in the country, digging holes for the rebels to fall into and get their necks broken, which the perverse rebels declined to do.

Worst of all, Mr. Pike is a temperance man. To be sure, many of the free rum papers warned the ultra temperance party, not long ago, that he "went back" on the temperance cause a year ago; and one copperhead sheet, (which we have heard it said does sometimes get betrayed into telling the truth, though we must acknowledge that we have not detected it in doing so,) issued not far from here, recently announced as a fact that the republicans drink more rum than the democrats do! Now, in spite of Elder Pike's desertion of the temperance cause and the wondrous abstinence of the copperheads, that party raises a wail from one end of the State to the other, to the effect that if the republicans win in the coming election, a State Constabulary will be "imposed" upon the people, and this State Constabulary,—whom the consistent praters are constantly asserting to be useless (and worse) in Massachusetts,—will utterly destroy the beneficent rum-traffic, and so of course throw many worthy men out of their present employment of dealing out misery, crime and death at ten cents a glass.

To distillers, to men who ride in carriages bought with money which should have put food in the mouths of hungry children and clothing on the backs of ragged men and women, and to men who think society has no right to protect itself, the possibility of the rum trade being ruined may be an inducement to vote against Mr. Pike; but to no others.

It is odd, considering the (democratic) fact! that the republicans drink the most rum, that the temperate copperhead party should be the only one to squirm at the idea of the rum trade being stopped. We are not sorry to see the democracy forced to stand out squarely as the acknowledged champions of unlimited rum, for they have begged the question for a long time by pretending to be in favor of temperance. We have no fears for the election, for though some opposition papers loudly shout that "many respectable republicans announce their determination" to vote the copperhead ticket, we have not heard anything of the kind. On the other hand, we do know of a few professed anti-rum democrats in this vicinity, and while we do not intend to follow the democratic lead, and assert on speculation that these men will change their votes, we will say that they must do so or own that their professions have been professions only, now that their party has come out fair and square for free rum.

☞ A Western man writes in New York Farmer's Club that if Eastern capitalists and railroad men will establish a through meat express from the great plains, he can lay down buffalo beef on the sea-board for less than ten cents per pound, and make money by it.

☞ If the opening week of March is indicative of coming weather, the Heavy Muffers and Foul Batters will have an opportunity to do desperate deeds of daring.

—An extensive fire in Portsmouth, Ohio, on Sunday, destroyed $200,000 worth of property.

☞ Job Printing done at this office.

Communication.

GOOD FARMING.—I know of no class of men who may take more pride in the result of their labor, than farmers; and when a farm is visited that is properly cultivated, land improved, neatness and order reigning upon the premises, about the buildings, and in the field, well-fed and neatly kept stock, people at once conclude that a farmer, both in theory and practice, is in charge.

The "Wentworth Farm" answets to the above description; and when the many improvements are noticed by all, by personal observation, it is quite proper to ascribe praise to whom it is due. Mr. Jenness' plan of farming is plainly seen, and one that may be made an example; and without which, no farm can be properly managed. IXION.

☞ Gov. Alcorn of Mississippi declines to accept the office of U. S. Senator, because the democratic Lieutenant-Governor would succeed him as Governor.

—An old lady, slightly blind, while engaged in a futile attempt to sew buttons on young Augustus' new jacket, remarked: "Drat these buttons! I can't find the holes, and they split all to pieces every time I stick the needle into 'em." To which replied young Augustus: "Now, look 'ere, Granny! you just let my peppermint-drops alone. You've split mor'n half of 'em already."

—Ezra was capable of little fun now and then—assuming that he wrote the Chronicles—for he says in the Second Book, 16th chapter and verse 12, "In his disease Asa sought not to the Lord, but to the physicians. And Asa slept with his fathers." A religious journal proposes this as the text of all discourses before medical societies.

—The introduction of billiards into the college curriculum is one result of liberal thinking of the nineteenth century. A delegation of Antioch students lately obtained a billiard table and, with the permission of the faculty, it is to be one of the recreations of college life.

—Two friends meeting, one remarked, "I have just met a man who told me I looked exactly like you." "Tell me who it was that I may knock him down," replied his friend. "Don't trouble yourself," said he; "I did that myself at once."

BUSINESS NOTICES.

In WET WEATHER the peg in a boot will swell, in dry weather they shrink;—this renders the boot liable to rip or gape. The ingenious CABLE SCREW WIRE fastening obviates these difficulties, besides furnishing a more durable, economical, dryer and better fitting boot. Ask any dealer for the CABLE SCREW WIRE BOOTS AND SHOES.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

An Insalubrious Season.

Spring is welcome, but not its diseases. We should be glad to have its bloom without its fogs, its vapors, its sudden changes of temperature, and the agues, fits of indigestion, bilious attacks, and other harassing disorders which they engender. As this cannot be, it behooves all sensible people to do the best they can to escape such serious drawbacks on the poetry of the season. Ask any physician what the weak and delicate ought to do when miasma infects the air. The answer will be "tone and regulate the system." But how? That is the important question. A dozen medical men would probably recommend as many different medicines. On the other hand, the thousands who have tested the virtues of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS as an invigorant and alterative, will recommend but one, the wholesome preventive and restorative in which their own experience has taught them to trust. A course of this rare vegetable stimulant, commenced now, would save many a pang to the feeble and debilitated. It would be wise economy too, for it would probably preclude the necessity for medical advice. Without disparagement to a profession which all intelligent men and women respect and honor, it is just as well, if possible, to keep out of the doctors' hands, and there would have comparatively few cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia, biliousness, nervousness and general debility to attend to, if this agreeable and healthful specific were in universal use.

TO ARMS!! TO ARMS!!

"Against what?" asks the reader. Why, against the POISONS, vile, maddening and deadly, advertised as "superior to all Hair Dyes." But, on second thoughts, the call "to arms!" is unnecessary. The wretched trash is already being driven out of the market. It has received the coup de grace from

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The popularity of this time-tried article increases every hour. Everybody is talking of the "natural shades" it imparts, and there is no conceivable reason why it should not be used, being (as Professor CHILTON states in his certificate) PERFECTLY HARMLESS. As a dressing after dyeing, use

PURE CALIFORNIA WINES!

PERKINS, STERN & CO'S WINES AND BRANDY, from their own Vineyards in California, are unsurpassed for purity and superior quality, always for sale, by the single bottle or case, at THACHER'S Drug Stores, Portsmouth.

ARE YOU GOING TO PAINT?

——IF SO, USE THE——

AVERILL CHEMICAL PAINT.

It is Cheaper, Handsomer and more durable than the best of other Paints. One Thousand Gallons of it were sold in this City, in the year 1870, and not one complaint has come from these who have used it; but all speak in its favor; it is mixed ready for application, and is much easier to put on than any other paint; it dries with a glossy surface for years, that can be cleaned with hot suds without injuring it. It is excellent for walls inside, in the place of paper.

I shall keep this season a large stock of Chemical Paints of all shades on hand, to accommodate customers with any amount, without delay in ordering it. Those who want to use the Chemical Paints and have had them misrepresented by those who deal in Lead and Oil, are invited to call and examine my Paints that have been on Buildings two years, and you will find them as fresh as if laid but one month.

I am prepared to do Painting by Contract, or by the day, using the Chemical Paint, or furnishing good experienced workmen by the day at very low wages. B. NORTON, only Agent for selling the

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel prepared to point fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a totally bad case of disease, to healthy soundness. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid taking cold; and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as in more northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterman. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

One hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even, and the air dry and bracing. Mellonville and Enterprise are located there. I should prefer a decided preference for Mellonville, it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times; but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My reason for saying so are, that patients are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature; and it is not necessary to say, that, where a consumptive person commences to flame to frequent colds, he is certain to die shortly; therefore my advice is, go well down into the State, out of the track of prevailing east winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will treat them well if they are treated with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat, or cough; but, for those whose lungs are diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1869, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a week. My practice is extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take vast quantities of "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well-established fact, that natives of Florida rarely die of consumption, especially those of the southern part. On the other hand, they are troubled to one-third at least of the population die of this terrible disease. In the Middle States, it does not prevail so largely; still there are thousands of cases of consumption. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh colds as they are about scarlet fever, small-pox; &c.; but they are not; they take what they term a little cold, which they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My aim is, to prevent such fatal results. If the lungs are affected, even slightly, is to lay in a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their effects, and know that, where they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough, or night sweats, and then allows the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where I see the patient daily, when it is necessary. My object is, to give tone to the stomach,—to get up a good appetite. It is always a good sign when a patient says, "I am hungry." I have hopes of such. With a relish for food, and the assimilation of that relish, comes good blood, and with it more flesh, which is closely followed by a healing of the lungs,—then the cough loosens and the expectoration of thick yellow matter, night sweats no longer prostrate and annoy, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient take his exercise walking in the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is easily cured in any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The fact stands unequaled, that Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of what seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption, and where you will you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody might be a sound, healthy, vigorous man. They act on the liver better than calomel, and leave none of its baneful effects behind. They are the most excellent of all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have partaken too freely of fruit, and disorder ensues, a dose of the Mandrake will cure you. If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of the Mandrakes, and your troubles will vanish. If you feel that you would obviate the effect of a change of water, or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night, and drink then plenty of water, and eat water-melons, pears, apples, plums, peaches, or corn, without the risk of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They will do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. For a careful and thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs; and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not. But I desire it distinctly understood, that my charge for advice is dispensed entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they are more liable to take cold; yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less attack of the bronchial tubes

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

☞ Albert Blaisdell, Esq., has sold his granite quarry at Yarmouth to New York parties for about $45,000.

☞ The White Rover fund now counts up about $2800; a purse of $50 has been recieved from a few citizens of Newburyport, Mass.

☞ The beating of the general reveille at the navy yard on Sunday night caused quite an excitement, as it was supposed to be an alarm of fire. It turned out that three marines had stolen a boat and deserted, but by this prompt alarm they were overtaken and captured.

☞ All who fail to attend the lecture of Prof. Bidwell on Manhood at the Methodist Church this evening, will lose one of the most eloquent and instructive lectures ever given in this city. Refreshments will be served by the ladies in the Vestry at the close of the lecture.

—We print the advertisement of the American Watch Co. in another column. In addition to the large assortment of watches made by this Company, they desire to call special attention to the Watch for railway engineers conductors and expressmen. Also their Boys' Watch, which is now first placed on the market, and to which they desire to call the attention of Young America.

Communication.

☞ Your Kittery correspondence says "Bluebirds are singing merrily: has spring come?" In 1861 Bluebirds were here March 4th, and Robins also, but on the 18th the mercury went down to zero: and we had snow storms on the 16th, 19th and 22nd, and April 2nd. So we advise nobody to put away their furs and great coats quite yet. n.

☞ We learn that the members of the Steamer Kearsarge, are to provide themselves with a new uniform, the style of it to be in keeping with the beauty of the steamer. An ambition to make a good appearance in this direction is a laudable one, and does much towards maintaining the well known efficiency of our Fire Department.

☞ In our advertising columns will be found a list of the nominees of the Temperance party. Those candidates who are regularly nominated by Republican conventions we heartily endorse. As for the other gentlemen whose names are thus put before the people, we can see no reason why Republicans should support them—excellent men though they be. The only safety to Republican principles is in thorough party discipline, and we urge our friends to sink all personal feeling (it there be any,) and vote for every candidate on the regularly nominated Republican ticket.

Communication.

☞ It would seem from the columns of the Chronicle that several matters of local interest, such as annexation, removal of the Courts, &c., are likely to come before the next Legislature. Shall we send as Representatives, men who can advocate our interests in the Legislature and by their influence and ability protect our rights, or shall the office be prostituted to the use of some cheap politicians for the purpose of trading votes that shall perpetuate their hold on some Custom House or other government office? Let us have the best men. VOTER.

☞ Gen. Neil Dow addressed a Temple-full of people, Monday evening, on the temperance question. His lecture was marked by great moderation in the presentation of his views—as might have been expected, for the man who stands on a strong and broad platform does not need to rant, to strengthen his foothold. The ridiculous absurdity of the rum-democratic cant about "personal liberty," "interference in private affairs," &c., as applied to legal restructions on the liquor traffic, was made very apparent; and the discourse was closely attended to by the large crowd, among whom were a large percentage of the liquor dealers of this city. We hope they liked what they heard, and will profit by it.

AN OLD CITIZEN GONE.—Mr. Charles Glazebrook, a well known and highly respected resident at the West End, died at his home, corner of Islington and Anthony Streets, at half past 12 o'clock Tuesday morning, aged 77 years. Mr. Glazebrook was born in England, but with his wife, who survives him, came to this country about 1829, 41 years ago; and has resided in Portsmouth 38 years, most of that time in the little house where he breathed his last.

Mr. G. slipped in his yard a short time ago, injuring his leg by the fall. The hurt would not have been serious to a young person, but the old gentleman's advanced age interfered with his rapid recovery, and he quietly made up his mind that his time to die had arrived. He slept in a chair the last few nights of his life, and declined to have either physician or watchers, not wishing to put his friends to what he considered needless trouble. We need hardly say, however, that his family did do everything possible to sooth his last days. A few hours before his death he insisted on his son, Mr. Thomas Glazebrook, going to bed instead of watching with him; he accordingly went into the next room, where he could observe his father without being seen by him. At 11 o'clock, deceased was calmly sleeping in his chair; but shortly after midnight his son was attracted to his side by a slight noise, and found that the wearied old man had gone to his long rest. He was an industrious and inoffensive man, and a good neighbor, and his family have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

ANOTHER SUDDEN DEATH.—About 5.30 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon, Mr. Alfred Tucker, who for many years has kept a grocery store on Market Street, was attacked with heart disease. He was conveyed to his home in a hack, and died immediately after arriving. Mr. Tucker was about 59 years of age. He had apparently enjoyed good health and was at his place of business daily. He has been a leading Democrat and was a prominent Old Fellow.

☞ The Young Peoples' Union held their first election of officers Monday evening, and the following persons were chosen for the ensuing year:—

President, Samuel Dodge; Vice President, J. E. Colcord; Secretaries, Misses Mary A. Foster, Maria A. Carr and Mrs. Annie Wilson; Treasurer, Alfred Stavers; Directors, Samuel Dodge, Rev. Mr. DeNormandie, Rev. Mr. Bicknell, Joseph H. Foster, Joseph H. Thacher, Mrs. Annie Wilson and Mrs. Frank W. Miller.

The rooms are only open in the evening at present, but as soon as the arrangements are perfected they will be kept open during the day. The evening attendance is about 200.

NEWCASTLE ERECT!

The Republicans of Newcastle rallied in force at the annual Town Meeting, Tuesday, and the Democracy finding themselves out-numbered became demoralized, and refrained from voting. The result was the unanimous choice of the Republican nominees.

NAVAL.—Assistant Paymaster Joseph Foster of this city has been ordered to U. S. Steamer Shawmut.

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS, whether transient notices or by yearly contracts, are inserted in both the Daily Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, or in either one of these papers only, as desired. And while there is no better advertising medium in this County, our rates are reasonable, especially to regular yearly patrons.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING.—We have made great additions to our jobbing facilities—a mammoth Hand Press (the largest in Portsmouth,) new Display Type, Borders of various styles, &c.—and are prepared to execute with neatness and dispatch, all orders for FULL SHEET POSTERS, DATE SLIPS, PAMPHLETS, SERMONS, ADDRESSES, AUCTION BILLS, CONSTITUTIONS, BY LAWS, PROGRAMMES, HANDBILLS, CIRCULARS, ORDERS DANCES, BLANKS, BILL HEADS, RECEIPTS, TICKETS, BUSINESS, MARRIAGE, ADDRESS AND VISITING CARDS, LABELS, TAGS, and in fact PRINTING OF ANY DESCRIPTION, at SATISFACTORY PRICES. FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

ON A COMPLETED ROAD,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway.

The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mortgage issue dealt in at the Stock Exchange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis; for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 9½ per cent. interest, instead of 5 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for re-investment.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. f24dWaS

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY!

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Root and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying joll all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. 1yrdawfeb16

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD Co

OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bonds a $1,600 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS

—OF THE—

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and interest are payable in Gold the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. WATCHING.

BY MARY N. PRESCOTT.

I see the fishing-boats put out,
And sail away;
I watch them out and in again,
Day after day.
Across the white lip of the bar,
The fog uprises like a scar,
And blots the bay.

I mark them when the wind they take,
And urge their flight:
I'm waiting when their shining wake
Creeps into sight.
Across the mellow afternoon,
The breeze keeps pulsing like a tune;
The light-house star forgets its swoon,
At fall of night.

And following up the beckoning tide,
They flash and fade;
While the dark water-bank beside
I crouch dismayed.
The stars come out like glittering tears,
Waiting upon my hopes and fears;
The dipping oar salutes my ears;
I hear the boat's keel graze the shore,
My soul in thankful song can soar,
No more afraid!

RETRIBUTIVE JUSTICE.—Retributive justice was perhaps never better illustrated than in the tribulations that the Democracy are now experiencing in the naturalization mill. One of their number who attempted to swear through a new voter in our police court, in 1868, a year that was prolific in fraudulent naturalizations, was found guilty of the crime of perjury, and to save him from the state-prison, where justice demanded that he should be sent, his Democratic counsel put in a demurrer that he could not be punished for perjury as the act of naturalization in the Nashua police court was illegal. The demurrer was sustained, and so Justice was cheated of this culprit and hundreds of naturalized citizens in New Hampshire were made to pay penalty of his crime. These innocent victims have our sympathy, but we have none whatever for those Democratic wire-pullers who are chiefly responsible for the fraudulent naturalizations which led to the present state of affairs. Their chagrin and tribulations are richly deserved. Their experience will do them good if it only teaches them that honesty is the best of policy even in politics.—Nashua Telegraph.

New Publications Received.

The Edinburgh Quarterly Review, (Am. rep.) for January; $4 per year; Leonard Scott Pub. Co., 140 Fulton St., N. Y. This number contains articles on France, Lives of Rossini and Berlioz, Kaye's History of the Sopoy War, Facts and Fables at the Admiralty, The Foreign Relations of China, The Military Forces of the Crown, The Treatise of 1850 and 1867, &c.—Also, from the same publishers, Blackwood (Am. rep.) for January, containing, among other valuable articles, "What we may learn from the War"—a study of the causes contributing to the recent crushing defeat of France by Prussia, as seen through British spectacles.

The Paper, published at Pittsburg, Pa., is one of the smartest and most ably edited of our exchanges. It is Democratic, to be sure, but Republicans will find it very readable. Its politics may almost be forgiven (at least overlooked) on account of its superior excellence in the news line. Of its many good points, condensed items are a particular feature.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

WALTHAM

WATCHES.

The extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

Nearly 100,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enables them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watch-making originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skilful artisans in our works had long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:—

The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main-spings, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Hogg's patent pinion as being the best and simplest.

Hardened and tempered hair-springs, now universally admitted by Watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movements from dust and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch is already a decided success, and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mentioned improvements, which tend to ensure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

The trademarks of the various styles made by the Company are as follows:—

POSITION OF THE HORSE'S NECK.—The shape and position of the horse's neck should be particularly observed by the person who trains, rides or drives the horse. It is rare to see two horses formed so exactly alike, that they can bear to have their heads elevated to the same height, without painfully interfering with the action and power of all parts of the body. How unseemly and barbarous is it, then, for some ignorant trainers, riders and drivers, to screw up all the horses, no matter how diversified their shapes, that unfortunately fall into their hands, to the same point, for the purpose of giving them what they are pleased to call a graceful carriage? Do such people ever imagine that gracefulness results from a peculiar and appropriate adaption of the different parts of the animal to each other, and not from a partial distortion, such as we often see exhibited under the influence of a heavy bit, or that most brutal invention, the bearing rein?

Were it not for its cruelty, it would be very amusing to observe the manner in which some men in riding or driving, prop themselves up, for the purpose of pulling, with might and main, at the poor animal's mouth, in the foolish hope of being thus able to keep them from falling, at the same time that they render them so much more attractive to the passers-by. Their task is certainly a very anxious and laborious one, and, if persevered in, it is sure to end with broken knees, and perhaps a broken nose. The horse is placed in such an unnatural position, that his entire action is interfered with, and he gets such a habit of leaning on his bit, instead of watching for himself, that he is nearly certain of dropping the first moment his governor forgets the pulling process. A taut rein, with a quick hand, will have far the best chance for keeping a stumbling horse on his feet. He will then depend on his own vigilance and exertion, in the same way as he would if he were running at freedom. — Dr. Paaren in Prairie Farmer.

A PETITION TO AN AGRICULTURAL CLUB.—Respected Club:—Your humble petitioners, Buck and Berry, take the liberty of addressing a few words to your honorable body, although it makes our hearts quake to mention the dreadful word Club, which is the cause of all our woes.

Dear sirs, we are willing animals, and wish to do our duty, and we know that the end of our creation is, first to work for you, and then to roast for you; and all that we ask of our masters is, that they shall teach our drivers to use a little more brains, and a little less club, in the proceed of our education. The fact is, gentleman, it is sometimes so hard to understand the clubman's language.

For instance, when he says to us, "Git-up-gee-wo-back-come-along- boys-hi-up-Berry-wo-back-darn-yer-pieter-haw!" it seems such a long word that we get quite confused, and while we are trying to understand it he thwacks us over the head with the club, and we are frightened and stand still, and then he swears and bangs, till we don't know any thing at all.

Now, if you would tell him to say one word at a time, and teach him that a long switch is just as good as a club to explain things, we should not only do more work, but, being relieved from the constant strain on our nerves, we should be more contented, and, consequently, make fatter and tenderer beef, which last is the highest aspiration of

Your humble servants,
BUCK AND BERRY.

CRACKED HOOFS IN HORSES.—I notice an inquiry in your paper what to do for a horse's feet when they become hard and dry. I am no horse doctor, but I can tell what I have done in a similar case. We keep on this farm two horses for farm work and other uses. In the summer of 1869 their feet became dry and hard. One is naturally flat-footed. His feet grew at the toe, and contracted at the heel, and cracked crosswise. The other had a straight hoof. His would split up and down the edges, were brittle, would crumble off so much that it was difficult to keep him shod. It appeared to me that they needed some grease or oil, or something else, to soften and toughen them. About the first of September, I took oil, which we keep in the barn to oil our wagons, and applied to their hoofs in front, and up into the edge of the hair; also to the bottom of the foot. We did this a week for a spell; after this not so often. Their feet became better after the first application, and after a while became all right. This last summer we have used the oil with their feet. The oil seems to be just what was wanted, and brought their feet to the natural shape and condition.—Cor. N. E. Farmer.

—Rev. Dr. Deems, in the course of his remarks at the funeral of Alice Cary, said: "Men loved Alice Cary, and woman loved her. When a man loves a woman, it is of nature; when a woman loves a woman, it is of grace—of the grace that woman makes by her loveliness; and it is she of the finest things that can be said of Alice Cary, that she had such troops of friends of her sex."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART."

These are, beyond all comparison, the most extraordinary works on Physiology ever published There is nothing whatever that the MARRIED OR SINGLE, of EITHER SEX, can either desire or wish to know, but what is fully explained, and many matters of the most important and interesting character are introduced to which no allusion even can be found in any other works in our language. All the NEW DISCOVERIES of the author, whose experience is such as probably never before fell to the lot of any man, are given in full. No person should be without these valuable books.

☞ VALUABLE HOOKS.—We have received the valuable medical works published by the Peabody Medical Institute. These books are of actual merit, and should find a place in every intelligent family. They are not the cheap order of abominable trash, published by irresponsible parties, and purchased to gratify coarse tastes, but are written by a responsible professional gentleman of eminence, as a source of instruction on vital matters, concerning which lamentable ignorance exists. The importance of subjects presented are treated with delicacy, ability and care, and, as an appendix, many useful prescriptions for prevailing complaints are added."—Ossa Republicana, Lancaster, N. H.

"The author of these books is one of the most learned and popular physicians of the day, and is entitled to the gratitude of our race for these invaluable productions. It seems to be his aim to induce men and women to avoid the causes of those diseases to which they are subject, and the evils them just how and when to do it."—Chronicle, Farmington, Maine, Sept. 7, 1869.

Either book sent by mail on receipt of price.

N. B. The Author of the above-named medical works is the Chief Consulting Physician of the Peabody Medical Institute, and is so constantly employed in consultation with invalids from all parts of the country, that he has no time to attend to mere business details. Therefore all letters should be addressed to the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, or to Dr. W. H. PARKER, the Medical Assistant of the Author, and his Business Agent, who, as well as the Author himself, may be consulted on all diseases requiring skill, secrecy and experience. oct26d1yr

The Daily Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, MARCH 9, 1871.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate, on the 7th, Mr. Hamlin reported that the President had expressed a wish that Congress would not this week fix the day for adjournment, and had stated that he would shortly have an extensive communication to make to the Senate.

In the House, Gen. Butler said that the members could not shut their eyes to the fact that there was a state of things in the southern part of the country which called for legislation to enable the President to carry out the constitutional guarantees for protection to life, liberty and property.

In this connection he sent to the clerk's desk to be read a report made to Governor Scott of South Carolina, by John B. Hubbard, chief State constable, stating that in Laurens county since the 19th of October, 1870, there had been a judge of probate, Volney Powell, a member of the house of representatives, Wade A. Perrin and eleven other leading republicans killed. In one day fifty men and women were brutally whipped and maltreated, and one hundred and fifty persons driven from their homes; that in Union county two trial justices and one probate judge had been killed, fifteen men taken from jail and shot or hung, and about seventy-five barbarously scourged and whipped, and relating similar outrages in Spartansburg, York and Abbeville counties.

FRANCE.

Paris has a mob that insults and assaults Americans and Englishmen. The mob has possession of a large quantity of arms and ammunition, and the authorities seem powerless to prevent the spread of the revolutionary spirit.

At Bordeaux, the assembly has appointed a committee to report on the proposed impeachment of the government of national defence.

SENATOR PATTERSON in his speech at Nashua, said in regard to annexation, he was in favor of accepting the Canadas and provinces. He believed with Senator Sumner, that the time for the High Commission to hold its convention would be when the English flag had been withdrawn from the Western Hemisphere. We have icebergs and hurricanes enough. We don't want San Domingo. The purchase money would amount to forty millions. It would cost ten millions each year to maintain a standing army, and no end of expense in fortifying. Moreover, it is a sickly climate, and the inhabitants are ignorant and ungovernable. France expended millions of treasure and lost thousands of her best soldiers in a vain endeavor to govern them, and it is but a few years since that Spain was forced from the island, after a loss of 30,000 soldiers. Said the speaker, we don't want San Domingo, and if we did, it is contrary to the first principles of a republican form of government to say to them, "We want you, and you are ours."

—Captain Grindle of the ship Old Colony was acquitted, in the United States circuit court at New York, of cruelty to the crew.

Of course; and Capt. Peabody, of the ship Neptune, will also be acquitted on a similar charge. The United States laws are carefully framed to prevent ship-masters from being punished for abusing or murdering old sailors, and "popular indignation" is a fool to get worked up in behalf of that outlawed class. Grindle and Peabody are two notorious brutes to their men, but they stand in no more danger of getting punished in this world than they do of going to heaven.

☞ While Mr. Warren Pettigell was driving an ox team on Water Street, Newburyport, he slipped in front of the wheels by a mis-step and the heavily loaded team passed over his body, crushing him so that he lived but a short time after the accident. Mr. Pettingell was 44 years of age.

☞ Eureka has found it. Eureka is in Humboldt County, and Humboldt County is in California. Eureka had a 60-second earthquake shock, on the 2d, and lost some of its house chimneys and cornices. No lives were lost.

☞ The town of Meridian, Mississippi, is very much in need of reconstruction. While a negro was being tried for incendiarism the judge was shot, died and a fight ensued in which eight or ten persons were killed.

☞ Hon. Jacob H. Ela will be appointed Pension Agent at Concord, it is said. Glad to hear it, if Mr. Ela wants it.

☞ Judge Daniel Clark naturalized 30 foreigners at Exeter on Tuesday.

Communication.

STRAWBERRY BANK VS. ANNEXATION.

Messrs. Editors:—We are always interested in a public discussion. We go in for free speech and thorough investigation of the public merits of all public measures. But we believe in reaping the public good always in view, and laboring to promote that, rather than simply guarding private interests to the sacrifice of any other consideration.

Your correspondent, under the cognomen of Strawberry Bank, seems to be opposed to annexation only upon one ground, namely, the cost. He does not go on to say that this cost will only be two dollars per head on the present population, if Portsmouth paid the whole town debt of Newcastle. Nor does he seem to see the fact that Newcastle is to assume her proportion of Portsmouth's debt, which is nearly ten times the amount of her own, and that she must pay her part for all improvements made after annexation, whether bridges, town hall, railroad or any other improvement project, which (upon the advance of valuation in her property which would immediately follow annexation) would leave her very little indeed to boast of, in the saving of taxes.

It seems to us that any unprejudiced man, with half the ability at guessing displayed by Strawberry Bank, can see that this alone is not the "burden," Newcastle is anxious to be rid of, else she had better keep still. For in five years, with the possible improvements Portsmouth may make, and her increase in valuation, her share of the general debt would be greater than her own is to-day. The difficulty which Newcastle is most anxious to remove is the prejudice which exists in the minds of men who are willing to come and do business in her harbor, to build halls and summer residences on her elegant sites and help develop her natural resources, if the present obstacles were not in the way; and she asks Portsmouth to annex her simply as a loan. While she admits that annexation will be a great benefit to her just at present, in enabling her to remove objections and obstacles in the way of her growth, the benefit to Portsmouth will be equally great, even in the present, in the increase of business which must as a natural consequence follow any improvement in Newcastle; and as business and wealth increase here, so her proportion of Portsmouth debt will increase, till in a few years she will become a helpmate whose value and importance, resulting from the unity of interest, the concert of action and the natural fruits of mutual effort, "Strawberry Bank" will be among the first to acknowledge.

It would have been a very easy matter for Boston a few years ago to have lost her fair fame as the "Hub." Her shipping had decreased; her docks were empty; her lines of steamers were being sold out and taken away; her railroads were running behind and stagnation generally seemed to have seized upon her. But there was enterprise and capital enough within her limits to save her, and her devoted sons came to her rescue in a body.—Merchants, Lawyers, Capitalists, Journalists, Ministers and all—and to-day no city on the Atlantic seaboard has finer future prospects. And this is what is needed in Portsmouth, a general rally of all the forces representing the various business interests. We have an Ex-Mayor (Jones) to take the lead; and if we had ten more to follow we would have a city here in five years that the natives would not be able to recognize; and as we look upon that monument of his munificence which all so much admire, and appreciate his many other efforts to promote the public good, and contrast them with the do-nothing policy of some, we can think of no better illustration of the subject, than the deep, rich, perennial beauty of the evergreen. Compared with the transient, vapid nature of the "Strawberry."

Your correspondent, in referring to our former article, uses some big words, such as "excruciatingly" and "geological," which (being common folks) we could not be expected to understand; but presuming they all mean annexation we let them pass. It affords us pleasure to know that we have been able to do him some good by informing him about the bank presidents, and will also state that so far as we know (and we have seen most of them) they are in favor of improvements. But the tenacity with which he clings to his "cat" theory quite surprises us. We can see no connection whatever to the real subject, and know of no cause for its use; and not being a member of the feline fraternity, we are not disposed to pursue the subject. His reference to a "firm doing business in Newcastle" is quite singular. We never understood before that it was proposed to annex any single "firm" or family, but that the Town of Newcastle was the object to be annexed, and that firms and families come with her as a natural consequence. We have some slight acquaintance with the "firm" alluded to, and think from what we know that they would not let a good opportunity slip to buy a nice vessel at a bargain, though she should happen to be built at Kennebunk. CITIZEN.

"CRUMBS SWEPT UP" is the suggestive and somewhat peculiar title of a very interesting and readable book, written by Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, of Brooklyn, New York, and published by George M. Smith & Co., No. 129 Washington Street, Boston. The author is well known by the public generally as a popular lecturer and preacher. Being a man of the times, his sympathies are altogether with the present, and his views herein expressed show the fearless disregard of all old conventionalisms, and hearty appreciation of the advance of the age. In illustration of this, he is now engaged, with all his heart, in the "Free Church Movement," having so labored as to secure the co-operation of enough pecuniary and working assistance to rear a free tabernacle, capable of seating over three thousand people; and this, accomplished inside of two years, with a congregation of less than one hundred, in an old church, in the immediate neighborhood of the great Henry Ward Beecher. The articles treated in "Crumbs," are illustrations of the many and various sayings of the present day, with pleasing sketches, all showing their application to a moral. They are written in a spicy and vigorous vein, humorous and pathetic. His articles written on his late trip to Europe are also included. He has evidently viewed the sights with open eye, and has a peculiarly happy faculty of word-drawing rarely surpassed; his style is decidedly original, and his many philosophic and amusing aphorisms are wonderful.

We recommend for it a perusal by every one, and we predict for it a very large sale. It is printed on tinted paper, elegantly bound in morocco cloth, and is illustrated in a manner at once pleasing and suggestive, by an eminent artist. The price is $2, within the reach of all, the publishers' desire being evidently to make it at once popular and cheap. As it is published by subscription, it will not be found at the bookstores, but will be mailed to any address, free of postage, on receipt of the price by the publishers, by whom reliable canvassers, male or female, are wanted to aid in its sale.

The lady Agent of "Crumbs Swept Up" will call on our citizens and we can heartily recommend the book to our readers. It is for sale only by subscription.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

"DRIVEN FROM HOME" is a popular song, but the most popular goods in the boot and shoe market are those where the CABLE SCREW WIRE is driven home by a powerful machine. They are pliable, reasonable in price, impervious to dampness, and more durable than any other make. They are for sale by all first-class dealers.

If you desire rosy cheeks and a complexion fair and free from Pimples and Blotches, purify your blood by the use of Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Discovery. It has no equal for this purpose, nor as a remedy for severe Coughs or Bronchitis. Sold by druggists. To avoid Counterfeits see that it has on the outside wrapper, Dr. Pierce's private Stamp, issued by the U. S. Government expressly for stamping his medicines, and which bears his portrait, name and address upon it.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

An Insalubrious Season.

Spring is welcome, but not its diseases. We should be glad to have its bloom without its fogs, its vapors, its sudden changes of temperature, and the agues, fits of indigestion, bilious attacks, and other harassing disorders which they engender. As this cannot be, it behooves all sensible people to do the best they can to escape such serious drawbacks on the poetry of the season. Ask any physician what the weak and delicate ought to do when miasma infects the air. The answer will be "tone and regulate the system." But how? That is the important question. A dozen medical men would probably recommend as many different medicines. On the other hand, the thousands who have tested the virtues of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS as an invigorant and alterative, will recommend but one, the wholesome preventive and restorative in which their own experience has taught them to trust. A course of this rare vegetable stimulant, commenced now, would save many a pang to the feeble and debilitated. It would be wise economy too, for it would probably preclude the necessity for medical advice. Without disparagement to a profession which all intelligent men and women respect and honor, it is just as well, if possible, to keep out of the doctors' hands, and there would have comparatively few cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia, biliousness, nervousness and general debility to attend to, if this agreeable and healthful specific were in universal use.

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

"Against what?" asks the reader. Why, against the POISONS, vile, maddening and deadly, advertised as "superior to all Hair Dyes." But, on second thoughts, the call "to arms!" is unnecessary. The wretched trash is already being driven out of the market. It has received the coup de grace from

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The popularity of this time-tried article increases every hour. Everybody is talking of the "natural shades" it imparts, and there is no conceivable reason why it should not be used, being (as Professor CHILTON states in his certificate) PERFECTLY HARMLESS. DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued in regard to, or rationally and cure of diseased lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid taking cold; and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the interior, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as in more northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterman. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influences of the climate and medicines, were getting well.

Five hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even, and the air dry and bracing. Melbourville and Enterprise are located there. I should give a decided preference to Melbourville: it is on a lake front river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times; but that is a good sign, as it shows that they have an appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives. I give, as one reason for saying so are, that patients are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature, and it is not necessary to say, that, where a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds, he is certain to die of consumption. My advice is, go well down into the State, out of the reach of prevailing cast winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a deranged stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat, or cough; but, for those whose lungs are diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1869, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take vast quantities of "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not keep from taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well-established fact, that natives of Florida rarely die of consumption, especially those of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, one-third at least of the population die of this terrible disease. In the Middle States, it does not prevail to largely; still there are many thousands of cases there. What a sad percentage! Up to recent date, all consumptives were so easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh colds as they are about scarlet fever, smallpox, &c.; but they are not; they take what they term a little cold, which they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to stay in a state of Nature's Quietude, take my Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these medicines particularly, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action. I know, that, where they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough, or night sweats, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the directions accompanying them, in all cases where a freer use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary. My object is, to give time to the system, so as to get up a good appetite. It is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry; I have hopes of such. When the patient calls for food, and the gratification of that relish, comes good blood, and with it more flesh, which is closely followed by a healing of the lungs.—Then the cough loosens and abates, the creeping chills and clammy night sweats no longer prostrate and annoy, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, Is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, that they have got to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regular by the use of a good stove or of a thermometer. Let such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room by rubbing, shaking, and then as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease, if the patient is in the proper state, and the treatment is pursued. The fact stands undisputed on record, that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured many cases of what seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption. Go where you may, you will find persons who owe their lives to some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

As far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They are, in my advice and opinion, and ever have been, the purest and most efficacious of all cathartics, take care of the Mandrakes, and they will relieve you in two hours. If you would obviate the effect of a change of water, or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night, and you may then drink water, and eat almost any kind of fruit, such as peaches, or corn, without the risk of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in those situations against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office, No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9, A.M., to 3, P.M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs; and patients can really see and understand for themselves, by means of it, just it distinctly understood, that the value of my medicines depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and directions, they are not so much in a healthy condition thereby; they are not so liable to take cold; yet no one with diseased lungs can get a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consultation, and be benefited from any druggist.

Republican Caucuses.
Notice—I. O. O. F.
Dr. Tilton's Bitters.

☞ The next State Fair will be held at Portsmouth, Dover or Great Falls. Let's have it.

☞ The Masonic Ball at Congress Hall this evening, from all indications, will be the most brilliant and extensive affair in that line which the Brotherhood have ever got up here. A large attendance is assured, and the dealers in ladies' dry goods have had a gratifying run of trade for the past fortnight, in that class of stuffs most likely to upset bachelors' heads and husbands' pockets.

☞ Our old friend D. Horace Holman of Lewiston, Me., consented to run for a School Committee man, on the Republican ticket, at the recent election. The Ward he resides in is heavily Democratic, and Horace went under, with the rest of the Republican nominees, his chief consolation being that he ran 25 votes ahead of his ticket. Next to a triumphant election, getting handsomely beaten soothes one.

APPOINTMENT.—Mr. Thomas H. Staples of Eliot, Me., on Wednesday received the appointment of Foreman of Laborers in the Bureau of Construction at this Yard, vice Dennett, who has been appointed to a position in the revenue service. Mr. Staples is well qualified to fulfil the duties of Master Laborer, inasmuch as he has a number of years' experience in that capacity, having held the position during the war, and we believe a year or two after.

MASONIC.—The lecture in Congress Hall on Friday evening, March 10th, before the Masonic Fraternity of this city, by Bro. Charles W. Gardner, will be prefaced with singing by a good quartette, which will add something to the interest of the evening's entertainment. Admission free. An invitation is extended to all members of the Fraternity, together with their ladies and any friends outside of the Order whom members may choose to invite. Lecture commences at half past seven, precisely.

☞ While on a hasty trip to Newcastle on Tuesday, we found the school houses in good condition, the desks of the latest and most approved pattern, the walls of the rooms papered in panels, everything neat and convenient, and with a capacity for 175 pupils. The teachers are among the best the State affords, and the Superintendent informs us that the schools will rank with the average in the State. There are three school departments, and the terms last ten months in the year. The roads seemed to be in quite as good condition as they are in other places.

☞ A correspondent at Kittery, Me., writes that Rev. Geo. W. Bicknell of this city delivered his highly interesting lecture on "Enthusiasm," in the People's Lyceum course at Kittery, on Monday evening, March 6. Although the weather was inclement, the well known reputation of the speaker drew a full and appreciative audience. The lecture abounds in many capital hits, especially as regards the weak enthusiast or fanatic (as he sometimes termed him) in politics, caste, &c., while it commends that spirit of enthusiasm by which, when duty calls and success would be attained, every energy is brought into requisition at whatever cost or sacrifice. We commend the lecture to all lyceum associations as one that will give pleasure and satisfaction.

WANTED, in this city, a Police Force and City Marshal who will earn their salaries by rigidly enforcing all laws without in any way interfering with the sacred right of rumsellers and other law breakers to do just as they please, who will each be in a dozen different places in the city at any given moment of the day or night, who can maintain perfect order and save decent people from ever being offended by the sight of a drunken row without in any way encroaching on the blessed liberty of true democrats to get drunk and fight as often as and just where they choose, and who will be of no expense to the city.

Also wanted, a Collector who will always be found at the City Rooms, to please the Prophet and receive taxes, and who will also always be absent from the City Rooms, to please the Great Economist and collect the taxes which so many of the party friends of the Prophet and Economist never pay—including the back taxes on the copper horn establishment, which the former blower on that wind instrument forgot to hand over before he left.

After the above offices are filled in a manner to satisfy the Portsmouth copperheads, other good men of the same sort will be required.

☞ Votes printed at this office.

☞ The Massachusetts Humane Society have sent $70 for the crew of the White Rover.

☞ The steamer Speedwell made a trial trip from the Navy Yard to Wells Beach on Tuesday, steaming in sight of the wrecked vessel Clotilde, which lies on the beach aforementioned.

☞ We are glad to learn that Mr. George A. Putnam of Lyndeboro' has been appointed writer in Steam Engineering Department at this Navy Yard. Mr. Putnam lost a leg in the recent rebellion.

☞ Mr. James E. Huntress has finished canvassing this city for a new Directory. All new advertisements must be sent in immediately, and correction, or alterations must be sent in within ten days, as the Publishers desire to issue the Directory promptly on the 1st of May.

THE LAST LECTURE of the course given under the auspices of the P. M. L. A. was delivered on Tuesday evening by J. P. Bartlett, Esq.; subject, "Life Insurance." The lecture was a plain statement of facts, the speaker explaining to his audience the basis upon which this species of insurance is founded, together with its origin and growth up to the present time, showing the folly of classing it with games of chance, when it is not subject to the chances which even ordinary business transactions are. Savings Banks, in connection with insurance, were discussed, and the fact shown that throwing aside the death risk which the insurance companies assume they can even then compete successfully with the banks. The fact of our most shrewd and prominent business men being the first to insure shows that they see and appreciate the advantages which the Life Company offers for making a sure provision for those dependant upon them; and where twenty-five years ago the insured man of business was the exception, the reverse is now the case, showing that the fogyisms and superstitions of the olden times are passing away, and that men now read, think and act for themselves.

JEAN INGELOW ON THE WAVE.—In Portsmouth, a ship is being fitted for sea which is named the "Jean Ingelow." It will be commanded by one of the owners, and will sail for a southern port in a few weeks. More fitting tribute could not have been paid to the special bent of Miss Ingelow's genius! She loves the sea; she was born near its shores; and some of her choicest imagery has been drawn from a long familiarity with the ebb and flow of its tides, the undulations of its waves, and the motion of its white-winged ships. In one of Miss Ingelow's prose volumes, "Mopsa the Fairy," the apple-woman sings a song which is a fresh breath from the ocean. We give a stanza of the song:

"Then I hear the water washing, never golden waves were brighter,
And I hear the capstan creaking—'tis a sound that cannot cloy.
Bring her to, to ship her lading, brig or schooner,
sloop or lighter,
With a 'pull'e haul'e, pull'e haul'e, yoy! heave, hoy!'"

FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

ON A COMPLETED ROAD,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway.

The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mortgage issue dealt in at the Stock Exchange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis; for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 9½ per cent. interest, instead of 5 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for re-investment.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. 12tdWaS

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Root and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. 1yrdawfeb16

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO

OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40 000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

A MEDICATED BEAR.

Science against the Gallows.

BY JOHN PLATT.

I was once told how a bear was used to illustrate a fact in science. It was at an early day in the history of galvanism. A negro had been condemned to suffer death on the gallows for murder in Cincinnati, and some learned men announced that, for and in consideration of twenty-five cents admission, to be collected at the door, for the benefit of a hospital, experiments with the galvanic battery would be made upon the body of the miserable man. A circus tent had been procured for the purpose, and the medical savans counted largely on the profits to accrue.

The fatal day came, and with it thousands on thousands of people—men, women, and children to witness the perpetuation of this remnant of stupid barbarism called hanging. From midnight until morn, from all the hills and valleys of Kentucky, Ohio, and Indiana, came pouring in the motley crowd of ignorant, curious humanity. The taverns, stores, streets, and alleys were crowded with people; and when the sentence hour approached, the procession that accompanied the cart made a sensitive mind sick of the human race.

The better cultivated and more refined gathered in the huge tent to witness the scientific experiments, that promised to restore the wretched convict to life, or, failing in that, to make his dead body struggle and kick in the most exciting manner. The preparations were significant and startling. Near the centre of the sawdust ring was a table, and by it the wonderful instrument that was believed to hold mysterious essence of life; while about them were gathered in groups the medical philosophers conversing in low measured tones, or walking to and fro, calmly indifferent to the gathered crowd, as men are wont to do on such occasions.

Hours wore away. The noon came and passed. The excitement grew intense. At last a rumor spread and reached the tent that the sentenced man had been reprieved upon the scaffold. This was confirmed by the returning crowd, that pushed in without paying and packed every available space. Hisses and cries of discontent broke out, and were taken up by the motley crew of the non-paying audience, in a high state of wrath at being disappointed in the hanging. In the midst of the tumult Professor D——mounted the table, and, commanding silence, said:

"Ladies and gentlemen, we regret deeply that a mistaken clemency on the part of the Governor has robbed the gallows of its own and science of a subject. It is impossible to return you your money, for so many have rushed in without paying, and they would be precisely the sort to demand the admission fee. We have determined, however, so that you may not be disappointed in your laudable curiosity to witness an execution and those wonderful exhibitions of modern science, to purchase of Mr. Brown a bear that he has fattened to kill, hang the animal here, and then proceed with our experiments. Will this satisfy you?"

An uproarious and unanimous shout in the affirmative was the response. The bear was sent for. But Bruin had not been consulted, and declined the engagement. The audience waited patiently for hours. At last a great noise of men, boys and dogs on the outside gave welcome note of the coming event. The fat janitor of the Medical College, a bald-headed enthusiast in the cause of physic, appeared inside the entrance, tugging at a rope that seemed to be held by some reluctant party outside. So reluctant was this party that twice the janitor disappeared, pulled back by superior force. The janitor, cheered by the crowd, and at length assisted by stout men, pulled the animal into the arena.

To hang a bear without the animal's consent (and I never heard of one committing suicide) is at any time difficult; but to hang a fat bear is almost impossible. The muscular neck is quite as large as the head, and on this occasion Bruin was pulled up twice, and twice, assisted by his paws, he twisted his neck out of the noose and came down amid loud cheers from the crowd that was rapidly passing into sympathy with the four-footed animal. The third attempt proved the charm. Bruin kicked and struggled at the end of a line as naturally as a man would have done, and at the close of twenty minutes he was pronounced a dead bear by the learned faculty in attendance.

The body was lowered with some haste and placed upon the table. At the first shock the struggles were renewed. At the second discharge the efforts were more decided, and growls were added. At the third shock Bruin sat up on his haunches and gazed stupidly at the audience. The audience reciprocated the attention by still louder cheers. While this was going on, the subject of these wonderful experiments happened to get sight of the fat janitor, and, while the fourth shock was being administered, he suddenly, with a terrific growl, jumped from the table and ran after his corpulent foe. The ring, that up to this moment had been somewhat crowded, was abruptly cleared.

A fair field was given the affrighted official, who fairly astonished himself at the rate with which he carried his adipose over the ground. So long as the bear chased the janitor, the crowd was entertained. In all such exhibitions, however, certain women are sure to be present who mar the enjoyment by screaming at the wrong moment, and then, fainting, force people to carry them out into the open air. This is to be reprehended, and the women should be rebuked. On this occasion, when the popular enjoyment was at the highest and the hated janitor—by the way, a body-snatcher—was making his third round, with the bear gaining on him, three or four considerate women began screaming. The people of that day were familiar with the bears and had no fear of the animal. But there was something mysteriously alarming about a bear that had been dead and was alive again. And so when the screams were heard a great panic fell upon the crowd. The effort made to escape was fearful. Over the seats, under the seats, out through the thin canvas in every direction, the multitude fled like rats from a falling house, and in the midst of the tumult the canvas came down. Out from under it the audience hurried, climbing on fences and roofs or disappearing down streets and alleys. Among these was the persecuted janitor. At last the medicated bear, full of galvanism, appeared and set off over the common, followed by all the dogs of the country.

For many years after this strange event in Cincinnati and its vicinity, hanging was regarded with great contempt. The simple folk believed that all the condemned had to do was to sell his body to the doctors. "Then those learned chaps would knock a little lightning into the body and set it on end good as ever."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

WALTHAM

WATCHES.

The extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

More than 200,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enables them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watch-making originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skillful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:—

The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main-springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Fogg's patent pinion as being the best and faultless.

Hardened and tempered hair-springs, now universally admitted by Watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movements from dust and loosening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch is already a decided success, and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mentioned improvements, which tend to ensure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

The trademarks of the various styles made by the Company are as follows:—

AMERICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.

ADM. WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.

AMERICAN WATCH CO., Crescent St., Waltham, Mass.

APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass.

AMERICAN WATCH CO., Adams St., Waltham, Mass.

WALTHAM WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.

P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass.

WM. ELLERY, Waltham, Mass.

Examine the spelling of these names carefully before buying. Any variation even of a single letter, indicates a counterfeit.

COMPOUND FLUID

Extract Catawba

GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

For Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Bilious Affections, Sick or Nervous Headache, Costiveness, etc. Purely Vegetable, containing no Mercury, Minerals or Deleterious Drugs.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more disagreeable in H. Helmbold. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving; consequently do not produce the desired effect. The CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. Price 50 cents per box.

[—ALICE CARY.

THE DAVENPORT BROTHERS EXPOSED.—Hoxie's Hall was filled to overflowing. At the proper time Mr. Fay, one of the performers, advanced to the front of the stage with a paper containing the names of the committee, and requested them to come forward. Messrs. Bell and Lowery soon made way through the audience and were greeted with tremendous applause, as they bowed to the audience.

Ropes were given the men, they examined them thoroughly and then went at work with a vim to tie the brothers tight. This being done they explained to the audience how many knots, etc., they had made, and, in their opinion, all was satisfactory. The cabinet doors were closed by Prof. Fay, and in eighteen seconds sounds from a violin, guitar and tambourine were heard distinctly by the audience, as coming from the cabinet. The doors were opened by the Professor, and the committee, after an examination, found the ropes, and knots the same as they had tied. While closing the door, Mr. Bell was struck on the shoulder with some unknown object, but Mr. Lowery saw it and instantly went to Mr. Bell's side, and whispered to Mr. Bell, who began to go through the same motion.

Out came the object. Mr. Lowery sprang like a cat and seized the hand, and wrenched it carefully off, throwing it in the audience. Upon examination it was found to be a paper masked hand, as thin as writing paper, and fitting so closely in the cabinet that it was impossible to observe it. It was worked by wire, perfectly at the will of the operators. Cheer upon cheer was given for the committee. The brothers were raging with madness, but constant calls from the audience convinced them that they must either play or pay, and accordingly the cabinet was thrown aside and the dark seance was announced.

The professor stated beforehand if any tricks were attempted he would not proceed with the entertainment. A table was brought forward and several musical instruments laid upon it and the professor and one of the brothers were tied, a quantity of phosphorus was rubbed on a guitar and the lights were extinguished. Total darkness reigned. Presently sweet chords came from the guitar and the phosphorus was seen running here and there in the air. All believed the guitar sailing here and there—they might catch the cabinet trick, but the dark scene was a stunner.

While the supposed guitar was swinging in the air, one of the audience named Brooks, pulled from under his coat a dark lantern of immense power, which he instantly shot on the flying guitar, and to all present, it appeared nothing, only one of the attaches of the show held a pole six feet long, on the end was nailed a small piece of flour barrel heading. The guitar was lying on the table in the same position, only the phosphorus was not on it. To describe the scene that followed would be folly.

Mr. Bell then stated that their cabinet tricks were done by simply bringing their tied hands over their head, and then they were almost free to ring bells, blow horns, etc. We don't think the Brothers will book this city on their next route.—Cor. Chattanooga Times.

—In observing the coating of the tongue care must be taken in drawing an inference; as in affections of the liver the coating will be of a yellowish line; while, if the blood be impure, a brown or dark color will be present. In some instances, the change is due to the quality of food taken, and again to the medicine administered. The tongue of a tea-taster will be found to be orange-tinted and very smooth. Affections of the fauces give a deep yellow appearance to the tongue; while in the beginning of fevers, inflammation of the respiratory textures, etc., it will present a heavily coated, whitish aspect.—Medical Independent.

—The boot period is the dividing line between babyhood and boyhood. Before the boots, one is trampled upon by comrades, and stuck with pins, and we walk with an air of apology for the fact that we were born at all. Robust school-fellows strike us across the cheek, and when we turn toward them, they cry, "Who are you looking at?" or, what is worse than possible insult, we have somebody chuck us under the chin, and call us "Bub!" — From Crumbs Swept Up.

— Mrs. Smith of Wakesha kindled the fire with kerosene. It was the non-explosive kind, and they buried her where she fell.

—It is generally believed that a very large number of umbrellas are keeping lent.

— Alice Cary was a Universalist.

AMERICAN & FOREIGN PATENTS.
R. H. EDDY, SOLICITOR OF PATENTS, For Inventions, Trade Marks or Designs,
No. 16 STATE ST., OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON,
After an extensive practice of upwards of thirty years, continues to secure patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all papers for Patents, executed on reasonable terms with dispatch. Researches made to determine the validity and utility of Patents of inventions, and legal and other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any patent furnished, by remitting one dollar. Assignments recorded in Washington.
No Agency in the United States possesses superior facilities for obtaining Patents or ascertaining the patentability of inventions.
All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a Patent and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.
"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART."

SCIENTIFIC AND POPULAR MEDICAL WORKS
—ON—
MANHOOD, WOMANHOOD AND NERVOUS DISEASES,
PUBLISHED BY THE
PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE,
No. 4 Bulfinch Street, Boston,
(Opposite Revere House.)
Dr. W. H. PARKER, Assistant Physician.
Medical knowledge for everybody. 250,000 copies sold in two years.
A Book for every Man.
THE SCIENCE OF LIFE, OR SELF-PRESERVATION. A Medical Treatise on the Cause and Cure of EXHAUSTED VITALITY, PREMATURE DECLINE IN MAN, NERVOUS AND PHYSICAL DEBILITY, HYPOCHONDRIA, and all other diseases arising from the ERRORS OF YOUTH, OR THE INDISCRETIONS OR EXCESSES of mature years. This is indeed a book for every man. Price only $1.00. 285 pages, bound in cloth.
A Book For Every Woman,
Entitled SEXUAL PHYSIOLOGY OF WOMAN, AND HER DISEASES; or, WOMAN TREATED OF PHYSIOLOGICALLY AND PATHOLOGICALLY; from INFANCY TO OLD AGE, with elegant ILLUSTRATIVE ENGRAVINGS. 320 pages, bound in beautiful French cloth. Price $2.00.
A Book for Everybody.
Flattered by the reception of, and great demand for, the above valuable and timely treatises, and also to meet a great need of the present age, the author has just published a new book, treating exclusively of NERVOUS AND MENTAL DISEASES. 150 pp. cloth. Price $1, or sent FREE on receipt of $3 for the other two books, postpage paid.
These are, beyond all comparison, the most extraordinary works on Physiology ever published. There is nothing whatever that the MARRIED OR SINGLE, of EITHER SEX, can either require or wish to know, but what is fully explained, and many matters of the most important and interesting character are introduced to which no allusion even can be found in any other works in our language. All the NEW DISCOVERIES of the author, whose experience is such as probably never before fell to the lot of any man, are given in full. No person should be without these valuable books.
"VALUABLE BOOKS.—We have received the valuable medical works published by the Peabody Medical Institute. These books are of actual merit, and should find a place in every intelligent family. They are not the cheap order of abomninable trash, published by irresponsible parties, and purchased to gratify coarse tastes, but are written by a responsible professional gentleman of eminence, as a source of instruction on vital matters, concerning which lamentable ignorance exists. The important subjects presented are treated with delicacy, ability and candor, and in an appendix, many useful prescriptions for prevailing complaints are added."—Coos Republican, Lancaster, N. H.
"The author of these books is one of the most learned and popular physicians of the day, and is entitled to the gratitude of our race for these invaluable productions. It is earnest to be his aim to induce men and women to avoid the cause of those diseases to which they are subject, and he tells them just how and when to do it."—Chronicle, Farmington, Maine, Sept. 7, 1866.
Either book sent by mail on receipt of price.
N. B. The Author of the above-named medical works is the Chief Consulting Physician of the Peabody Medical Institute, and is so constantly employed in consultation with invalids from all parts of the country, that he has no time to attend to mere business details. Therefore all letters should be addressed to the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, or to Dr. W. H. PARKER, the Medical Assistant of the Author, and his Business Agent, who, as well as the Author himself, may be consulted on all diseases requiring skill, secrecy and experience. oct26d1yr

The Daily Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, MARCH 10, 1871.

GOV. HARRIMAN in his Manchester speech referred to the spirit manifested by the Democratic party when the old hero, the Union General Thomas died, and to the action of the same party on the death of the traitor Lee. As an evidence that the Democratic party manifest a preference for rebels rather than patriots,—for those who helped fill graves with Northern soldiers rather than those who stood by the country,—the speaker referred to the action of the Democratic State Committee in dispensing their fat jobs of printing. "It is a fact, as I am assured," said Gov. Harriman, "that the Committee refused to give the printing of the Democratic ballots, circulars, blanks, &c., to the loyal press of the party, or even to those who defended the South. The old Patriot at Concord, which, in storm as well as in sunshine, has stood by the party for about half a century, was deemed unworthy to be entrusted with party patronage. So, too, its rival by its side, the new and vigorous advocate of Democratic policy, the People, is not considered sufficiently true to the interests of treason to be allowed to print votes for the coming election. That at Portsmouth, one of the bitterest denouncers of the war, the lauder of Lee and Beauregard and the whole roll of rebel officers, did not bend its back sufficiently low to merit party patronage. And last," said the speaker, "is the Daily Union,—I have a great affection for the Union,—even that is ruled out when it asks for the patronage of the party. The Union, whose chief editor was educated in the political schools of Virginia,—who is received with ovations and civic honors when he visits the scene of his earlier efforts,—even he is not to be trusted with the sacred work of executing the party printing! But it has been reserved for and awarded to another one of your citizens, who held a commission in the rebel army, and was instrumental in filling graves with your sons and brothers!"

The Governor suggested that there can be no doubt about the genuineness of the ticket as it comes, from the press of one who demonstrated the animus of the party by his works.

The Nashua Telegraph says:—Our own knowledge of the facts warrants us in saying that it cannot be denied. There is no accident about it, but it is a favor deliberately conferred by the Democratic managers upon one who was arrayed against the New Hampshire boys in blue from the opening to the close of the war. In this city, as elsewhere, there are Democrats who hazarded all to defend the old flag from the assault of treason. How can such men cast the Grayback ticket on Tuesday next with a clear conscience of duty done to the memories of their comrades who sleep in Southern graves? How can honest Democrats anywhere so far forget their manhood as to touch the polluted thing? Last year your leaders played you false by deserting Gen. Bedel, a gallant soldier, for the antiquated candidate of the Labor Reformers. This year they have added insult to outrage by palming off upon you a genuine Grayback ticket, the reward of four years' service in the rebel army. Is it not about time for the honest men of the Democratic party to administer a proper rebuke to their blundering and treacherous leaders? Are you prepared to endorse the Grayback ticket on Tuesday next? Rather will you not spurn it as you would the hated rag of treason itself?

☞ The outlaws in South Carolina are busy furnishing additional evidence for the congressional investigating committee. They visited the office of the county treasurer of York county a few days ago, smashed up the furniture and burned his papers. A day or two afterwards a negro was taken out of his house and murdered, and in another place a quantity of arms were destroyed.

—Oh, for a religious literature that shall take for its model of excellence a boy that loves God, and can digest his dinner two hours after he eats it! * * * I do not think heaven is so near to an ill-ventilated nursery as to a good gymnasium.—From Crumbs Swept Up.

☞ "Shall we be rescued" is the heading of a political editorial in the Concord Patriot. Your party will be rescued, brethren, when ye shall repent and do work meet for repentance.

☞ Dr. Van Hoosen of Albany, during an attack of delirium tremens, smashed his wife's skull with a gridiron, killing her instantly. He is now a maniac.

—Victor Hugo is a candidate for mayor of Paris.

NEW LOAN OF THE UNITED STATES.

IMPORTANT CIRCULAR.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, Feb. 28, 1871.

Public notice is hereby given, that books will be opened on the 6th day of March next in this country and in Europe, for subscriptions to the National Loan, under the Act approved July 14, 1870, entitled "An Act to authorize the Refunding of the National Debt," and the Act in amendment thereof, approved Jan. 20, 1871.

The proposed loan comprises three clases of Bonds, namely:

First—Bonds to the amount of five hundred millions of dollars, payable in coin, at the pleasure of the United States, after ten years from the date of their issue, and bearing interest, payable quarterly in coin, at the rate of five per cent. per annum.

Second—Bonds to the amount of three hundred millions of dollars, payable in coin, at the pleasure of the United States, after fifteen years from the date of their issue, bearing interest, and payable quarterly in coin, at the rate of four and a half per cent. per annum.

Third—Bonds to the amount of seven hundred millions of dollars, payable in coin, at the pleasure of the United States, after thirty years from the date of the issue, and bearing interest, payable quarterly in coin, at the rate of four per cent. per annum.

Subscriptions to the loan will have preference in the following order, namely:

First—Subscriptions that may be first made for five per cent. Bonds to the amount of two hundred millions of dollars, of which there will be reserved, for twenty days, one-half for subscribers in this country and one-half for subscribers in foreign countries.

Second—Subscriptions for equal amounts of each class of Bonds.

Third—Subscriptions for equal amounts of Bonds bearing interest at the rate of four and a half per cent., and of Bonds bearing interest at the rate of five per cent.

Fourth—Subscriptions for any five per cent. Bonds that may not be subscribed for in the preceding classes.

When a subscription is made, the subscriber will be required to deposit two per cent. of the amount thereof in coin or currency of the United States, or in bonds of the class to be exchanged, to be accounted for by the Government when the new Bonds are delivered, and payment may be made either in coin or in bonds of the United States, known as Five-twenty Bonds, at their par value.

The coin received in payment will be applied to the redemption of Five-twenty Bonds, and the debt of the United States will not be increased by this loan.

The bonds will be registered or issued with coupons, as may be desired by subscribers. Registered bonds will be issued of the denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, and $10,000; and coupon bonds of each denomination except the last two. The interest will be payable in the United States, at the office of the Treasurer, any Assistant Treasurer, or Designated Depositary of the Government, quarterly, on the first days of February, May, August and November, in each year.

The bonds of the several classes aforesaid, and the interest thereon, are exempt from the payment of all taxes or dues to the United States, as well as from taxation in any form by or under State, muncipal or local authority.

After maturity, the bonds last issued will be first redeemed, by classes and numbers, as may be designated by the Secretary of the Treasury.

The bonds will be issued at the United States Treasury, but the agents for the negotiation of the loan in Europe are authorized to make arrangements with subscribers for the transmission of the bonds to the agents through whom subscriptions may be received.

Subscribers in the United States will receive the new bonds of the agents with whom the subscriptions are made.

In the United States, the National Banks are authorized to receive subscriptions, and subscriptions may also be made at the office of the Treasurer of the United States, or of any Assistant Treasurer, or at the Designated Depositaries at Buffalo, N. Y., Chicago, Ill., Cincinnati, Ohio, Louisville, Ky., Mobile, Ala., and Pittsburg, Penn.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

"DRIVEN FROM HOME" is a popular song, but the most popular goods in the boot and shoe market are those where the CABLE SCREW WIRE is driven home by a powerful machine. They are pliable, reasonable in price, impervious to dampness, and more durable than any other make. They are for sale by all first-class dealers.

If you desire rosy cheeks and a complexion fair and free from Pimples and Blotches, purify your blood by the use of Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Discovery. It has no equal for this purpose, nor as a remedy for severe Coughs or Bronchitis. Sold by druggists. To avoid Counterfeits see that it has on the outside wrapper, Dr. Pierce's private Stamp, issued by the U. S. Government expressly for stamping his medicines, and which bears his portrait, name and address upon it.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

An Insalubrious Season.

Spring is welcome, but not its diseases. We should be glad to have its bloom without its fogs, its vapors, its sudden changes of temperature, and the agues, fits of indigestion, billious attacks, and other annoying disorders which they engender. As this cannot be, it behooves all sensible people to do the best they can to escape such serious drawbacks on the poetry of the season. Ask any physician what the weak and delicate ought to do when miasma infects the air. The answer will be "tone and regulate the system." But how? That is the important question. A dozen medical men would probably recommend as many different medicines. On the other hand, the thousands who have tested the virtues of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS as an invigorant and alterative, will recommend but one, the wholesome preventive and restorative in which their own experience has taught them to trust. A course of this rare vegetable stimulant, commenced now, would save many a pang to the feeble and debilitated. It would be wise economy too, for it would probably preclude the necessity for medical advice. Without disparagement to a profession which all intelligent men and women respect and honor, it is just as well, if possible, to keep out of the doctors' hands, and there would have comparatively few cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia, biliousness, nervousness and general debility to attend to, if this agreeable and healthful specific were in universal use.

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

"Against what?" asks the reader. Why, against the POISONS, vile, maddening and deadly, advertised as "superior to all Hair Dyes." But, on second thoughts, the call "to arms!" is unnecessary. The wretched trash is already being driven out of the market. It has received the coup de grace from

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The popularity of this time-tried article increases every hour. Everybody is talking of the "natural shades" it imparts, and there is no conceivable reason why it should not be used, being (as Professor CHILTON states in his certificate) PERFECTLY HARMLESS. As a dressing after dyeing, use imdawfeb27

☞ There is great excitement at Washington over an unwise movement made by the Senate caucus committee on the re-organization of the standing committees. Three of the five members of the committee have voted to remove Senator Sumner from the position of Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations and place Senator Cameron at the head of the Committee. The removal is said to be countenanced by the President, on account of Mr. Sumner's opposition to the Santo Domingo scheme. It is said, however, that President Grant prefers to have Senator Frelinghuysen at the head of the Committee, and intends asking Senator Morton to accept the office of Secretary of State, when Mr. Fish retires. The nominating committee is composed of Senators Howe of Wisconsin, Sherman of Ohio, Morrill of Vermont, Nye of Nevada, and Poole of North Carolina. Senators Sherman and Morrill stood by Mr. Sumner. We trust that the Senate will upset the arrangement of the majority of the committe, and reinstate Mr. Sumner.

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a tolerably healthy state of diseased lungs in tolerably sound bodies. The first and most important step is for the patient to avoid taking cold; and the best of all places on this continent for all such purposes, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as in more northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterman. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

One hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more equal, and the air dry and bracing. Mellonville and Enterprise are located there. I have given a decided preference to Mellonville, for it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times; but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, are highly recommended to consumptives in winter. My reason for saying as much as I do about Florida is that it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times; but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, are highly recommended to consumptives in winter. My reason for saying as much as I do about Florida is that it is a well-established fact that persons who go there to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature; and it is not necessary to say that, when a consumptive person expects himself to frequent colds, he is certain to die shortly; therefore my advice is, go well down into the State, out of the reach of spreading east winds and fogs, Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat, or cough; but, for those whose lungs are diseased, a more southerly point is carnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1869, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take vast quantities of "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody who is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well-established fact that persons of Florida rarely die of consumption, especially those of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, it is at the rate of the population of this terrible disease. In the Middle States, it does not prevail so much. But there are many thousands of consumptives. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to their fresh colds as they are about small-pox, fevers, small-pox, &c.; but they are not: they take what they term a little cold, which they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it; and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still, until their lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to lay in a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their operation. I know that, where they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. These accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough, or night sweats, and then allows the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where I prefer the Mandrake Pills to be used less frequently. My object is, to give 'tone' to the stomach,—to get up a good appetite. It is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry. I have hopes of such. With a relish for food, and the gratification of that relish, comes good blood, and with it more flesh, which is closely followed by a healing of the lungs,—then the cough loosens and subsides, the night sweats cease, the night sweats no longer prostrate and annoy, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, Is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a good fire, and not come out every degree, which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient live on the exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is easily cured as any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The fact stands well upon record, that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of what generally is considered incurable consumption. Go where you will, you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a box by them. They act on the liver better than calomel, and leave none of its hurtful effects behind. In fact, they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have partaken too freely of fruit, and distress, cramps, a dose of the Mandrake will cure you. If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of the Mandrakes, and they will cure you in two hours. If you would obviate the effect of a change of water, or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night, and you may then drink water, and eat water-melons, pears, apples, plums, peaches, or corn, without the risk of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against chills and fevers. Try them, they are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Tuesday, W. A. Ashmead's Drug Store, where a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer will correctly tell whether they are curable or not. But I desire it distinctly understood, that my success with the medicines depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their systems are brought into a healthy condition, they may, if they are so liable to take cold; yet no one with diseased lungs can have a sudden change of atmosphere without the risk of their coming in contact with the germs of chilblains.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

MASONIC.—The lecture in Congress Hall this Friday evening, March 10th, before the Masonic Fraternity of this city, by Bro. Charles W. Gardner, will be prefaced with singing by a good quartette, which will add something to the interest of the evening's entertainment. Admission free. An invitation is extended to all members of the Fraternity, together with their ladies and any friends outside of the Order whom members may choose to invite. Lecture commences at half past seven, precisely.

ARITHMETICAL.—A gentleman has a garden 100 feet long and 80 feet broad, and wishes a gravel walk to be made of an equal width half around it. What must be the breadth of the walk, to take up just half the ground?

The individual who shall first solve this problem without recourse to Algebra, will be entitled to a free passage both ways, over the Portsmouth and Dover Railroad, on the first day of its completion, also a dinner with other fixin's at the Eagle Hotel in Dover, and supper and Champagne on the return, at the Rockingham House in this city.

Communication.

☞ If the Stone Crushing Machinery is to be located in the Court House Yard,—the land in the rear, nearer the water, should be purchased for the purpose. Or in default of that, why would not the old gravel-pit on South Road be a good location? The noise would not disturb the sleepers near, though it might (on occasions) their living visiting friends. X.

Our idea of the matter is that the Crusher should be located away from the thickly settled part of the city, and wherever the stone is to be blown out. To locate the noisy machine in the centre of the city and haul stone to it would be doubly expensive, annoying and absurd in the highest degree.

THE JEAN INGELOW.—A correspondent of the Boston Advertiser, writing of the new ship fitting for sea here, says she is pronounced, by all who examine her, to be one of the finest modelled, most thoroughly built and best appointed ships that ever floated. She is of 1075 tons burden, extreme length 180 feet, on keel 172 feet, beam 37 feet, and depth 23 1-2 feet; 8 feet 10 inches between decks. She was built at the old Raynes yard, by Mr. William F. Fernald, and is a little larger than the ship Calcutta, by the same builder.

The Jean Ingelow is of very clean and beautiful model—half clipper style—and it is thought will prove a fast sailer. She looks trim and trig as a pleasure yacht, and will stow a large cargo. She is built almost as heavy and strong as a naval vessel, and finished in handsome style; the accommodations for officers and crew are of the best and on the most liberal scale, and the ship throughout is fitted and furnished with all the modern improvements, alow and aloft.

The model was by Mr. Fernald, who has few equals and no superiors as a marine draughtsman and architect. The noted, beautiful and swift barques Fairy, Scud, and Wasp, of Boston, were designed by him, and built for Messrs. Draper & Co., and the three-masted schooner Charles E. Morrison of Boston is also from his skillful hand. The frame of the Jean Ingelow is of New Hampshire white oak, which is pronounced by the chief examiner at Lloyd's to be the very best of all timber for this purpose; and her outer planking and working deck are of Southern pine. She is very heavily timbered, braced and bolted; the inner frame trimmed and turned by pattern to a nicety, and the brest and after books the deepest we ever saw, and brought well out at the points and very firmly fastened.

The salting of a ship is no small item, about ninety hogsheads being used between decks of the Jean Ingelow, in filling every crack and crevice left between the outer and inner boarding, by means of air-holes left for this purpose and for ventilation. Portsmouth ships have always been thus salted—an excellent plan which is not so generally followed by builders elsewhere, and this is one reason for the superior endurance of Piscataqua built ships over most others.

The accommodations for officers and men are all on deck, according to the modern fashion, and are about the best we ever examined. In this regard the improvements of the age are as noticeable on ship-board as in the house, compared with those of the last generation. And it is noteworthy, too, that while the merchant marine is thus bettered for poor Jack especially, on board Uncle Sam's craft he fares worse and worse as to quarters, while the line officers, in the latter case, monopolize more and more room and expense of fittings.

The gentleman whom we found in charge of the preparations of the Jean Ingelow for her bridal with the ocean, in the absence of Captain Moses, was Captain John Davis, who has himself had forty-seven years' experience on the quarter-deck, the longest term of any of the ship-masters at this port, and who tells us that he never walked so fine a craft as this before.

The owners of this splendid ship are John G. Moses and others of Portsmouth, Whiton Brothers of Boston, and John H. Burleigh and others of Berwick.

The Jean Ingelow will be ready for sea in about a fortnight, and will probably go to Charlestown for a cargo of cotton, unless other freight should offer elsewhere. She will be commanded by Captain John G. Moses, one of her owners, who also first took to sea the Calcutta, the last new ship that sailed from this port. The present noble craft is one of the finest ships that ever roamed the ocean, and from the peculiar circumstances attending her construction—the long time she lay on the stocks, the fact that she was sold two or three times, and at a price almost ruinous to her skillful, enterprising and popular builder, and that this is the last ship building or likely to be built here at present—as well as her very poetical name [which was chosen by Captain Moses,] will cause the citizens of Portsmouth to watch her career with more than usual interest.

☞ The proposition to move the national capitol building from Washington to this city meets with no favor here. "Just as like as not," Street Commissioner Ham would have it put in the new Stone Crusher and spread on the streets, because it would keep them so "dry."

—Charles Reade's new story, "A Terrible Temptation," has for its heroine a red-haired lassie.

A TERRIFIC HURRICANE passed over East St. Louis, Mo., on the afternoon of the 8th. It demolished the freight depot of the St. Louis and Vandalia Railroad, 800 feet long by 100 feet high, the freight and passenger depot of the Northeastern Railroad, two freight depots, a portion of the passenger depot and the ticket office and large round-house, the Chicago and Alton Railroad car-house, scale office, freight office, and part of one of the freight depots of the Ohio and Mississippi road, the freight and passenger stations of the Toledo and Wabash road and a number of dwelling houses in the vicinity. A portion of the roof of the Terre Haute and Indianapolis station was blown off, and nearly all the derricks and other appliances used in the construction of a bridge were torn from their places and blown into the river; everything within a space of from 200 to 300 yards wide, was actually torn to pieces.

A train of cars, including a thirty ton locomotive, was blown from the track and hurled about 40 feet into a slough. Another train of thirteen cars, laden with grain, was overturned and smashed, and one car was blown into the river. A train coming in on the Terre Haute road, when at Brooklyn, three miles northeast of St. Louis, was blown from the track, and about forty cars standing on a side track of the Toledo and Wabash and Chicago and Alton road, about nine miles out, were overthrown. The round-house of the Chicago and Alton road, after being blown down, caught fire from an engine inside, and was burned. The engineer of the locomotive was burned to death. Seven persons are known to be killed and between 30 and 40 seriously wounded. It is believed that a number of persons are still buried beneath the ruins.

The scene is frightful. Houses are torn to fragments, other are unroofed or upset, and still others are carried bodily from their foundations. Scarcely a building or tree or anything else within the track of the storm is standing. The wreck and ruin is complete. The pecuniary losses are estimated as follows: The Chicago and Alton Railroad, $500,000; Ohio and Mississippi, $200,000; Toledo and Wabash, $125,000; St. Louis and Vandalia, $50,000; Southeastern, $30,000; Wiggins' Ferry Company, $25,000. The steamboats lying on the eastern side of the river are seriously damaged.

☞ The New York detectives think they are on the track of the murderer of Mr. Benj. Nathan. Superintendent Kelso claims that the murderer is a well-known thief and desperado named William Forrester, with half-a-dozen aliases. Geo. Ellis, a notorious burglar, now in Sing Sing prison, says Forrester and he agreed to rob Mr. Nathan's house, but Ellis was sentenced to the State prison two months before Mr. Nathan was murdered. Forrester, since the murder, has studiously avoided all of his old companions, and has not been seen in any of his well-known haunts. He has been a thief from youth, and served terms in several State prisons. He is 35 years old; height five feet six inches; slim built, but tough and wiry; rather broad, square shoulders; weighs 140 pounds; rather long, square face; black eyes, having a wild expression; high, square forehead; mouth narrow, and corners down; upper lip stands out a little; medium-sized, straight nose; straight, black hair, cut short; heavy, black moustache, which curls at the ends towards the mouth; sunken cheeks, but high cheek bones; small, narrow feet; generally walks with his hands in his coat pockets; tooth out in the left upper jaw; bracket in India ink on left wrist.

—The world has learned that a thing is not necessarily good because it is dry. There is no religion in chips. We never could see any sanctity in husks.—From Crumbs Swept Up.

FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

ON A COMPLETED ROAD,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway.

The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mortgage issue dealt in at the Stock Exchange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 9½ per cent. interest, instead of 5 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for re-investment.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. f24dWAS

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Root and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. lyrdawfeb16

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to be a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, besides a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

SUNFLOWERS.—A contributor to the Western Rural gives his experience with sunflowers, as follows:

"Sunflowers are now five feet high. I have commenced to feed their leaves to my stock. They are the best of all green feed for milch cows. I expect to have leaves enough to feed four cows and two horses until the middle of November, from one acre of ground. If it is too much trouble to pull the leaves, the crop will do equally as well as corn, sowed broadcast, growing a greater weight per acre. Cattle will eat up leaves and stalks when three feet high or over. It can be moved with a scythe. It should be sown at different times, so as to keep up a full supply of feed through the season. It is not always that the largest seeds produce the largest plants; it is so with the sunflower. The large white seeds do not produce as large plants, or as many leaves, as those which are smaller and darker, with black stripes. In my experience it is impossible to have it all one color. In the largest sunflower which grows from ten to twelve feet high, there are black and white, half white and striped. If you want green feed, don't buy the large white seeds; they are not half the value for feed, and the seed is nearly one-quarter lighter than the other kinds."

A WORD IN SEASON.—The summer has been unusually dry, consequently the pastures in many localities must be very short of feed, and water. In a dry time like the present cattle often suffer for the want of a sufficient quantity of good water. They will not drink water that has an offensive smell, or taste, unless compelled to do so from excessive thirst. In dry seasons I have known peaceable cattle to break out of their pastures in search of water, because there was no other way to obtain it.

The scanty feed in the pastures during the dry weather of July and August caused by the drouth usually occuring at this period, renders it highly important that at this season feed of some kind should be supplied. A great many farmers provide for the deterioration of pastures, by a supply of succulent food to be cut as required—fodder corn furnishes excellent green food. If cut and fed to milch cows, night and morning, it will increase the flow of milk. If not freely supplied at this season they are apt to run down, and it is much cheaper to maintain condition, than to restore it, after being lost.

If we hope for any profit from stock raising, we should see that they have good care and attention. Short pastures in summer, and a scant supply of good nutritious food in winter, is the reason so few animals comparatively yield so little profit either in growth or dairy products. I think our pastures generally have been overstocked. Some farmers who take in stock to pasture, are so anxious to make all they can out of it, they take in more than the pastures can maintain in good condition; it is not only wronging the owners of the stock, but wrongs the health of the grasses. Grasses will endure closer cropping than any other class of plants, and for that reason they are often overtaxed beyond their powers of endurance.—Cor. Maine Farmer.

FOOT-ROT IN CATTLE.—In the year 1856, I was keeping a dairy of sixty cows, which grazed a very nice hill pasture. In the month of June, the foot-rot broke out in the flock, which I found to be a very severe disease. When a cow commenced being lame she would nearly dry up her milk on the best of feed, and be reduced in flesh very rapidly. I commenced doctoring in various ways, and with various medicines, such as alcohol, saltpetre, blue vitriol, spirits of turpentine, various kinds of painkillers, &c. Finally I commenced washing the sore feet with brine as strong as could be made of the best dairy salt, dissolved in boiling water. After washing twice each day for two or three successive days, in order to cleanse the sores thoroughly, I covered the sore thoroughly with pitch tar, and soon the sore would be well, and the cow come to her usual mess of milk again. The disease went nearly through my flock that season, before I found a means of checking its run, which I did by feeding saltpetre pulverized and mixed with salt, after the rate of about a teaspoonful to each cow once a week. I have been keeping a large dairy ever since, sometimes as many as one hundred cows, and have frequently had the same thing break out in my flock; and have always succeeded in curing and stopping the disease by using the saltpetre. As late as last summer it commenced in my flock of sixty, and with the above remedy I stopped it by having only four cases of sore feet.—N. E. Farmer.

—Having a Chester white sow that brought more pigs than she could raise, but not liking to knock them on the head, I took some away and put them in a four-bushel wheat sack, together with four other pigs, of the same age, belonging to another sow; tied up the bag, and put them away in the bush to tumble and roll together, out of hearing of the sow which owned the four pigs. She was very uneasy at losing her family. In the course of an hour, I emptied the whole lot out before her. She looked at them very closely, turned them over with her nose, smelled first one and then another, but was quite unable to distinguish her own from the new addition. So down she lay for them all to suck, and took to them right away, with motherly care.—Cor. N. E. Farmer.

WALTHAM
WATCHES.

The extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

More than 500,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enables them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watch-making originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skillful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:—

The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main-springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Fogg's patent pinion as being the best and faultless.

Hardened and tempered hair-springs, now universally admitted by Watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movements from dust and insuring the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch is already a decided success, and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mentioned improvements, which tend to ensure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

The trademarks of the various styles made by the Company are as follows:—

AMR. WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.

COMPOUND FLUID
Extract Catawba
GRAPE PILLS.
Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.
For Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Bilious Affections, Sick or Nervous Headache, Costiveness, etc. Purely Vegetable, containing no Mercury, Minerals or Deleterious Drugs.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving; consequently they do not produce the desired effect. The CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. Price 50 cents per box.

THE GARDEN IN MARCH.—The best soil for a vegetable garden is generally illy adapted to growing fruit. While a deep rich soil is of the first importance to the production of fine vegetables, it is now pretty generally condemned for the fruit garden. Hence we should inform ourselves in regard to the requirements of the many different varieties of our productions; for while we have to go to work one way to obtain fruits, a different course must be pursued in many respects, to obtain the best vegetables. For the growth and ripening of our fruits, direct sunlight is essential; but many vegetables and roots hide themselves from the light in a deep rich soil, while for the full development of the foliage of vegetables, sunlight is highly essential to most varieties. Although it cannot be expected that much actual labor can be done in the garden during the month, yet it is a good time to make needed preparations. Spring weather will be upon us soon, and our farm duties will acquire a large share of attention. We can now decide what we will cultivate the coming season, and make our plans accordingly.

Believing that a diet composed largely of vegetables is the healthiest and most economical, we commend it to all, and especially to the poor, and advise the growing of good vegetables in greater variety.

The potato is the main vegetable, and among a considerable class almost the only one used. This vegetable is of inestimable value to all classes and its culture demands our first and greatest attention, in order to retain its health and purity. Notwithstanding the time it has been cultivated among us there are many characteristics and requirements of it with which we are comparatively ignorant; and many more in which we disagree as to which is best. No subject has been more freely discussed by cultivators than the proper method of planting, whether whole, or cut, small large or medium sized, yet without coming to any positive conclusion. Undoubtedly there is a right and a wrong course with this vegetable, as well as with any other plant. But with all our theorizing and experimenting, we cannot grow good potatoes with the same culture on our farms to-day as we could forty years ago.

Cold Frames.—These beds will need examining to see that the plants wintered in them are in good condition. As long as the weather remains cold, the plants should be kept dormant, or as nearly so as possible. Protection must be given cold nights, and airing on mild sunshiny days. It is necessary to harden off the plants as fast as is safe, so as to plant out early.

Hot Beds.—Near the close of the month, if the ground is free of snow, and there are indications of the near approach of spring weather, it will answer to start the hot-bed; in the meantime the manure for heating should be accumulating and be got in readiness by piling the horse stable manures with a small proportion of cow stable, in a pile, and turning to reduce fermentation. See that the frames and sash are in perfect order.

Horse Radish.—Dig, grate, and prepare for table use. This is an excellent appetizer if prepared in the following manner: grate it as fine as practicable, press it in wide mouthed bottles, and add a pinch of salt with water sufficient to moisten the whole; when used, if you prefer vinegar, take out a little in a cup and add the vinegar; but do not put it up in vinegar, as it deadens the life, and the peculiar tang is lost.

Seeds.—Have you looked over the list and decided what you will grow this season? Have you obtained what you lacked? If not, no time should be lost. Compare notes with your most enterprising neighbor; perhaps he has seeds saved from choice vegetables which you did not grow, and would be willing to exchange, or sell, or give. Get good seed, true to name, and be sure that they have the vital principle in full. A seed that will only just grow, is about as good as none; indeed I should prefer not to have any, for then I should know what to do.—W. H. WHITE, in N. E. Farmer.

ASHES OF HARD AND SOFT WOOD.—It is generally supposed that the ashes of pine wood is not so rich in alkalies as that of hard wood. In his "Muck Manual," Dr. Dana says that, "in equal weights, pine ash affords four times more alkali than the ash of hard wood." At the same time a bushel of hard wood ashes yields more alkali than a bushel of pine wood ashes; the ash of the pine being much the lightest: According to analysis only about 13 1-2 parts in a hundred of hard wood ashes are "soluble," while of the yellow pine fifty parts are solubic.

We mention this as there is frequently a neglect in preserving the ash of soft-woods, under the idea that it contains very little potash. In many towns, where large quantities of lumber are sawed out, hundreds of cords of saw dust are lying waste. We know of a single lumber yard where there are probably thousands of cords. Would it not be economical to set suitable heaps on fire, for the value of the ash which would be left, although the quantity of ash from pine is much less than from hard wood?

PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE,
No. 4 Bulfinch Street, Boston,
(Opposite Revere House.)
DR. W. H. PARKER, Assistant Physician.
Medical knowledge for everybody. 250,000 copies sold in two years.
A Book for every Man.
THE SCIENCE OF LIFE, OR SELF-PRESERVATION. A Medical Treatise on the Cause and Cure of EXHAUSTED VITALITY, PREMATURE DECLINE IN MAN, NERVOUS AND PHYSICAL DEBILITY, HYPOCHONDRIA, and all other diseases arising from the ERRORS OF YOUTH, OR THE INDISCRETIONS OR EXCESSES of mature years. This is indeed a book for every man. Price only $1.00. 285 pages, bound in cloth.
A Book For Every Woman,
Entitled SEXUAL PHYSIOLOGY OF WOMAN, AND HER DISEASES; or, WOMAN TREATED OF PHYSIOLOGICALLY AND PATHOLOGICALLY, from BIRTH to OLD AGE, with elegant ILLUSTRATIVE ENGRAVINGS. 350 pages, bound in beautiful French cloth. Price $2.00.
A Book for Everybody.
Flattered by the reception of, and great demand for, the above valuable and timely treatises, and also to meet a source of information of the present age, the author has just published a new book, treating exclusively of NERVOUS AND MENTAL DISEASES. 150 pp. cloth. Price $1, or SENT FREE on receipt of $3 for the other two books, postpage paid.
These are, beyond all comparison, the most extraordinary works on Physiology ever published. There is nothing whatever that the MARRIED OR SINGLE, of EITHER SEX, can either require or wish to know, but what is fully explained, and many matters of the most important and interesting character are introduced to which no allusion even can be found in any other works in our language. All the NEW DISCOVERIES of the author, whose experience is such as probably never before fell to the lot of any man, are given in full. No person should be without these valuable books.
"VALUABLE BOOKS.—We have received the valuable medical works published by the Peabody Medical Institute. These books are of actual merit, and should find a place in every intelligent family. They are not the cheap order of abominable trash, published by irresponsible parties, and purchased to gratify coarse tastes, but are written by a responsible professional gentleman of eminence, as a source of instruction on vital matters, concerning which lamentable ignorance exists. The important subjects presented are treated with delicacy, ability and care, and as an appendix, many useful prescriptions for prevailing complaints are added."—Coos Republican, Lancaster, N. H.
"The author of these books is one of the most learned and popular physicians of the day, and is entitled to the gratitude of our race for these invaluable productions. It seems to be his aim to induce men and women to avoid the cause of those diseases to which they are subject, and he tells them just how and when to do it."—Chronicle, Farmington, Maine, Sept. 7, 1865.
Either book sent by mail on receipt of price.
N. B. The Author of the above-named medical works is the Chief Consulting Physician of the Peabody Medical Institute, and. is so constantly employed in consultation with invalids from all parts of the country, that he has no time to attend to mere business details. Therefore all letters should be addressed to the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, or to Dr. W. H. PARKER, the Medical Assistant of the Author, and his Business Agent, who, as well as the Author himself, may be consulted on all diseases requiring skill, secrecy and experience. oct28d1yr

Portsmouth, N. H.

SATURDAY, MARCH 11, 1871.

THE REMOVAL OF SENATOR SUMNER from the position of Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Affairs excites great interest throughout the country. On Thursday, Gen. Butler called on the President to ascertain if he was determined to use his influence and power to have Mr. Sumner removed, and asked if there could be no compromise on the part of the administration. The President said Mr. Sumner could not be retained on that committee unless against the earnest wishes of both himself and the Secretary of the State. The administration had some very important matters to submit to the Senate foreign relations committee, which would require that its chairman should be in full and free sympathy with the Executive and the Secretary of State. Among these vital matters were the report of the San Domingo commissioners, and the joint high commission on the Alabama claims and the fishery question. Mr. Sumner's views on these questions were both very pronounced and very hostile, and his removal was thus absolutely necessary. General Butler thereupon withdrew.

The Republican Senatorial caucus afterwards assembled and the attendance was very full. On behalf of the committee Mr. Howe submitted a report on the standing committees, and gave reasons why the committee had determined on the removal of Mr. Sumner from the foreign relations committee. These were that it had become incompatible with the public interests and also with the foreign policy of the administration to have the Massachusetts Senator longer occupy this important position. At this point Mr. Sumner, who was present, excused himself, and withdrew from further participation in the proceedings. He first indignantly declined the assignment which had been given him as chairman of the committee on privileges and elections. Senator Wilson thought it unwise and injudicious that this change should be made, and that this difference between the chairman of the foreign relations committee and the Executive should not be carried to the result proposed. He thought the Republican party could afford no such internal conflict. Senator Schurz followed in the same strain. Senator Trumbull also deprecated the action of the caucus committee and expressed the opinion that the thing was being carried a little too far.

Upon re-assembling Senator Wilson moved to recommit the report with instructions that the committee be instructed to retain Senator Sumner. Senator Howe objected and made some disparaging remarks as to the animosity existing between Senator Sumner and the President, which were replied to forcibly by Senator Logan. Mr. Wright, the new Senator from Iowa, then got the floor. He said that he came there entirely unbiased so far as the annexation of San Domingo was concerned, but he thought the popular sentiment of the country was against it, and was also against the administration in deposing the present head of the foreign relations committee. Several other Senators spoke for and against the report, until a vote was taken on Senator Wilson's motion to recommit. The vote resulted in the defeat of Senator Wilson's motion—yeas 21, nays 26. The vote stood as follows: Yeas—Boreman, Caldwell, Corbett, Cragin, Fenton, Ferry of Connecticut, Gilbert, Hitchcock, Logan; Morrill of Vermont, Morrill of Maine, Robertson, Schurz, Spencer, Sprague, Sherman, Tipton, Trumbull, Wilson, Windom, Wright—21. Nays—Ames, Brownlow, Carpenter, Chandler, Cole, Conkling, Edmunds, Ferry of Michigan, Frelinghuysen, Howe, Harlan, Flanagan, Hamlin, Kellogg, Lewis, Morton, Nye, Osborn, Pomeroy, Pool, Pratt, Ramsey, Sawyer, Scott, Stewart and West—26.

☞ A man named Walter Ross had a narrow escape from drowning at Brunswick, Me., recently. He started to cross from the paper-mill on the ice formed over the current, which always runs with great rapidity close in by the rock. Mr. Jesse Wilson was following Ross, and he says that all at once Ross disappeared; looking for a moment he saw his hands and head protruding above the ice a few feet below where he disappeared. It is probable that Ross sank only a slight distance and was carried by the current a few feet down stream. Coming up he felt the ice over his head and broke through with his fist, and telling Mr. Wilson not to come to him, broke on until he came to firm ice and then threw himself out.

New Hampshire Items.

The Dover Enquirer says that as Mrs. Kelly and her daughter were crossing a narrow foot-bridge below the dam at Sawyer's Mills, recently, they both fell off into the water. Their cries for help soon brough, "Major" Pierce, who rushed in at the risk of his own life and rescued them both. Mrs. Kelly broke her ankle, her daughter received a few slight bruises, and both took a "cold bath."

A large Division of the Sons of Temperance was recently formed.

Dover has 15 physicians.

A patent Naptha oil lamp exploded in a Dover shoe shop, recently.

The Dover Enquirer says that John Caverly recently cut on the Kimball place a white pine tree which measured seventeen feet in circumfrence at the butt, probable the largest tree in the County. One of its large branches was last fall blown off by the great gale, the other was afterwards shivered by lightning, and finally the massive trunk was cut down and drawn to a lumber mill, and being to large too be sawn was split with powder, but the halves are too large to be made available.

Mr. Richard Waldron of Dover has in his possession a valuable heirloom—a brown stone jug—which was brought from England upwards of two hundred years ago by Major Richard Waldron. There has been a Richard in every family of the regular descendants since his day, and the Richards have always had possession of the jug. It holds about two gallons, is cone shaped, has a representation of a crowned head upon it, and is said to be a curiosity. Is there anything in the jug, Richard?

Mr. Joseph Dame, of Durham, ploughing last season, found a stone gouge—doubtless an Indian relic—eight inches long, the bit or edge being oval shaped, two inches wide, with lips similar to those on a ship carpenter's adze.

The Dover mills are all in operation.

Dover editors disagree, and are getting personal in their remarks.

THE CONSISTENCY OF TEMPERANCE (?) FACTIONISTS. — The Dover Enquirer says that efforts are being made to induce temperance men to vote against Mr. Hall, the Republican candidate for Senator in that district, for the reason that as Solicitor of his county he has exercised too much leniency in the disposal of cases wherein persons have been indicted for the sale of intoxicating liquors.

And yet, Rev. A. G. Comings of Lee, the candidate for Governor nominated by the Temperance faction, wrote Mr. Hall in behalf of Albert Plummer, indicted for liquor selling, in which he expressed his sorrow for him "in the pinch of circumstances into which his action has brought him," and plead for him that "he has been out of health, consumptively inclined, and unable to work;" that "he is poor, and I do not think he could pay a dollar of fine or cost, or that anybody would be likely to pay for him to prevent his going to jail." After expressing his determination to do all in his power to enforce the law, and speaking of his sympathy and kind feelings for the guilty, he respectfully asked for his erring young neighbor that Mr. Hall would if he could dispose of the case favorably and make the most favorable disposition of it possible, taking proper security for the future.

Practice and principle very often take opposite paths.

SYMPTOMS OF DEMOCRACY.—A story is told of a Western copperhead stump speaker, who one day found himself riding on top of a stage coach in company with an intelligent looking personage whom he took to be a clergyman, and whose conversation was very entertaining. The coach having stopped at a wayside tavern, the thirsty democrat got off to hoist in a little "party inspiration;" and not wishing either to appear stingy or to insult a clergyman by "asking him to liquor," he invited him in to have a glass of pop beer. The stranger assented, but to the other's astonishment he called for "Bourbon straight, if you've got any good." Slapping the supposed clergyman on the back, the stump speaker exclaimed, "I'll bet five dollars you are a democrat." "Hold on," said the other, "keep your money; I've got the symptoms, I know, but I hav'n't got the disease!"

We fear that some few republicans in these parts may have been exhibiting similar "symptoms of democracy," which has been the occasion of deluded copperhead papers asserting that many of the good party are going to abandon it for the evil one. Those coppery editors will find out, next Tuesday, that a man may be somewhat afflicted with democratic symptoms, and yet not necessarily be totally depraved.

See how funny a line looks without spaces.

THE NEW COMMITTEES of the U. S. Senate, as agreed on by the Republican caucus, show some changes. The Committee on Foreign Relations are Messrs. Cameron, (chairman,) Harlan, Morton, Patterson, Schurz, Hamlin, Casserly.

On Naval Affairs—Messrs. Cragin, Anthony, Nye, Osborn, Caldwell, Ferry of Michigan, and Stockton.

Special committee on Southern outrages—Messrs. Scott, (chairman) Wilson, Chandler, Rice, Nye and Bayard. Senator Cole is chairman of committee on appropriations, Senator Patterson is chairman on District of Columbia; Senator Nye, on Territories; Senator Trumbull, on Judiciary; Senator Wilson, on Military Affairs; Senator Hamlin, on Manufactures; and Senator Morton on Agriculture. Senator Cragin is also a member of the committee on Revolutionary Claims and on Territories, and Senator Patterson is a member of the committee on Education and Labor.

The Great Vernal Specific.

No class of invalids are more sensitive to changes of season and variations of temperature than dyspeptics, and persons of bilious habit. Tender lungs are not more easily affected by these vicissitudes than feeble stomachs. If there is a tendency in the system to indigestion, biliousness, or bowel complaints, the variable weather of early spring is almost sure to develope one or other of these ailments. Intermittent fevers are also more prevalent in the spring months than at any other season except autumn. In view of these facts, this seems to be a proper time to invite especial attention to HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, a medicine, which for a long series of years, has proved superior to all others as a remedy for the above named disorders, and as protection against the miasma which frequently produces, and always aggravates them. It was formerly the practice to give violent cathartics as "spring medicines," nor is the custom yet entirely obsolete. Nothing, however, can be more ill-judged and unphilosophical. The chilling moisture with which the air is loaded at the breaking up of the winter, presses heavily upon the vital forces of the body, and reinforcement, not depletion, is what it requires. The Bitters is a genial and excellent tonic, a moderate alterative, and just enough of an aperient to regulate, without convulsing, the bowels. It is, therefore, a specific peculiarly adapted to the present season.

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

"Against what?" asks the reader. Why, against the POISONS, vile, maddening and deadly, advertised as "superior to all Hair Dyes." But, on second thoughts, the call "to arms!" is unnecessary. The wretched trash is already being driven out of the market. It has received the coup de grace from

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The popularity of this time-tried article increases every hour. Everybody is talking of the "natural shades" it imparts, and there is no conceivable reason why it should not be used, being (as Professor CHILTON states in his certificate) PERFECTLY HARMLESS. AVERILL CHEMICAL PAINT.

It is Cheaper, Handsomer and more durable than the best of other Paints. One Thousand Gallons of it were sold in this City, in the year 1870, and not one complaint has come from those who have used it; but all speak in its favor; it is mixed ready for application, and is much easier put on than any other Paint, making a smooth, glossy surface for years, that can be cleaned with hot suds without injuring it. It is excellent for walls inside, in the place of paper.

I shall keep this season a large stock of Chemical Paints of all shades on hand, to accommodate customers with any amount, without delay in ordering it. Those who want to use the Chemical Paints and have had them misrepresented by those who deal in Lead and Oil, are invited to call and examine my Paints that have been on Buildings two years, and you will find them as fresh as it laid but one month.

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a tolerable state of health to diseased lungs in healthy climates. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid taking cold; and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as in more northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterman, and within the last several years there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

One hundred miles farther down the river is a place which I think is still better for my purpose, in winter, it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when they do this, they are generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My reason for saying so, is, that patients are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature; and it is not necessary to say, that, where a consumptive can succeed in keeping himself free from colds, he is certain to die shortly; therefore my advice is, go down into the south, out of the reach of prevailing cold winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat, or cough; but, for those whose lungs are diseased, a more southern point is certainly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1869, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a year. My practice so extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take vast quantities of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills, and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well established fact, that people are so extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take vast quantities of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills, and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well established fact, that people are so extensively affected by the climate, especially those of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, where at least one-half of the people have this terrible disease. In the Middle States, it does not prevail so much. All there are many phenomena of consumption. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh colds as they are about a scratch from a pin, small-pox, &c.! but they are not: they take what they think a little cold, when they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to lay in a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with them, and know that, where they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required of them. I cannot recommend to do the rest. The physician who prescribes for gold, cough, or night sweats, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My advice is, to take my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where a freer use of Mandrake Pills is necessary. My object is, to give tone to the stomach,—to get up a good appetite. It is always a good sign when the patient begins to grow hungry; I have hopes of such. With a relish for food, and the gratification of that relish, comes good blood, and with it more flesh, which is closely followed by a healing of the lungs,—then the cough loosens and ceases, the night sweats cease, the night sweats no longer prostrate and anhey, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, Is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient take exercise only in the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The fact stands unclaimed and unquestioned, that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of what seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption. Wherever you will, you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them by them. They act on the liver better than calomel, and leave none of its hurtful effects behind. In fact, they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have partaken too freely of fruit, and diarrhoea ensues, a dose of the Mandrakes will cure you. If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of the Mandrakes, and they will relieve you in two hours. If you could obviate the effect of a change of water, or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night, and you may drink water, and eat watermelons, pears, apples, plums, peaches, or corn, without the risk of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They cost do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 A.M., to 2 P.M., when also will a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs; and patients can generally learn whether they are curable or not. But I desire it distinctly understood, that the value of my medicines depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they are no longer liable to take cold; yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less attack of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so that persons can easily know how to use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

New Advertisements to-day.

Bananas, &c.—S. Gilbert.

☞ The rebel guns will be (S)Piked, in New Hampshire, next Tuesday.

☞ Republican Committee of Ward Two will meet this evening.

☞ Mr. Amazeen, the Democratic candidate for Representative from Newcastle, is B. T.

☞ Mr. Augustus Stevenson of Kittery received the appointment of Quarterman Laborer in Bureau of Construction at this Yard on Friday.

☞ The next and last Assembly of the Odd Fellows and Masons, comes off next Tuesday evening, when the ladies propose to furnish the eatables, and the gentlemen the drinkables—though strictly of a tetotal nature. All who have attended the old folks' Assemblies are invited.

☞ The steamer Leyden of the Boston Yard arrived at this Yard on Friday morning with a load of oak knees, lead and iron. The knees are from the Brooklyn Navy Yard, and are of very poor quality; probably the refuse stock of that Yard.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, Henry M. Clark's declination of the office of Assessor was accepted.

Leave to encumber corner of Market Street and Market Square for repairing was granted to C. H. Mennum and F. Jones.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.—On Friday evening, the Republicans of Ward One unanimously nominated Hon. Horton D. Walker, John Pender, George W. Pendexter and John H. Hutchinson for candidates for Representatives to the Legislature.

In Ward Two, the members of last year, Messrs. Charles H. Sides, Francis W. Ham and John H. Flagg were re-nominated by acclamation. On balloting for a fourth candidate, William H. Hackett was nominated, receiving 126 votes to 62 for all others.

In Ward Three, Messrs. Samuel Adams and Joseph Grace were nominated.

THE MASONIC BALL on Thursday evening, was a very successful affair. A very large number of the Order and their lady friends were present, and many of the dresses were rich and tasteful—the ladies bearing off the palm from the visitors at the late ball of the Amoskeag Veterans at Manchester, according to the testimony of persons who were present at both places, and the handsome regalia of the Masonic bodies setting off the more sombre colors of the gentlemen's dress to good advantage. The ladies were mostly of Portsmouth stock, (which is equivalent to saying that there was a splendid display of female beauty and elegance,) and there were visitors of both sexes from other cities. The scene during the grand march, as viewed from the galleries, was really fine. Supper was served in the large Banquet Hall, and 3 tables extending its entire length were crowded with excellent viands and devourers of the same. Shortly after midnight the spectators began to thin out, and at about 2 o'clock the dancers commenced to leave by twos and fours, but enough remained at half-past 4 o'clock to wind up with the Virginia Reel in good style. The absence of stiffness and constraint among the pleasure-seekers was remarkable for a full-dress ball, and the wearied dancers, as they left for their homes at not a very early hour in the morning, unanimously declared the Masonic Ball to have been an unqualified success.

If this paper was a "fashion sheet" we should probably undertake to decide who was the belle of the ball room; but as it isn't, and there were so many beautiful dresses, worn by so many graceful dancers, any one of whom was attractive enough to upset the equanimity of our reporter, we must decline to get ourself in hot water by doing anything of the kind;—there were many belles in the ball room.

☞ In the United Staes Circuit Court at Portland in the case of Nath'l McKay et als. vs. William Hill, Judge Fox delivered an elaborate opinion, to the effect that a stockholder of an insurance company who withdraws any portion of its capital stock is personally liable in that amount to the creditors of the corporation. The defendant retired his stock from the Piscataquis Insurance Company, and was thus held liable. W. L. Putnam appeared for the plaintiffs and Davis & Drummond with Drew for the defendant.

—Representative Bowen has again been indicted for bigamy.

☞ Job Printing done at this office.

YORK.—Mr. Henry C. Lord, whose hospitable mansion at York beach contains in the season many welcome guests, is a son of Ex-President Lord, late of Dartmouth College, and was a prominent lawyer and a prominent Democratic politician of Cincinnati. Of late he has been President of the Indianapolis, Cincinnati & Lafayette Railway, a corporation having several millions of capital—a generous debt, and controlling over five hundred miles of road.

Mr. Lord's politics seem to have been unsuited to a sound financial administration of railway affairs. A firm supporter of the Pendletonian theory of repudiation, he in turn has been repudiated by the corporation, and ousted from the Direction. In a long communication in the Cincinnati Commercial, the Ex-President defends his career; but the committee of the stockholders find a vast sum of money expended without a knowledge of its benefit to the corporation. Among the roads heretofore leased to the I. C. & L. R. R., is the White Water Valley R. R., the bonds of which are owned almost entirely in Boston, Salem, Portsmouth and Saco, by capitalists and banks in those places. The I. C. & L. R. R. having refused to pay the interest on these bonds, the lease has been cancelled, and the bondholders have been called together to take measures to protect their property. A committee consisting of Jas. S. Fay, J. C. Bancroft of Boston, and Wm. H. Hackett of Portsmouth, has been selected from the bondholders, to protect their interests, and they are now engaged in extricating the property of the bondholders from the ruins caused by the crash of the I. C. & L. R. R., which has passed into the hands of receivers who will have charge of it until the magnificent debt is in some way reduced.—Biddeford Jonrnal.

SOUTH CAROLINA.—A large body of armed men from East Tennessee and North Carolina have made their appearance in York and Chester counties, and fighting has been going on for several days. Major Whitehead, of the 18th Infantry, stationed at Yorkville, reports that the most horrible outrages had been perpetrated in those counties since Saturday night.

On Monday, Capt. Williams, a mulatto, commanding a company of militia, was hanged near Carmel Hill, and a number of his men inhumanly whipped, and since then the fighting has been continuous. Major Whitehead reports that the negro militia company commanded by Williams were defeated on Monday night and fled to their camp at Yorkville. He disarmed them and now reports to the Governor for orders.

Gov. Scott will proclaim martial law in York and Chester counties and has telegraphed to President Grant and General Terry at Louisville, asking for troops. Pending their arrival the Governor will send a regiment of militia to restore order if possible. Exciting times are anticipated in the northern part of the State for the next two weeks.

☞ Napoleon has addressed a communication to the president of the French assembly protesting against the vote by which that body declared his dynasty has forfeited the throne, as unjust and illegal. The assembly, he says, was created only to make peace, and it has exceeded its powers. The foundation of all public right is the plebiscite. To that he is ready to bow, and to that alone.

☞ Four men got into a fight in a bar-room in Aurora, Illinois, and all four were killed.

—The cheapest thing to ride is a hobby: it eats no oats; it demands no groom; it breaks no traces; it requires no shoeing.—From Crumbs Swept Up.

—A Prussian thaler is equal to 72 cents American coin.

☞ Old newspapers for sale at this Office—35 cents a hundred.

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS, whether transient notices or by yearly contracts, are inserted in both the Daily Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, or in either one of these papers only, as desired. And while there is no better advertising medium in this County, our rates are reasonable, especially to regular yearly patrons.

☞ THE NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE for this week, is now ready for delivery, at the Chronicle Office. Each number contains all the reading matter of the week's Dailies. Price $2 a year; single copies 5 cents,—in wrappers for mailing, if desired. Six copies for $10 per year, to Clubs—per mail or city carrier.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING.—We have made great additions to our jobbing facilities—a mammoth Hand Press (the largest in Portsmouth,) new Display Type, Borders of various styles, &c.—and are prepared to execute with neatness and dispatch, all orders for FULL SHEET POSTERS, DATE SLIPS, PAMPHLETS, SERMONS, ADDRESSES, AUCTION BILLS, CONSTITUTIONS, BY LAWS, PROGRAMMES, HANDBILLS, CIRCULARS, ORDERS DANCES, BLANKS, BILL HEADS, RECEIPTS, TICKETS, BUSINESS, MARRIAGE, ADDRESS AND VISITING CARDS, LABELS, TAGS, and in fact PRINTING OF ANY DESCRIPTION, at SATISFACTORY PRICES. Orders received by mail, express, or at the CHRONICLE OFFICE will be promptly filled.

FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

ON A COMPLETED ROAD,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway.

The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mortgage issue dealt in at the Stock Exchange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 2½ per cent. interest, instead of 5 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for re-investment.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. 12ddWaS

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.*

WHAT ARE THEY!

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Root and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying out all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. 1yrdawf&b16

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

160 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

KISSING NO SIN.

Some say kissing's a sin,
But I think it's none ava—
For kissing has wound in this warld
Since ever there was twa.

Oh, if it wasna lawful,
Lawyers wouldna allow it;
If it wasna holy,
Ministers wouldna do it.

If it wasna modest,
Maidens wouldna tak' it;
If it wasna plenty,
Puir folk wadna get it.

—Wendell Phillips calls the Emperor William a "blasphemous old bigot."

—The high commission has fairly got to work.

—A cat as old as the city, is Memphis' proud boast.

—Words should be seconded by action; it isn't enough for the housewife to say to a stocking with a hole in it "You be darned."

—A San Francisco lady thinks her husband's being "a confounded fool" good ground for divorce. He proved it by marrying her.

—The New York Mail says: The proper flower for the button-hole now is the violet,—just a small bunch,—so sort of modest and all that sort of thing.

—A citizen standing near some scales at Rutland the other day, asked a colored individual, "Can a nigger weigh hogs?" To which the colored man replied, "Put yourself on dem scales and see if he can't!"

—"Sister Kate Hannon," of Leavenworth, advertises for a preacher—an unmarried man preferred. Sister Kate's head is level—it wouldn't look altogether right for her to advertise for a married man.—N. Y. Globe.

—Robert Laird Collier lectures on the "Follies of the Woman Movement," and when a morning paper printed it the "Follies of the Woman Movement," he got soured, and said the movement had more Follies than Follies.—N. Y. Globe.

—Minnesota has a poetess who has written a poem two yards in length. We have seen verse, but nothing worse. Here is the best line in it: "Woman who wear corsets—the poor heartless little things." It is the best because it is the last.—N. Y Globe.

—A little girl, when her father's table was honored with an esteemed guest, began talking very earnestly at the first pause in the conversation. Her father checked her very sharply, saying; "Why is it that you always talk so much?" "Cause I've got somesin to say," was the innocent reply.

—"Lotta," the actress, was baptized in a black sick boddice and skirt, over which she wore bretelles of light blue, in Christ church, New Orleans, a week or so ago. She performed the same Sunday in the evening at the St. Charles theater as Sam (with song and dance) in the "Ticket-of-Leave Man."

—Another innocent woman has been arrested at Macy's Sixth avenue store, N. Y.; and this time the innocent woman was Miss Emma Williams, and she wore a shopping pocket under her dress, which was found to contain 72 spools of thread, 12 pairs of pair of stockings, two pairs of gaiters, a large family Bible, a fancy cut-glass tumbler, two babies, dresses richly embroidered, 75 yards of velvet trimmings, 15 yards of guimpure lace, and a number of minor articles.

TRUTHFUL GEORGE AND HIS DOG FIDO.—A very good story is told of one of our sharp specimens of Young America, whose "fast" ways had necessitated his being cut off by the "governor" from any further expenditure of his means. The young man finally became weary of leading a slow life without money, but he had invented so many stories to accomplish his designs, each of which succeeded, that he resolved to make one more attempt. He was in pressing need of $25, and concluded, if possible, to draw it in installments rather than excite the curiosity of his father, and thus defeat his project. He put on a bold face, and visited the governor, and gravely informed him that a certain dog fancier on Elizabeth street was actually teaching dogs to talk; his terms were $10 down, and $15 when the canine was able to speak. The governor doubted the story, but finally concluded to invest $10 in the arrangement, but added; "Mind, George, if he don't learn Fido (their dog) to speak, I won't give you the additional $15." "All right," said George, and away he went on a spree, of course.

After the lapse of several days, and when the $10 had been all wasted, George returned home and told a straight story concerning the progress Fido was making under his tutor. The next day the governor requested that Fido should give an exhibition of his skill, and ordered George to bring him in, but was informed that the dog had been shot, and the sad event was explained in this way by the truthful George: "You see, I went and got the dog, and on my way home he talked all sorts of nonsense, and when we reached the house and I sat down in the dining room, he crept up on my lap, and, putting his mouth close to my ear, he whispered and told me in a very confidential way that the old man was in the habit of talking sweet to the servant girl in the kitchen. I concluded if the dog was going to lie so outrageously, that he had better be killed, and I shot him!" The governor remarked: "That's a good boy; here's your $15, and whenever you want any more, just let me know, but don't say anything to your mother."—Detroit Advertiser.

WALTHAM
WATCHES.

The extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

More than 500,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enables them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watch-making originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skillful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:—

The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breaking of pale-staffs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Dwight's patent pinion as being the best and tasteless.

Hardened and tempered hair-springs, now universally admitted by Watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movements from dust and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch is already a decided success, and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mentioned improvements, which tend to ensure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

The trademarks of the various styles made by the Company are as follows:—

AMERICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.
ADAMS WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.
AMERICAN WATCH CO., Crescent St., Waltham, Mass.
APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass.

COMPOUND FLUID
Extract Catawba
GRAPE PILLS.
Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Calaiba
Grape Juice.

For Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Bilious Affections, Sick or Nervous Headache, Costiveness, etc. Purely Vegetable, containing no Mercury, Minerals or Deleterious Drugs.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving; consequently do not produce the desired effect. The CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. Price 50 cents per box.

Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five and from twenty-five to forty-five on the decline or change of life: after confinement or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.

B

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is diuretic and blood-purifying, and cures all diseases arising from Habits of Dissipation, and Excesses and Imprudences in Life, Impurities of the Blood, etc., superseding Copaiba in Affections for which it is used, and Syphilitic Affections—in these Diseases used in connection with HELMBOLD'S Rose Wash.

LADIES.

In many affections peculiar to Ladies, the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy—as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrus State of the Uterus, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from Indiscretion or Habits of Dissipation. It is prescribed extensively by the most eminent physicians, and Midwives for enfeebled and delicate constitutions, of both sexes and all ages (attended with any of the above diseases of symptoms.)

O

in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid large fees, to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. Price $1.50 per bottle.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED
ROSE WASH

But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained the proud claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a Toilet Appendage of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, Safety and Efficacy—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation, used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. NOTHING BUT LEAVES.

BY SUE.

I am going home from the harvest of life,
And what have I gathered for sheaves!
Since the morn hard I've toiled amid sorrow and strife,
Yet nothing have gathered but leaves.

For the garner of God,
Nothing but leaves.

I have gleaned with the reapers till weary at last,
I'm sinking with weariness pain.
The summer is ended, the harvest is past,
The fruits of my labor's not grain.

For the garner of God,
No golden grain.

But the Lord of the harvest is tender and true,
And homeward I'll go without sheaves;
The work that he gave me I did not well do,
So I've nought else for him but leaves.

For the Lord of the harvest,
Nothing but leaves.

My chaplet of leaves and my story of woe,
In contrition I'll lay at his feet;
He'll give me a crown with the gleaners I know,
With reapers of life's golden wheat.

Aye; on me he'll bestow
Mercy for leaves.

—Little flocks will disagree. Even as did Mrs. Eve's children. Vena and Minard had a slight misunderstanding one day, and Vena, fired with revenge against her big brother, kicked the cat. Johnny, who was Vena's favorite brother, saw the performance and said, "Vena, that cat ain't all Minard's, its part mine." "Well," said Vena, with a sort of self-satisfied air, "I kicked Minard's part."

FOR LIVER COMPLAINTS, JAUNDICE, BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, SICK OR NERVOUS HEADACHE, COSTIVENESS, ETC. PURELY VEGETABLE, CONTAINING NO MERCURY, MINERALS OR DELETERIOUS DRUGS.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the purest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills, are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

E

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU IS DIURETIC AND BLOOD-PURIFYING, AND CURES ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM HABITS OF DISSIPATION, AND EXCESSES AND IMPRUDENCES IN LIFE, IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, ETC., SUPERSEDING COPAIBA IN AFFECTIONS FOR WHICH IT IS USED, AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS—IN THESE DISEASES USED IN CONNECTION WITH HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH.

U

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c., In all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.
Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.
Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH
cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of CUTANEOUS AFFECTION. It speedily eradicates PIMPLES, SPOTS, SCORBUTIC DRYNESS, INDURATIONS of the CUTANEOUS MEMBRANE, etc., dispels REDNESS and INCIPIENT INFLAMMATION, HIVES, RASH, MOTH PATCHES, DRYNESS OF SCALP OR SKIN, FROST BITES, and all purposes for which SALVES or OINTMENTS are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation; used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND OATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, MARCH 13, 1871.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate, on the 10th, in the absence of the Vice-President, on motion of Mr. Sumner, Mr. Anthony was unanimously chosen president pro tem of the Senate.

An adjournment until Monday was defeated by a tie vote—28 to 28.

Mr. Howe reported the list of committees to be balloted for.

Mr. Sumner asked that his name be eliminated from the committee on privileges and elections. He said that after twenty years' service in the chamber he had a right to expect that his associates would not impose upon him a new class of duties when he expressly stated that they were not welcome to him.

Mr. Sumner's motion was agreed to without a division.

Mr. Schurz of Missouri asked Mr. Howe why Mr. Sumner's name had been left off as chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Mr. Howe replied that it was because the personal relations existing between the Senator from Massachusetts and the President of the United States and the head of the State department were such as to preclude all social intercourse between them. In brief the information was that the Senator from Massachusetts refused to hold personal intercourse with the Secretary of State—

Mr. Sumner—Just the contrary.

Mr. Howe said he meant personal relations only.

Mr. Wilson of Massachusetts protested against the act, and said there were hundreds and thousands of pure, thoughtful and trusted members of the Republican party whose hearts would be wrung by the intelligence of this action, and who would see neither justice nor wisdom in it.

Mr. Schurz charged that this whole matter was the result of Mr. Sumner's opposition to San Domingo, and that the President had propelled all his power against him to remove him, and the question was whether the American Senate would yield to the dictate of one man, even though that man is the President of the United States.

Mr. Edmunds of Vermont repudiated the insinuation that the President had interfered to influence the Senate in the composition of the committees.

Mr. Scott of Pennsylvania followed in the same strain.

Mr. Schurz said some years ago Mr. Sumner was struck down in his seat by a Southern ruffian, and now it was proposed to strike him down in the house of his friends. [Applause in the galleries.]

Mr. Howe thought Mr. Sumner could best serve the country in another capacity as a committee man, and said that he understood that Mr. Sumner mentioned this himself.

Mr. Sumner replied that he knew nothing of it.

Mr. Stewart of Nevada said this was not the first time a man had been beaten for office and had his aspirations disappointed.

Mr. Wilson replied that ninety-nine men out of one hundred, who elected this administration in 1868, will disapproved of the act of the majority of the Senate.

Mr. Nye of Nevada said the fact is apparent that Mr. Sumner is as far divided from the President and Secretary of State as the rich man was from Lazarus. They could not remove the President and Secretary of State, but they could change the chairmanship of the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Mr. Logan of Illinois said that Mr. Sumner's great speech on the Alabama claims was accepted by the whole country as the text upon which those claims were to be settled, and now, when the high commission is here, we were to back down from our position and say to these gentlemen: "We have deposed this gentleman from the head of the Committee on Foreign Relations." Why was it that only the chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations was changed?

A motion to adjourn was defeated—28 to 28.

Mr. Tipton of Nebraska said an attempt was first made to displace the Senator from Missouri [Mr. Schurz,] but that was abandoned on account of the fighting qualities of the German troops. [Laughter.] Then a Senator from New Hampshire [Mr. Patterson] was to be struck off of the Committee on Foreign Relations, but the Senator stated that he intended to hold the man to account who was at the bottom of the movement.

Mr. Howe said that as a majority of the Senate is in favor of annexation of San Domingo, and a majority of the Committee on Foreign Relations is opposed to it, it was proper to reconstruct the committee.

Mr. Tipton would not acknowledge that a majority of the Senate was in favor of San Domingo annexation. The vote stood 28 to 28, as stated in the newspapers, and the his knew to be true. [Laughter.]

Mr. Trumbull of Illinois asked if it had come to this, that the composition of the committee of this body are to be determined by personal relations of the Senator with any one under heaven? He had differed with the Senator from Massachusetts at times, and, he was sorry to say, sometimes bitterly, but he had and always would insist upon justice being done. He stood by the Senator when he was struck down by the advocates of slavery, and he stood by him to day when the blow came from those who have been put into power as much through the instrumentality of the Senator from Massachusetts as any other man living. [Applause in the galleries.]

Mr. Sherman of Ohio thought the removal of Mr. Sumner unjustifiable but should acquiesce with the determination of the majority.

Mr. Cragin was utterly opposed to a change, and believed the day would come when the men who were instrumental in it would regret it; but he felt impelled to stand by a majority of his party friends.

Mr. Morton of Indiana denounced as untrue the statement that San Domingo had anything to do with it. The question was now whether the republicans of this body intended to abide by the action of the convention of their own party, into which they had entered.

Mr. Wilson said he was an independent man and that he was not to be bound by any party caucus when its action was not right.

Mr. Bayard of Delaware, Democrat, moved an amendment that the committee on foreign relations be changed to the "committee on personal relations." [Laughter.]

Mr. Edmunds moved as a further amendment that the chairman of the committee be Mr. Bayard of Delaware.

Mr. Thurman of Ohio, Democrat—That is the most sensible suggestion the senator ever made. [Laughter.]

The committee's report was adopted, yeas 33—nays 9—absent 23.

The House discussed the bill for the repeal of the duty on coal and salt, and adjourned without action.

THE KU-KLUX KLAN.—The report of the Senate investigating committee shows the origin of this murderous order. The committee confined their labors principally to the State of North Carolina, from which they have examined 52 witnesses, among whom were 26 republicans, 21 democrats, including some of the most prominent members of either party, two of no party and six members of the Ku-Kux Klan. It has 40,000 members in that State.

The committee give the names of ninety blacks and forty-four whites in the counties of Lincoln, Allamance, Catawba, Craven, Caswell, Chatham, Jones, Orange, Rockingham, Rutherford, Wake and other counties, nearly all of whom were whipped and the remainder shot, robbed, hanged or driven from their homes. Besides these specific cases of outrages, the testimony refers in general terms to others committed in thirteen other counties. The testimony shows in many instances that murders and whippings were expressly voted upon in the Ku-Klux meetings and executed by its members.

Members of the order were unwilling to go into the details, but they stated enough in general confession to authorize the belief that this organization stopped short of no means however criminal to accomplish its purpose.

The testimony quoted almost without exception establishes that the outrages perpetrated by these bands in disguise were inflicted upon members of the republican party, both white and colored, in some instances the fact that they were of that party being given as a reason for punishment, in others the alleged crime being some such act as keeping Sunday school for colored children.

The committee state that with such a band of criminals at large, the civil law cannot be administered without military force.

☞ A very destructive fire occurred at Richmond, Ky., on Thursday. The Central and Webster hotels, together with all the residences and business houses in the vicinity, to the number of twelve or fifteen, were entirely destroyed. The loss is heavy.

AWFUL CALAMITY.—The Schlosberg, a Vesuvian Mountain overlooking the market town of Nohenems, Tyrol, fell in, burning two of the principal streets of the town and burning over nine hundred persons.

THE REMOVAL OF SENATOR SUMNER from the chairmanship of the Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs is disheartening to all who are striving to heal the discords constantly arising in the Republican party. Common sense teaches us to sink all personal feeling, bury all feuds and act harmoniously. This is a necessity. The Presidential canvass, a year hence, must be peffilled with no divisions in Republican ranks, or the battle will be lost and our foes triumphant.

Yet the country is astounded, the people indignant at an act of the chosen leader of the Republican forces, the President of the United States, which paves the way for greater discord just on the verge of a national campaign. The fact is asserted without denial that Mr. Sumner was removed because the President not only desired but required it. Not for any incapacity or desertion of duty on the part of the Senator who had filled the position for ten years with great credit to himself and the country, but because the President and Senator Sumner are not friends!

Our regrets at the insult offered Senator Sumner are only exceeded by the disappointment arising as a natural consequence of the act. We had hoped for the re-nomiuation of President Grant with a great degree of unanimity. It is out of the bounds of reason, however, to expect such a result when the administration makes open war upon the oldest Republican Senator, the champion of free principles.

With Senator Sumner we have frequent reasons for disagreeing. His recent speech on the San Domingo project was peculiarly out of taste and objectionable in many points. Like other strong advocates he is liable to err. His own schemes are sometimes impracticable and his opposition to the views of a majority of his colleagues has seemed to us unwise; but on the San Domingo scheme (the origin of the present difficulty,) Senator Sumner is not only right but has the support of a vast majority of the people. The President should have been convinced of the fact ere now, for the press has spoken freely. To make war on Senator Sumner is to make war on the people, who agree with him. Any foolish act the Senator may be guilty of cannot rob him of the noble record of his public life, but it may disturb the relations between President Grant and the Republican party, if persisted in, to such an extent that the hero of the rebellion may look back with regret at the position he has taken in this most important matter.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Great Vernal Specific.

No class of invalids are more sensitive to changes of season and variations of temperature than dyspeptics, and persons of bilious habit. Tender lungs are not more easily affected by these vicissitudes than feeble stomachs. If there is a tendency in the system to indigestion, biliousness, or bowel complaints, the variable weather of early spring is almost sure to develope one or other of these ailments. Intermittent fevers are also more prevalent in the spring months than at any other season except autumn. In view of those facts, this seems to be a proper time to invite especial attention to HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, a medicine, which for a long series of years, has proved superior to all others as a remedy for the above named disorders, and as protection against the miasma which frequently produces, and always aggravates them. It was formerly the practice to give violent cathartics as "spring medicines," nor is the custom yet entirely obsolete. Nothing, however, can be more ill-judged and unphilosophical. The chilling moisture with which the air is loaded at the breaking up of the winter, presses heavily upon the vital forces of the body, and reinforcement, not depletion, is what it requires. The Bitters is a genial and excellent tonic, a moderate alterative, and just enough of an aperient to regulate, without convulsing, the bowels. It is, therefore, a specific peculiarly adapted to the present season.

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a tolerably bad case of diseased lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid taking cold; and the best way of places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as in more northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterman. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

Two hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even, and the air dry and bracing, Mellonville and Enterprise are located there. I should give a decided preference to Mellonville: it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The ladies in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times; but this is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibertia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My reasons for saying so are, that there is less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature, and it is not necessary to leave Florida, should give a decided preference to Mellonville: it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The ladies in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times; but this is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibertia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My reasons for saying so are, that there is less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature, and it is not necessary to leave Florida, where a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds, he is certain to die shortly: therefore my advice is, to spend all the cold weather out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat, or cough; but, for those whose lungs are diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1869, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week, where I examined and prescribed on average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take a vast quantity of "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than any other latitude. It is a well-established fact, that natives of Florida rarely die of consumption, especially those of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, one-third at least of the population die of this terrible disease. In the Middle States, it is not generally so largely; still there are many thousands of cases there. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh colds as they are about scarlet fever, small-pox, &c.! But they are not; they take what they term a little cold, which they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it, and thus lay the foundation for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to lay in a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action. I know, that, where they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work for which they are required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The patient will gradually throw off cough, sweats, night sweats, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with my printed directions, and, in some cases where a freer use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary. My object is, to give tone to the stomach, and to create a healthy appetite. It is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry: I have been asked, what is a relish for food, and the gratification of that relish, comes good blood, and with it more flesh, which is closely followed by healing the ulcers, then the cough loosens and abates, the creeping chills and clammy night sweats no longer prostrate and annoy, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, Is there no hope for such? Certainly there is, and advice so simple, that anyone may have to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will allow, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and know of no case of consumption is so easily cured as any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The following testimonial is on record, that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of what seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption. Go where you will, you will be almost certain to find someone who has recovered health and strength from the very jaws of death by their use.

As far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on the liver better than calomel, and leave none of its baneful effects behind. In fact, they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have costiveness, too freely of fruit, and diarrhœa ensues, a dose of the Mandrakes will cure you. If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of the Mandrakes, and they will relieve you in two hours. If you would obviate the effect of a hearty meal, or the too abundant use of fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night, and you may then drink water, and eat watermelons, pears, apples, plums, peaches, or corn, without the sick suffering made sick by them. They will protect those who live in malarious districts against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I stay abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office, No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9, A.M., to 3, P.M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will find it useful in their cases. The Respirometer shows the exact condition of the lungs; and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not. But it must be distinctly understood, that the value of my medicines depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to my directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they are not so liable to take cold; yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, to explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me. They can be bought from any druggist.

☞ The business of the Concord Railroad has so greatly increased since their wharf at the North End was built, that an extension of the wharf accommodations has become necessary. Mr. Meshach Muchmore is carrying out the work.

☞ The copper horn says: "The democracy of this city are determined to have a fair count of the votes cast next Tuesday." We are glad to hear it, but the news is too good to be true; the Ward Three copperheads have got so accustomed to committing frauds that we fear it will take more "determination" than they possess, to break themselves of the habit.

☞ Capt. George Dunn, of the Packet "Eagle," which runs between this city and Dover, has shown genuine enterprise by making the first trip of the season from the latter city, on Saturday last, being three weeks earlier than the year before, and earlier than for the past fifteen years. Capt. Dunn is becoming quite a veteran in his occupation; is attentive to business, courteous to passengers, always prompt in all business engagements, and is certainly deserving of success.

☞ The trundling hoops of the girls and the marbles of the boys at every street corner serve to remind us of the return of Spring, even if the mild weather fails to quicken our memories in that direction. Returning home the other evening a little after the nine o'clock bell had rung, we observed two boys about twelve years of age spanning their marbles under a gas-light with all the excited eagerness of faro-bank patrons or "keno" participants. Had we been their paternal author, we should have called them home, and taught them the pleasant little musical request, "Put me in my little bed."

Our Correspondence.

NEW BEDFORD, MASS., March 8th.

Messrs. Editors:—Presuming upon your well known liberality and reading in your last issue a notice of the success of one of your eminent men in his new field of labor, I thought it might prove of interest to many of your readers to hear a like good report of one who, while stationed in Portsmouth some ten or twelve years since, endeared himself to a large circle of friends. I refer to Rev. D. P. Leavitt, formerly of the N. H. Conference of the M. E. church, now connected with the Providence Conference and for the past three years stationed at the County St. M. E. church in this city.

His term of service in this place, will shortly expire, having reached the extreme limit allowed by the Conference. This fact, alone, speaks volumes in regard to his popularity as a pastor. This church unlike most other M. E. churches, was built some twelve years since, by a number of the wealthy and influential members of the old Elm St. church. For all these years, these brethren have borne the whole burden of the affairs, keeping the building in repair, &c., laboring under a burden of debt amounting in the aggregate to $13,000. Some two months since the pastor commenced his seemingly hopeless task of cancelling this debt. His first effort meeting with such good success, that he was led to persevere and in a very short time he had the full amount required to cancel the debt and to insure the building and the fine organ contained therein. The church has since been made over to the Conference and the Society are now in possession of one of the finest churches in the city, free from all incumbrance. Much credit is due our esteemed pastor for his untiring efforts in this direction and he will be long and lovingly remembered by all connected with the Society.

It is a noteworthy fact that Portsmouth men abroad, seldom fail of making their mark in the world; and we have an illustration of it here in the proprietors of the Mt. Washington Glass Works, both of whom are sons of old Portsmouth; and they have succeeded in waking a portion of New Bedford from the low state of depression into which it had fallen, in consequence of the falling off of the whaling business. By their successful management of the business, while conducted solely by themselves, they have opened the eyes of some of our wealthiest capitalists to the advantage of a joint concern. And I predict; we shall, ere long, have one of the most prosperous and best conducted glass houses in this country. Success to them! But I will not encroach further on your space and patience this time, but will close by wishing success to your good old city, and to its old, faithful advocate, the Gazette.

MT. WASHINGTON.

☞ Rev. S. A. Hutchinson of Kittery delivered the closing lecture of the People's Lyceum in that town, March 9th; subject, "Geology of Moses." A good audience was in attendance and the lecture is reported to have been very interesting. The closing entertainment of the course will be a Concert by local singers, March 16th.

☞ The head blower on the copper horn says somebody sings "good Lord, good devil." The copper man probably refers to some republican, in which case the statement about praising the Lord is doubtless true; but if any one in that party has spoken favorably of the horn-blower's deity it must have been unintentional, for no republican could wish to join in copperhead worship.

FRANCE.

The National Assembly has rejected a motion to remove to Paris, 407 to 104, and has voted to remove to Versailles, on the 20th, 406 to 104.

Henri Rochefort is dead.

Thirty wounded German soldiers were killed by a recent accident on the Versailles railway.

DISASTERS AT SEA.—The schooner Hope has been sunk near Glasgow, and all on board lost. The schooner Northern Star has been wrecked near Wexford, and it is believed the entire crew perished. The barque Daring was driven ashore and several of her crew drowned.

☞ It is said that the removal of Senator Sumner was asked of the President by the British Minister, Mr. Thornton, who feared that Mr. Sumner would not agree to the settlement of the Alabama claims as the High Commission might agree on. That is one reason why Mr. Sumner should have been retained as Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations.

☞ The New Hamburg disaster came near being repeated at Newark Bay bridge, on the Jersey Central railroad, A propeller ran against the drawbridge in the morning and disloged one of the columns supporting the bridge. The employees on the road in their excitement forgot to warn the Flemington express train due, and the train entered the bridge while the boatmen and bridgemen were swearing at each other. The engineer fortunately perceived the crowd and whistled "down brakes," and a terrible disaster was arrested.

☞ A terrific tornado passed over the southeast part of Morgan County, Ill., on the 8th. Its path was about half a mile in width. Houses, forests and fences were prostrated by it.

A tornado passed over Helena, Arkansas, same day, unroofing a number of houses and a large livery stable that was nearly demolished by a former hurricane and had just been repaired. The storm followed the course of the Mississippi river.

The losses by the tornado at St. Louis are exaggerated.

The circulars of the State Normal School have just been issued and announce an eight weeks' term, to begin March 15. Tuition is set at $5 per term; board at cost at the School boarding house and in families at $3 to $3.50. Examinations commence on the 16th. A collection of mineral and apparatus is immediately available and other necessary articles will soon be supplied. For information on any point the School may be addressed at Plymouth.

The steam saw-mill at Rumney, the property of Mr. Charles Spalding, with a grist mill, were burned Friday morning. Loss $5000, without any insurance. About a year since Mr. Spalding lost a mill by fire.

The body of Horato M. Perkins, formerly in the employ of Fletcher & Webster of Nashua, has been found in the Merrimac River, near Edgeville. His hands were tied behind him, and it is probable he committed suicide.

The barn of Leonard Elms in Lisbon, with twenty tons of hay and thirty head of cattle, was burned on Thursday night. No insurance.

The Merrimac Valley Poultry Exhibition will hold its exhibition at Nashua on the 21st, 22d and 23d instants.

FIRST MORTGAGE
7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,
ON A COMPLETED ROAD,
FREE OF U. S. TAX,
At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.
Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway.

The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mortgage issue dealt in at the Stock Exchange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis; for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 9½ per cent. interest, instead of 6 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for re-investment.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. f24dWaS

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!
DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
VINEGAR BITTERS,
Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.
WHAT ARE THEY!
THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,
Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Root and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying forth all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. 1yrdawfeb18

SAFE AND PROFITABLE.
THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO
OF IOWA,
have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about
180 MILES OF RAILROAD,
which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open
The First Through Line Across the State
from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give
DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.
This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The
First Mortgage
7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,
which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.
The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.
Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.
Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

CUPID ASTRAY.

Bob had no idea that the doctor was behind him as he poked the valentine under the front door. Had he not been too flustrated to look around he would have seen him, and had not the doctor been deep in a medical reverie about Jane Todd's collar bone, he must have spied the dapper figure as he darted away. But as it was he fumbled for his key a minute, and then rang the bell, and while doing so, spying something white under the door, he picked it up and tore it open. Tore it open? that letter! that letter over which Bob had sat up till 2 o'clock A. M., rounding his periods and curling the tails of his F.'s and Q.'s. Was it for this that he bestowed so many slaps on his forehead? O, Fate!

Bridget, that faithful servitor, answered the bell, charged with a message which she was bent on delivering with the least possibly delay. "If you please sir, Morton Jones' wife's sister a' been here, and little Johnny's a' fell through the loft and took up for dead, and they'd like you to come this minute, and two Irish women called and a baby, and theer's a little boy with a fayvor, it is in Long Lane, and Miss Usher's sent this note."

"Long Lane must wait," muttered the doctor, as he threw his instrument case and the letter on the table, and took the note Bridget held out. "Morton Jones, hey?—He's that man on the Flats isn't he?"

"Yis, sir."

"I'll go at once. Hum!" skimming the dainty notelet in his hand, "Dear doctor; so nervous and depressed, my old foe neuralgia upon me again—come as soon as you have leisure, and meantime send that prescription which did such good last year." "Prescription! Yes, of course, she longs to be dosing herself—all females do." "Yours, sincerely, Madeline Usher." "That comes of being alone and fanciful. If she had one earthly thing to do, she'd be a well woman. I'll see she gets nothing to hurt her." And tearing a scrap from a pocketbook, he penciled some cabalistic signs.

"Here, Bridget. Fetch a sheet of paper, will you? or, stay this will answer." And seizing Bob's valentine, the unconscious doctor wrote upon its back as follows:

"MY DEAR FRIEND: I send you something which will suit you better than the prescription you ask for. It isn't exactly medicine, but will do you more good than if it were, and be a great deal better for you at this season of the year. Be sure to take a brisk walk after it. You know I always told you that half your bad feelings come from loneliness and want of occupation. I wish I could make you feel this half as strongly as I do. I'll drop in this evening if possible. Yours faithfully,

Miss Usher, sitting in her parlor by her bright fire, pale, dejected, wrapped in a shawl, was not a little amazed when two hours later the missive was put into her hands. Dr. Raymond had written her notes before, half professional, half friendly, but this was something unexampled. Silver doves, a smirking cupid, with one pink wing and one blue one, roses, eglantines, and what-not round the edges, these flowery lines enclosed:

"Oh! my out it is wrong to love,
To love, to worship thee;
The sea yearns for the star above,
The stars look on the sea.
The hot moon woos the scented gale,
The parched flower the dew—
Their love, their loving does not fail,
And why should mine for you?

Like bird all spent with wandering,
All weary must I roam
Until I feel my restless wing
In the dear nest of home.
But what were home without thy face,
O! fairest love of mine!
Then deign that humble home to grace,
And bless your Valentine."

It was really not so bad, considering that but eighteen short summers had passed over Bob's head, and that for some time back too his restless wing had been furled in the large dry goods shop round the corner, which he hoped some day to adorn as a partner. Whether the doctor would have admitted it as addressed to Kitty—that baby as he called her—is questionable. But Miss Usher quite glowed as she read. It was so poetical, so sweet. The little confusion of pronouns in the first verse escaped her notice altogether. She read and re-read, and then turned to the more prosaic second page.

"Not exactly medicine"—O that funny man! Much better suited to this season of the year. Oh! very much. Dear, dear! What could it mean? But there was no doubt about that—it could mean one thing! Lonely! Yes, indeed. Dear, delicate little Miss Usher had often felt so, but there seemed no help for it. There was nobody in particular she wished to have live with her, and no one to marry suited to her taste. Dr. Raymond to be sure—he was so superior—so good; but then she had never thought he would marry again—he was so devoted to his first wife. And looking how fond she still was of that little Kitty and Will, and what a lonely life it was, after all, for a man to try and keep house for himself, Miss Usher felt her cheeks flushing, and a glow and a stir coming into her heart, which quite made her forget how ill she had fancied herself just before.

"Well! dog looks cheerful. Women certainly have a knack of making things cosy which men never get. Now, I found out at once that I was growing cold as I sat in my office, and I don't think you have felt it at all in this snug little drawer of yours, and how are you to-night."

The doctor was shaking hands all the time he said this.

"Take this chair, doctor; it is a comfortable one."

The doctor sank, nothing loth, into the soft depths.

"Well, did you take the prescription?"

"The walk? Oh! yes, and feel much better for it, thank you."

"That's right; I knew you would. And how did you like the other?"

"The other?" with deepening color, "oh! I liked it very well, that is, very much."

"I am glad to hear it. It was a simple thing, but I thought it would suit you. I scribbled a line to go along with it, because I wanted to ensure your getting out to-day, and now I want a little plain talk with you on the same point. Let me ask, to begin with, don't you think you have lived alone long enough?"

"Perhaps so," replied Miss Usher, with maidenly hesitation, "but—"

"You see," interrupting, "if we could make an arrangement by which you could have some young person with you, a bright, lively girl of Kitty's age, for instance, who would be a companion, and not too much of a charge, it would be the very thing. It's sitting here forlorn and solitary, and having nobody to keep you company or urge you to go out, which is playing the mischief with your nerves and making you fancy yourself an invalid. You are no more sick than I am.—You only need rousing. Now 'don't you think so yourself? Couldn't you bring your mind to like it?"

Miss Usher fluttered, looked up, turned scarlet, and looked down again.

"It is easy enough to find the person you want," went on the unconscious doctor. "I'll see to that. Only say the word."

"I have been so used to living alone," faltered Miss Usher, "that I'm half afraid to try the experiment. "But if I had you to help me, doctor—"

"Of course you'll have me," said the hearty physician; "that's business, you know."

"Business!"

"Oh! well, pleasure, too, of course; but it is business after all. What's a great, strong man good for if he cannot look after little delicate souls like you; to say nothing of my being your doctor, and your school friend. 'Tis an agreement, then? In case I'll look about me at once, and begin to make arrangements."

"But," interposed Miss Usher, timidly, "are you sure as to Kitty's and Willie's feelings, doctor?"

"Kitty and Willie!"

"Yes. Because, you know, even if you meant every word of that sweet letter this morning, it would depend a great deal upon that. I couldn't do anything to grieve their dear little hearts."

"My letter? What was my letter?" mused the puzzled doctor. "Do you happen to have it about you? I want to see if I made any mistake in the quantities."

With deeper blushes, Miss Usher drew it from her pocket,

"Here it is," she said. "I think a great deal of it, I assure you."

Doctors, by dint of long practice, acquire great command over the facial muscles. Our doctor was master of his. He surveyed the flowery page with outward composure, but within his soul was rent with a convulsion of wonderment and mirth which was terrible.

"How in the world did I come by that nonsensical farrago?" he asked himself, "and how ever am I to explain to this poor little soul?"

And suddenly it popped into his head, "Why not?" With the blue ribbons, the flushed cheeks, the pleasant little room, his full knowledge of her sweet temper and lady-like ways, the idea was not unattractive.

"Not a bad thing for any of us," he muttered half aloud.

"What did you say?" inquired Miss Usher.

"I say," responded the doctor, with a great presence of mind, "that you have heard enough, quite enough for to night. You won't sleep a wink if I let you go on. Go to bed at once, please, and to-morrow I'll come and discuss it thoroughly." And after a gallant leave-taking, he stole out on the professional tiptoe, saying to himself: "I'll sleep over it, at all events,"

I need go no further. When a widower asks himself, "why not?" and decides to sleep over it, the case is settled beyond a peradventure.

I don't think Miss Usher nor Mrs. Raymond knows to this day exactly how it was, though the doctor cleared himself sometime later of the responsibility of the verses. And I shall never believe to my dying moment that the idea would ever have entered his head had it not been for this accident to Bob's little adventure. Poor Bob! That cupid, with particolored wings, failed in his duty as far as he was concerned; but then he turned around and wove a spell for two other people, and perhaps that is as much as one can expect of a cupid.—Hearth and Home.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

WALTHAM WATCHES.

The extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

More than 500,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enables them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watch-making originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skillful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:—

The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breaking of main-springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Fogg's patent pinion as being the best and faultless.

Hardened and tempered hair-springs, now universally admitted by Watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movements from dust and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch is already a decided success, and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mentioned improvements, which tend to ensure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

The trademarks of the various styles made by the Company are as follows:—

BILL MASON'S BRIDE.

BY CHIQUITA.

Half an hour till train time, sir,
An' a fearful dark night, too,
Take a look at the switch-lights, Tom,
Fetch in a stick when you're through.
"On time?" well, yes, I guess so—
Left the last station all right—
She'll come round the curve a flyin'—
Bill Mason comes up to-night.

You know Bill? Not He's engineer;
Been on the road all his life—
I'll never forget the mornin'
He married his chunk of a wife.
'Twas the summer the mill hands struck—
Just off work, every one;
They kicked up a row in the village,
And killed old Donovan's son.

Bill hasn't been married mo'n an hour,
Up comes a message from Kress,
Orderin' Bill to go up there
And bring down the night express.
He left his gal in a hurry,
And went up on number one,
Thinkin' of nothin' but Mary
And the train he had to run.

And Mary sat by the window,
To wait for the night express,
An', sir, if she hadn't a' done so,
She'd been a widow, I guess.
For it must 'a been nigh midnight,
When them mill hands left the Ridge—
They come down—the drunken devils!
Tore up a rail from the bridge.
But Mary heard 'em a workin',
And guessed there was somethin' wrong—
And in less than fifteen minutes,
Bill's train it would be along!

She couldn't 'a' come here to tell us,
A mile—it wouldn't 'a' done—
So she jest grabbed up a lantern,
And made for the bridge alone.
Then down came the night express, sir,
And Bill was makin' her climb!
But Mary held the lantern,
A swingin' it all the time.

Well! by Jove! Bill saw the signal,
And he stopped the night express,
And he found his Mary cryin'
On the track, in her wedding' dress;
Cryin' an' laughin' for joy, sir,
An' holdin' on to the lantern—
Hello! here's the train—good bye, sir,
Bill Mason's on time to-night!

New Publications Received.

Message and Documents, 1870-71—from Hon. A. H. Cragin.

For Everybody, published by Henry H. Sage, Buffalo, N. Y., has a poem, "Our Civil Service," dedicated to Congress.

Coach Makers' Journal for March, L. D. Ware, Phila., Pa., $3 per annum.

The American Newspaper Reporter is valuable in more senses than one. It is devoted principally to the interests of the craft, and from it intelligence of interest may be ascertained. It exposes swindlers and among the lot a "firm" whom we recently had reason to expect were dishonest, Moore & Richardson, who fail to come to time when money is wanted.

The Golden Age, Theodore Tilton's new paper, is devoted to the discussion of all living questions in church, state, society, literature, art, and moral reform. It has live, earnest writers on its staff, and with such persons as Mr. Tilton, Horace Greeley, Lydia Maria Child and Oliver Johnson for contributors, can but retain what it has already obtained, high rank among its cotemporaries. Published weekly at $3 per annum in New York city.

The New York Globe seldom escapes clipping at our hands. It is a model of enterprise and judicious editing—a regular spice box.

—Of all the attempts to piece out short poems of the favorite poets, few have been as successful as the following addition to "John Anderson, My Jo," written by Professor Northrup, of Yale College, and sung at a recent social gathering at Washington by Ex-Secretary Cox:

"John Anderson, my Jo, John,
When we have slept thegither
The sleep that a' maun sleep, John,
We'll wake wi' ane 'anither;
And in that better world, John,
Nae sorrow shall we know,
Nor fear we e'er shall part again,
John Anderson, my Jo."

☞ Mount Rainer, Washington Territory, appears to be firing up for a volcanic eruption. The heat at the summit is so great as to melt the snow. Heretofore, during the hottest summer weather, the melting of the snow was but partial. There is a constant emission of steam, and some persons living in the vicinity report smoke from the mountain.

☞ The legislature of Maine having changed the measure of milk from wine to beer measure, the Kennebec Journal says that the milkmen will have to get their quarts enlarged and dig their wells deeper.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
COMPOUND FLUID
Extract Catawba
GRAPE PILLS.
Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.
FOR LIVER COMPLAINTS, JAUNDICE, BILIOUS AFFECTIONS, SICK OR NERVOUS HEADACHE, COSTIVENESS, ETC. PURELY VEGETABLE, CONTAINING NO MERCURY, MINERALS OR DELETERIOUS DRUGS.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills, are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER AND INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, ULCERATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER, RETENTION OF URINE, DISEASES OF THE PROSTATE GLAND, STONE IN THE BLADDER, CALCULUS, GRAVEL, BRICK-DUST DEPOSIT AND MUCOUS OR MILKY DISCHARGES, AND FOR ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS OF BOTH SEXES, ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS; INDISPOSITION TO EXERTION, LOSS OF POWER, LOSS OF MEMORY, DIFFICULTY OF BREATHING, WEAK NERVES, TREMBLING, HORROR OF DISEASE, WAKEFULNESS, DIMNESS OF VISION, PAIN IN THE BACK, HOT HANDS, FLUSHING OF THE BODY, DRYNESS OF THE SKIN, ERUPTION ON THE FACE, PALLID COUNTENANCE, UNIVERSAL LASSITUDE OF THE MUSCULAR SYSTEM, ETC.

Used by persons from the ages of eighteen to twenty-five, and from thirty-five to fifty-five or in the decline or change of life; after confinement or labor pains; bed-wetting in children.

B

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU IS DIURETIC AND BLOOD-PURIFYING, AND CURES ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM HABITS OF DISSIPATION, AND EXCESSES AND IMPRUDENCES IN LIFE, IMPURITIES OF THE BLOOD, ETC., SUPERSEDING COPAIBA IN AFFECTIONS FOR WHICH IT IS USED, AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS—IN THESE DISEASES USED IN CONNECTION WITH HELMBOLD'S ROSE WASH.

LADIES.

IN MANY AFFECTIONS PECULIAR TO LADIES, THE EXTRACT BUCHU IS UNEQUALLED BY ANY OTHER REMEDY,—AS IN CHLOROSIS OR RETENTION, IRREGULARITY, PAINFULNESS OR SUPPRESSION OF CUSTOMARY EVACUATIONS, ULCERATED OR SCHIRRUS STATE OF THE UTERUS, LEUCORRHŒA OR WHITES, STERILITY, AND FOR ALL COMPLAINTS INCIDENT TO THE SEX, WHETHER ARISING FROM INDISCRETION OR HABITS OF DISSIPATION. IT IS PRESCRIBED EXTENSIVELY BY THE MOST EMINENT PHYSICIANS AND MIDWIVES FOR ENFEEBLED AND DELICATE CONSTITUTIONS, OF BOTH SEXES AND ALL AGES (ATTENDED WITH ANY OF THE ABOVE DISEASES OR SYMPTOMS.)

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c., In all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH
cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of CUTANEOUS AFFECTION. It speedily eradicates PIMPLES, SPOTS, SCORBUTIC DRYNESS, INDURATIONS of the CUTANEOUS MEMBRANE, etc., dispels REDNESS and INCIPIENT INFLAMMATION, HIVES, RASH, MOTH PATCHES, DRYNESS OF SCALP OR SKIN, FROST BITES, and all purposes for which SALVES or OINTMENTS are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation; used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.

The Daily Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, MARCH 14, 1871.

GOOD NEWS!

The U. S. House of Representatives passed bills repealing the duty on coal and salt, Monday.

CONGRESS.

In the House, Monday, Mr. Braxton of Virginia offered a bill to pay $300,000 for the Arlington estate.

Gen. Butler moved to lay it on the table, which was carried, yeas 115, nays 74.

A motion to adjourn on Wednesday was carried, yeas 125, nays 67.

The bill removing duty on salt was passed, yeas 145, nays 46.

Mr. Farnsworth of Illinois, moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill repealing the duty on coal.

Mr. Dickey of Pennsylvania moved to adjourn. Lost, yeas 87; nays 99.

The yeas and nays were then ordered on the suspension of the rules and passage of the bill.

HELMBOLD, being one of the largest advertisers in this country, is naturally about the best advertised man we know of. His advertisements of columns in nearly every paper in the United States, are only exceeded by the "lathering" given him in editorial columns. The Washington papers went into extacies over his magnificent team at the Carnival, calling him a prince of good fellows; the Chronicle describes him as a rapid talker, a business man without a rival, a lavish dispenser of the filthy lucre. He spends $1800 a day for advertising.

In consequence, his sales of Buchu are immense. We read in the New York Tribune of the enlargement of his magnificent Broadway Palace, extending through to Crosby street, upon which occasion full five hundred chosen guests were entertained; then we find in the Philadelphia Bulletin an account of a serenade to him by an immense concourse upon the opening of his new Drug Store in the Continental Hotel; and now we have before us a glowing description of the opening of a magnificent up-town branch of the establishment of Dr. Helmbold, corner of Broadway and 29th street, rendered absolutely necessary by the marvellous growth of the marvellous trade of this man of marvellous enterprise and shrewdness. Great is advertising—and Helmbold thoroughly understands it.

New Hampshire Items.

The winter vacation of Dartmouth College has been shortened and now there will be two terms of twenty weeks each, with a winter vacation of but three weeks, instead of six, as at present, and a short recess near the middle of each term—the first at Thanksgiving. Commencement is to be on the last Thursday in June, followed by a vacation extending to the first week in September.

On the 6th, in Shelburne, Mr. Henry Evans was run over by a load of logs he was engaged in drawing, and almost instantly killed. He was aged about sixty-five.

During February a hundred thousand pounds of wool were brought to market at Lebanon. The prices ranged from forty cents to forty-five for washed wool per pound, and from twenty to thirty for that not washed.

On the 2d, in Peterborough, Patrick Hafney tripped in running to avoid the fall of a tree he had been trying to fell, and broke his right thigh bone obliquely, making the worst possible kind of a fracture. The leg had to be amputated very high up. Mr. H. is a poor and hard working man, whose misfortune is thus doubly bitter.

The station-house on the Montreal Railroad, with about 50 feet of the railway towards the wharf at Wier's Landing, was burned on Saturday night.

A house, barn and L, belonging to H. P. Varrell, at Laconia, was burned Sunday morning. Loss $2000. It was the work of an incendiary.

Rev. A. B. Eich, D. D., of Beverly, has decided to accept a call from the Congregational church at West Lebanon.

Dr. S. M. Whipple of New London has been arraigned for selling liquor to students in the Academy.

LAW VS. JUSTICE.—Two maritime cases have just been decided in the United States courts in New York city, the decisions affording a striking example of the difference between the "law and justice" dealt out to shipmasters and that which sailors receive.

The first case was that of one Grindle, master of the ship Old Colony, who was proved to have treated a sick sailor with barbarous inhumanity, hanging him to the yards, making him parade the deck in fantastic costume to afford "sport" for the brutal skipper, &c.; but the judge ruled that this was the effect of "a want of judgment," and not violation of the law, and the jury rendered a verdict of "Not guilty under the statute, but guilty of cruelty toward his sailors." Of course, under such a verdict, the prisoner was at once discharged. An exchange says, "The evidence bore hard against the captain, and it is said that after hearing the verdict in this case, which was suppose to be the strongest against any captain for years, the general opinion of all the lawyers present was that after this there will be no use at all in bringing charges against a captain for cruelty to sailors." The lawyers cannot be very bright ones, to have just found out that sailors are only enslaved, and not protected, by our maritime laws.—old sailors have known it only too well for the last fifty years; and the results of such iniquitous laws are seen in the constantly increasing inhumanity of masters and mates, the parallel increase of brutality at sea, and the deeper degradation of sailors as a class—for good men cannot be sailors long—they either leave the sea, are educated into officers to abuse seamen in their turn, or at last use knife or match to be revenged for treatment which is lawful but unendurable.

The other case was that of one Pardoe, a sailor, and several of his shipmates, charged with burning the whaler Robert Edwards. Pease master, on the high seas, the penalty for which crime is death. The evidence as reported reads very oddly. The ship was certainly burned, and Pardoe confessed to setting her on fire; but he appers to have been driven to the confession by the captain and mate, the captain choking him and pulling his beard, while the mate pursuaded him across the face with a revolver. Another one of the accused men jumped overboard, exclaiming that he would sooner die than longer endure such treatment as he received; and the principal witness for the Government, a boy named Duncan, who was "shipped from the State school-ship at the request of his father," testified that it was fear induced by seeing the other sailors beaten which made him confess that he knew anything about the firing of the vessel. The captain testified that he at first intended to leave the four suspected men to perish on board the burning ship, but afterwards relented.

Pardoe was adjudged guilty, and his associates not. We think it more than likely that he did set the old whaler on fire; but the certainty with which a conviction can be procured against sailors, contrasted with the certainty of escape in the case of captains or mates accused of cruelty that would disgrace savages — no matter how strong and clear the case against them may be—is a good commentary on the infamous character of our laws regarding the merchant service.

Capt. Pease is said to be a kind-hearted gentleman, and one highly esteemed, in New Bedford. Quite likely; but his reputation afloat is a different thing, for he has for twenty years been regarded by the sailors of the whaling fleet as a "hard case with his sailors"—in other words, a merciless tyrant. The burning of the ship under his command is one more luminous argument in favor of improving the character of seamen by releasing them from slavery.

Our Correspondence.

YORK, ME., March 9th.

Messrs. Editors:—The warrant calling our annual town meeting "is up." It is said to be of great length. Doubts were entertained before posting whether the Court House door would give room; but as the door has 28 feet of surface "there was room."

We are "to choose a Moderator," &c. Then follows; to see if the town will vote to accept the doings of Selectmen in laying out numerous roads and ways, to prevent fishing from the bridges, &c.; a lively time is in store for those who will "continue to the end" (of the meeting.)

Messrs. E. S. and S. B. Marshall, cooperating with Hon. N. G. Marshall in building the new hotel at "Stag's Neck," will favor to the utmost the building of a road from Williams' Hill to Dinah's Hill.—a convenience that the good people of this town have denied themselves for the past hundred years, we suppose upon the ground of economy; but we consider it poor economy. There can be no doubt that the town will vote to accept the doings of Selectmen on this proposed route. As we are now (if not forever) debarred from the advantages of a Railroad, it becomes us to have good public roads.

The hotels of Messrs. Marshall and Messrs. Sayward and Grant are progressing finely, the mild weather being very favorable for the workmen. The Sayward and Grant House at Long Sands Beach, named "Sea Cottage," is a well designed building and admirably arranged for the purposes for which these worthy citizens intend it, and is located in as good a place as can be had from Passamaquoddy to San Francisco, this beach being the handsomest and most solid on the coast. There can be no question of their success, as both gentlemen as well as their better halves, are well and very favorably known among the boarding class of visitors. Success to them! P.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

LONGER AND BETTER—the wearing of boots and shoes made with the CABLE SCREW WIRE, than any other class of goods. Many heavy firms deal exclusively in them, and all first-class retailers have them. Comfortable, economical and durable, they need only a trial.

If you desire rosy cheeks and a complexion fair and free from Pimples and Blotches, purify your blood by the use of Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Discovery. It has no equal for this purpose, nor as a remedy for severe Coughs or Bronchitis. Sold by druggists. To avoid Counterfeits see that it has on the outside wrapper, Dr. Pierce's private Stamp, issued by the U. S. Government expressly for stamping his medicines, and which bears his portrait, name and address upon it.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Great Vernal Specific.

No class of invalids are more sensitive to changes of season and variations of temperature than dyspeptics, and persons of bilious habit. Tender lungs are not more easily affected by these vicissitudes than feeble stomachs. If there is a tendency in the system to indigestion, biliousness, or bowel complaints, the variable weather of early spring is almost sure to develope one or other of these ailments. Intermittent fevers are also more prevalent in the spring months than at any other season except autumn. In view of these facts, this seems to be a proper time to invite especial attention to HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, a medicine, which for a long series of years, has proved superior to all others as a remedy for the above named disorders, and as protection against the miasma which frequently produces, and always aggravates them. It was formerly the practice to give violent cathartics as "spring medicines," nor is the custom yet entirely obsolete. Nothing, however, can be more ill-judged and unphilosophical. The chilling moisture with which the air is loaded at the breaking up of the winter, presses heavily upon the vital forces of the body, and reinforcement, not depletion, is what it requires. The Bitters is a genial and excellent tonic, a moderate alterative, and just enough of an aperient to regulate, without convulsing, the bowels. It is, therefore, a specific peculiarly adapted to the present season.

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

"Against what?" asks the reader. Why, against the POISONS, vile, maddening and deadly, advertised as "superior to all Hair Dyes." But, on second thoughts, the call "to arms!" is unnecessary. The wretched trash is already being driven out of the market. It has received the coup de grace from

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The popularity of this time-tried article increases every hour. Everybody is talking of the "natural shades" it imparts, and there is no conceivable reason why it should not be used, being (as Professor CHILTON states in his certificate) PERFECTLY HARMLESS. As a dressing after dyeing, use lmdawfeb27

Communication.

Messrs. Editors:—The decay in shipbuilding, and a general feeling that something must be done to vitalize business among us, has given a prominence to the persistent efforts of a trio of persons at Newcastle to bring about annexation, which otherwise would have been met with universal ridicule. Has their profession taught them to believe that the people of this city are like a school of mackerel—ready to bite at the bare hook? The advantage of that annexation nobody this side of Newcastle can see; while the objections are certain as taxation. One prominent democrat, whose name is on that committee, has been heard to say that it would add seventy-five thousand dollars to our present heavy debt! And for what are we to do this? Simply that a few persons doing a very profitable business at Newcastle may have their taxes lessened and go toll free! That in reality is the whole of it.

But it was not our present intention to discuss this absurdity, but to ask whether in suffering ourselves to be annexed by it, we were not losing sight of other means, means at hand, developing our resources, bringing prosperity to our city, and increasing the well being, comfort and safety of every one of us! It is well known to many that a number of enterprises, which would have added hundreds to our population, largely to our capital and give a spur to our industry, have been projected here within the past few years, and have fallen through, solely because it was found that the requisite supply of water could not be had! Aye, further, that enterprising men have been for this reason driven from among us to pursue their business elsewhere! Now any increase of our prosperity must come through the introduction of new branches of manufacture; it is certain we can't have this without steam power, and so long as we cannot put another steam engine in operation without lessening the already short supplies for family use, so long shall we continue to dwindle. That is our great necessity, we think will be apparent to all who will examine it. Our community has been on short allowance, at times very short, for several years! Pumps are in use where a few years ago the spontaneous flow was abundant, and pumping often brings as much sand as water!

It is not very long ago that it was feared that our steam mills would have to be stopped for this want of supply, and danger of it hangs over us all the time. And this not because of want of sufficient supply at "fountain-head," but because of the manner and straighting policy of the Aqueduct Co., a close corporation which practically limits the growth and welfare of this city! Did the legislature which granted their charter contemplate this? Was it not a condition of its grant, and the condition by which it holds its privileges, that it should furnish the people with a supply? Has it done so for several years? Does it do it now? Every house-keeper almost, knows to his or her great annoyance that it does not, and this while the charge for it has been doubled.

Now is it not puerile and idle to hope for a better state of things so long as we so patiently submit to this great grievance? To say nothing of our prosperity, our very safety demands action in this matter. No! Messrs. Editors, our panacea lies not in the direction of Newcastle. Neither are we yet ready to accord the honors of a prophet to the great man who on leaving us said "we were destined to degenerate to a fishing village." Let us keep something in Crib as a last resource.

☞ A year ago to-day voters were carried to the polls in sleighs.

☞ Rev. Mr. Newton of Brookline, Mass., will preach at the chapel of St. John's Church on Wednesday evening, at half past seven o'clock.

☞ To-morrow the "Organ" will sound the glad note of victory! throughout the loyal land; and the "Lyre" will be lying—still to dope its rebel band.

☞ See that your name is on the check list. The Selectmen meet at the various Ward Rooms at 7 o'clock, this morning, to revise and correct the lists. Voting commences at 9 o'clock.

☞ Mr. Joseph A. Grace is selling off his stock of Dry Goods at No. 17 Market Street, with a rush. He announces that the entire stock must be sold in ten days. Now is the chance for good bargains.

☞ This (Tuesday) evening the last Assembly of the course conducted by the Odd Fellows and Masons comes off in Congress Hall. It is to be a "picnic dance," and will suitably wind up a very pleasant series of social assemblies.

☞ Our friends in adjacent towns, and the town-clerks of this city, will confer favors on us and the public by sending in election returns as fully and promptly as possible. We particularly desire the correct vote of each town in this District for Senator.

FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

ON A COMPLETED ROAD,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway.

The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mortgage issue dealt in at the Stock Exchange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis; for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 9½ per cent. interest, instead of 5 per cent. which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for re-investment.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. f24dWaS

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. 1yrdawfeb15

SAFE AND PROFITABLE.

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO

OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, besides a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

Morning Chronicle.

THE DEPOSITION OF MR. SUMNER. The reasons given for their action by the Senators who voted for the deposition of Mr. Sumner, so far as any were given, will hardly bear scrutiny. Senator Nye of Nevada, who, admirable though he is at pungent story telling, can hardly be called a statesman, thought it a sufficient answer to the inquiry, why Mr. Sumner was removed, that they could not remove the President and Secretary of State, and so they had decided to remove the chairman of the committee of foreign affairs. The other senator from Nevada, Mr. Stewart, thought the principle was involved whether senators might vote for officers of their choice without having their motives questioned. It did not seem to occur to him that there was anything strange in the removal of Charles Sumner, and the substitution of Simon Cameron at the head of the most important committee of the Senate.

Mr. Edmunds of Vermont indicated the breadth of his views by the remark that the majority had the right to do and had done it, and that "it was a small matter to make so much noise about." Mr. Edmunds' special grievance towards Mr. Sumner is that he has to look up to him; anybody can earn a handful of mud from the Vermont senator by getting a step higher than he.

Senator Conkling of New York, who is the President's next friend in this whole business, and Chandler of Michigan, who has been next to Conkling the most active in it, sat in their seats and said nothing.

Mr. Howe of Wisconsin alone ventured to offer a reason that was not utterly ridiculous. That gentleman stated distinctly that the deposition of Mr. Sumner was on account of the personal relations existing between the latter and the President and Secretary of State, growing out of Mr. Sumner's opposition to the San Domingo scheme. In other words, for we presume it to be admitted and we know it to be the fact, the President demanded that the committee of foreign affairs be organized at his dictation, and that Charles Sumner, the first Republican in the country, the oldest senator, the purest statesman, the ablest scholar, and the foremost man of his period, be deposed and disgraced.

The President has reached too high. Mr. Sumner cannot be injured by any such attempts to disgrace him. Thro' twenty-five years of public life the people have come to be pretty familiar with all that can be charged against him. They know all that can be, and that has been said about his arrogance and dictatorial manners towards his brother Senators, his self assertion, his aggressiveness and wilfulness, and all that; they have heard the changes rung on them for twenty years, and are aware that there is a measure of truth in them; but they know, that for the quarter of a century of his public life he has been the Senator of the period; and that as scholar, statesman, pure patriot and honest man he is immeasurably the superior of the men who have attacked him.

The blow aimed at him will recoil upon the conspirators. It may appear successful for the moment. Mr. Sumner may be removed from his position at the head of the foreign affairs committee and Simon Cameron be put in his place. The party that does it, that makes that change of all changes in the world most ridiculous and least excusable, will repent it in dust and ashes; the administration that demands it and carries it through, will meet the fate of Buchanan and Johnson, and who shall say it does not deserve it?—Hartford Post.

A SMALL POX REMEDY.—A correspondent of the Stockton (Cal.) Herald writes as follows:

I herewith append a receipt which has been used to my knowledge in hundreds of cases. It will prevent or cure the small-pox though the pittings are filling. When Jenner discovered cow-pox in England, the world of science hurled an avalanche upon his head, but when the most scientific school of medicine in the world—that of Paris—published this recipe as a panacea for small-pox, it passed unheeded. It is as unfailing as fate, and conquers in every instance. It is harmless when taken by a well person. It will also cure scarlet fever. Here is the recipe as I have used it, and cured my children of scarlet fever—here it is as I have used it to cure small-pox; when learned physicians said the patient must die, it cured:

Sulphate of zinc, one grain; foxglove, (digitalis,) one grain; half a teaspoonful of sugar; mix with two tablespoonfuls of water. When thoroughly mixed, add four ounces of water. Take a spoonful every hour. Either disease will disappear in twelve hours. For a child, smaller doses, according to age. If counties would compel their physicians to use this, there would be no need of pest-houses. If you value advice and experience, use this for that terrible disease.

WAKED HIM UP.—Rev. J. H. K. was, several years since, pastor of a Methodist Episcopal Church in Western New York. During his sermon, on a hot summer's Sunday morning, brother Austen, one of the official members of the church, fell fast asleep. Mr. K. suddenly paused, and called out,

"Brother Austen, will you please open the windows there a little? Physicians say it is very unhealthy to sleep in a close room!"

The brother was awakened and complied.

—A Western bummer lately put himself to bed on the steps of a church, and, trying to fold the snow-flakes around him declares every time he grasped a handful that the darned sheet always tore so.

—Rev. Mr. Eggleston, who now receives $10,000 a year as one of the new editors of the Independent, once preached for $300 a year.

—The principal occupation of the "girl of the period," is said to be to sit at the window and watch for the "coming man."

Brighton Tallow 6@6½c per lb; Country Tallow 6c ₱ lb.

Sheep and Lamb Skins $1 75 @ $2 50 each; Calf Skins 16 @ 18c ₱ lb.

There were not quite so many Western Cattle in market as there were last week. The trade has been dull and prices, if anything, have changed for the worse. The best Cattle were sold at 11c ₱ lb, there being but very few sold as high as our highest quotations. The Beef trade has been dull for the last week, and still continues so. There were about 150 Northern Cattle driven over to be disposed of from Boston Union Market yards, and a few from Medford. The trade is confined principally to Beef Cattle. Until the first of May the restrictions will be kept on, and nothing but Beef Cattle allowed in market.

Sheep and Lambs—There were 4200 Western Sheep in market, owned principally by butchers or taken at a commission. The trade was quick. We quote extra and select lots $4 @ $7; ordinary $3 @ 4 ₱ head, or from 3 @ 7½c ₱ lb.

Swine—No Store Pigs in market. Fat Hogs—2300 at market; prices 8¼ @ 8½c ₱ lb.

ARE YOU GOING TO PAINT?

IF SO, USE THE

AVERILL CHEMICAL PAINT.

It is Cheaper, Handsomer and more durable than the best of other Paints. One Thousand Gallons of it were sold in this City, in the year 1870, and not one complaint has come from those who have used it; but all speak in its favor; it is mixed ready for application, and is much easier put on than any other Paint, making a smooth, glossy surface for years, that can be cleaned with hot soda without injuring it. It is excellent for walls inside, in the place of paper.

I shall keep this season a large stock of Chemical Paints of all shades on hand, to accommodate customers with any amount, without delay in ordering it. Those who want to use the Chemical Paints and have had them misrepresented by those who deal in Lead and Oil, are invited to call and examine my Paints that have been on Buildings two years, and you will find them as fresh as if laid but one month.

I am prepared to do Painting by Contract, or by the day, using the Chemical Paint, or furnishing good experienced workmen by the day at very low wages. B. NORTON, only Agent for selling the

WALTHAM

WATCHES.

The extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

More than 500,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enables them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watch-making originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which experience proved to be the most artistic in our works, and long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:—

The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the teeth by the breakage of main-springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Fogg's patent pinion as being the best and faultless.

Hardened and tempered hair-springs, now universally admitted by Watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movements from dust and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch is already a decided success, and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and is fully equal to any other in quality now offered to the public. To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mentioned improvements, which tend to ensure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

The trademarks of the various styles made by the Company are as follows:—

TALK ABOUT HEALTH.

BY DIO LEWIS, M. D.

I have studied the subject of exercise for twenty years. I have invented a system of gymnastics, which has been introduced into nearly all the schools in America, into most of the English gymnasia, and was introduced into the schools of Berlin a few years ago, with public ceremonies.

I have been the recipient of honorable testimonials from American Colleges, many important educational bodies, and from many sources in England and Germany.

Please excuse this parade. My object in making these statements, is to give a just emphasis to an opinion which I wish now to express. It is this, that walking, when properly managed, is the best of all exercises. None of the artificial exercises can be compared with it. Every important muscle works actively in walking. Notice an active walker. See how every part works—legs, hips, arms, shoulders—the man works all over. Brisk walking gives even the upper half of the body fine play. Then walking costs nothing. You are not obliged to join a class, and employ a teacher. Again, walking takes you into the open air and sunshine, while in gymnastics you are in the dusty atmosphere of a hall; and it is not a small advantage that in walking you enjoy a succession of changing scenes,—suggestions of new thought. And walking with a friend, the conversation may be interesting and instructive. All this may be found in natural and active walking.

But if the ankles were shackled, so that the feet could be moved but a few inches, the great value of the exercise would be at an end.

I ask you to note the arms and shoulders of an active walker. How they swing, and wiggle and wiggle—how thoroughly alive even the upper half of the body is! The physiology of that part of the body in walking is this: the shoulder is a sort of center for the muscles of the chest. They start from the shoulder, and spread out in every direction like a fan. These muscles, which run in every direction over the chest, around, about, up, down, crosswise and interlocking with each other in a wonderful net—these muscles which determine whether the chest shall be full, strong and active, or thin, weak, and inactive—these muscles, about the chest, which determine whether the vital organs within the chest shall be large active and strong, or small, slow and weak—these muscles which may contribute more than others in the body, to the strength and activity of life—these muscles, I say, depend for their activity, for their development and strength upon a free and vigorous motion of the shoulders. Brisk walking, with a swinging of the arms, gives the required movements of the shoulders. Now we understand how it is that active walking contributes so much to the fullness and strength of the chest, and the organs within the chest.

Please put your finger down there, and look out of this front window with me. It is a bright day, and the ladies are out in force.

Now, let us notice how they walk. Why they don't swing their arms at all! Their arms must be laced down upon their sides! No, their are holding their arms still, and see, they have tucked their hands into those large fur rollers which they carry on they stomachs. Their arms look for all the world like the wings of a Chrtstmas turkey, all tied down and ready to be put in the oven.

It must be hard work to walk in that way.

It is very hard indeed, and you see they have to walk very slowly, and wiggle their hips.

What a funny motion that wiggle is. I should think fastidious people might call it vulgar and immodest.

Oh, well that depends upon the fashion. That wiggle-waggle is all the go now.

I should think it would lame them across the back.

It does; there is not a lady in twenty, who is not lame across the small of the back. Let a man wear a shawl and hold it together in front with his hands, and he will not walk far before his back will ache. It is a hard strain upon the spine to walk without swinging the arms.

American ladies have muscular legs and hips; but look at their arms, (candle-dips No. 8,) their angular shoulders and their flat, thin chest.

A large part of this ugliness and weakness comes of carrying their hands in muffs, or folded in front, or under shawls—in brief, from not swinging their arms in walking. Ah, when those beautiful fur mittens and gloves, which are now becoming fashionable, shall be generally introduced, and our girls are able to walk off in that brisk, bright way which we all so admire, not only will their cheeks take on a warmer hue; but their arms, shoulders and chests, will become plumper and finer; but better fitted to perform the duties and enter into the pastimes and pleasures of life.

SCIENTIFIC AND POPULAR MEDICAL WORKS
—ON—
MANHOOD, WOMANHOOD AND NERVOUS DISEASES,
PUBLISHED BY THE
PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE,
No. 4 Bulfinch Street, Boston,
(Opposite Revere House.)
DR. W. H. PARKER, Assistant Physician.
Medical knowledge for everybody. 250,000 copies sold in two years.
A Book for every Man.
THE SCIENCE OF LIFE, OR SELF-PRESERVATION. A Medical Treatise on the Nature and Cure of Exhausted Vitality, Premature Decline in Man, Nervous and Physical Debility, Hypochondria, and all other diseases arising from the Errors of Youth, or the Indiscretions or Excesses of mature years. Price only $1.00. 235 pages, bound in cloth.
A Book For Every Woman,
Entitled SEXUAL PHYSIOLOGY OF WOMAN, AND HER DISEASES; or, the Woman Treated of Physiologically and Pathologically, from Infancy to Old Age, with elegant Illustrative Engravings. 350 pages, bound in beautiful French cloth. Price $2.00.
A Book for Everybody.
Flattered by the reception of, and great demand for, the above valuable and timely treatises, and also to meet a great need of the present age, the author has just published a new book, treating exclusively of NERVOUS AND MENTAL DISEASES. 150 pp. cloth Price $1, or sent free on receipt of $3 for the other two books, postpage paid.
These are, beyond all comparison, the most extraordinary works on Physiology ever published There is nothing whatever that the MARRIED OR SINGLE, of EITHER SEX, can either require or wish to know, but what is fully explained, and many matters of the most important and interesting character are introduced to which no allusion even can be found in any other works in our language. All the NEW DISCOVERIES of the author, whose experience is such as probably never before fell to the lot of any man, are given in full. No person should be without these valuable books.
☞ "VALUABLE BOOKS.—We have received the valuable medical works published by the Peabody Medical Institute. These books are of actual merit, and should find a place in every intelligent family. They are not the cheap order of abominable trash, published by irresponsible parties, and purchased to gratify coarse tastes, but are written by a responsible professional gentleman of eminence, as a source of instruction on vital matters, concerning which lamentable ignorance exists. The important subjects presented are treated with delicacy, ability and care, and, as an appendix, many useful prescriptions for prevailing complaints are added."—Coos Republican, Lancaster, N. H.
☞"The author of these books is one of the most learned and popular physicians of the day, and is entitled to the gratitude of our race for these invaluable productions. It seems to be his aim to induce men and women to avoid the cause of those diseases to which they are subject, and he tells them just how and when to do it."—Chronicle, Farmington, Me., Sept. 7, 1869.
Either book sent by mail on receipt of price.
N. B. The Author of the above-named medical works is the Chief Consulting Physician of the Peabody Medical Institute, and is so constantly employed in consultation with invalids from all parts of the country, that he has no time to attend to mere business details. Therefore all letters should be addressed to the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, or to DR. W. H. PARKER, the Medical Assistant of the Author, and his Business Agent, who, as well as the Author himself, may be consulted on all diseases requiring skill, secrecy and experience. oct26d1yr

SEABROOK, March 15.

The late town meeting was the quietest one we have had in Seabrook for years, owing to the presence of the police and the closing of the drinking places by the town authorities,—though there was rum from Newburyport to be had, as I have heard. After several town officers had been chosen, the legality of the warrant was questioned, as the copies were not attested. It was then resolved to declare the State vote, and adjourn to Thursday, the 16th, to finish the business; and a committee was appointed to consult Hon. Gilman Marston as to the legality of the warrant. If not legal, a new town-meeting will be called.

A Lyceum course of eight lectures, to be given in the Methodist church, was opened last Friday evening, the 10th, by Rev. Mr. Dorchester of Salem; subject, "Beautiful Women," the second lecture will be given next Thursday evening the 16th, by Prof. Bidwell, on "The Secret of Manhood."

A lecture was recently delivered at the Methodist church, by Prof. Lummus of Boston; subject, "The Soul." The house was well filled. After the lecture an opportunity was given for asking questions. Elder Smith of the Advent church of Seabrook was present and entered into a discussion with the Professor and to the lookers on, it seemed at one time as though the disputants would use something more than words. The discussion was kept up till after 10 o'clock.

The Adventists have built a chapel near the Seabrook depot and by their good words and works are exercising a beneficial influence over the people of that neighborhood. QUILL.

Our Correspondence.

CAN'T SEE IT.—Messrs. Editors:—We have held our peace during the discussion in your paper of the subject of annexation and did not intend to say a word about it, as we felt confident that all that had been said against it had only tended to strengthen the cause. Even the charge of fine writing made by one "Strawberry Bank," aimed we suppose against your present correspondent fell as harmless as wide of the mark. It is true, Mr. Editor, we do occasionally indulge in a little poetry and philosophy, but that does not disqualify a man for business or the consideration of public interests; no more at least than the marrying and hoarding of a little money. But the article in your last issue (14th) is so presumptuous, so abounding in arrogance and self-conceit, as if the writer knew the one panacea for all (our ills, namely more pump logs,) so full of distortions of the truth and exaggerated statements, that we cannot refrain from a reply. It seems to us that your correspondent is so afraid of fish-hooks that he, with this whole community, is bent on starving himself to death rather than taste of anything which has enterprise and progress in it.

That persons in Portsmouth and Newcastle are anxious to see the latter annexed is true. But the statement made by your correspondent that the efforts to bring about annexation are confined to a "trio of persons at Newcastle," is a serious compromise of the truth. We know that 19-20ths of our people are equally interested in it and that a large and increasing number of the active men of Portsmouth are fully convinced of the importance of the movement and are ready to vote for it. And they are all men whose sagacity and business ability will compare favorably with your correspondents', if the article to which we refer is to be taken as a specimen of the real character of his business views. He goes on to state (in a very loose and reckless way we submit) that nobody out of Newcastle can see any advantage in the scheme. Now if he knew the minds of all the people of Portsmouth on all public questions he might perhaps be pardoned for so sweeping a statement. But knowing the contrary to be true we feel certain that many readers of the Chronicle will thank us for the contradiction.

The objections he says are certain; but why does he not state them. We have never been able to see them and though we occasionally see a reference to them in the public discussion of the subject, nobody seems to know what they are. One of the objections referred to by a former correspondent seemed to be that a meeting was held in a certain "place" and that the leading men of Portsmouth were giving the matter their attention as they are continuing to do. We submit this is not at all upon the real merits of the question. Another objection now arises in the vivid imagination of Mr. Pumplogs. (Whether there is not a little pipe-lay-ing in this reference we leave others to consider) viz: that a prominent democrat is on a committee having the matter in charge. This is indeed a fearful objection! An active, competent, and successful business man, paying a heavy tax objected to because he is a democrat. Ought not the counsels of such objectors to prevail? Ought they not to have the confidence of the people and be made the leaders in our so much needed public reforms and improvements? Or rather ought they not to be held responsible for the fact that these reforms and improvements were not already made and long ago enjoyed by the people.

But your correspondent goes on to say that a democrat (which gives it weight of course) has stated that it would add $75,000 to the debt of Portsmouth. Well, Messrs. Editors, we should be charitable and remembering that Tuesday was election day, may we not suppose that "circumstances" might have favored extravagant statements and induced "misunderstandings?" for we know of no democrat on any other day would make so wild and erroneous figures. It was probably a slightly mixed figure of speech and meant a political majority somewhere; or perhaps it referred to an increase in population on this Island in case of annexation. Now for the fact. The debt of Newcastle is about $20,000. If the bridges are bought (which Portsmouth will be under no more obligation to do after annexation than before) but presuming she would do so, would cost not over $8000 (and probably $6000.) This would foot up $28,000, taking the worst view of the case. This would add to taxation in Portsmouth according to present rates about five mills on every one hundred dollars worth of property. If you deduct from this amount the proportion which Newcastle would have to pay of it and then add to Newcastle's part of her own debt her share of Portsmouth's big debt which she must help pay if annexed, does there appear to be such obvious and disportionate advantages to Newcastle in annexation?

But there is one part of your correspondent's article which is not only untrue and unjust, but really abusive. I refer to this statement that annexation is simply to benefit a few persons doing business at Newcastle. He evidently refers to a well-known business firm there, and though these men need no defence at my hands, being fully equal to taking care of themselves) I will say in justice to them and for your correspondent's information, that they already pay one-half their taxes in Portsmouth and are intending to pay more soon; that one of the members of that firm is opposed to annexation on the grounds of personal interests, and the other member has never taken the slightest part in politics or public affairs since he has been among us, and though from the start in favor of annexation, never took the least action in the matter till induced by the repeated and earnest solicitations of prominent citizens here to do so, and that the special interests of this firm would not be promoted beyond sharing in the general public good and prosperity which must accrue to both places by the development of the resources of Newcastle.

Let us hear no more of special interests to be subserved, of private axes to grind. It is the same old charge trumped up since the world began by well-to-do and self satisfied people against everybody who ever preferred anything new, progressive, and for the public welfare.

But I have not time to answer the article further at this moment, but will attempt to show in my next that the failure of the enterprises to which reference is made was not owing to lack of water, as Mr. Pumplogs thinks, but spirit;—a lack of sympathy and support on the part of those who were abundantly able and should have given it, the do-nothing policy men, who are responsible in a great degree for the present apathy and inactivity complained of by the live men of Portsmouth, and who are now seeking to circumvent, and if possible prevent the annexation of Newcastle. FARMER.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Great Vernal Specific.

No class of invalids are more sensitive to changes of season and variations of temperature than dyspeptics, and persons of bilious habit. Tender lungs are not more easily affected by these vicissitudes than feeble stomachs. If there is a tendency in the system to indigestion, biliousness, or bowel complaints, the variable weather of early spring is almost sure to develope one or other of these ailments. Intermittent fevers are also more prevalent in the spring months than at any other season except autumn. In view of these facts, this seems to be a proper time to invite especial attention to HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, a medicine, which for a long series of years, has proved superior to all others as a remedy for the above named disorders, and as preventive against the miasms which frequently prevails, and always aggravates them. It was formerly the practice to give violent cathartics as "spring medicines," nor is the custom yet entirely obsolete. Nothing, however, can be more illjudged and unphilosophical. The chilling moisture with which the air is loaded at the breaking up of the winter, presses heavily upon the vital forces of the body, and reinforcement, not depletion, is what it requires. The Bitters is a genial and excellent tonic, a moderate alterative, and just enough of an aperient to regulate, without convulsing, the bowels. It is, therefore, a specific peculiarly adapted to the present season.

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand the course that ought to be pursued to restore a tolerably bad case of diseased lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid taking cold; and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as we have in northern latitudes. This is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterman. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

One hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even, and the air dry and bracing. Mellonville and Enterprise are located there. I would give a decided preference to Mellonville; it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times; but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My reason for saying so is, that invalids are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature; and it is not necessary to say, that when a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds, he is certain to die shortly: therefore my advice is, go well down into the State, out of the reach of everything east winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, night sweats, or cough, but for those who are really diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1869, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week, where I was examined on an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing every shade of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may be very much benefited by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; for the climate is more likely to produce biliousness than a more northern climate. It is a well-established fact, that natives of Florida are free from consumption, especially those of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, one-third at least of the population die of this terrible disease. In the Middle States, it does not prevail to largely; still there are many thousands of cases there. What was my astonishment, when I found that consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh colds as they are about scarlet fever, small-pox, &c.! but they know not: they take cold, they term a little cold, which they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to take a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action. I know, when they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough, or night sweats, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where a freer use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary. My object is, to get the liver to act freely, to get up a good appetite. It is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry; for the hopes of such. With a relish for food, and the gratification of that relish, comes good blood, and with it more flesh, which is followed by a healing of the lungs,—then the cough loosens and abates, the creeping chills and clammy night sweats no longer prostrate and annoy, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

There are many consumptives there who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, Is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer. Let such invalids take no exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The fact stands undisputed on record, that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of what seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption. To those who can visit Florida, you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on the liver better than calomel, and leave none of its hurtful effects behind. In fact, they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have partaken too freely of fruit, and diarrhœa comes, a dose of the Mandrakes will cure you. If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of the Mandrakes, and they will relieve you in two hours. If you would obviate the effect of a change of water, or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night, and you may think milk water, and eat water-melons, pears, apples, plums, peaches, or corn, without the risk of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They cannot do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 A.M. to 3 P.M. Those who desire a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and points out exactly where whether they are curable or not. But I desire it distinctly understood, that the value of my medicines depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they are not so liable to take cold; yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

New Advertisements to-day.

Blank Books, &c.—Joseph H. Foster.
Boy Wanted—at 79 Market Street.
Auction—M. T. Betton & Co.

☞ 'Twas the Republicans who were Piked this year—not the Democrats.

☞ The rebel nest eggs are Hatched, and the "Lyre" make quite a display of poultry.

QUERY.—How did the Chief Mourner in Wednesday night's procession feel, conducting his own funeral?

☞ Bunting was hung out Wednesday evening by men who had no Red, White and Blue during the late war.

SUGGESTIVE AND APPROPRIATE.—A Copperhead on Water Street raised his flag Union down, in honor of the Democratic victory.

☞ The game of billiards this evening at Currier's Hall, Market Street, by professionals from abroad, is an item of interest to amateurs, as well.

☞ We learn that Daniel A. Hill Esq., of Eliot, on Wednesday received the appointment of Muster Clerk in Bureau of Construction at this Yard.

☞ There was more demonstration Wednesday night over the election of a Copperhead Governor than the same individuals made on the defeat of the rebel army.

☞ The general feeling about town is that if Hon. Horton D. Walker had been the Republican nominee for Governor, he would have been elected, without a doubt.

☞ Ale was in demand, Wednesday, and our Democratic friends laid in a good supply for the celebration. One dispenser of Jones' best, in his eagerness to get sufficient in store for the coming call, succeeded in getting the bung out, and the foam flew spitefully towards the City Hotel; but the power wasn't sufficient to carry it across Congress Street, and landlord Perkins escaped a severe bombardment.

☞ Schooner Sharon recently sold at auction at Cape Neddick was bid off by Capt. S. W. Norton for $725. The vessel was subsequently sold to Jos. Weare and others for $690. She is to be repaired and commanded by Capt. Edwin Dennett, former master of Schooner Canton, owned by Jos. Weare he having sold three quarters to parties at Kennebunk. She is to be commanded by Capt. Samuel Bunkins, who is part owner.

☞ We issued several hundred extras of the Chronicle and the Gazette on Wednesday, but the interest taken in the elections returns and our bird exhausted the editions almost instantly, and we were obliged to print other hundreds ere demands ceased.

We published fuller returns than were ever received here before, thanks to Miss C. H. Snow of the Western Union Telegraph Line, whose arrangements for receiving and sending the news were admirable. We are also indebted to the town clerks of this city and of other places for full particulars.

A DEMOCRAT JUBILEE of the noisiest kind came off Thursday evening. The gamins worked with a will in the afternoon gathering combustibles, and children of an older growth contributed tar barrels and cord wood. The Democratzies illuminated, a characteristic procession was formed under a characteristic Chief Marshal and the motley throng passed through the streets, the Cornet and Harlow's Bands, horns, shells, bells and yells making the music. Fireworks were shot off, much bravado and words of grandiloquent nothingness got loose and a modest bonfire was lighted on Market Square. We defer a more detailed account until tomorrow.

☞ Secretary Fish publishes a card denying that Minister Thornton or any British official suggested the removal of Mr. Sumner from the Committee on Foreign Relations.

☞ Rev. W. T. Clarke, formerly editor of the Liberal Christian, is to be associated with Mr. Theodore Tilton in the Editorial management of The Golden Age.

☞ James P. Wadkins, of Iowa, whipped his wife in such a brutal manner that she died within a hour, and an unborn child was killed at the same time.

☞ The Boston Board of Aldermen have unanimously voted to make the ferry to East Boston free, on and after May 1st.

☞ Bret Harte is to write exclusively for James R. Osgood & Co.

☞ Wissemburg has been annexed to Bavaria.

☞ Gen. McMahon is homeward bound.

☞ Our bird has departed, gone hence—a disconsolate biped, too sickly to kill, and we didn't want him to die on our hands. We think he was overtrained in the late campaign and tumbled down from sheer exhaustion. His new protectors, Thayer & Guppy, have taken his in charge and will feed him on nails for the present—an article he is just now destitute of. He was willing to go; aye! he even expressed a wish to depart—said he wasn't used to such a fearful whipping as he had experienced, and would prefer to go to an asylum where he would hereafter get accustomed to such disasters.

But we are not birdless! He who thinks we are is a mistaken human. This specimen traces his genealogy directly back to the bantam who crew when Peter denied his master. He is nobody's old hen and it requires our utmost exertions to keep him from fighting his shadow, now. But he is "a young thing (yet) and cannot leave (his) mother." We hope to exhibit him after he gets his full growth, next March, and venture to predict that he will win his first fight.

—If Christ should visit Texas in his "second advent-" and persist in preaching "good will towards all men," then we might look for a speedy crucifixion. He would no doubt receive less consideration from KuKlux, than he did from the ancient Pontius Pilate.—Jefferson Radical.

FIRST MORTGAGE
7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,
ON A COMPLETED ROAD,
FREE OF U. S. TAX,
At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.
Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway.
The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mortgage issue dealt in at the Stock Exchange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis; for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.
These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.
The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.
A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.
The convertibility feature in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.
An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 9½ per cent. interest, instead of 5 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for re-investment.
All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. f24dWaS

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!
DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
VINEGAR BITTERS,
Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.
WHAT ARE THEY?
THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,
Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants.
They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying forth all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.
For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.
DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.
They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.
FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.
Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.
PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.
FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. Send for a circular.
They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. 1yrdawtubs16

SAFE AND PROFITABLE.
THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO OF IOWA,
have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about
180 MILES OF RAILROAD,
which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open
The First Through Line Across the State
from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give
DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.
This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The
First Mortgage
7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,
which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.
The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, on a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.
Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.
Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

MANURING FOR POTATES.—The Corinth Farmers' Club, upon the potato question, which they had up, at one of their late meetings, decided, "That the potato, as cultivated in Maine, will prove injurious to the soil." I agree with them. But why is it? Simply because the proper fertilizing material is not used. In the growing of potatoes, either barnyard manure is used, or a little plaster, or super-phosphate in the hill, and no other fertilizer of any sort is used at all. This is all wrong. The potato is composed largely of potash, which, of course, it draws from the soil; and if it is not replaced, the soil will become, as the term is, "worn out." In the first place, barnyard manure should never be used on potatoes, as but little of its parts enter into the composition of the potato; it induces disease, and seriously affects the flavor. The spoonful of plaster, or super-phosphate that is generally put into the hill, sometimes benefits the present crop a little, and that is all. The proper way to fertilize the potato, is to sow broadcast a liberal amount of ashes, lime and plaster, either one or all composted together, and harrow in just berore planting, and then put a little in a hill, and cover with the seed, and once in three or four years seed down to clover, and plow it under as soon as it is in bloom. Treated in this way, potatoes of excellent quality, can be grown on the same ground, year after year, without exhausting the soil, but rather improving it each year. This is not theory, but the result of careful experience and observation.

JUDGE FRENCH ON GREEN CORN FODDER.—Occasionally the farming community is astonished with a statement upon high authority, which seems to contravene all the experience of the community. Of this kind is the opinion persistently repeated in public addresses, that corn fodder is the meanest thing that can be offered to milch cows, uttered by a gentleman holding a high position in the agricultural world. Now if this gentleman should live 100 years, and make two speeches every day, as he probably might, he would not do good enough to counterbalance the evil which his opinion about corn fodder would do if it was generally accepted as correct. Fortunately, however, only about one person in a thousand agrees with it—not a large proportion as we have in the community, to insane or idiots.

In Concord we furnish about 2,000 gallons of milk a day for Boston, of quality equal to the best; and our farmers, almost without exception, rely upon green corn for their cows in August and September. My next neighbor says he could not keep half his number without it. I kept eight cows in the yard nearly a month last year, in August and September, and fed them almost wholly on green corn fodder, giving them a little dry hay and no grain, and they gave more milk than when at pasture, and made excellent butter. We reckon sweet corn best, but usually sow the southern corn because the seed of the sweet corn is too expensive.

I have nearly two acres sown this year, part of which I hope to dry and save for winter use. If there is anything settled in my neighborhood, it is that corn fodder is valuable for milch cows. My own experience of twenty years, corresponds with the general opinion. "Error of opinion," says Jefferson, "may safely be tolerated while reason is left free to combat it;" and the wise men of the east, who denounce corn fodder and swamp mud as useless, create but a small ripple on the great ocean of public opinion.—Country Gentleman.

ARE YOU GOING TO PAINT?

AVERILL CHEMICAL PAINT.

It is Cheaper, Handsomer and more durable than the best of Other Paints. One Thousand Gallons of it were sold in this City, in the year 1870, and not one complaint has come from those who have used it; but all speak in its favor; it is mixed ready for application, and is much easier put on than any other paint, making a smooth glossy surface to years, that can be cleaned with hot suds without injuring it. It is excellent for walls (mixed in the place of paper.

I shall keep this season a large stock of Chemical Paints of all shades on hand, to accommodate customers with any amount, without delay in ordering it. Those who want to use the Chemical Paints and have had them misrepresented by those who deal in Lead and Oil, are invited to call and examine my Paints that have been on Buildings two years, and you will find them as fresh as if laid but one month.

I am prepared to do Painting by Contract, or by the day, using the Chemical Paint, or furnishing good experienced workmen by the day at very low wages. A. NORTON, only Agent for selling the

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

WALTHAM

WATCHES.

The extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

More than 300,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enables them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watch-making originating in this country or in Europe, those only were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skillful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:—

The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main-springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Hogg's patent pinion as being the best and faultless.

Hardened and tempered hair-springs, now universally admitted by Watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movements from dust and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch is already a decided success, and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and will be the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mentioned improvements, which tend to ensure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

The trademarks of the various styles made by the Company are as follows:—

AMERICAN WATCH Co., Waltham, Mass.
ADM. WATCH Co., Waltham, Mass.
AMERICAN WATCH Co., Crescent St., Waltham, Mass.
APPLETON, TRACY & Co., Waltham, Mass.
AMERICAN WATCH Co., Adams St., Waltham, Mass.
WALTHAM WATCH Co., Waltham, Mass.

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give no nausea, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving; consequently do not produce the desired effect. The CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. Price 50 cents per box.

HOW WEBSTER AND CHOATE "RAISED THE WIND."—The intimacy of Webster and Choate is well known. There can scarcely be a doubt that they loved each other. While the former was Secretary of State, the latter was in the Senate from Massachusetts. At some point during this period, Choate is reported to have found himself short of money, and being away from home, in a strait to know how to relieve himself. He sat in his seat in the old Senate Chamber, with a contracted brow, plowing with both of his hands those long black locks of his, as his habit was, in a vain effort to conjure up some way of meeting his engagements, when an idea struck him. "I will go to Webster," he said to himself; and seizing his hat he made his way rapidly to Fourteenth street. The great man was at home, and received him with unusual cordiality.

"But what is the matter with you Choate?" he asked (the latter had on that wobegone expression which everybody remembers); "are you sick?" Choate took a chair, and began to run his fingers through his hair, in a state of doubt as to how he should approach the subject of his visit. "Not exactly sick, Mr. Webster; but I am short of money, and have come to see if you could lend me five hundred dollars." Webster leaned back in his chair, and with eyes dilated, and the faintest possible gleam of humor in his face, looked at Choate: "Choate, I am just five hundred short myself," he said, Choate's chin dropped. "But look here, brother Choate," continued Mr. Webster, "I'll tell you what we'll do; we'll make a note, sir, say at sixty days for one thousand dollars, payable in Boston. You shall sign it and I'll endorse it, and by the time it comes round we'll be at home to provide for it."

Choate looked up with astonishment. He could see how easily the note might be made; but how the money was coming out of the note was not so clear, and he said so to Mr. Webster. "Leave that to me," the latter replied. Suffice it to say, the note was made; Choate went back to the Senate to await the results of his friend's financial experiment; and his great friend, placing the note in his vest pocket, donned that well-remembered board-brimmed black hat which he wore in those times, and directed his steps toward Corcoran's. Entering the banking house with head erect and and shoulders well set back, "Is Mr. Corcoran in?" in the measured and magisterial tones that inspired so much awe, he asked of the clerk at the counter. "Yes, sir," he replied deferentially. "Please say to him that Mr. Webster would like to see him for a moment." Corcoran appeared with alacrity from his private rooms, and the usual salutations were exchanged.

Mr. Corcoran, my brother Choate is a little short of money, and has made a note for a thousand dollars (which I have cheerfully indorsed for him), payable in Boston in sixty days. Would you discount it for him?" "Certainly," replied Corcoran, "with the greatest pleasure;" and turning to the clerk, he said, "Give Mr. Webster the proceeds of the note after deducting the interest." The clerk made his figures, and bringing out a small bag of gold emptied it upon the counter. He counted out a sufficient sum to satisfy the proceeds of the note; and Mr. Webster, putting it into his pantaloons pocket, called a hack and went immediately to the Capitol.

Walking into the Senate Chamber he found Choate, with his head in his hands, in the most distraught frame of mind. Going directly up to him he gave him a smart slap upon the shoulder: "I've got it, Choate." "The d—l you have!" he replied. The great man sat down beside him, and they divided the money as nearly equally as they could; and thus Choate's mind obtained relief. The story omits to follow the note to maturity, and tell us who paid the thousand dollars finally. We suspect there is where the real laugh would come in.

FREQUENT HOEINGS.—The Maine Farmer concludes an article on hoeing as follows:—Frequent hoeings, even during the dryest seasons contribute to the benefit of the crop. By loosening the soil, the air, and especially night air, charged with moisture even in times of severe drought, obtains ready access to the roots of plants, and becomes condensed in the soil. Very often, during a hard summer drought we have seen corn leaves and other vegetation roll up during the day time, but come out again at night in consequence of the falling of the dew, or the prevalence of moist air.

Where the ground is not stirred it becomes crusted over, baked, as it is called, and hence the moisture from below does not find its way up through to meet the condensed moist air of night. But where ground is frequently hoed the reverse is the case, hence the benefit of repeated hoeings, during the summer months. Upon this point, one of our late English journals mentioned the fact that during the extremely dry season of 1826, a gentleman was in the habit of hoeing, with his own hand; three drills thus hoed were a good crop, while the yield upon the remainder of the field, hoed less frequently, came almost to nothing.

ARE YOU GOING TO PAINT?
—IF SO, USE THE—
AVERILL CHEMICAL PAINT.
It is Cheaper, Handsomer and more durable than the best of other Paints. One Thousand Gallons of it were sold in this City in the year 1870, and not one complaint has come from those who have used it; but all speak in its favor; it is mixed ready for application, and is much easier put on than any other Paint, making a smooth, glossy surface for years, that can be cleaned with hot suds without injuring it. It is excellent for walls inside, in the place of paper.
I shall keep this season a large stock of Chemical Paints of all shades on hand, to accommodate customers with any amount, without delay in ordering it. Those who want to use the Chemical Paints and have had them misrepresented by those who deal in Lead and Oil, are invited to call and examine my Paints that have been on Buildings two years, and you will find them as fresh as if laid but one month.
I am prepared to do Painting by Contract, or by the day, using the Chemical Paint, or furnishing good experienced workmen by the day at very low wages. B. NORTON, only Agent for selling the

FRIDAY, MARCH 17, 1871.

THE ELECTION.

At 2:30 P. M., Thursday, the election returns gave Pike 33,269, Weston, 33,-881, Scattering 1047; Weston's plurality 612, with 15 small towns to hear from, which gave 266 democratic majority last year. Weston must gain 197 on last year's vote in these 15 towns to secure an election by a majority of one.

CONCORD, 16th, 3 P. M. Small is defeated by more than 400 plurality, by the Labor Reform vote. Weston fails of an election about two hundred.

The Governor vote is very close; there is probably no election by the people. The Democrats elect all three members of Congress, Mr. Hibbard's majority in the First District being about four hundred. The Republicans have two Councillors and the Democrats two, while there is no choice in the First District. The Democrats have six Senators, the Republicans four and there is no choice in two districts. The House of Representatives is very close and it is probable that the four Labor Reform members hold the balance of power. The Monitor says Weston lacks about two hundred of an election by the people. The House will probably consist of 162 Republicans, 163 Democrats and 4 Labor Reformers.

John M. Hill telegraphs the Manchester Union from Concord that "the scattering vote which runs up to 1,100 or 1,200 defeats Weston by 100 or 200 as near as we can figure it. Hibbard has 400. In 2d district, Bell 700 or 800 at least, estimating a few small points by last year's vote. We think Parker is elected. Senate Nos. 4, 6, 8, 11 and 12. No choice in Nos. 1, 5 and 10. House we think Democratic by 5 to 10 counting 4 labor reformers with us."

Wm. H. Belknap is re-elected Register of Deeds in Rockingham County by 800 to 1000 majority.

Hon. Wm. B. Small, Republican, claims to be elected to Congress in this District.

DEERFIELD TOWN ELECTION.—Moderator, Joseph B. Tilton, Democrat; Town Clerk, James F. Prescott, Democrat; Town Treasurer, John M. Ballow, Republican; Representatives, Jonathan D. Cate, Jeremy Rawlins, Jr., Democrats; Selectmen, Edmund P. Chase, Simeon A. Robinson, Democrats, and Isaac H. Morrison, Republican; Collectors, John S. French on the South, Democrat, and Stephen Prescott, Jr., on the North, Democrat; James Pike 192, James A. Weston 218; William B. Small 192, Ellery A. Hibbard 215; Dauphin W. Buckminster 192, David Gilchrist 216; George Marston 192, David M. Clough 216; Matthew H. Taylor 192, James Priest 216; Frank D. Pollard 192, Lorenzo Frost 216.

NEVADA.—At Virginia City, a vigilance committee unjailed a rogue named Willis, who is charged with attempting to burn Piper's opera house in that city, and took him to the opera house, in the basement of which were 100 men armed and masked. There they hanged Willis to a beam until he confessed to the crime stated and also to other crimes implicating a number of others heretofore unsuspected. Willis was then returned to jail handcuffed, where he again confessed to the chief of police, and the result was the arrest of Charles McWilliams and Thomas Laswell as accomplices with Willis in numerous incendiary attempts.

☞ Mark Twain's pretended criticisms on his "Innocents Abroad" were most excellent satires, but for cool sarcasm cannot approach the following, which we cut from the Boston Gazette of Sunday last: "We hope that no unnecessary agitation of the liquor question will prolong the present session of the Legislature. The present law is strictly enforced, and every intelligent person knows that no intoxicating liquors are openly sold in Boston. Those places, few in number and retired in location, where such liquors are clandestinely dispensed, may safely be left to the unflagging vigilance and unimpeachable integrity of the State constabulary."

KANSAS.—The Greenwood County vigilance committee recently seized eight men, known to have been thieves, and shot three and hung five by the heels until they were dead. Three of the men turned State's evidence, but were hung notwithstanding.

☞ Hon. John P. Hale is said to be improving in health at Washington.

—The Cleveland Plaindealer is the best paper in Ohio. Even the editor's head is red.—Ohio State Journal.

—A physician was asked to dance the "Lancers." He declined, but expressed a willingness to lance the dancers.

THE CLOUD OF WITNESSES.

BY THEODORE TILTON.

"Are they not all ministering spirits?"
I leaned upon a burial urn,
And thought how life is but a day,
And how the nations each in turn,
Have lived and passed away.

The earth is peopled with the dead,
Who live again in deathless hosts,
And come and go with noiseless tread—
A universe of ghosts.

They follow after flying ships,
They flicker through the city's marts,
They hear the cry of human lips—
The beat of human hearts.

They linger not around their tombs,
But far from churchyards keep aloof,
To dwell in old familiar rooms,
Beneath the household roof.

They waken men at morning light,
They cheer them in their daily care,
They bring a weary world at night,
To bend the knee in prayer.

Their errand is of God assigned,
To comfort sorrow till it cease,
And in the dark and troubled mind,
To light the lamp of peace.

There is a language whispered low,
Whereby to mortal ears they speak,
To which we answer by a glow,
That kindles in the cheek.

Dear shadows fairer than the day,
With heavenly light they wrap us round,
Wherein we walk a gibbed way,
And over holy ground.

Oh, what a wondrous life is theirs!
To fling away the mortal frame,
Yet keep the human loves and cares,
And yearnings still the same!

Oh, what a wondrous life is ours!
To dwell within this earthly range,
Yet parley with the heavenly powers—
Two worlds in interchange!

Oh, balm of grief to understand,
That whom our eyes behold no more,
Still clasp us with as true a hand
As in the flesh before!

No longer in a gloom profound
Let Memory, like a mourner craped,
Sit weeping by an empty mound,
Whose captive hath escaped!

So, turning from the burial urn,
I thought how life has double worth,
If men be only wise to learn,
That heaven is on the earth.

DYSPEPSIA.—Dio Lewis talks to dyspeptics in this wise: You have asked me to prescribe for you. You expect medicine; perhaps you hope for whisker, just now the rage for chronic maladies; but I shall give you nothing to swallow; you have swallowed too much already. Of all the maladies, dyspepsia is the most distressing; to get rid of its horrors you would part with your right arm; I believe you; but will you part with a portion of your table luxuries? I fear not; but presuming you are in earnest, I will prescribe for you:

1. Rise early, dress warm, and go out—if strong, walk, saunter; drink cold water—of all cold baths this is the best for the dyspeptic; after half an hour or more come in for breakfast.

2. For breakfast eat a piece of good steak half as large as your hand, a slice of coarse bread, and a baked apple; eat very slowly; talk very pleasantly with your neighbors, read cheerful comments of journals, avoid hot biscuits and strong coffee, drink nothing.

3. Digest for an hour, and then to your work; I trust it is in the open air. Work hard till noon, and then rest body and mind till dinner, sleep a little; drink water.

4. For dinner—two or three o'clock—eat a slice of beef, mutton, or fish, as large as your hand, a potato, two or three spoonfuls of other vegetables, and a slice of coarse bread; give more than half an hour to this meal, use no drink.

5. After dinner play anaconda for an hour; now for the social, for pleasant games—a good time.

6. No supper—a little toast and tea, even, for supper, will make your recovery very slow.

7. In a warm room bathe your skin with cold water hastily, and go to bed in a well-ventilated room before nine o'clock. Follow this prescription for three months and your stomachs will so far recover that you can indulge for some time in all sorts of irregular and gluttonous eating; or if you have resolved, in the fear of Heaven, to present your bodies living sacrifices, holy and acceptable unto God, and will continue to eat and work like a Christian, your distressing malady will soon be forgotten.

ONIONS.—Many complain that onions do not keep. The trouble is in keeping them too warm. The onion is a bulb, a plant at rest, and the least warmth starts it into activity. It is much better that onions should remain frozen through the winter, provided they can thaw gradually, than to put them in a cellar or other warm place where their vegetative powers will be aroused.

If put in large heaps onions will be sure to spoil; but if spread in thin layers and covered with hay and straw, so that if frozen the thawing may be gradual, they will keep well through the winter. It is the custom with onion growers to get their crop to market as soon as possible. If they were to provide proper storage, they would realize much more for them when sent to market later in the season.—American Agriculturist.

—Like most garments, like most carpets, everthing in life has a right side and a wrong side. You can take any joy, and by turning it around, find troubles on the other side; or you may take the greatest trouble, and by turning it around find joys on the other side. The gloomiest mountain never casts a shadow on both sides at once, nor does the greatest of life's calamities.—From Crumbs Swept Up.

☞ Eight thousand voters stayed away from the polls in this State at the late election.

—The defeat of the Republicans in New Hampshire is undoubtedly due to disaffection on account of the Grant-Sumner quarrel. It by no means indicates that reaction so long looked for, which is to carry the Democrats into power in 1872, and he who builds his hopes upon it, builds on the sand. The lesson of the election is one to all parties. Men in power must heed the people. Men out of power, though in the minority, can always hope when those in power are blinded with selfishness.—N. Y. Globe.

TOO BAD.—William Mitchell of Worcester had his right arm blown off while a salute was being fired on the common in celebration of the New Hampshire election, on the 15th.

☞ Bret Harte is to have a salary of $25,000 for writing for the Atlantic Monthly and Every Saturday.

☞ Pardoe has been sentenced to be hanged for setting fire to the whaler Robert Edwards.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

LONGER AND BETTER—the wearing of boots and shoes made with the CABLE SCREW WIRE, than any other class of goods. Many heavy firms deal exclusively in them, and all first-class retailers have them. Comfortable, economical and durable, they need only a trial.

If you desire rosy cheeks and a complexion fair and free from Pimples and Blotches, purify your blood by the use of Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Discovery. It has no equal for this purpose, nor as a remedy for severe Coughs or Bronchitis. Sold by druggists. To avoid Counterfeits see that it has on the outside wrapper, Dr. Pierce's private Stamp, issued by the U. S. Government expressly for stamping his medicines, and which bears his portrait, name and address upon it.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

The Great Vernal Specific.

No class of invalids are more sensitive to changes of season and variations of temperature than dyspeptics, and persons of bilious habit. Tender lungs are not more easily affected by these vicissitudes than feeble stomachs. If there is a tendency in the system to indigestion, biliousness, or bowel complaints, the variable weather of early spring is almost sure to develope one or other of these ailments. Intermittent fevers are also more prevalent in the spring months than at any other season except autumn. In view of these facts, this seems to be a proper time to invite especial attention to HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, a medicine, which for a long series of years, has proved superior to all others as a remedy for the above named disorders, and as protection against the miasma which frequently produces, and always aggravates them. It was formerly the practice to give violent cathartics as "spring medicines," nor is the custom yet entirely obsolete. Nothing, however, can be more ill-judged and unphilosophical. The chilling moisture with which the air is loaded at the breaking up of the winter, presses heavily upon the vital forces of the body, and reinforcement, not depletion, is what it requires. The Bitters is a genial and excellent tonic, a moderate alterative, and just enough of an aperient to regulate, without convulsing, the bowels. It is, therefore, a specific peculiarly adapted to the present season.

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

"Against what?" asks the reader. Why, against the POISONS, vile, maddening and deadly, advertised as "superior to all Hair Dyes." But, on second thoughts, the call "to arms!" is unnecessary. The wretched trash is already being driven out of the market. It has received the coup de grace from

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The popularity of this time-tried article increases every hour. Everybody is talking of the "natural shades" it imparts, and there is no conceivable reason why it should not be used, being (as Professor CHILTON states in his certificate) PERFECTLY HARMLESS. PRACTICAL APPLICATION OF HAMLET'S SOLILOQUY.

To insure or not to insure? That is the question. Whether t'will be nobler for my family to suffer The stings and arrows of outrageous fortune Or take a policy against those dangers, And, by insuring, end them? To fret, to fear, No more; and by a policy to end The heartache and the thousand natural shocks That flesh is heir to. Yes, my application 's Devoutly to be wished; apply, insure. And pay premiums: ay—there's the rub For in that time what premiums may come Before I shuffle off this mortal coil Does make me pause, tightens my purse, And makes me rather pay the bills I have Than fly to others I know not of. Thus does meanness make brutes of us all.

NAVAL.—Commodore E. G. Parrott has been ordered to the Mare Island Navy Yard.

☞ Motto for some of the late candidates (slightly altered from Tennyson;)
"'Tis better to have run and lost,
Than never to have run at all."

☞ By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that the managers of the recent O. F. & M. Course of Assemblies, which closed last Tuesday evening with one of the best companies and best times of the season, will give a "Calico and Necktie" Assembly next Tuesday for the benefit of Mr. G. L. Cushing, the able leader of their Quadrille Band. No pains will be spared by the managers to make this dance as successful as any of the others have been.

☞ We learn that the display of fireworks on the U. S. R. S. Vandalia, at this Naval Station on Wednesday evening, simultaneously with the copperhead celebration in this city, was very fine. Cheer upon cheer went up from the sturdy crew of the above named vessel, in response to the shouts from the procession moving majestically through Water Street. Take it all in all, it was a very pleasant and happy occasion. The absence of the Marine Band from the ship of course detracted somewhat from the interest of the festivities, but the deficiency was partially atoned for by the improvising of an amateur band from among the versatile sailors employed thereon.

THE DEMOCRATIC JUBILEE over the election, Wednesday evening, was hardly so extensive and imposing an affair as might have been expected, when it is considered that the bottled-up enthusiasm of sixteen years was poured out on that occasion, and that this was the first time the democracy of this State have had a chance to celebrate a victory of any kind since the defeat of the Union army at Bull Run.

The bonfire on Market Square was bright but not large, and was pretty well burned out before 9 o'clock. The procession formed shortly after. 7 o'clock, and included deputations from Newcastle and Kittery, together with a large proportion of carpet-baggers from over the ocean and a heavy percentage of the young democracy—too young to vote. There were seventy-five lighted torches, by actual count, and a few cheap devices—a boat to take the defeated party up Salt river, a speared fish, &c. Fireworks were let off during the progress of the "pageant," of which the two Brass Bands were the most imposing part. The number of people in the ranks was estimated at from three to four hundred, and though somewhat noisy, they were too jubilant to be ill-natured. The procession was 3 3-4 minutes in passing a given point, and dismissed at 9 o'clock on Market Square.

Great numbers of people were abroad on the streets and gathered on Market Square, but the crowds were about the best natured crowds we ever saw, and the excitement was very small; the democrats didn't enthuse worth a cent, and the republicans didn't seem to care a cent. We saw no drunkenness during the early part of the evening, and have heard of but one fight, in which two small boys were engaged, and which probably had nothing to do with politics; after 10 o'clock we saw a good many men who had walked until their legs refused to carry them in straight lines any longer.

The principal part of the illuminations of course were at the South End, but nothing elaborate was attempted, owing to the hurry our democratic brethren were in to celebrate their victory—candles did most of the work. The "lyre" office made a very handsome appearance, as did the Rockingham House and many private residences of Sebastopol democrats. Rockets and Roman candles were plentiful, and a cannon on Liberty Bridge sung what was hoped by the copperheads to be a requiem solo over the departed hopes of the republican party. The most successful parts of the whole celebration were the bonfire and fireworks, which required no brains to make them go and therefore couldn't fail of success.

The spectators were thinned out and the celebrating enthusiasts moistened by a light rain, just before 9 o'clock. It was too bad to have it rain on the democrats, when they have not proceshed over a State victory for sixteen years, and have such a strong prejudice against cold water, too.

☞ Whitmore & Clark's Minstrels and Brass Band give an entertainment at the Temple this (Friday) evening. George M. Clark and Hank White are old favorites here, and always draw well. The company is a good one.

☞ The Boston News, a paper run on the "one idea" principle, wilfully and persistently misrepresents the Republican leaders of New Hampshire—but we think they will stand it. Had it not been for the party which is run by these same leaders, the temperance cause (which the News professes to advocate) in this State would have been in a much worse condition than it has been for sixteen years past.

☞ Rev. R. G. Toles, superintendent of the Baldwin Place Home for Little Wanderers, Boston, will address the friends of homeless and neglected children at the Methodist church, Sunday morning next, North church in the afternoon and Universalist church at 7 o'clock. Interesting and touching incidents, illustrating the work of the "Home," will be related. A choir of children from the Home will be present and sing some choice pieces of music. All are invited.

THE CAUCUS of the Republicans of Kittery, Wednesday evening, nominated the following persons to be voted for by the party next Monday: Moderator, John Wentworth; Town Clerk, C. L. Hayes; Selectmen, E. F. Spofford, D. M. Shapleigh, William W. Locke; Town Agent, Francis Bacon; Treasurer, L. P. Call; Supt. School Committee, C. L. Hayes; Board of Health, M. F. Wentworth, John D. Lawrence, Azariah Spinney; Auditors, J. H. Sanborn, M. A. Spofford; Constables, R. D. Philbrick, L. P. Call.*

In the warrant are articles to see if the town will build a Town Hall, straighten and widen Love Lane and the road from the Point to Navy Yard bridge, and reimburse citizens who gave money during the war to have the town furnish substitutes for drafted men. There will be considerable fun election day.

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to prevent the formation of tubercles in the lungs of diseased lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid taking cold, and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such sudden variations as in more northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. It is doubted is kept there by Peter Mann. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the influence of the climate and medical medicines, were getting well.

Ten hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even, and the air dry and bracing. Melbourne and Enterprise are located there, and should give a decided preference to Mellonville; it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times; but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended as consumptive resorts in winter. The reasons for saying so are, that patients are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature; and it is not necessary to say, that, where a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds, he is certain to die shortly; therefore my advice is, go well down into the State, out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, distressing cough, sore throat, or cough; but, for those whose lungs are diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1859, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embraced every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take vast quantities of "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; the reason is, they are all troubled with bilious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well-established fact, that natives of Florida seldom die of consumption, especially those of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, one-third at least of the population die of tubercular disease. In the Middle States, it does not prevail so largely; still there are many thousands of cases there. Why is this so, when a little care would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh colds as they are about scarlet fever, measles, &c.? but they are not; they take what they term a little cold, which they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to commence a free use of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and to Physicians I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action. I know, that, when they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough, or night sweats, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a relapse on his hands before long.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where a free use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary. My object is, to give tone to the stomach,—to get up a good appetite. It is always a good sign when a patient begins to crow hungry; I have hopes of such. With a relish for food, and the gratification of that relish, comes good blood, and with it more flesh, which is closely followed by a healing of the lungs,—then the cough loosens and abates, the creeping chills and clammy night sweats no longer prostrate and annoy, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, my friends, I have spoken plain, and we have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, Is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees; this room to be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room, by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is no easily cured as any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The fact stands undisputed on record, that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of those who seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption. You will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They are worth more than twice their cost, if they leave none of its baneful effects behind. In fact, they are necessary in families where a long course of sickness has prevailed. If you have partaken too freely at fruit, and diarrhœa ensues, a dose of the Mandrake will have you well. If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of the Mandrakes, and they will relieve you in two hours. If you have a slight attack of ague, a change of water, or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night, and you will disappoint your ague, and water-melons, pears, apples, plums, peaches, or corn, without the risk of being made sick, may be eaten freely by persons who have the stump situations against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9, A.M., to 3, P.M. There we with a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can rely implicitly upon the results it gives. But I desire it distinctly understood, that the value of my medicines depends on their being taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they are not so liable to take cold as those who have diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

ON A COMPLETED ROAD,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway.

The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mortgage issue dealt in at the Stock Exchange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis; for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 9½ per cent. interest, instead of 5 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for re-investment.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. 224dWaS

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK;

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants.

They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. 1yrdawi6w

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD Co OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $30,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.

SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!

JAY COOKE & CO.,

Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the

FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS

—OF THE—

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than twenty-five Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest being payable in Gold at the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute security, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 6-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacifics, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired quantity, and at any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eod3mda3mwfe&S

NEXT DOOR TO BULLIMAN'S.

From the Transatlantic Magazine.

Which shall I begin with—the Bullimans or Boxly Down? The person is more worthy than the place; but, as the place is known because it is the residence of the persons—and because, "Sir-roo!" as they say in America, the persons are particularly nice people—I will first begin with the place.

Boxley Down is one of the home counties. I will not say which, because I live there, and I wish to keep it "select." If everybody knew the virtues of Boxley Down, everybody would flock there, and it would cease to have any virtues at all. Silence is golden: I will be wisely reticent.

Boxley Down is also on a great high road to several ancient and excellent towns; and in years gone by, the Boxley Downy ones, as we may call them, used, when out of cash, to lay in wait for his Majesty's mails, and present a protocol, pistol shaped, at the inhabitants of the mail coach—just as Prussia is, at the moment I write, holding several big guns at the head of Paris—and refresh their purses by gathering from the inhabitants certain gold pieces. When Boxley Down was satisfied, the mail was at peace. Those days are remembered historically by the Downy ones and with regret. They are a simple race, and talk of the old robbers with a justifiable pride.

The Down is parched in summer, and frozen in winter. The noses of the Downy ones are grilled a bright scarlet during June, July and August; turn to a mellow brown in autumn; and achieve a beautiful black-blue in winter. The Down has disappeared; and a long, straggling town of small shops, pretentious villas, good old houses and a huge sprinkling of inns, taverns and beer shops, form on the crest of a low hill—which, by a gradual rise, is yet some hundreds of feet above the level of the sea—what is fondly spoken of as "The Down." The Downy ones are proud of it. If you mention to them the small village of Boxley, which is much more select and aristocratic, they turn up their noses—red, brown or blue, according to the season—and speak of it with contempt. At Boxley Down, the English Philistine reached a patriarchal old age and the minimum of intelligence. He believes himself the salt of the earth. He is very religious—having two Baptist, one Congregational, and one English Church, which he calls the "Establishment." The Baptist Downy ones have, lately split into parties but both are equally bitter against the other religionists. London is regarded by the Boxley Down with mingled envy and horror; and yet the most strict of the Downy ones are suspected—more than suspected—of running up by railway from Boxley Old Town, as they call it, to laugh at the Adelphia, or to be thrilled at the Victoria. This dire suspicion has caused Reverend Pincher Twills, of the Established, to preach a thrilling sermon, in which the blandishments of London were painted with those of Delilah, and the back-sliding Downy ones to the delusted and shorn Samson. On the subject, Reverend Spanker Borie, the Baptist minister, produced a rousing discourse, which sent two married and jealous ladies into hysterics.

I live at Boxley Down; and I am "Next door to Bulliman's." The deserted home I have taken was never christened. It has been called by various names, each man who came to it giving it a new appellation. I prefer to have a local habitation without a name. "The post of honor is a private station," that is my motto; bills are therefore sent as due from "Next door to Bulliman's," and they are duly paid.

Bulliman's is a ladies' school. There is no male Bulliman. There was one, who, says his mild relict, "was an officer in her Majesty's forces." Officer is a wide word. There are officers in her Majesty's Customs, and in the local police—a force which, though very efficient, has the benefit of being totally composed of officers. But the deceased Bulliman—a meek fellow, with a tremendous beard, a weak head, and consumptive chest—was neither in the police, nor in the Customs, nor in the Post Office. Neither was Bulliman an officer in any regiment. He served, however, in the Crimean; and his grateful country has pensioned his widow in so efficient a way that Mrs. Bulliman is fain to keep school. The truth is that William Bulliman was in the Commissariat Department; and being of a tender conscience as well as having a "consumptive chest," he, after the terrible revelations about starving troops and famished horses, "took ill" and died. "He was a tender-hearted fellow, and never ought to have been called Bulliman," said his widow, as if there was something terrible in the name.

His widow was a faint-hearted, mild little creature, as any one might see; but she had two little children, as different from herself and the deceased officer as well could be. Her theory about the matter was that they favored grandfather; and from the stories told about him, I think they must have done so. Grandfather Bulliman—a fine dashing fellow—had been a parson, and was an officer in a very different army. From the story of his life, one might have supposed that the Reverend Bulliman acted up to his name, and that his son's spirit was thereby crushed. By the rule of contrary, he had married a very meek but tall creature, whose nature had been bequeathed to the "officer," while the fierceness and dash of the gallant drill-sergeant in the ranks of the ONety-first Regiment was given to his grandchildren, Dick and Katey. Happily, toward their mother these children showed nothing but tenderness and love.

Dick had been well educated, as the children of most genteel widows are. Poor creatures, how they do pinch and screw for the result; and sometimes, how poor a one it is! Dick, however, did all in his power to make his mother happy; came out well in his examinations, went in for chemistry, and was soon decently employed in the analysis of water, sewage, and other pleasant matters. The British public, a year or two ago, had a scientific craze; and Dick was lucky in taking advantage of it. He was not at present highly paid, but he delighted in his work and was full of hope. Katey helped her mother in the school, and was rather High Church. She affected the sermons of Rev. Pincher Twills, who vacillated between evangelical preaching and an ornamental ritual; was ritualistic in his service, and evangelical in his sermons; and who, consequently, pleased neither party. Kate read St. Augustine and Thomas-a-Kempis, went so far as to date "On the Eve of St. Michael," and always prefixed "S" before the names of the Apostles, as if each was named Samuel; and was very particular in turning to the east. Her chief love for ritualism was, however, in decorating the miserably ugly brick and stone church of Boxley Down, built in the style of the celebrated 1840 Gothic.

Dick Bulliman's dash, courage, good-humor and fun, made him a great favorite; so much so, that, when he came to Boxley Down, he had to sleep at a far distant cot from the seminary, where he smoked like a lime kiln, and kept, it was supposed, unearthly hours. As however, he was found, winter and summer, splashing in a huge washing tub—as extemporized bath—at six in the morning, these wild reports are to be put down as exaggerations. Katey defended Dick in any of his excesses, and against all enemies; and the dozen or so young people at Bulliman's—who were instructed in primness, precieuseness, piety, and pretty ways by Mrs. Katey Bulliman—all agreed that school mistresses' sons were generally boors, but that Richard was a fine young fellow.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

WALTHAM

WATCHES.

The extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

More than 500,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enables them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watch-making originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skillful watch-makers in our works, and long use on the part of the public, proved to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:—

The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main-springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Pigg's patent pinion as being the best and lautiest.

Hardened and tempered hair-springs, now universally admitted by Watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movements from dust and insuring the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch is already a decided success, and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mentioned improvements, which tend to ensure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

The trademarks of the various styles made by the Company are as follows:—

AMERICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.
AMN. WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.
AMERICAN WATCH CO., Crescent St., Waltham, Mass.
APPLETON, TRACY & Co., Waltham, Mass.
AMERICAN WATCH CO., Adams St., Waltham, Mass.
WALTHAM WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.
P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass.
WM. ELLERY, Waltham, Mass.
HOME WATCH CO., Boston, Mass.

Examine the spelling of these names carefully before buying. Any variation even of a single letter, indicates a counterfeit.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is diuretic and blood-purifying, and cures all diseases arising from the habits of Dissipation, and diseases and Imprudences in Life, Impurities of the Blood, etc., superseding Copaiba in Affections for which it is used, and Syphilitic Affections—in these Diseases used in connection with HELMBOLD'S Rose Wash.

LADIES!

In many affections peculiar to Ladies, the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy—in Inflammation or Ulceration, Irregularity, Painfulness or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrous State of the Uterus, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Sterility and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from Indiscretion or Habits of Dissipation. It is preferred extensively by the most eminent physicians and Midwives for enfeebled and delicate constitutions, of both sexes and all ages (attended with any of the above diseases or symptoms.)

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c., in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethe, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Pill or Plum" has, by use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and purchase after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. Price $1.50 per bottle.

But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin. H. T. Bellows and Hon. George A. Bingham. The governor and superintendent of public instruction are members ex-officio, and Professor Hiram Orcutt, of the Tilden Female Seminary at West Lebanon, is the general supervisor or inspector. The location of the school was secured at Plymouth by the appropriation on the part of the town of the sum of $10,000, and of $7000 on the part of the village district and the gift by individual citizens of the sum of $5200. A part of the amount thus secured was expended in the purchase of a large and commodious boarding-house and fine school building, which was built for the Holmes Academy. The remainder of the sum is reserved to pay the salaries of teachers until such time as the State may provide for its entire support. The School has about 100 pupils.

SATURDAY, MARCH 18, 1871.

A QUESTION AND ANSWER.

Communication.

Messrs. Editors: Do you allow yourselves to be criticised in your own columns? If so, may I ask you some questions? In Wednesday's issue, you say, commenting upon our defeat, that "It has served us right for making unwise nominations." But Tuesday morning you said, "Vote the straight Republican ticket." And you told the Republicans to "remember that William R. Martin was the regular nominee, &c." Now how can you justify your injunctions and appeals to the Republicans in the light of the confession that our party nominations were not fit to be made? Do you only inform us of the truth when it is too late to be of any avail?

But the truth has been all along concealed by a very thin veil. The apathy of Republicans has been a sufficiently tacit acknowledgement of the real condition of our politics. There were scarcely any nominations which could be supported with confidence and enthusiasm. And the worst feature of the case has been that good and able men were proffered to the various conventions and rejected—men for whom it would have been some honor to have fought, and not dishonorable to have been defeated in fighting for.

It is better, is it not, to be defeated than disgraced? How long will it be before the party managers will learn that they cannot command majorities? That a majority must exist intrinsically in the candidate himself. I had the honor sometime since of addressing you in reference to political nominations, and I very much hoped that you would follow it up with a protest against the corrupt policy which was beginning to creep into our councils. Like other prophets I must be content that your protest comes to-day—after the election and too late. No, not too late, because defeat is better than disgrace, though I cannot help thinking we have met with both.

Are you a leader or a follower of public opinion? I say make your newspaper a leader, do not any longer compromise, or support half men and measures. We need an independent, fearless newspaper in this region. We have a paper devoted to a bad cause; why can we not have one which shall be the champion of reform in politics, and a new, fresh enterprise in all our private and public affairs. J. A.

In replying to the foregoing communication from an esteemed friend, we do not wish to be considered as defending our course or as placed in a position requiring justification. We vote the Republican ticket because we believe in Republican principles. When a person loses all sense of duty and lets his personal feelings triumph over his principles, he certainly cannot have an overpowering sense of duty. It is not our province to dictate to the Republican party as to its course, any more than others. We believe in settling all issues at primary meetings. If we advocate personally the selection of certain men for office and a majority of those taking part in the caucuses and conventions differ with us, we do not carry out the principles we profess to sustain if we refuse to yield to the majority.

We deem it our duty to support regular nominations because there is no safety to the party in doing otherwise. Taking things as they are we have no other course to pursue, no other to recommend. The man who will not accept what he can obtain, because he cannot receive all he wishes to obtain, is a disorganizer. Disorganization of the Republican party means triumph to its opponents. We could heartily urge the sinking of all differences for the good of the whole and the results of the late election convince us that we took the right course.

Our correspondent singles out the Republican nominee for Senator in this District to oppose. Mr. Martin is defeated and by those who should be his supporters. The legislation of the State, the election of Governor and other State officers might have been and may yet hinge upon one vote. Had Mr. Martin been elected, that vote would have gone for the right. Should Mr. Marcy be chosen by the legislature, his vote will be cast against the cause we advocate. There is no half way position for earnest, reflective men. He who is not for us is against us. Suicide never saves the patient.

We realized the danger of defeat before election and did our utmost to prevent it. The contest is over, the battle lost, nothing is at stake and we confess that some of the nominations were unwise. If Republicans in sympathy with Mr. A. will take time by the forelock, prepare for the future, attend the caucuses, offer their best men for nomination, acquiesce in the result and uphold the nominees before the people and at the polls, the past may be forgotten in coming victory.

Our correspondent asks if it is not better to be defeated than disgraced! Certainly, but we did not feel disgraced for voting for a single nominee on the Republican ticket. It is certainly not so agreeable to be defeated as to be victorious. The same smiling faces that greeted us after Bull Run, the campaign on the Peninsula, Chancellorsville and Fredericksburg, we see again, and those who fought in rebellion, here and elsewhere rejoice to-day and dress their houses with the flag they fought against. Had we contributed to the result, we should hang our head in shame and disgust, and wish to wear sack-cloth and ashes.

We do not care to be leader or follower in a course that ends in swift destruction. We conduct this paper as we think most beneficial to the cause we advocate, "confident of the rectitude of our intentions." We do not desire to be "independent and fearless" in taking a course we would not advocate of our own accord. Our columns are ever open for communications on any decent subject, but we care not to "compromise" by adopting other people's views. If the people need a paper so "independent and fearless" that it will be wholly unreliable, they will certainly have it—but we would not edit it for a fortune.

Communication.

THE CAUSE OF IT.—"We have met the enemy" in this State, and driven them into power. One all-sufficient reason for our success in getting defeated is given by the press of both parties outside the State, and by the democratic organs within it—the shortcomings of the Grant administration and the utter disregard of the wishes of the party who put that administration in power, as evinced most plainly in the recent deposition of Senator Sumner; in short, the republican defeat is but the beginning of political reaction which is to end (according to the democratic press) in the restoration to power of the mis-named democratic party. Without wishing to screen the President from censure, we may say that we consider the cause of our defeat to be almost entirely due to State causes and independent of national ones.

One of the first acts of President Grant was to make Vice-Admiral Porter virtual Secretary of the Navy, although the people, the press and the national Congress had protested against it in unmistakable terms; and the nomination of the same man to the position of Admiral, and his confirmation, were both carried out in defiance of the expressed wishes of an immense majority of the people of all parties. The San Domingo scheme too, and the manner in which it has been pushed forward, are equally distasteful to much the larger portion of the republican party; and no man who "reads the papers" will question that the decapitation of the Chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has aroused a deep feeling in the party of which Mr. Sumner has so long been one of the ablest and bravest leaders. But the discontent awakened in the party by such acts of the administration was not the true cause of the party's recent defeat in this State; rigid prohibition and free rum had a square fight, and rigid prohibition has received a tremendous thrashing. We do not object to the defeat being used to bring the administration to a realizing sense of what bad government may do politically, if it can be so used; but at the same time we do not believe that displeasure at the conduct of the administration changed the figures in the late election four hundred votes.

Portsmouth, if not the "banner town" of the State for republican loss, is certainly high up on the list; but we do not know of one solitary republican who this year swung 'round the circle or absented himself from the polls, who was in any way influenced by the good or bad administration of affairs at Washington. On the contrary, we do know of many republicans—fifty at least—who either threw no vote or voted the democratic ticket, and who openly avow that they acted only against a stringent prohibition of the liquor traffic; and others whom we are acquainted with were influenced by personal dislike to Mr. Pike, or did not approve of having a Methodist minister for Governor. The rum battery was the one most used by the democrats throughout the whole campaign, and the one that did the havoc in the republican ranks; and the democratic papers that are now loudest in declaring our defeat to be a victory for true copperhead principles, and that the rum question had little or nothing to do with it, were before the election the most steadily persistent gunners engaged in working that battery.

The republican party had shown itself willing to advance the cause of temperance by all practicable means; but the extreme prohibitionists were determined to do more in that direction than a majority of the people were willing should be done; they carried their point against the counsels of the moderate men of the party—the men who believed in doing all that is practicable, and no more—and gave the State to the democratic party. We shall now have a chance to see how much the temperance cause will gain by the result of the labors of the extremists.

TEMPERANCE.

☞ There was another disgraceful scene in the House of Representatives on the 16th. Mr. Lynch had presented a resolution the day previous for the appointment of a committee to investigate the outrages at the South. This resolution had been adopted in the caucus of the Republican members, but was defeated in the House, many Republicans voting with the Democrats.

A resolution was adopted for the appointment of a committee to investigate during the recess and report at the next session. Speaker Blaine appointed Gen. Butler chairman of the committee, and Butler declined, denouncing the measure. Other members declined and the House adjourned.

On meeting again, copies of a printed letter from Gen. Butler were found on the desks of the members, in which were bitter denunciations of Speaker Blaine and other Republicans.

Judge Kelley made a personal explanation and denied the resolution which passed on the previous day was the result of a conspiracy of the high tariff men with the Democrats. Dawes and Peters followed; Butler replied reiterating the charges; Blaine left the Speaker's chair and both he and Butler lost their temper and indulged in personalities disgraceful to the peace and to their constituents. Other members of the committee tendered their resignations and the House adjourned disgusted. These personal debates can do no good to the Republican party, and must be stopped, or Congressmen will cease to be respected.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

LONGER AND BETTER—the wearing of boots and shoes made with the CABLE SCREW WIRE, than any other class of goods. Many heavy firms deal exclusively in them, and all first-class retailers have them. Comfortable, economical and durable, they need only a trial.

If you desire rosy cheeks and a complexion fair and free from Pimples and Blotches, purify your blood by the use of Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Discovery. It has no equal for this purpose, nor as a remedy for severe Coughs or Bronchitis. Sold by druggists. To avoid Counterfeits see that it has on the outside wrapper, Dr. Pierce's private Stamp, issued by the U. S. Government expressly for stamping his medicines, and which bears his portrait, name and address upon it.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Be Guided By What You Know.

There is an old proverb which says, "Experience is the safest guide." To this guide the sick and ailing naturally turn when casting about for the means of relief. They inquire what a medicine has done for others, before they adopt it themselves. Of all the remedies and preventives in use, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS meets the test most triumphantly, and hence its immense popularity and vast sales. The sufferer from indigestion is sure to find some one among his friends who has been cured of that ailment by the famous vegetable stomachic. The victim of fever and ague, liver complaint, constipation, nervous prostration, or general debility, has only to make inquiry in the neighborhood where he resides in order to discover what this standard restorative has effected in cases similar to his own. In the published testimony to its merits he will find a volume of proofs of its sanitary properties, which it is impossible for his common sense to resist. He tries it, and the effect it produces on his system adds another to the host of witnesses in its favor. Thus, its reputation, founded on facts, not assertions, continually grows and spreads. Charlatans and impostors, some of them mere local tricksters, and others who take a somewhat wider range, attempt to thrust into the hands and down the throats of invalids, their haphazard concoctions, as substitutes for the great tonic which for so many years has been a successful medicinal staple throughout the United States, Spanish America, Canada and the West Indies, but only succeed to a very limited extent. In this reasoning age, the people, having ascertained what is really deserving of their confidence, decline "running after strange gods."

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The popularity of this time-tried article increases every hour. Communication.

Messrs. Editors:—It is amusing to read in some of your correspondents' articles against annexation, their accounts of how much they are surprised at the movement. It seems to them outrageous for any one to dare to arouse them from their comfortable and tranquil lethargy. They are not equal to it; indeed a genuine sensation would probably kill them dead. The only thing that could possibly save them would be to repeat the ominous words—Increase of taxation!

Whatever vitality is left in this ancient "strawberry bed," rallies at that sound. Their property which certainly was not all accumulated by simple thrift, but by will and long foreseeing investments, has now become so timid that it seldom stirs abroad except on dividend days. It does not aspire beyond the maintainance of respectable establishments and old-fashioned comforts. It does not want Newcastle, though some of its money was made there, and taken away as soon as made. It does not want to do this act of justice—call it even favor—though it can do that much without injury to itself. It wants to be alone. In short it does not want to be surprised, and cries "wolf" when it is only 800 honest people coming across a free bridge to spend their money at the doors of those who raise the fearful cry.

The only thing worth living for in this world is the surprises. Power, resolution, knowledge, inspiration come in those moments. We beg to assure your correspondents that they will live through it without a physician. Like things are cured by like, says my doctor, and we prescribe for them a sniff of the saline and somewhat "ancient, fishy" atmosphere of this glorious Island, which has so disturbed their digestion. FARMER.

NAVAL.—Lieut. Charles M. Anthony has been ordered to the Receiving Ship Vandalia.

MASQUERADE.—Mr. W. I. Trafton advertises a Masquerade at Congress Hall, to come off Thursday evening, March 23d. A costumer will be down from Boston to furnish disguises to those who desire them. See advertisement.

....Walter Brown, the great oarsman, whose death we mentioned last week, made and rowed his first race here on the Piscataqua river.—a single scull against a four-oared boat of Navy Yard workmen from Eliot. These men are very expert oarsmen, but Walter's backers always thought that he could have beaten them easy enough if he would, and accused him of selling this his maiden race. He was at work on our Navy Yard at the time, which is a good school for rowing. In view of Brown's after performance, it is a suggestive fact that he never paid the local daily here for publishing his first challenge.

THE ELECTION.

The Statesman says that 227 towns give Pike 33,812, Weston 34,567, and Cooper and scattering 1077. The towns not heard from gave, last year, Stearns 43, Bedell 214. If their vote should be the same as last year, Weston will fail of an election by 151 votes. The whole vote will be about 69,700. Hibbard's plurality for Congress is 300; Bell's 900, and Parker's 150.

There are two Republican and two Democratic Councilors, with no choice in the First District, where Col. George Marston of Sandown was the Republican candidate, and Col. David M. Clough of Canterbury the Democratic. Five Republican and six Democratic Senators are chosen, with no choice in Portsmouth District, where William R. Martin was the Republican nominee, and Hon. Daniel Marcy the Democratic.

The Tenth and Eleventh Districts are very close and perhaps an official count may have to decide them. The Statesman list of Representatives contains the names of 161 Republicans and 156 Democrats. The towns to hear from are expected to send two Republicans and eleven Democrats. If so, the House will stand 163 Republicans to 167 Democrats.

A dispatch from the Statesman office gives the Democrats two majority in the House.

SENATORIAL DISTRICTS. — We give below the vote in the Senatorial districts, from returns made to us by the Town Clerks, substituting the vote for Governor in a few towns where the return has not yet reached us:

No 12 — The majority of Pitman, Dem., over Farr, Rep., in this district, is so large we have not taken pains to figure it.—Statesman.

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel, I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a tolerably bad case of diseased lungs to health and strength. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid taking cold; and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as in more northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterman. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

One hundred miles farther down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even, and the air dry and bracing. Mellonville and Enterprise are located there. I should certainly decided preference to Mellonville for two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times; but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My reasons for saying so are, that patients are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature; and it is not necessary to say, that, where a consumptive person expears himself to frequent colds, he is certain to die shortly: therefore my advice is, go well down into the State, out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat, or cough; but, for those whose lungs are diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1859, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take vast quantities of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than more northern latitudes. In well-established cases, the native of Florida rarely die of consumption, especially those of the southern part. On the contrary, I think, fully one-third at least of the population die of this terrible disease. In the Middle States, it does not prevail so largely; still there are enough cases of cases there. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives would only learn that they are credulous enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to the blood, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another still, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to lay in a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action. I know, that, where they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough, or night sweats, and advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where a freer use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary. My object is, to give tone to the stomach,—to get up a good appetite. This is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry; I have hopes of such. With a relish for food, and the digestion of that relish, comes good blood, and with it more flesh, which is closely followed by a healthy action of the liver, and then the lungs, bronchial tubes, the creeping chills and clammy night sweats no longer prostrate and annoy, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida, and they come and ask me, is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer. In such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is easily cured as any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued, and the fatal mistake of the old idea, that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of what seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption. Go where you will, you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should have a supply of them on hand. They act on the liver better than calomel, and leave none of its injurious effects behind. In fact, they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have portables in your family, a small diarrhoea attack, in case of the Mandrakes will cure you. If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of the Mandrakes every night, and you may bid it adieu in hours. If you would obviate the effect of a change of water, or the toss from a steamboat, take a dose of the Mandrakes every night, and you may defy drinking water, and eat water-melons, pears, apples, peaches, and grapes, without the fear of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against fever and ague, and, in short, they are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 A.M. to 3 P.M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged with $5 for the advice, which will declare the exact condition of the lungs; and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not. Based on this examination, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their system is so reduced as to be in a healthy condition, they are not so liable to take cold; yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of atmosphere without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from my druggist.

Yours, &c., R. SCHENCK, M.D.

We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis; for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 5½ per cent. interest, instead of 6 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for re-investment.

Available Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. f21dWaS

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

FOR TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. lyrdawSeb16

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD Co

OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40 000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM for 1,100 Acres of Land for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

NEXT DOOR TO BULLIMAN'S.

From the Transatlantic Magazine.

In the deserted cottage with no name, a large and productive garden, a fine view at the back, and a roomy interior, in which I lived, I had for my companion, Jack Romilly of the —th, a crack regiment, almost equal to Ony-first, and has all the victories of Great Britain inscribed upon its flags. Jack was rather stupid than otherwise at college; had come away from thence without distinction; but having something to do, he, with that tremendous resolution which dull people have, went in and did it. He proceeded to the school of the most celebrated crammer in town or country, at Croydon, worked like a horse upon system, and came out at the head of the Direct Commission Examination with the enormous and utterly incomprehensible number below. There you see his name.

Romilly, John —— Private tuition 1,203,456. Was he not a clever fellow? Jack never, to this day, knew how he did it; and, after his session, presented a gold watch to Captain Stuffem, his crammer, and relapsed into his stupidity.

He had one other noticeable element in him, this Jack Romilly. He was jealous. He was jealous of me, his old school and college chum; jealous of his dog Gyp, a black Pomeranian, of distinguished family. After smoking a pipe in a friendly manner and dining with great good nature his jealousy would suddenly boil up, and Jack would say:

"You seemed to be precious glad to see Smith."

"I was that," I would answer.

Another puff, and—

"You are precious fond of Smith."

"Not more than you are of that word precious. Yes—I like him."

"Do you? I think he's a conceited pup."

"No, you don't, Jack Romily. You should hear how well he spoke of you! He's a good fellow; only he had just run down from town, had a little while to stay, and I made him welcome"

To the total exclusion of me. I had to saunter about this cussed Down at your heels."

"Because, Jack, you are what the song says."

Then I would tune up—

"Tell me, ye jealous-pated swains."

"Now don't be a fool, Tompkins!" such dear reader—do not despise me—is my farcial name—don't be a fool! don't call me a jealous pated swain; I will make it up."

Simple fellow! In five minutes we were the best friends. With all his dullness, and the immense weight of marks upon him and upon his conscience, I liked to talk to handsome Jack Romilly better than many a more brilliant man. He had a good heart and a fine sense; and his talk had a soothing, wise method about it that was very pleasing. Yet he was disfigured with gusts of jealousy, even as I said, with his dog.

"Gyp," you little flirt he would say, "go to your master—there he is; his name is Tompkins."

Upon this, Gyp would look sadly into his face and put one paw up, as if to plead with him.

"Just like your sex," he would say, spitefully. "Don't you love him, Gyp?"

Upon this the poor brute would whine, and I would break out with my song—

"Tell me, ye jealous-pated swains."

The reason why Jack Romily came and dwelt at Boxley was two-fold. I fondly believe that he came down to Boxley to see me—partly, of course. There was another reason. He was in love with a young lady of—what he called—"a charming exterior, and a good workmanship, and admirably finished." I gathered from this that Lucy Spofforth was well built, and had a good education; and I was not mistaken.

Clear hazel eyes—very keen, very merry and honest—an oval face, and what Jack termed an Austrian chin; a small, capable forehead, the hair brought down somewhat low and worn very plain; a clear, fair complexion, and dark chestnut hair; a throat very white, and beautifully set upon well-formed shoulders, a height of five feet four, and a movement at once quick, graceful, and dignified, distinguished Miss Lucy. But more than these her sweet manners; her open frank ways, her sweetly resonant and innocent voice; her address—so kindly that it put every one at his or her ease, yet so dignified and distinguished that none ever took or thought of taking a liberty with her. Such was Lucy Spofforth; made both to delight and plague Jack. She would no more have dreamed of being jealous, than she would have dreamed of rivaling Mrs. Crumles, and of standing on her head on the top of a pikestaff, and in the midst of fireworks.

Whatever Lucy did seemed proper, graceful and natural. Jack was deeply in love with her and showed it in the modern way — by staring at her for hours after he was accepted; sighing; walking with her in deep silence; remarking that it was an "uncommon fine day," and that he did so wish that she had been with him to the Opera or the Zoo."

"Why, Jack," she would say, "Boxley is ever so much better than the Zoo! See what a breeze we have. Acres upon acres and thousands of cherry orchards, of strawberry fields, or raspberries and currants!"

"But think of the Downy ones," he would say. "Oh, Lucy you should have seen the dresses at Zoo!"

"Gay! so fine!" cried Lucy. "Why I should have looked quite a shabby thing, and you know, Jack, I should have had to have a new dress!"

"Pshaw!—Nonsense!" returned Jack; "you always look well-dressed, Lucy!"

"That's what you always say," laughed Lucy. "Every man in love thinks the woman he is in love with well enough dressed because she costs money!"

"Now don't say that Lucy, don't say that! You know I would dress you in gold, if I could, and," added soberly, "if I thought it would please you!

Luckily, you know it would not, Jack," she answered. "You belong to a noble profession. What would please me is for you to succeed in it—moderately, of course, and to become the most noble and the most learned soldier in the world. Look at the number of marks that you gained, after being at the head of so many aspirants as clever and as good—as many were, no doubt. Jack! you never should be second to any man. Nulli secundus! Is that right, Jack?"

Even the soothing and gentle pinch she gave the lobe of Jack's red ear did not reconcile Jack to that reference to his passing. That immense number lay heavily on his soul."

"Why Lucy, you know it was all cram!"

"Others crammed, too, Jack; but you were first!"

Thus Lucy settled the matter. In her eyes Jack was a hero. She was in love with the young lieutenant, and determined to urge him to fulfill her ambition.

And thus it was at Boxley Down that these innocents found again a taste of Paradise. Jack was to be married as soon as he got his company, and Jack's father was already in connection with Craig's court; and no doubt by a judicious mixture of purchase, allowed by our virtuous and happy country, young Romily, who was well connected, would have to wait long.

Dick Bulliman was dreaming of making some wonderful discovery in chemistry; he had already evolved a curious salt of no use to any one. Katey Bulliman was busy with her school, and with making her mother comfortable, and I was dreaming of—no matter; not even the Downy one of Boxley shall know.

Concluded in our next.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

WALTHAM WATCHES.

The extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

More than 500,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enables them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watch-making originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skillful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:—

The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main-springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted it as the safest pinion as being the best and tallest.

Hardened and tempered hair-springs, now universally admitted by Watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movements from dust and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch is already a decided success, and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mentioned improvements, which tend to ensure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

The trademarks of the various styles made by the Company are as follows:—

FARM STOCK, of all kinds, should now be closely looked after. Their wants are of a somewhat different nature from that demanded during the severe cold weather of the past months, but they are not less necessary. They require a less amount of food, but it should be of better quality, and if consistent, often changed. An occasional feed of roots or shorts will be grateful to the milch cows, as an accompaniment to their dry forage, and the reward will come in more copious draughts of milk. Cows that are to come in, and those that are already rearing calves, need especial care. Breeding ewes also demand close attention, good food, roomy quarters and often considerable nursing. The farmer should remember that one of his chief sources of wealth is his farm stock; that the better they are kept, the larger profits they will yield, and especially that the better condition in which they are turned to pasture the present spring, the more rapid will be their gain, and the larger their returns in flesh, wool or milk, during the coming season. The hens, too, should not be forgotten. Feed them well, clean out their winter quarters, give good food, and in such weather as this, let them out upon the ground daily.

THE WOOD PILE.—Nothing looks more "forehanded," about a farmstead at this season of the year, than a good pile of wood. And this is just the time to be engaged in fitting it for the stove or fire-frame. Years ago it was the custom with many to prepare the wood during the spring in double lengths, sawing and splitting it for the stove, as wanted, during the winter—the summer fuel consisting of small, round wood, the sticks of which could be cut easily with the axe in one hand, holding the stick on the chopping log with the other. But it is now the practice of most farmers to prepare all the stove fuel for the year, at this season. The comparative leisure affords the best time for doing it, and wood works up much freer and easier than when it becomes partially or wholly seasoned. We think it far better for wood to remain out of doors, after having been prepared for the fire, during the drying spring winds, than to be immediately placed under cover, unless the shed is very open, affording ready means for the air to pass through it. When preparing the wood, fit a quantity smaller than usual for kindling—the women will find it convenient in starting a fire, or in getting up a quick heat during the hot days of summer, when but little fire is needed. By fitting an ample supply of fuel this spring, you will enjoy the cheerful light of the next winter's fire, as you could not do if compelled to sit by a dull, mulling, green wood flame, of a blustering evening. We could wish nothing worse to a shiftless farmer or non-paying subscriber, than the latter experience.—Mc. Farmer.

THE SAN FRANCISCANS are to have a palace for a City Hall and as our citizens may wish to copy from its elegant model, some day or some other day, we give a description from the San Francisco News Letter.

The extent of the facade is 576 feet in a straight line. The center and main entrance is circular, and approached by a noble flight of steps. A row of columns supports the porch leading to the principal hall, on the right of which and post of honor are the offices of his Honor the Mayor, with the several minor rooms appertaining to them. On the opposite or left side of the entrance hall are the various departments of the Sheriff's office, these two divisions flanking the portico. On the right of the Mayor's office, in the deep recess of the building, is the Tax Collector's suite of rooms, whilst the extreme right wing abutting on the lot will be devoted to the City Auditor.

Immediately back of these two last, fronting on McAllister street, are the offices of the Treasurer and Assessor. At the extreme left wing the County Clerk will have his range of offices, behind which, and fronting on Larkin street, is the presiding Justice's Court, followed at the corner of Larkin and McAllister streets by the Police Court, in the basement of which and extending under the Justice's Court it is intended to place the City Prison. The various rooms of the second story have not yet been definitely appropriated to their different purposes, but portions of the basement are assigned to the storeroom of the Property Clerk, wardrobe chambers, other store-rooms, cells, and all the appurtenances of the Chief of Police.

It will be at least four years ere the building is completed, but long before that time the public will be enabled to judge of the beauty of the construction and the sound judgment of the Commissioners. The arrangements for ventilation are perfect. In the centre of the building is an open quadrangle, 120 by 115 feet, with fountain. Corridors will run all round this opening, communicating with the various offices, and insuring the two desiderata of light and air.

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills, are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated Pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. THE CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. PRICE FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH
cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of CUTANEOUS AFFECTION. It speedily eradicates PIMPLES, SPOTS, SCORBUTIC DRYNESS, INDURATIONS of the CUTANEOUS MEMBRANE, etc., dispels REDNESS and INCIPIENT INFLAMMATION, HIVES, RASH, MOTH PATCHES, DRYNESS OF SCALP OR SKIN, FROST BITES, and all purposes for which SALVES or OINTMENTS are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation; used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. MONDAY, MARCH 20, 1871.

THE DEFEAT, ITS CAUSES AND ITS LESSONS.

Republicans have themselves to thank for their present discomfiture. Successful for sixteen years in twenty consecutive campaigns, they became too confident, resorted to bickering, forgot danger, neglected and even snubbed some of their best men publicly, and are astonished to find 5000 or more Republican voters away from the polls on election day, and the election gone by default.

Looking back over the campaigns of late years, we can but wonder that defeat was so long delayed. The selection of Joseph A. Gilmore for a candidate for Governor shook the confidence of the people; the senseless Fogg-Chandler-Ordway quarrel has been persisted in with utter disregard to its effects on the party at large, and paved the way for other quarrels—all tending to destroy harmony among leaders and to demoralize the rank and file. Selfishness and jealousy has been carried too far, principles sacrificed for men and in many cases nominations have been made for the reason that the candidates could control a sufficient number of votes to demand it rather than for any especial mental ability or qualification which would cause the office to seek the men and not men the office. Ward politicians have shown more zeal in getting out voters to attend caucuses than in afterwards rallying them against the common enemy.

The action of the Congressional convention in this District and the Gubernatorial Convention at Concord, although most estimable men were nominated in both cases, was peculiarly disheartening, a majority of delegates in both cases returning home dissatisfied and displeased. In the Congressional convention as matters stood at the conclusion of the third ballot, the nomination should have been given Hon. Samuel M. Wheeler. This gentleman had failed of a nomination four years before, by only five votes. He had quietly acquiesced in the decision and earnestly advocated the election and re-election of Mr. Ela. The latter embarrassed his friends by desiring a third term, and it soon became evident that his re-nomination was wholly out of the question. On the third ballot, Mr. Wheeler had the same number of votes he received four years before and only lacked four votes of a nomination. Then it was that a few persons sprung a trap by withdrawing Messrs. Gordon and Ela and recommending their friends to support Mr. Small. Notwithstanding this formidable combination, Mr. Wheeler's nomination would have been secured had not a dozen delegates from Portsmouth, who had supported Mr. W. on the third ballot, turned about and voted for Mr. Small, an act which we think many of them have since regretted. The result is known. Mr. Wheeler was slain in the house of his friends, who were sorely disappointed. The candidate they had presented to the convention was a man of generous impulses, of undisputed ability and had illustrated his faith by his work. Messrs. Small and Gordon could not have been greatly disappointed by defeat, for this was their first appearance as candidates for the nomination; Mr. Ela, certainly, could not complain, for he had been honored with two Congressional terms; but the slit was regarded as an insult to the friends of Mr. Wheeler, who made his cause their own and were sorely grieved at his defeat. It was not to be reasonably expected that they could work as enthusiastically as would have been if he had their favorite been decentated.

The results of the successful movement, which defeated Mr. W.'s nomination, we look back over a campaign characterized by apathy; a loss of a dozen or so Representatives to the Legislature from Strafford county (including a loss of three Representatives in the strongest Republican Ward in Dover, because hundreds of Republicans would not vote,) and the consequent loss of the control of the State through the legislature. Furthermore, as it curses come home to roost, we find the most bitter opponent of Mr. Wheeler in the convention, defeated for an important office at the polls.

Again, at the State convention, after a ballot in which many complimentary votes were thrown, a candidate was nominated by acclamation against the protests of many delegates. Though supported in the campaign by the bulk of the party, his position on the temperance question and his profession injured his popularity. To make matters worse, extreme temperance men threatened to bolt another nomination, the anti-temperance men retaliated, and on election day each strove to out-do the other, greatly to the injury of the general ticket.

At another (minor) convention, Portsmouth presented a candidate for a county office in which it is entitled to a voice, as this city pays about one-third of the county debt. Notwithstanding Portsmouth had been unrepresented on the Board for three years, the claim was ignored. We do not say that the Republicans of this city represented this case sufficiently to stay away from the polls, (as did many of the heavy tax payers,) but that this is one of the numerous mistakes of the campaign.

Our defeat can be turned to victory. Let the leaders of the party heal their differences; let wise counsels prevail, personal feeling be abandoned for the good of the whole; let by-gones be by-gones; and let the grand old party which for sixteen years has controlled the old Granite State, rally unitedly for its recovery. We believe it will be done and that the next campaign will be just the warmest affair of the kind that New Hampshire ever experienced. The 39,000 Republican voters of the State must be brought out. Harmony and work will do it and now is the time to commence.

THE ELECTION.

The returns received at the Statesman office indicate that the Republicans and Democrats are about neck and neck in the House of Representatives, and that it is quite probable that it will not be known which party has the majority until the members convene and vote for Speaker, in June. The diversity in the political estimates of the House results from the fact that several members are claimed by both parties.

Returns from all but Cambridge and Hart's Location give Pike 34,248, Weston, 34,879, Scattering, 1117; Weston's minority 486. The two towns to hear from gave 4 Republican and 8 Democratic votes last year.

The Manchester Mirror estimates that the House will consist of 164 Republicans, 162 Democrats and 4 Labor Reformers.

The Republicans have elected their county officers in Rockingham, Strafford, Hillsborough, Cheshire and Sullivan, the Democrats in Belknap Carroll, Merrimac, Grafton and Coos.

The Exeter News Letter says the election in Seabrook will probably be declared illegal on account of an informality in the election warrant. If so the Democratic Representative elected to the legislature cannot take his seat.

Nashua voted to change the time of holding the municipal election from March to December.

Mayor Jones, Republican, was re-elected in Concord by 404 majority.

Hon. Dana Sargent, Democrat, was chosen Mayor of Nashua by 74 majority. The City Council is strongly Republican.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate, March 17, a bill was reported removing the disabilities of Senator-elect Vance.

A resolution was introduced providing for a joint committee of investigation on affairs in the South, and it was passed.

A bill was passed repealing the law requiring Congress to meet on March 4 instead of December.

Pending a resolution to limit the legislation of the present session, the House refused to take up the regular order so as to permit the introduction of Mr. Butler's Ku-Klux bill.

☞ President Grant has ordered the U. S. Navy to protect the Government of Baez, against any demonstration by Hayti, and Admiral Poor and Minister Bassett and notified the Haytien Government of this order. An exchange says:—

The remarkable tone of this diplomacy is, to say the least, almost as startling to us as it must have been to Hayti.

RAILROAD ACCIDENTS.—A construction train on the Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Minnesota Railroad was thrown from the track Friday, five men instantly killed and four others wounded, two of them fatally.

A freight train and a single locomotive on the Erie Railroad ran into each other in Rochester, N. Y., and were both badly smashed. A brakeman was much injured.

☞ Hugh Gallagher, employed in the Lowell foundry, was shockingly burned in his limbs on the 15th, the contents of a dipper of molten iron being poured upon his person by Michael Mahoney. In many places the melted iron burned holes to the bone. Mahoney was arrested and put under $1000 bonds for his appearance for examination.

☞ During the celebration of the crystal wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Burnham, in Portland, on the 15th inst., a young man named Robert Wood, one of the guests, fell down a flight of stairs from the dining room, by taking a false step backward, (owing to the careless flirting of a handkerchief in his face by a young girl,) and struck on his head, severing the meningital artery. Four physicians were called, but, although he was trepanned, he died.

BREVITIES.

Arkansas is legislating to induce colored immigration to that State from the North!

Missouri has ordered the disarming of the militia.

The Kentuckians want the mail service which was recently stopped because they attempted to murder the mail agents, to be restored to them.

PERSONAL. — Charles Hugo, Victor Hugo's eldest son, is dead at the age of 45.

Mr. N. Bonaparte is not ill, as reported. Mrs. Bonaparte and her son Louis are at Dover, Eng., to meet the head of the family.

NEWSPAPORIAL.—The Exeter News Letter of this week announces the dissolution of partnership of Marseilles & Hoyt. Mr. Andrew J. Hoyt goes to Haverhill, Mass., to establish a daily paper. Mr. Charles Marseilles will continue in charge of the News Letter.

☞ Fechter is back to Boston again, and is playing at the Boston Theatre, in company with Miss Leclercq.

☞ Filkins, the express robber and would-be murderer of Albany, has been sent to prison for the crime.

☞ Paymaster McKean Buchanan, U. S. N., died in Charlestown, Mass., on the 18th.

☞ Mr. Edward Hayman, cashier of the South Berwick National Bank, died on Saturday.

☞ Fast Day in Maine April 13th.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Be Guided By What You Know.

There is an old proverb which says, "Experience is the safest guide." To this guide the sick and ailing naturally turn when casting about for the means of relief. They inquire what a medicine has done for others, before they adopt it themselves. Of all the remedies and preventives in use, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS meets the test most triumphantly, and hence its immense popularity and vast sales. The sufferer from indigestion is sure to find some one among his friends who has been cured of that ailment by the famous vegetable stomachic. The victim of fever and ague, liver complaint, constipation, nervous prostration, or general debility, has only to make inquiry in the neighborhood where he resides in order to discover what this standard restorative has effected in cases similar to his own. In the published testimony to its merits he will find a volume of proofs of its sanitary properties, which it is impossible for his common sense to resist. He tries it, and the effect it produces on his system adds another to the host of witnesses in its favor. Thus, its reputation, founded on facts, not assertions, continually grows and spreads. Charlatans and imposters, some of them mere local tricksters, and others who take a somewhat wilder range, attempt to thrust into the hands and down the throats of invalids, their haphazard concoctions, as substitutes for the great tonic which for so many years has been a successful medicinal staple throughout the United States, Spanish America, Canada and the West Indies, but only succeed to a very limited extent. In this reasoning age, the people, having ascertained what is really deserving of their confidence, decline "running after strange gods."

The popularity of this time-tried article increases every hour. ☞ A match game of billiards was played at Currier's Billiard Room on Market Street one evening of last week, between two well known players, Batchelder and Marshall, and was one of the best games ever played in this city. The game was 1200 points, caroms, and occupied 2 hours and 35 minutes, Batchelder winning the game—1200 to his opponents 827. Batchelder's average, 28 1-2; Marshall's average, 16 1-5. The largest runs, 186 and 146, were made by Batchelder. The men are to play another game at the same place soon.

MASONIC VISIT.—About eighty members of Libanus Lodge, No. 49, of Great Falls, including W. M. Moses B. Swaine, visited this city Friday evening by invitation of St. Andrew's Lodge. They came in a special train, and were received at the depot by a large delegation of Masons, accompanied by the Portsmouth Cornet Band, and escorted to Masonic Hall; after seeing the work exemplified by the officers of St. Andrew's Lodge, they were conducted to the Banquet Hall, where the rest of the evening was spent in discussing a bountiful repast and expressing brotherly good will. The visiting brethren returned in a special train shortly after midnight.

FREE INSTRUCTION.—The Committee on Instruction of the Young People's Union are to commence their course of free lessons this week, at the rooms of the Union, giving Tuesday evening to book-keeping and mathematics, Wednesday evening to reading and spelling, and Thursday evening to penmanship — one hour each evening. Needed supplies for any or all the above studies are to be furnished free by the Union. Messrs. Alfred M. and A. C. Hoyt, with others, are to take charge of the classes. Instruction commences at half past 7 o'clock. We commend this course to all of either sex who are desirous of acquiring a thorough knowledge of practical branches of education, as an opportunity like the above is seldom presented.

DISAPPROVED.—Something less than a year ago, the then editor of the copperhead organ in this city retired, and went to New Haven, Conn., where he assumed editorial charge of the Lever, a democratic daily. He commenced his editorial career there in a style characteristic of the man, but was immediately assailed by the Hartford Post, (republican,) whose sneering sarcasm and bitter wit were too much for the "democratic thunder," and so effectually silenced the thunderer that not even a distant allusion to the Post was ever seen in the Lever's columns. Recently he has "retired" from the Lever's editorial chair, and from the salutatory of the new editor we should judge that the proceedings of the old one—editorially and financially—were strongly disapproved by the Lever Publishing Company. The Co. issue two papers, and the new editor says:—

After this date, what may appear in the columns of either of these papers I shall be responsible for, whether political or personal, though in either case I shall endeavor not to give unnecessary offence. * * There will be no change in the name or size of the papers; in other respects they will undergo a radical change, the first evidences of which may be seen in the last three or four numbers of the daily sheet, which have been issued under the new management. We shall scrupulously avoid anything like slang, which is not wit, or vituperation, which is not argument.

The above obituary, earned by less than a year's service, is severe; but the last paragraph of the salutatory reads as though the retired editor had exhibited other moral deficiencies besides a total disregard of common decency. It says:—

To avoid misunderstanding and difficulty in the future, notice is hereby given that the Company will not be responsible for any obligations or debts which are contracted without the authority of the undersigned [the President of the Company]. Written orders will be supplied to all persons who are entitled to obtain credit on account of the Company. A careful observance of this notice will protect traders and others from deception and imposition.

Communication.

Messrs. Editors:—Your answer to the communication of J. A. in Saturday's Chronicle, gave me much pleasure; if such bold, truthful statements do not convince J. A. that we have an independent and fearless newspaper in this city, he must belong to the numerous growler family. J. A. asks if it is not better to be defeated than to be disgraced; I answer him that defeat by our professed friends is both defeat and disgrace. The copperheads did not defeat us in this election, for the Republicans have several times triumphed over them when they threw more votes than they did on Tuesday last, and can and will do so again. Your other correspondent, "Temperance" has a level head, and much common sense; he has stated the case truly as far as he goes. What we want is union and harmony, nothing for self, but all for the cause, and our old organization, and then and not till then can we turn our present defeat into a glorious victory.

OLD GUARD.

P. S. & P. RAILROAD.—At a meeting of the Directors of the Eastern Railroad, held in the Mechanics' National Bank in this city on the 13th of January of this year, on motion of Mr. Haven, seconded by Mr. Bates, it was Voted, That the Eastern Railroad Company offer to take a perpetual lease of or enter into a perpetual business contract with the Portsmouth, Saco & Portland Railroad, and pay as rent or use thereof the sum of $5 on the 1st day of July and the sum of $5 on the 1st day of January of each year on each share of the capital stock of said P. S. & P. Railroad, and also to relinquish all claims for penalties and betterments or improvements under the contract of April 1st, 1847, and to assume and pay all legal claims of the B. & M. Railroad on said P. S. & P. Railroad for penalties and for betterments or improvements under the contract of April 1st, 1847, subject to the ratification of the stockholders of both corporations according to law.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the P. S. & P. Railroad, held in the company's building at Kittery, March 18th, Mr. Shaw of Boston offered a resolution

That the Company accept the offer of the Eastern Railroad Co. to enter into a perpetual contract under which the stockholders of the Co. shall receive semi-annually dividends of 5 per cent., according to the proposition of said Eastern Railroad, and the Directors of the Co. are hereby authorized and directed to enter into a contract on this basis, in such form as shall seem to them advantageous to the interests of the Company.

Col. John H. George of Concord, and Hon. Chas. L. Woodbury supported the resolution, Jas. W. Emery, Esq., advocating a proposition of the Maine Central to lease the P. S. & P. at 10 per cent. per annum for 999 years. The meeting was lively and there was some sparring between the legal gentlemen, after which the resolution was adopted, 4869 yeas to 838 nays.

Our Correspondence.

KITTERY, March 18.

The People's Lyceum of Kittery concluded its course on Thursday evening by a Grand Concert, given by the Universalist and Christian Choirs, assisted by Mr. E. C. Nealy of the M. E. Choir. The entertainment is reported to have been one of the finest ever given in the place. The selections were excellent. The piano pieces by Miss Getchell and Mrs. Tilton were admirably rendered. Much praise is due each of the ladies and gentlemen for the excellent manner in which they performed their various parts, and to the gentlemen through whose untiring efforts the citizens have enjoyed a course of lectures second to none ever given in this town.

DR. SCHENCK ADVISES CONSUMPTIVES TO GO TO FLORIDA IN WINTER.

HAVING for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung and liver complaints, and feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a tolerably healthy condition of the lungs in healthy consumes. The first and most important step is, for the patient to avoid taking cold; and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as in more northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterman last winter, I saw no cases there where lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

One hundred miles further down the river is a place called Enterprise. I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even, and the air dry and bracing, mosquitoes and musquitos are not located there. I should give a decided preference to Mellonville: it is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The tables in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times; but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite; and, when this is the case, they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My reasons for saying so are, that patients are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature; and, if it is not necessary to say, that where a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent changes, he is liable to die shortly; therefore my advice is, go well down into the State, out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or any place near any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a tough, or a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat, or cough; but, for those whose lungs are diseased, a more southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1860, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore, and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive, embracing every possible phase of lung disease, has enabled me to understand the disease fully; and hence my opinion in regard to taking cold. A person may take vast quantities of "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and still be liable to be cured and taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills; for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than more northern latitudes. It is a well-established fact, that natives of Florida rarely die of consumption, especially those of the southern part. On the other hand, in New England, and other northern climates, consumption is fearfully diseased. In the Middle States, it does not prevail so largely; still there are many thousands of cases annually. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to their fresh colds as they are about scarlet fever, small-pox, &c.! but they are not; they take what they term a little cold, which they can't avoid, and enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another cold, and so on until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope of cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is to try a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic, and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines, because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action, and know, that when they are used in strict accordance with my directions, they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough, or night sweats, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a corpse on his hands before long.

My plan is, to give my three medicines in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where a free use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary. My object is, to give tone to the stomach,—to get up a good appetite. It is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry; I have hopes of such. With a relish for food, and the gratification of eating, comes good blood, and with it more flesh, which is closely followed by a healing of the lungs,—then the cough loosens and abates, the creeping chills and clammy night sweats, no longer prostrate and annoy, and the patient gets well, provided he avoids taking cold.

Now, there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, Is there no place for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient take his exercise in the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, which will keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system, and can do so again. Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The first stands unequaled on record, that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of what seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption. Go where you will, you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on the liver better than calomel, and leave none of its injurious effects behind. In fact, they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have partaken too freely of rich food, Mandrake Pills, one of the Mandrake Pills will cure you. If you are subject to sick headache, take a pill of the Mandrake, and they will relieve you in two hours. If you would obviate the effect of a change of water, or the too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrake Pills, and you may eat the drink water, and eat water-melons, pears, apples, peaches, peaches and cream, without the risk of being made sick by them. They will protect those who live in damp situations against chills and fevers. They act thoroughly, and yet are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, every Monday from 9 A.M. to 3 P.M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will receive my advice gratuitously, if they will declare the exact condition of the lungs; and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or incurable. But I think I satisfactorily demonstrate, that the value of my medicines depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say, that when persons take my medicines, and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they are not so liable to take cold; yet no one with diseased lungs can be so free from a change of atmosphere, without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis; for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 200 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 9½ per cent. interest, instead of 5 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for re-investment.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. f24dWaS

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY!

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. lyrdawfeb16

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40,000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, on a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.

SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!

JAY COOKE & CO.,

Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the

FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS

—OF THE—

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold; the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or 1.10,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Parties holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacifics, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply you with these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eodtuwsmfeb26

NEXT DOOR TO BULLIMAN'S.

From the Transatlantic Magazine.

One day not far from Christmas—so said many of us—when matters were proceeding in this pastoral manner, Jack Romily came in silent and depressed. He gave Gyp a cuff because the poor animal fawned on him, throw the Saturday Review to the end of the room and himself upon the sofa.

"What's the matter, Jack?" I asked. Jack groaned plaintively.

"Is it so bad as that?"

"Worse!" he said; "as bad as can be. My dear boy, never place your heart as I have done upon so frail a thing as a woman."

"Jack," said I, "don't be foolish."

"I may be foolish," said he, bitterly, "when Lucy is false."

"Pshaw, my dear fellow; you will be angry with yourself for saying so. What do you mean?"

In answer to this, Jack took out his watch sighed heavily, and told me in a few minutes we would be able to see.

"At four o'clock, every afternoon, that false girl" he said "goes courting—absolutely courting—Dick Bulliman!"

Lucy was a favorite of mine, and I would not have her abused. I told Jack so; and he soberly said and full of argument—so certain that he was in right—heard all that I said with calmness, and again drew out his watch.

"Now!" he cried—"now's the time! Come up into my bed-room—we shall not be observed there—and from the window we can observe Bulliman's garden."

At four o'clock, precisely, Miss Lucy Spotforth opened Bulliman's front gate walked through the neat little forecourt they dignified by the name of garden, and we heard—Jack heard as if it were the crack of doom—her neat, little, aristocratic double-knock on Bulliman's front door.

Jack's nature was, as Lucy had assured me for I was in confidence with the two—a large one. I don't like "large" natures, if they are anything like Jack's. I have been assured that Lord Byron's was a large nature; and I have found, as a rule, that these large natures are generally of a poetic, tumultuous, greedy, ambitious, not to say selfish kind; and that the poor and wretched "small" natures are expected to do all the kind work and selfsacrifice.

Jack, therefore, directly he saw Lucy, and heard that knock, turned a sort of green; and treating me as an extempore Iago, hissed, literally hissed—the heroics of the stage being but faint copies of the exaggerated passions of these large natures—

"What does she do at Bulliman's? She who is above them in rank and social position? What does she do?"

[N. B. I may here remark that Downy ones of Boxley who live on their means never visit another Downy one who is in trade, or even a profession; and that the old church at Boxley is carefully divided into first, second and third-class pews—so aristocratic are we.]

"Do?" I cried. "You great muff you! Why, she goes to take music lessons of Miss Bulliman!"

"Does she?" sneered Jack. "Muff as I am, I know that Lucy could beat Miss Bulliman all to shivers at music. Take lessons in Organic Chemistry, you mean. Come along. I'll settle this!"

"Don't go, Jack!" I cried; "you will repent it. You do not know these people."

"Beg pardon. I do. I have been introduced to them; but I have been making inquiries"——

"Dash your inquiries!" I jerked in.

"And my opinion is made up. I have learned all about it. She has visited this house for a fortnight thus: and has never told me!"

This staggered me. Well, Dick Bulliman was a clever, good fellow. Had Lucy got tired of her great nature?

"Come on!" again cried Jack.

And pushing me down stairs, he seized his hat, put mine on—a modest billycock, useful in the country—and we went down stairs quick foot, as they say in the country across the water.

Down stairs we went on tiptoe. Why on tiptoe, I don't know; but we were excited and histronic. In we sneaked, also on tiptoe, into Bulliman's garden, and were guilty—being great natures and histronic also—of the unpardonable meanness—so often seen on the stage—of crouching to listen and spy behind a thick cypress tree which adorned the garden, and of looking through the window.

Boxley Down is a quiet place; and whether our ears were sharper than usual, or the silvery tones of Lucy's resonant voice pierced farther than usual, I cannot say; but there we saw Miss Bulliman, in a hat, standing up and looking down on Lucy, who, with her hat off, was sitting down; and we heard the latter say—

"He has sent me a cruel letter, my dear—a very cruel letter; and I am afraid I must not come here again."

Jack gave me a cruel drive as I do not want again to have just below my false ribs; and then he again hissed—

"Is my letter? I will unmask the hypocrite! Come on!"

I was dragged forward—how I hardly know; but I soon found myself opposite Lucy and Miss Bulliman, and heard Jack's resolute and certainly offensive tones.

"I know all, Miss Spofforth. I have heard what you have said—I have my witness here." He threw back his great hand in his great eagerness, and knocked my billycock down with a crash—I had taken it off politely to Miss Bulliman, whom I rather admired—and he said, fixing his large, fierce eyes upon pretty Miss Lucy—"I have done with you forever!"

Hereupon, Lucy, who was but young and very much in love, gave a great scream, and "went off." Miss Bulliman went off, too, but not in a dead faint; called Jack Romily a coward and sang out for her brother, Dick. In came Dick, and without any words, soon by vinegar and smelling salts—Dick's chemicals were preferred at Bulliman's, as being so powerful—brought her to. Meanwhile I and Jack Romily stood like two guilty and intruding fools; Jack suffering—as he afterwards confessed—the torments of a place of which he has I am sure no experience, at witnessing the tender dexterity of Dick Bulliman and the fainting of Lucy. When the young lady was well recovered, Jack and I—for I had to follow that great nature's lead—"thought that we had better go."

"No—don't," cried Katey Bulliman. "We must settle accounts with you gentlemen. Dick stop them!"

"My good Katey," said Dick, shutting the door, "I dare say that they wont go. What's the row?"

"Can you fight, sir?" asked Jack, with the greatest amount of bitterness. "You are a man of peace."

"I am a man of science," said Dick slowly; "no necessarily a man of peace. I can fight if I want."

"Then sir, you must fight me. I am an officer in her majesty's service. You have taken away my only hope—my only love."

Here Lucy began to show a white feather; that is she cried a bit, and looked at Jack with some admiration—she saw that it was all his love.

"I have done nothing of the sort," said Dick.

"I love Miss Lucy as I love an angel, that's all; but I know that she is bound to you—and Mr. Romiley, I am a gentleman."

"And the son of an officer," whimpered Mr. Bulliman.

"But if you wish me to fight for Miss Lucy, I'm willing," said Dick, "only let me choose my own weapons. I'm going in heavily for poisons. I've a new salt. Let me give you a dose, and I'll take a dose, too; and toss up for an emetic. If you die, I'll make observations on you, and immortalize you as the first victim. That's quite as sensible as the pistol business."

Jack looked very much like a fool; so did I. I thought we'd better go again; but Lucy had given one of those bright, truthful, triumphant looks of hers; and Jack was on his knees, holding her hand, and calling himself an idiot, and begging pardon heartily.

Lucy put her soft hand on his forehead and looking fondly into his dark eyes—so resplendent now!—said—

"My dear Jack, your large nature will some time comprehend my small but clear one. You have given me a pang; but I forgive you."

"But what are you doing here, Lucy," said Jack—he had thanked her, it seems, in a satisfactory way, with his eyes—"that I did not know? It wasn't music, was it?"

"No," said Katey; "except that Miss Spotforth gives me, now and then, a lesson. She plays beautifully."

"And it was not science," said Dick, "for, in my laboratory, I make such an awful smell and smoke that I should choke any woman except Miss Canidis Pecker and the Social Sense old Blues."

"Then what was it?" again urged Jack.

"God bless her!" cried that dear Mrs. Bulliman. "She was aiding me, buying her own stores, and making bandages and charpie for the wounded, and preparing the Boxley Down box for Col. Loyd Lindsay and the National Society in Aid of the Sick and Wounded in this dreadful war.

"Think, Jack," said Lucy, "think for a moment of the hundreds of poor men, who lie in agony of the wounds, the fever, and the pain; and of the thousands of poor widows! And I shall be a soldier's wife, Jack!"

"God bless you, and forgive me, Lucy! But why," cried the jealous-pated swain, "Why did you not tell me?"

Because I should not let my right hand know what my left hand does; and you, Jack, are my right hand!"

P. S.—It's all right now! Jack and Lucy are as fond as ever; and Katey—well, Dick is an uncommonly good fellow; and I'm so glad that I live "Next door to Bulliman's!"

WALTHAM

WATCHES.

The extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

More than 500,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enables them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watch-making originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skillful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:—

The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main-springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Ingraham's patent pinion as being the best and faultless.

Hardened and tempered hair-springs, now universally admitted by Watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movements from dust and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch is already a decided success, and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mentioned improvements, which tend to ensure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

The trademarks of the various styles made by the Company are as follows:—

THE HAWK'S NEST.

[Sierras.]

BY BRET HARTE.

We checked our pace—the red road sharply
We heard the troubled flow, [rounding;
Of the dark olive depths of pines, resounding
A thousand feet below.

Above the tumult of the canon lifted,
The gray hawk breathless hung,
Or on the hill a winged shadow drifted,
Where furze and thorn-bush clung.

Or where, half-way, the mountain side was furrowed,
With many a seam and scar,
Or some abandoned tunnel dimly burrowed—
Or mole-hill seen so far.

We looked in silence down across the distant
Unathomable reach,
A silence broken by the guide's consistent
And realistic speech.

Walker of Murphy's blew a hole through Peters
For telling him he lied,
Then up and dusted out of South Hornitos,
Across the long Divide.

We ran him out of Strong's and up thro' Eden,
And 'cross the ford below,
And up this mountain (Peters' brother leadin,')
And me and Clark and Joe.

He fou't us game; somehow, I disremember
Just how the thing kem round;
Some say 'twas wadding, some a scattered ember,
From fires on the ground.

But in one minute all the hill below him,
Was just one sheet of flame;
Guardin' the crest, Sam Clark and I called to him,
And—well, the dog was game.

He made no sign—the fires of hell were 'round
The pit of hell below; [him,
We sat and waited, but we never found him,
And then we turned to go.

And then—you see that rock that's grown so
With chapparel and tan— [bristly,
Suthin' crop' out—it might hev been a grizzly,
It might hev been a man.

Suthin that howled and gnashed its teeth and
In smoke and dust and flame; [shouted
Suthin' that sprang into the depths about it,
Grizzly or man—but game!

That's all. Well, yes, it does look rather risky,
And kinder makes one queer
And dizzy looking down. A drop of whiskey
Ain't a bad thing right here!"

NATIONAL EDUCATION.—In a former article we noticed that Prussia, Germany and Russia seemed ahead of our country in systems of National Education. It should be said, however, that some in our land saw early that a free government could not be maintained without the diffusion of education. Washington was a soldier and a civilian as well. He was a hero in war and a statesman in peace. He comprehended, when elevated to the Presidency, the dangers of the infant Republic. He saw at once that the people must be educated, or the Republic might fail, as free governments in the Old World all had.

Hence Washington in his first message to Congress advanced the idea that in all countries knowledge is a sure basis of success. He urged legislation for the promotion of science, and suggested the establishment of a National University. In 1796 he dwelt upon the subject again. He said the colleges in existence were so feebly endowed that able professors could not be commanded. A National University he thought would be a great help towards the assimilation of the principles, opinions and manners of our countrymen, and that it would assist in preserving the union and the safety of the nation.

The matter of a national educational system, and perhaps a compulsory one, will soon be before our people. It cannot be avoided. It is to be one of the great subjects of the age, patriots, statesmen, philanthropists and all friends of the race should examine it well, and help to right conclusions and action. J.

NEW BOOKS.—Roberts Brothers will issue immediately The Miller of Angibault by George Sand; Thoughts About Art by Philip G. Hamerton; A Visit To My Discontented Cousin; and Miss Alcott's new work, Little Men; Life at Plumfield with Jo's Boys. With reference to this she thus writes, in one of her late letters:

"I was just getting well into my work on 'L. M.,' when sad news of dear John Brooke's death came to darken our Christmas and unsettle my mind. But I now have a motive for work stronger than before; and if the book can be written it shall be, for the good of the two dear little men now left to my care, for long ago I promised to try and fill John's place, if they were left fatherless."

It will be noticed that our old friends, the "Little Women," are to be introduced into the new book in their new relations in life—of mothers and aunts of "Little Men."

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c.,

In all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

cannot be surpassed as a FACE WASH, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of CUTANEOUS AFFECTION. It speedily eradicates PIMPLES, SPOTS, SCORBUTIC DRYNESS, INDURATIONS of the CUTANEOUS MEMBRANE, etc., dispels REDNESS and INCIPIENT INFLAMMATION, HIVES, RASH, MOTH PATCHES, DRYNESS OF SCALP OR SKIN, FROST BITES, and all purposes for which SALVES or OINTMENTS are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation; used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. Communication.

THE LESSON OF THE HOUR.—The best thing that can happen to individuals or organizations, is, to now and then be defeated or baffled. Because, in the full tide of success we are apt to become lethargic, gross and stupid, indifferent to warnings, proud and self-reliant. We need reverses to awaken us to the possibilities of danger, to cause us to stop and look about us and give attention to the manner in which we are performing our work, instead of rushing blindly on with the idea of getting through with it, no matter how. No one will deny, that, as a party, we have been pretty well baffled or snubbed—if the reader pleases—in the recent State election. It is not pleasant to reflect upon, but it may be profitable for us to improve the opportunity afforded us of looking the ground over and of seeing wherein lies the cause of our sudden and unexpected defeat. If we fail to do this,—if we fail to draw a lesson from the result, we may look for another and a greater reverse at no distant day. Now what is the lesson? Let us inquire.

A dozen Massachusetts editors (as well as many others equally deficient in the knowledge of our family troubles,) with one voice come forward and tell us that the result of the New Hampshire election is directly traceable to the removal of a Massachusetts Senator from the Chairmanship of the Committee on Foreign Relations. Another class of wise men assert that it is consequent upon nominating a minister for Governor. Still another, putting it stronger, says it is because of his being a Methodist minister. And again we hear that it is simply the natural disintegration of the republican party, which, having accomplished its mission, is crumbling to pieces.

We will not pretend that none of the above reasons are valid, or that they are unworthy of notice. But we claim that they are only collateral causes, and don't touch the main one. The real reason of our defeat was the introduction of a small minority of temperance fanatics into our councils. We will not undertake in this article to discuss the right or wrong of the question of temperance. All we have to do with at this time is the question of the cause of our defeat. When the State Convention which nominated Mr. Pike met in Concord in January last, a careful observer could not have failed to notice an unhealthy sprinkling of temperance reformers; the identical individuals who held such a stormy Convention in the same place a year before, when Mr. Pike came out from them, warning them that while their cause might be just, their course was intemperate and impolitic. These men were in attendance as stated, for the purpose of ascertaining the morale (as they termed it) of the body of delegates which represented the Republican party of the entire State. That the nomination of Pike did not satisfy these reformers can be proved by the remark of one of their leaders, who said to the writer of this article while the balloting was going on at the Convention alluded to; "they may think to conciliate us (the temperance men) by giving us Pike; but that won't go down. We want something else." And in coming out of the Hall on the same day we overheard the following; "I had rather have a copperhead for Governor, than Pike, without the enforcement of the prohibitory law." So we were not surprised to learn a day or two after the noisy Convention of the temperance men, that the Republican leaders (we suppose the State Central Committee) had received a call from the temperance gentlemen aforesaid, who demanded of them a promise that they would enforce the law relative to the prohibition of the sale of liquor, even to the neglect of all others, threatening that if their demand was unheeded they would withdraw from the party and carry with them three thousand votes! This boast, strange to say, had the effect to intimidate the State Committee, who promised them all they asked, and much more than could ever have been realized. From that date commenced the defeat. From that day we were defeated.

To us, there never seemed to be any good resulting from legislating upon the liquor traffic. But admitting that it is wise and salutary so to do, it unfortunately happens that in this State, at least, there are many Republicans (it isn't Democrats alone who drink liquor) who love their eleven o'clocks and fours too well to vote away the privilege of obtaining them; which makes the liquor question too heavy a load for a party to shoulder that has only a margin of a little over fifteen hundred votes to work upon. And hence, we repeat, that while questions of importance relative to San Domingo annexation, the Summer-Grant imbroglio, &c., may have had the tendency to discourage timid Republicans, and so disgust others as to render them apathetic, the bargain made by the managers of the republican party with intemperate temperance leaders was the chief cause of our shameful defeat. c.

FRANCE.

The rebellion of the Reds in the Montmartre district of Paris has assumed dangerous proportions, and the government seems almost powerless to control it. The revolutionists have shot two generals whom they captured, and hold a strong position. De Paladines attempted to surprise the insurgents on Friday afternoon, but they got wind of his intention, and the attack was in vain. The report that the insurgents have shot Gen. Vinoy is not credited. The latest news is that the nationals have seized and now occupy the staff and general headquarters buildings of the national guard of Paris in the Place Vendome.

Marshal McMahon supports the present government, but will retire from the army to private life. Marshal Bazaine insists upon an investigation of his conduct at Metz.

The Germans threaten a reoccupation in case returning Germans are molested. The Echo of Parliament says that in consequence of the disturbances in Paris, Emperor William has provisionally stopped the movements of the German troops.

The French journals confirm the report of the execution of Generals Lecomte and Clement Thomas. After their capture they were taken to the garden of Reubes Rosiers, Montmartre, where the central revolutionary committee held their sittings. After a brief trial they were condemned to death and shot. All accounts say that they died bravely. The Journal des Debats says that "yesterday will be considered one of the gloomiest hours in the history of France. A revolution under the banner of pillage is mistress of Paris. France will condemn these horrible assassinations and this odious insurrection, which is without a pretext or purpose. Will the provinces come to our aid, or must the Germans re-enter the capital? This terrible day has wrought more damage to the republic than all the Bonapartes."

President Thiers has issued a proclamation appealing to the reason and patriotism of the citizens of Paris to preserve order. He says that he is informed that the malcontents of Monmartre have planted their guns so as to demolish the dwellings of their fellow-citizens. He declares that by such acts as these the republic is fatally compromised, because a republic accompanied by disorders will be lost. He insists that the present government is really republican, and no friend of the republic should strike at it.

It is reported that the Reds have captured Gen. Chanzy, and that he will be shot.

The state of the city is said to be frightful. The wine shops only are open, drunkenness is rampant and even the women are armed.

A Paris dispatch says that Gen. Chanzy has been shot, that the insurgents are advancing on Versailles, and that the Thiers government talk of removing to Tours. The Germans decline to interfere.

Napoleon is in England.

THE REIGN OF TERROR.—The supervisors of revenue in the Carolinas, Mississippi and Georgia report that in many districts a perfect reign of terror exists, the enforcement of the revenue laws being totally impossible, and the officers in some cases having been compelled to flee for their lives. The Attorney General of South Carolina is in Washington to make a formal application to the President for troops to assist the State authorities in protecting peaceable citizens. The disorders are mainly confined to the northwestern counties, commonly known as the old Calhoun district, and the civil authorities are unable to give protection to loyal men there. It is stated that a regiment of cavalry would be of most service in hunting down the desperadoes and dispersing the marauding Ku-Klux bands. The Charlestown (S. C.) Republican denies that the Ku-Klux outrages mean rebellion, and says:—

What we mean is that there is no organized effort against the general government; that the outrages in South Carolina occur as if she really were a separate and independent State. The difficulties grow mainly out of the problems of race, fresh questions to the South, all coming in a body. In other States and under other circumstances these were issues of slow growth. Here they are sudden and demanding solution at once. It is natural that, out of the deep feelings thus aroused, outrages and violence should grow. These now assume alarming proportions and are too of an organized character. The Ku-Klux-Klan has its vital force in the race-feeling. When the Klan came to have a fixed shape and purpose, it was directed not against the government but against the colored citizens. Fear of them dictated this. From being weak they had become strong, and the consequences thereof were dreaded by those who led the Klan. Political terrorism followed. The Klan has at last come to have great power; of this there can be no question. That power is not alone measured by the number of the slain. It is better understood by whole counties crouching before them and by the fact that men cannot get justice in the courts. In parts of the South they have absolutely stopped the administration of civil laws. Men in the disturbed districts have admitted they would shrink from firing on the Ku-Klux lest they kill their next-door neighbors. The newspapers of the State have dignified the work of the Ku-Klux by apologizing for all its deeds.

The southern democratic members of the House, in caucus, resolved to advise their constituents to afford every facility to the joint committee for ascertaining the truth concerning the violations of the law in that section of the country. It is time something was done, by somebody.

☞ Hon. James Pike, the Republican candidate for Governor, was elected to Congress in 1855, when the State for the first time ranked itself against the Democracy. His name is thus connected with the first triumph and the first defeat of the Republicans in New Hampshire.

☞ The Clayton-Johnston quarrel in Arkansas is over. Governor Clayton's victory is complete. Hadley has been sworn in as governor and Clayton has turned over to him all his books and papers. The senate is ready to try Chief-Justice McClure, and Clayton has started for Washington.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

LONGER AND BETTER—the wearing of boots and shoes made with the CABLE SCREW WIRE, than any other class of goods. Many heavy firms deal exclusively in them, and all first-class retailers have them. Comfortable, economical and durable, they need only a trial.

For Coughs, Bronchitis and Consumption in its early stages, nothing equals Dr Pierce's Alt Ext or Golden Medical Discovery. It is also a great blood purifier and strength restorer, or tonic, and for "Liver Complaint," Costive Conditions of the Bowels it has no equal. All Scrofulous and skin diseases as Pimples, Blotches, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas and Eruptions, yield to its wonderful properties. Sold by druggists.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Be Guided By What You Know.

There is an old proverb which says, "Experience is the safest guide." To this guide the sick and ailing naturally turn when casting about for the means of relief. They inquire what a medicine has done for others, before they adopt it themselves. Of all the remedies and preventives in use, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS meets the test most triumphantly, and hence its immense popularity and vast sales. The sufferer from indigestion is sure to find some one among his friends who has been cured of that ailment by the famous vegetable stomachic. The victim of fever and ague, liver complaint, constipation, nervous prostration, or general debility, has only to make inquiry in the neighborhood where he resides in order to discover what this standard restorative has effected in cases similar to his own. In the published testimony to its merits he will find a volume of proofs of its sanitary properties, which it is impossible for his common sense to resist. He tries it, and the effect it produces on his system adds another to the host of witnesses in its favor. Thus, its reputation, founded on facts, not assertions, continually grows and spreads. Charlatans and impostors, some of them mere low tricksters, and others who take their aim at wilder range, attempt to thrust into the hands and down the throats of invalids, their haphazard compounds, as substitutes for the great tonic which for so many years has been a successful medicinal staple throughout the United States, Spanish America, Canada and the West Indies, but only succeed to a very limited extent. In this reasoning age, the people, having ascertained what is deserving of their confidence, decline "running after strange gods."

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

"Against what?" asks the reader. Why, against the POISONS, vile, maddening and deadly, advertised as "superior to all Hair Dyes." But, on second thoughts, the call "to arms!" is unnecessary. The wretched trash is already being driven out of the market. It has received the coup de grace from

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The popularity of this time-tried article increases every hour. Everybody is talking of the "natural shades" it imparts, and there is no conceivable reason why it should not be used, being (as Professor CHILTON states in his certificate) PERFECTLY HARMLESS. As a dressing after dyeing, use 1mdawfeb27

AYER'S

HAIR VIGOR,

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.

Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.

It wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

ARE YOU GOING TO PAINT?

—IF SO, USE THE—

AVERILL CHEMICAL PAINT.

It is Cheaper, Handsomer and more durable than the best of other Paints. One Thousand Gallons of it were sold in this City, in the year 1870, had not one complaint has come from those who have used it; but all speak in its favor; it is mixed ready for application, and is much easier put on than any other Paint, making a smooth, glossy surface for years, that can be cleaned with hot suds without injuring it. It is excellent for walls inside, in the place of paper.

I shall keep this season a large stock of Chemical Paints of all shades on hand, to accommodate customers with any amount, without delay in ordering it. Those who want to use the Chemical Paints and have had them misrepresented by those who deal in Lead and Oil, are invited to call and examine my Paints that have been on Buildings two years, and you will find them as fresh as if laid but one month.

Special Notice—I. P. Miller.

☞ Rev. Phillips Brooks of Boston is to lecture in St. John's (Episcopal) church, Thursday evening.

☞ The tug-boat Henry Wellman, from Boston for Portland, put into our harbor on Monday to avoid rough weather.

☞ Auction sale of provisions, clothing and small stores at the Navy Yard to-day, by M. T. Betton & Co. See advertisement.

☞ We notice that our exchanges spell the name of one of the Democratic Representatives from Ward Three, wrong. It is Augustus Walden, not Augustus Waldron.

☞ It was expected that the new ship "Jean Ingelow" would have sailed from this port on Monday; but on account of the promise of a storm her departure is delayed.

—In eight successive Congresses, New Hampshire has presented an unbroken Republican delegation. Now the Democrats have all three Representatives.—Chicago Mail.

Not exactly! Hon. Daniel Marcy, Democrat, was chosen Congressman in this District in 1863.

☞ In the usual place in our columns will be found a record of the deaths of two aged ladies, Mrs. Hannah P. Carter of this city and Mrs. Mary Nutter of Newington, which occurred the one on Saturday night and the other on Sunday. Mrs. Nutter was the widow of Mr. Matthias Nutter, who was grandfather of Mrs. Carter; he had three wives and twenty-one children. Mrs. Carter leaves grandchildren, and Mrs. Nutter was by marriage their great-great-grandmother.

March is two-thirds gone, yet thus far we have had no genuine March weather. Robins were plentiful in this vicinity, Sunday, and blue-birds have been around for weeks. So far this is the most remarkable March we remember; and even should the remaining days all be cold and blustering, the average for the month will be in favor of the pleasant weather. The roads are pretty well dried, and the wheeling fully as good as it generally is six weeks later in the season. The frost is about all out of the surface of the ground, though we imagine there must be a good deal left yet, down below, for it penetrated to a great depth during the "arctic spell," when the earth was bare of snow.

☞ This (Tuesday) evening the Assembly for the benefit of Mr. G. L. Cushing, the popular violinist and conductor, will come off at Congress Hall. The "necktie" part of the affair is a novelty here, but has been very successful in adding amusement to social dances elsewhere. A full Hall and a good time will doubtless result from the efforts of the managers to get up an attractive programme, and a handsome surplus over all expenses be realized for the beneficiary:—we hope so, for Mr. Cushing has done a great deal to elevate the musical taste of the community since taking up his residence here, and has shown himself always ready to lend his talents in aid of any worthy object. The managers' advertisement may be found in another column.

New Hampshire.—It would be a misfortune if a Republican legislature should be given an opportunity of electing a Governor already rejected by the people.—New York Telegram.

Wouldn't it be just as much a misfortune if a Democratic legislature should be given an opportunity of electing a Governor already rejected by the people? Democratic logic is usually jug-handled.

☞ The Nashua Telegraph has hoisted the name of Hon. Schuyler Colfax for President in 1872. If a change is to be made, we second the nomination. The Republicans of New Hampshire can carry the State high and dry on that issue alone, next March.

CONGRESS.

Kittery Town Election.—The Town election of Kittery, Me., on Monday, resulted in a clean sweep by the Republicans, the vote being very large for a Spring election. The vote was as follows; whole number 504:—for Moderator, John Wentworth 134, Thos. Clarkson 34; Town Clerk, C. L. Hayes 347, James E. Chase 157; Selectmen, &c., E. F. Safford 294, D. M. Shapleigh 343, Wm. W. Locke 347, Wm. G. Parker 157, Jesse E. Frisbee 157, Alvin Libbey 157; Town Treasurer and Collector, L. P. Call 345, D. F. Williams 157; Town Agent, Francis Bacon 347, E. C. Spinney 158; Supt. School Committee, Calvin L. Hayes 347, Joel Wilson 157; Board of Health, M. T. Wentworth 308, John D. Lawrence 305, Azeriah L. Spinney 303, Albion W. Johnson 153, Salon Frisbee 157, Jefferson T. Lewis 157; Town Constables, R. D. Philbrick 349, L. P. Call 347, Daniel Parry 349, Wm. R. Parker 157, Geo. R. Mitchell 157, Joseph Langton 157; Auditors, J. H. Sanborn 343, M. A. Safford 347, Charles Brooks 157, Mark Dennett 157.

The Republicans elected their nominees by 186 majority. John E. Lowry, Rep., had 65 votes on a split ticket at the Point. The split Republican ticket had no Board of Health on it, by a mistake, which makes a falling off from the general ticket in the above report. The town voted to raise $2000 for highways, $1500 for support of poor, $1500 contingent and $8400 for schools. Also to build a Town Hall in 1872; Messrs. J. H. Sanborn, Daniel Frisbee, James W. Brooks, Wm. W. Locke, John Wentworth and D. M. Shapleigh being appointed a committee to choose a location and procure plans for said Hall—$25 being voted for plan. It was also voted to widen and straighten the road from Navy Yard bridge to Kittery Point, immediately; to widen and straighten Love Lane, and to build a new road from Sam'l M. Norton's house to the Post-road laid out by the County Commissioners. Voted, to tax dogs $1 per head. Voted to indefinitely postpone the proposition in regard to raising money to pay for band on Memorial Day. [The dead soldiers are not thought so much of, now they are gone, as they were when they were "going to the front"—they were "bully boys" then, for whom nothing was too good.] Voted to purchase Town Farm and stock the same, at a cost not exceeding six thousand dollars.

Mr. J. H. Sanborn was taken suddenly and severely ill in the Hall, in the afternoon, and was carried to a residence near by, where he remained last evening. K. M.

Mr. William S. Ricker was found dead in his room at the house of Mr. Gowen, of Dover, on the 14th. He had been painting Mr. G's house, and retired on the previous evening as well as usual. Heart disease is supposed to have been the cause.

At Nashua, at the recent election, Miss Langley, Republican, was a candidate for School Director, but was defeated by her father, who was on the Democratic ticket. He had a small majority.

The Governor and Council, on Friday, issued provisional certificates to Messrs. Bell and Hibbard of their election to the Forty-second Congress, they applying for the same. Mr. Parker not being present, no certificate was issued for him.

Consumption,

ITS CURE AND ITS PREVENTIVE,

By J. H. SCHENCK, M. D.

Many a human being has passed away, for whose death there was no other reason than the neglect of known and indisputably powerful means of cure. These near and dear to family and friends are sleeping the dreamless slumber into which, had they timely adopted and availed themselves of his wonderfully efficacious medicines, they would not have fallen.

Dr. Schenck has in his long practice found that wherever sufficient vitality remains, that vitality, by his medicines and his directions for their use, is quickened into healthful vigor.

In this statement there is nothing presumptuous. To the faith of the world this made no representation that is not a thousand times substantiated by living and visible works. The theory of the cure by Dr. Schenck's medicines is as simple as it is unfailing. Its philosophy requires no argument. It is self assuring, self-convincing.

The Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are the first two weapons with which the citadel of the malady is assailed. Two-thirds of the cases of consumption originate in dyspepsia and a functionally disordered liver. With this sentiment the ironclad tubes "sympathize" with the stomach. They respond to the morbific action of the liver. Here, then comes the combination, one in heart and the setting in, with all its distressing symptoms, of

CONSUMPTION.

The Mandrake Pills are composed of one of Nature's noblest gifts—to Podophyllum Peltatum. They possess all the blood-searching, alterative properties of calomel, but unlike calomel, they

"LEAVE NO STING BEHIND."

The work of cure is now beginning. The vitiated and mucous deposits in the bowels and in the alimentary canal are ejected. The liver, like a clock, is wound up. It arouses from its torpidity. The stomach acts responsively, and the patient begins to feel that he is getting, at last,

A SUPPLY OF GOOD BLOOD.

The Seaweed Tonic, in conjunction with the Pills, permeates and assimilates with the food. Chyification is now perfected, without its previous tortures. Digestion becomes painless, and the cure is seen to be at hand. There is no more flatulence, no excoriation of the stomach. An appetite sets in.

Now comes the greatest Blood Purifier ever yet given by an indigent father to his suffering child. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup comes in to perform its functions and to hasten and complete the cure. It enters at once upon its work. Nature could not be cheated. It collects and ripens the impaired and diseased portions of the lungs. In the form of gatherings it prepares them for expectoration, and lo! in a very short time the malady is vanquished, the rotten throne that it occupied is renovated and made new, and the patient, in all the dignity of regained vigor, steps forth to enjoy the manhood or womanhood that was GIVEN UP AS LOST.

The second thing is, the patients must stay in a warm room, until they get well; it is almost impossible to prevent taking cold when the lungs are diseased, but it must be prevented or a cure cannot be effected. Fresh air and riding out, especially in this season of the year, keeping the fire hot and winter seasons, are all wrong. Physicians who recommend that course lose their patients, if their lungs are badly diseased, and yet, because they are in the house they must not sit down quiet: they must walk about the room as much and as fast as the strength will bear, to get up a good circulation of blood. The patients must keep in good spirits—be determined to get well. This is a great deal to do with the appetite, and is the great point to gain.

To despair of cure after such evidence of its possibility in the worst cases, and moral cowardice in all others, is sinful. Dr. Schenck's personal statement to the Faculty of his own cure was in these modest words:

"Many years ago I was in the last stages of consumption: confined to my bed, and at one time my physicians thought that I could not live a week; then like a drowning man catching at a straw, I heard of, and obtained the preparations which I now offer to the public, and they made a perfect cure of me. It seemed as the moment I could feel them penetrate my whole system. They soon ripened the matter in my lungs, and I would spit up more than a pint of offensive yellow matter every morning for a long time. As soon as that began to subside, my cough, fever, pains and night sweats all began to leave me, and my appetite became so great that it was with difficulty that I could keep from eating too much. I gained my strength, and have grown in flesh ever since."

"I was weighed recently after my recovery," added the doctor, "then looking like a mere skeleton; my weight was only ninety-seven pounds; my present weight is two hundred and twenty-five (225) pounds, and for years I have enjoyed uninterrupted health."

Dr. Schenck has discontinued his professional visits to New York and Boston. He or his son, Dr. J. H. Schenck, will be found ready to see patients at their office, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, every Saturday from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged $5. The Respirometer declares the condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not.

The directions for taking the medicines are adapted to the intelligence even of a child. Follow these directions, and kind Nature will do the rest, excepting that in some cases the alterative pills are to be taken in increased doses; the three medicines need no other accompaniments than the simple instructions that accompany them: First, create appetite. Of returning health hunger is the most welcome symptom. When it comes, as it will come, with the commencement of a healthy blood, good blood at once follows, the cough loosens, the night sweats cease, and in a short time both of these most hideous symptoms are gone forever.

Dr. Schenck's medicines are constantly kept in tens of thousands of families as a laxative or purgative, the Mandrake Pills are a standard preparation while the Pulmonic Syrup is a cure of coughs and colds, may be regarded as a prophylactic against consumption in any of its forms. Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic $1.50, a bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills, 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists and dealers.

FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

ON A COMPLETED ROAD,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway.

The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mortgage issue dealt in at the Stock Exchange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 2½ per cent. interest, instead of 5 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for re-investment.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. f2d6WeS

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY!

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. 1yrdawBSp

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40 000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, to a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

			Difference in Cash.	Incr'd annual Int. Exchange. upon investment.

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.

SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!

JAY COOKE & CO.,

Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS

—OF THE—

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all its franchises; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold. The Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of Seven and Three-Tenths Per Cent. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at Ten Per Cent. Premium (or 1.10,) in exchange for the Government 5-20's, at their Cash Price.

In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacific, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply them, or exchange any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for all marketable securities.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eod3mdaSmwfe26

YOU CAN'T RAISE COTTON BY FREE LABOR was the old Democratic bugbear, but it doesn't bear the test of facts. The New Orleans Times of March 8th says:

The cotton receipts of this port are already over 1,000,000 bales, and the cry is, still they come. Every boat comes into port loaded down to the guards, and almost hidden from view by the enormous piles of bales. Monday morning there were 30,000 bales on the levee, which had been brought in between Friday night and Monday. On Sunday 12,000 bales were on board of steam-boats nearly the whole day, waiting for space on the levee to deposit them. And from all quarters of the south-west reports of large quantities awaiting shipment. Withall, too, there remain thousands of acres unpicked, whitening the fields for miles; there is not the labor to pick them, nor would it pay at present rates. The price of cotton now is reduced to the rates before the war, and with nearly as large a product. The wonder is how this was all done with free labor, and the absence of the negro women from the fields, and in refutation of the prophecies and calculations of the most sagacious and far-seeing. The remarkable favorableness of the season will account for a great deal, but not for all of this immense production. Much is due to the newly-awakened enterprise and energy of the Southern people.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

WALTHAM
WATCHES.
The extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, have thoroughly demonstrated their strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.
More than 500,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.
The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enables them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.
These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watch-making originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which secure testing by the most skillful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.
Among the many improvements we would particularize:—
The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main-springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Dingle's patent pinion as being the best and safest.
Hardened and tempered hair-springs, now universally admitted by Watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.
All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movement from dust and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.
Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch is already a decided success, and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. To those letting in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mentioned improvements, which tend to ensure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.
The trademarks of the various styles made by the Company are as follows:—

CRUISING.

What are the days but islands,
So many little islands,
And sleep the sea of silence
That flows about them all?
There, when the moon is risen,
The peaceful waters glisten;
But yonder plashing—listen!
It is the souls that fall.

The little boats are skimming,
The wind-led boats are skimming,
Each in its silver rimming,
Apart from fleet and shore.
There not an oar is dipping—
With just a cable's slipping
Glides out the phantom shipping
That wanders evermore.

Every day's an island,
A green or barren island,
A lowland or a highland,
That looks upon the sea.
There fruitful groves are crowning;
There barren cliffs are frowning,
And rocky channels drowning
The little boats that flee.

How many are the islands,
The teeming, talking islands,
That in the sea of silence
The roving vessels find?
Their number no man knoweth;
Their way the current showeth;
The tide returnless floweth
As each is left behind.

The sailors long to tarry—
For rest they long to tarry—
When at some isle of faery
They touch and go ashore.
With songs of wistful pleading
They follow fate unheeding,
And with the tide's receding
Are drifting as before.

But sometime, in the sailing,
The blind and endless sailing,
They pass beyond the hailing
Of land upon the lee:
The lowlands and the highlands,
And all beyond the islands,
Behold the sea of silence—
Behold the great white sea.

Correspondence.

NORTH HAMPTON, March 20th.

Messrs. Editors:—The Ladies Social Union of this place lately held two Levees to procure funds with which to repair the inside of the Church. The exercise, which consisted of singing and declamations, were very good, and everything passed off satisfactorily. Were we disposed to be critical, we should say that some things had better have been omitted, considering the place, but as we "unbelievers" are not considered good judges in these matters, we suppose that it must be considered as all right, and that "the end justifies the means."

Charlie E. Batchelder, of this town, owns a five-year-old heifer, half Ayrshire and Durham, raised by Samuel F. French, which has lately produced a male calf that weighed 100 pounds. Charlie has nice horses and carriages, and is always on hand on the arrival of every train, to convey passengers who may wish his services to their destination with dispatch and at moderate charges. His brother George is the popular and efficient Conductor on the E. R. R., and it is a fact well known to the patrons of the road, that wind and weather permitting, the train is always on time when "Batch" is Conductor.

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU CURES DISEASES ARISING FROM IMPRUDENCES, HABITS OF DISSIPATION, &c., In all their stages, at little expense, little or no change in diet, no inconvenience, and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire, and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, Allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all Poisonous matter.
Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "powerful astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after Marriage.
Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. PRICE, ONE DOLLAR AND FIFTY CENTS PER BOTTLE.
L
HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

It speedily eradicates PIMPLES, SPOTS, SCORBUTIC DRYNESS, INDURATIONS of the CUTANEOUS MEMBRANE, etc., dispels REDNESS and INCIPIENT INFLAMMATION, HIVES, RASH, MOTH PATCHES, DRYNESS OF SCALP OR SKIN, FROST BITES, and all purposes for which SALVES or OINTMENTS are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principle claim to unbounded patronage, by possessing qualities which render it a TOILET APPENDAGE of the most Superlative and Congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, SAFETY and EFFICACY—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a Preservative and Refresher of the Complexion. It is an excellent Lotion for diseases of a Syphilitic Nature, and as an injection for diseases of the Urinary Organs, arising from habits of dissipation; used in connection with the EXTRACTS BUCHU, SARSAPARILLA, AND CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS, in such diseases as recommended, cannot be surpassed. WEDNESDAY, MARCH 22, 1871.

THE ELECTION.

The State senate stands five Republicans to six Democrats, as reported. Fling, in the tenth district, has but six majority, and Thrasher, in the eleventh, has nineteen; both Democrats. The Statesman claims the house to stand 166 Republicans to 164 Democrats—giving to the Democrats in the organization four Labor Reformers. The Monitor gives the Republicans 164, Democrats 162, Labor Reformers 4. The Patriot classes the Labor Reformers as Democrats and claims that 168 Democrats and 162 Republicans are elected to the House.

☞ The Boston News asks if the Republican party can be saved! We answer that it can be saved—but only by cutting loose from such rabid temperance men (whose organ is the News) as have already been the means of its partial defeat in New Hampshire.

☞ A Concord dispatch says:—

Allotments of office, the complete ousting of the present incumbents, and the change of the acts relative to the supreme judicial courts to enable a complete rotation on the bench, are subjects of discussion in democratic circles.

Such innocent amusement may please the discussers very much, but they mustn't count chickens as theirs until said chickens are hatched. Neither need they consider themselves endorsed by a majority of the voters who came to the polls last week, for with the most popular man in their ranks for a gubernatorial candidate, they have failed to give him one-half the vote thrown. The question as to who is to rule the State the coming fiscal year is debatable, but the question as to who shall rule the State in 1872 is not debatable—next year's election isn't going by default: neither will it go Democratic.

CONGRESS.

In the House, on the 20th, Mr. Hale of Maine introduced a bill to compensate the officers and crew of the United States steamer Kearsarge for the destruction of the rebel cruiser Alabama.

A concurrent resolution to adjourn on the 23d was passed—121 to 54.

PARIS.

Minister Washburne telegraphed on the 19th that the National Guards had possession of the city. All the members of the Thiers government and the whole diplomatic corps have gone to Versailles.

There was an election for communes on the 20th.

Gen. Chanzy was captured while trying to subdue the mob. Most of his troops joined the rioters and he was tried and shot.

General Lecompte was abandoned by the troops and arrested on the heights of Montmartre. General Thomas was arrested in plain clothes. The latter's last word was, "Cowards." He fell at the third discharge. The corpses were mutilated.

There are 40,000 troops posted at Versailles, but it is considered extremely doubtful whether their services could be relied on for support of the government in an emergency.

The acknowledged leader of the insurgents and one who has been foremost and prominent in all the recent disturbances, is a self-styled General Duval.

All approaches to Paris are guarded by Nationals, for the purpose of preventing invasion.

Fresh barricades have been erected, but there is a general quietude. Omnibuses have stopped running and traffic ceased. The Nationals have occupied Forts Issy, Vanvres and Bicetre.

The Committee repudiates all participation in the execution of Generals Le Comte and Thomas.

Orders have been issued by the German military authorities, stopping the departure of German troops from France, and ordering strong bodies of troops to points nearer Paris.

☞ The barque Cornwall has been sunk by a collision with the steamer Himalaya, and 11 persons were drowned.

☞ A distinct shock of an earthquake was felt in all the northern counties of England on Friday night.

☞ Parties in Europe have offered to take the entire 5 per cent. loan.

—It costs about $357,000 a year to "run" one of our first-class naval frigates, after the sum of $2,000,000 has been swallowed in her construction.

—Theodore Monroe, a colored man, from Charleston, S. C., originally, is said to have acquired an extended reputation as a physician at Cairo, Egypt.

—Horace Greeley is an artist—he understands wood-cutting.

Our Correspondence.

BOSTON, March 17.

Dear Chronicle:—We heard no thunder from Democratic guns over your election, but we did hear the thunder from New Hampshire Republicans proclaiming that neither party ties nor party leaders could induce them to vote for measures or men they deemed unfitted for the public welfare.

The farce of a State Constabulary to enforce a sumptuary law, so long enacted in Massachusetts, will not now be likely to be foisted upon New Hampshire. I do not mean to decry the force or the principle for which it was organized, but experience has proved the futility of attempting to enforce a statute to which the public are really opposed.

The outspoken words in the Chronicle as to the causes of the Republican reverse in New Hampshire are highly commended by voters of that State resident at the "Hub."

St. Patrick's Day has passed off very quietly. An immense, but orderly crowd was on the streets to witness the procession, which, despite lowering skies and muddy walking, was long and imposing. Many buildings were tastefully decorated, the Pilot office deserving especial mention.

The florists are offering so many beautiful and desirable plants, both old and new, that the purchaser is puzzled where to curtail his covetousness in this matter of fragance and elegance. The city forester, Mr. John Galvin, on Tremont Street, near the corner of Bacon Street, will supply everything desirable in the exotic or domestic line, and a great deal larger variety than most persons will wish to pay for. He will be found reasonable in charges and accommodating in his dealings.

Yours, M.

Last year she attended to all her household and dairy duties, made 300 pounds of butter, raised $50 worth of poultry, and achieved $160 worth of wool work.

The Laconia Democrat estimates that $500 was paid out for sheep killed in Belknap country, last year.

The town of Lee has voted, on conditions, to invest 5 per cent. of its valuation in the Rochester & Nashua R. R.

Also voted to widen, straighten and newlocate the road from the Village Post-office to Short Sands Beach. S.

Communication.

ASTRONOMICAL.—The present time on pleasant evenings, is a good opportunity to view the Siderial heavens. Venus, Mars and Jupiter are very conspicuous. Venus in the West, setting at about half past 7. Mars rises at sunset and shining in the east very bright at 8 o'clock, and was in opposition to the sea on the 20th inst., and consequently now in her greatest splendor. Jupiter is a little over midway in the Northern heavens at 8 o'clock, little west of the Zenith and ranges about North of the bright fixed star Sirius, which is on the meridan about half past 7. West from Sirius is the beautiful constellation of Orion, consisting of 78 stars, the most splendid of all in the heavens. Perhaps there is no time in the whole year that the heaven are so resplendent with beauty, as the month of March. Sirius' distance from the earth is estimated by astronomers to be not less than sixty-two billions, four hundred and eighty-one thousand millions of miles, and yet Sirius is supposed to be the nearest of all the fixed stars. This enormous distance is susceptible of mathematical demonstration.

TYRO.

☞ The attention of the musical world has been much attracted by the improvements in organs making introduced by George Woods & Co., in their new styles of Parlor and Vestry Organs. They invite the attention of all interested in music, and the elevation of all that pertains to it; to their advertisement in another column. All organists, teachers, and music dealers are invited to examine into the merits of their intruments, particularly as shown in their latest style of Number Thirteen Celeste Organ.

☞ Tuesday morning's despatches record one man burned to death, two men murdered in New York, one in Louisville, a woman in Indiana and three persons killed by a tornado in St. Louis.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

LONGER AND BETTER—the wearing of boots and shoes made with the CABLE SCREW WIRE, than any other glass of goods. Many heavy firms deal exclusively in them, and all first-class retailers have them. Comfortable, economical and durable, they need only a trial.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Be Guided By What You Know.

There is an old proverb which says, "Experience is the safest guide." To this guide the sick and ailing naturally turn when casting about for the means of relief. They inquire what a medicine has done for others, before they adopt it themselves. Of all the remedies and preventives in use, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS meets the test most triumphantly, and hence its immense popularity and vast sales. The sufferer from indigestion is sure to find some one among his friends who has been cured of that ailment by the famous vegetable stomachic. The victim of fever and ague, liver complaint, constipation, nervous prostration, or general debility, has only to make inquiry in the neighborhood where he resides in order to discover what this standard restorative has effected in cases similar to his own. In the published testimony to its merits he will find a volume of proofs of its sanitary properties, which it is impossible for his common sense to resist. He tries it, and the effect it produces on his system adds another to the host of witnesses in its favor. Thus, its reputation, founded on facts, not assertions, continually grows and spreads. Charlatans and impostors, some of them mere local tricksters, and others who take a somewhat wilder range, attempt to thrust into the hands and down the throats of invalids, their haphazard concections, as substitutes for the great tonic which for so many years has been a successful medicinal staple throughout the United States, Spanish America, Canada and the West Indies, but only succeed to a very limited extent. In this reasoning age, the people, having ascertained what is really deserving of their confidence, decline "running after strange gods."

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

"Against what?" asks the reader. Why, against the POISONS, vile, maddening and deadly, advertised as "superior to all Hair Dyes." But, on second thoughts, the call "to arms!" is unnecessary. The wretched trash is already being driven out of the market. It has received the coup de grace from

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The popularity of this time-tried article increases every hour. Everybody is talking of the "natural shades" it imparts, and there is no conceivable reason why it should not be used, being (as Professor CHILTON states in his certificate) PERFECTLY HARMLESS. TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

"MR. R. H. EDDY has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. ☞ The Crispins have the last dance of their course (postponed from last week) at Congress Hall this evening.

☞ The Probate Court held a session here, on Tuesday. The will of the late Harriet Brewster was approved.

☞ Trafton's Masquerade comes off at Congress Hall to-morrow (Thursday) evening, and will probably be the last one of the season. See adv't.

☞ Mr. John Rogers, Kittery's well-known Seedsman and Florist, has issued a descriptive catalogue of the plants and seeds he has for sale at his Nursery.

☞ Extensive sale of Dry Goods this day, Wednesday, by Auctioneer Wendell, at the store occupied by Mr. Jos. A. Grace on Market Street. The sale is positive and unreserved, Mr. Grace having relinquished the business. See advertisement.

☞ Steamer Cambridge, Johnson, from Bangor for Boston, with 700 passengers and a full freight, being unable to proceed on her voyage on account of the rough weather, anchored in the lower harbor, Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock.

☞ An enthusiastic Republican of this city got excited one day since election, because another Republican accused him of voting for Weston. His indignation increased at the reiteration of the charge, and he was only soothed by being reminded that Weston (George W.) was the Republican candidate for Register of Deeds in this county.

☞ A term of the U. S. District Court was held here on Tuesday, Judge Clark presiding. An order was made for the sale of the masts, sails, &c., of the wreck of the schooner Eric, which had been libelled, and a division of the proceeds thereof. Messrs. Moses N. Jenkins and Geo. E. Hodgdon were admitted as counsellors and attorneys at this court.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—As the morning train from this city for Boston was leaving Biddeford Monday morning, a drunken man by the name of Albert Piper got on board, and making some disturbance, the conductor put him off at the next station. He again got on and was again put off at North Berwick. When the train started from this station, Piper again attempted to get on but was thrown off and three passenger cars passed over his right arm near the shoulder. Dr. Hall of Biddeford amputated the arm, and the man is doing as well as can be expected. We understand he belongs in Portsmouth, N. H.—Portland Advertiser.

☞ Mr. Joshua H. Sanborn of Kittery was on Monday attending the annual election of town officers there. At about 2 P. M. he fell senseless in Armory Hall, where the town meeting was in session, and up to 8 o'clock Tuesday morning had not regained consciousness. He is a Representative in the Maine legislature.

P. S. A dispatch from our correspondent at Kittery, received Tuesday evening, informs us that Mr. Sanborn died without recovering his speech after he was taken ill.

☞ We publish this morning the advertisement of an entertainment to be given at the Temple on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week. The following letter from the M. E. minister of Fitchburg, Mass., explains itself:—

FITCHBURG, Jan. 28th.

Dear Bro. Frost:—It gives me great pleasure to express to you my unqualified approval of your Exhibition of "Scenes in the life of Joseph and his Brethren," as presented in our Town Hall, on the evenings of the 25th and 26th inst.

Of the many exhibitions of the like character, I have seen none which can compare with its appropriateness and richness of costumes, while the scenes protrayed of that always thrilling history, under your excellent management, are at once impressive and truly magnificent.

While the call is everywhere for amusement for the young, it is more than a pleasure, it is a duty which the moral guides of the young owe to themselves and especially to the rising generation, to call their attention from immoral exhibitions, which often allure but to destroy, by recommending and patronizing your chaste, instructive and moral portrayal of that piece of Biblical history which no romance can surpass in touching pathos and instructive interest.

I heartily wish you success in your good work and commend your exhibition to all who have charge of Sunday Schools.

OBITUARY.—Died, in this city, on the morning of Tuesday, March 21st, SAMUEL LORD, Esq. Mr. Lord was the son of Gen. John Lord, was born in South Berwick, Me., and in his 83d year at the time of his death. He came to this city in 1804, was educated in the counting room of the late N. A. & J. Haven, and was for several years engaged in mercantile business. He became Cashier of the Piscataqua Bank in 1825, went through its chartered existence, 20 years, and wound it up favorably. In 1845 he became Cashier of the Piscataqua Exchange Bank, and wound it up favorably also, after its 20 years charter expired. Eight years ago he became Cashier of the First National Bank in this city, which was the first National Bank organized in the country; and he performed the duty of Cashier in that Bank until within a few days of his death. During a period of 50 years, in three banks, he has probably not been prevented from making the weekly statement fifteen times, by ill health.

He was for 45 years Treasurer of the Portsmouth Savings Bank, which originated with him, was organized under his direction and influence, and which became under his administration one of the most useful and successful Savings Banks in the country. He was Treasurer of the Portsmouth Company at South Berwick for a long time, and of the Pittsfield Company at Pittsfield; conducted for many years the most extensive Insurance Agency in this section of the country; and held other important trusts, in all of which he displayed great ability, unequalled diligence and spotless integrity.—He was twice married.—His first wife, and the mother of his children, was a daughter of the late Gen. Michael McClary of Epson. His second wife was a daughter of Dr. Whittredge of Tiverton, R. I.; she died some years ago. He has for 50 years been a member of the Unitarian Church, and for most of that long period a Deacon.

For 50 years Mr. Lord has left his home and proceeded to his daily avocation with more than the regularity of clock-work, never swerving from the most exact punctuality except in case of sickness—a rare thing indeed with him. His long connection with banking of course brought him in contact with a great number of persons of the highest financial ability; and we are assured by one who is himself ranked high, that Mr. Lord was regarded as one of the best financiers in this part of the country. In private and business life he was ever affable and courteous; and the many with whom he was associated in daily intercourse speak of him with a feeling which seems warmer than mere friendship. Many will cherish his memory with affection; if he had enemies, we know not of them.

☞ The rain came down freely on Tuesday, but it was a warm rain, very unlike a traditional March storm. The grass in many places begins to wear Spring colors, and everything looks as though the clerk of the weather had turned over two leaves of his almanac at once, and thus skipped one month altogether. Hope he won't find out his blunder, or attempt to rectify it if he does discover it.

☞ Steamship Walrus, which left St. John's, N. F., on the 1st inst., has returned with a cargo of 15,000 seals, taken off Funk's Island a week ago. The captain of the Walrus reports thirty sails of vessels in the ice, all of which were loaded and had borne up for home. The captain also stated that he was for days together surrounded by seals as far as the eye could see.

☞ Another terrible and destructive tornado passed over St. Louis county, Missouri, on Tuesday night.

☞ William H. Burleigh, a well known writer, died recently in Brooklyn, aged 59 years.

☞ The San Domingo Commissioners are expected home within a week.

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS, whether transient notices or by yearly contracts, are inserted in both the Daily Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, or in either one of these papers only, as desired. And while there is no better advertising medium in this County, our rates are reasonable, especially to regular yearly patrons.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING.—We have made great additions to our jobbing facilities—a mammoth Hand Press (the largest in Portsmouth,) new Display Type, Borders of various styles, &c.—and are prepared to execute with neatness and dispatch, all orders for FULL SHEET POSTERS, DATE SLIPS, PAMPHLETS, SERMONS, ADDRESSES, AUCTION BILLS, CONSTITUTIONS, BY LAWS, PROGRAMMES, HANDBILLS, CIRCULARS, ORDERS DANCES, BLANKS, BILL HEADS, RECEIPTS, TICKETS, BUSINESS, MARRIAGE, ADDRESS AND VISITING CARDS, LABELS, TAGS, and in fact PRINTING OF ANY DESCRIPTION, at SATISFACTORY PRICES. Orders received by mail, express, or at the CHRONICLE OFFICE will be promptly filled.

TRY IT!

How well we remember in days that are gone,
The nausea we felt as we saw the cork drawn—
The disgust—the recoil
From "Cod Liver Oil,"
Dealt out to poor souls in the days that are gone!
But who could complain
Of this to be ta'en?
It swallows as easy as sparkling Champagne—
Does "Marvins' Deodorized Oil."

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR DISEASES OF THE THROAT and LUNGS, such as COUGHS, COLDS, WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA and CONSUMPTION.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men, it has been held in ever higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most efficacious remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it,

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

For a Cough and Cold, no better remedy can be had. Take small doses three times a day and put the feet in warm water at night, until the disease is broken up.

For Influenza, when it affects the throat or lungs, take the same course.

For Whooping Cough, give small doses three or four times a day.

For Croup, give large and frequent doses until the disease is overcome.

No family should be without the Cherry Pectoral on hand to protect them, in case of attack, from the above complaints. It may use often spare the patient a great amount of suffering and risk, which he would incur by waiting until he could get other aid. Parents, keep it in your houses for the exigencies that arise. Live dear to you may be saved by it.

So generally are its virtues known, that we need not publish certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that the best qualities it ever possessed are strictly maintained.

FIRST MORTGAGE

7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,

ON A COMPLETED ROAD,

FREE OF U. S. TAX,

At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway.

The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mortgage issue dealt in at the Stock Exchange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis; for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 9½ per cent. interest, instead of 5 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for reinvestment.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. f24dWaS

A GREAT MEDICAL DISCOVERY!

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Root and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, passessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs. lyrdawSebly

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD CO

OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage

7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40 000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, on a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.

SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!

JAY COOKE & CO.,

Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the

FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS

——OF THE——

Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold—the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of SEVEN AND THREE-TENTHS PER CENT. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at TEN PER CENT. PREMIUM (or $110,) in exchange for the Company's lands at the lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income larger, we believe, than any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacifics, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for them, can do so with any of our Agents, who will allow the highest current price for ALL MARKETABLE SECURITIES.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eod3mdaJnwh4s

APRIL MAGAZINES.

Peterson's has "Blowing Bubbles" for a frontispiece. "How Dell fell in Love" is illustrated. The usual assortment of stories and fashion talk is of general interest. Chas. J. Peterson, Phila. $2 a year.

Demorest's has the latest Spring fashions, stories and poems. 883 Broadway, N. Y. $3 a year.

Scribner's has an entertaining list of contents. "The Anthracite Problem" is an interesting history of the Pennsylvania coal troubles,—tracing the causes of the recent strike, and pointing out the means by which such disastrous difficulties may be averted. Dr. Holland discusses, in the "Topics of the Time," "Professional Morality," "The Temperance Question and the Press," and "The San Domingo Question." The illustrated articles are "Life in the Cannibal Islands;" a curious microscopic disquisition on "The Fly;" an account of the recent "Discovery of Antique Silver" in Europe, and an article on "Children who Work." The publishers promise great attractions for their second volume, which begins in May—among other thing, a fine portrait of MacDonald, whose "Wilfrid Cumbermede" is proving so popular; a new story by Mrs. Oliphant: some marvelous chapters of discovery, &c.

The North British Review for January, republished by the Leonard Scott Publishing Company, New York, is we are sorry to say, discontinued by its publishers in Edinburgh, stopping with the present number. The republishers in New York have, however, with commendable promptness, made arrangements to supply its place with a very valuable addition to their already valuable reprints — namely, The British Quarterly, the whole four numbers of which for the year 1871 will be furnished to subscribers, thus giving the January number gratis.

Godey's has "Toby is Wanted," a steel plate, colored fashion-plate, a plate of riding-habits, an "April-Fool" engraving, extension sheet, containing thirty-eight engravings, and a great variety of fancy work designs in the work department. A beautiful design of an American Bracketed Villa is given. In the literary department there is a great amount of reading that is exceedingly diversified and interesting.

The Galaxy opens with a portrait of "Carl Benson," which we suspect is not of the highest value, either as a likeness or a work of art. In the literary contents special attention will be drawn by the papers on "Lee at Gettysburg," by General Imboden of the rebel army; "Captain Hall's Arctic Expedition," by Professor T. B. Maury; and "Victor Emanuel, King of Italy," by Mr. Justin McCarthy. Mark Twain reappears as a contributor in this number, but it is a valedictory appearance. A new humorous department, edited by Dona Piatt, will succeed his "Memoranda."

Brete Harte contributes one of his best poems to The Art Review for March, entitled "The Hawk's Nest," which is accompanied by a most exquisite illustration, by True Williams. The current number of this elegant magazine is superbly printed, and has a brilliant table of contents. Send 25 cents for a specimen copy, to The Art Review, 39 Park Row, New York; or, 115 Madison street, Chicago.

The Phrenological Journal appears in its usual becoming dress, and contains an excellent variety of reading matter with several portraits. We would instance — Misses Nilsson and Demorest, with portraits; Henry Burden and Elias P. Needham, two Inventors of the day; the late Boy Suicides; Edward C. Delavan; Italians in New York; Tree planting in America; General "Stonewall" Jackson; The Anglo-Saxon Civilization as typified in Alfred the Great; Slavery without a master; Wm. K. Bowling, M. D.; Alice Cary, the poet; Genius and Honesty. $3 a year. S. R. Wells, 389 Broadway, N. Y.

The Lady's Friend has The Norse Princess, a steel plate. The fashion Plate presents a group of graceful ladies most stylishly attired in fresh Spring costumes; and an abundant variety of illustrations show the latest shapes for basques, overskirts, sashes, &c. Three Versions of the Same Story is a sprightly little feminine sketch. One Woman's Experience begins a story of uncommon excellence. Mademoiselle Delgay is concluded. The Beauties of Belvidere is continued, and The Wedding Gift, Kathleen's Engagement and Aunt Dorcas keep up the high reputation of this magazine for attractive short stories. $2 50 a year (which also includes a large steel engraving.) Deacon & Peterson, Philadelphia.

The Monthly Novelette contains interesting reading matter,—stories, poetry, wit and humor, and some noted illustrations, and is entirely free from lectures and reviews, for which ladies care but little. The contents are The Baronet's Daughter, illustrated; Sunshine; Antagonism; Last Words; My Hours of Peril; The Sorceress of the Cannibal Islands; Boston Light in a Snowstorm; An Adventure in Mexico; A False Step, or, The Fortunes and Misfortunes of Fred Wilder; Anecdotes Wit and Humor, &c. Thomes & Talbot, 63 Congress Street, Boston; $2 per year. Sample copy 15 cents.

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is now restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.

Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for useful uses by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.

If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

WALTHAM

WATCHES.

The extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of those time-keepers.

More than 300,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enables them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watch-making originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skilful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:—

The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main-spring, which, with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Rugg's patent pinion as being the best and faultless.

Hardened and tempered hair-springs, now universally admitted by Watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movements from dust and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch is already a decided success, and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mentioned improvements, which tend to ensure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

The trademarks of the various styles made by the Company are as follows:—

MASSACHUSETTS.— It seems that General Benjamin F. Butler proposes to be Governor of Massachusetts immediately and United States Senator eventually, and that he relies upon the Labor Party, Wendell Phillips and "the soldier element", to carry out the programme. Dr. Loring is to succeed Butler in Congress. All of which is exceedingly interesting, but we fail to discover, in all of it, what is to become of Major Ben Perley Poore of Washington: In the original conspiracy he was a conspicuous feature, but he seems now to have dropped out. A few weeks ago Dr. Loring—who has been for some years past Butler's fugleman and manager, receiving as a reward therefor the latter's profusest promises of support of the Doctor for Governor—having heard rumors that Butler was slanting his off eye towards the Gubernatorial chair, posted to Washington in great haste. Rushing to Perley Poore's room he seized that unctuous correspondent by the hand, and after a hasty exchange of salutations, begged him to accompany him to Butler's rooms. The two went; Loring excited, Poore comparatively calm, but profoundly curious as to what ailed Loring, and on the whole not hopeless of an item. They entered to Butler and confronted him.

Short time was spent in preliminaries. "General," said the Doctor, "I have heard, and it is pretty generally believed at home, that you have made up your mind to be Governor; and that Major Poore here is to give you his support in The Journal upon condition that you help him secure the nomination for Congress in your district. What I want to know is, is it true?"

The Doctor was excited, manifestly, Butler manifestly was not. With one eye on Poore and the other on Loring, and between both taking in the whole situation, he replied with great deliberation and solemnity:

"Dr. Loring, I give you my word that Major Poore has never made any such proposition to me."

To Poore's utter disgust, Dr. Loring did not pursue the inquiry further. But Poore remarked subsequently that the solemn manner in which Butler got it off was worth going a great way to see.—Hartford Post

A MONKEY STORY.—A monkey, which was permitted to run free, had frequently seen the men-servants in the great country-kitchen take down a powder-horn that stood on the chimney piece, and throw a few grains in the fire to make the maids scream, which they always did on such occasions. Pug waited his opportunity, and when all was still he clambered up, got possession of the well-filled powder-horn, perched himself gingerly on one of the horizontal wheels placed for the support of saucepans, right over the warm ashes of an almost extinct wood-fire, screwed off the top of the horn, and reversed it over the grate. The explosion sent him half way up the chimney. Before he was blown up he was a sung, trim, well-conditioned monkey; he came down carbonated. The weight with which he pitched upon the hot ashes in the midst of the general flare-up, aroused him to a sense of his condition. He was missing for days. Hunger at last drove him forth, and he sneaked into the house, looking scared; but, like some other personages, he never got over his sudden elevation and fall. If ever Pug forgot himself and was troublesome, you had only to take down a powder-horn in his presence, and he was off to his hole like a shot, screaming, and chattering his jaws like a pair of castanets.

—It is reported that the Harpers have suffered to the extent of forty thousand dollars for Nast's caricatures of the Pope—all the school-books they publish having been taken off the list used in the New York public schools. Probably the Harpers can stand it better than the schools. But we think those who authorized this "taking off" stand greatly in need of some kind of school-books.

—A youngster, while perusing a chapter in Genesis, asked his mother if the people in those days used to do sums on the ground. It was discovered that he had been reading the passage, "And the sons of men multiplied upon the face of the earth."

—The hotel in Chetopa, Kansas, is temporarily closed on account of a little difficulty between the cook and the proprietor, which was settled with a pistol. The proprietor is in the grave, and the cook is in jail.

—It is said that the women of America are rapidly growing more beautiful.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,
FOR DISEASES OF THE THROAT and LUNGS, such as COUGHS, COLDS, WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA and CONSUMPTION.
Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men, it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.
Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured by the application of this remedy, and restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that in many instances of them, yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.
Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.
Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.
Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.
For a Cough and Cold, no better remedy can be had. Take small doses three times a day and put the feet in warm water at night, until the disease is broken up.
For Influenza, when it affects the throat or lungs, take the same course.
For Whooping Cough, give small doses three or four times a day.
For Croup, give large and frequent doses until the disease is overcome.
No family should be without the Cherry Pectoral on hand to protect them, in case of attack, from the above complaints. Its timely use often spares the patient a great amount of suffering and risk, which he would incur by waiting until he could get other aid. Parents, keep it in your houses for the exigencies that arise. Lives dear to you may be saved by it.
So generally are its virtues known, that we need not publish certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that the best qualities it ever possessed are strictly maintained.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, MARCH 23, 1871.

FRANCE.

The German government, besides issuing an order stopping the return to Germany of the German troops in France, have also issued an order for immediately ceasing the return and delivery of the French prisoners held by Germany, and stopping the dismissal of the land-wehr.

Gens. Chanzy and Vinoy were not killed by the mob at Paris, but are alive and well.

The insurgent government announces that the forts will immediately be armed to insure the defence of the capital. It has also sent an ultimatum to M. Thiers, fixing the 23d instant as the last day for the return of the assembly to Paris. If they return they shall have the liberty of action, and if they refuse the national guard will march to Versailles and disperse them.

The million in the Bank of France has been removed to Versailles; all unissued notes are destroyed.

THE SAN DOMINGO COMMISSION.—The Tennessee with the San Domingo commission on board arrived at Key West on the 21st, five days and six hours from Kingston. The whole party, including the officers and crew of the ship, are in excellent health. Mr. Wade has his report finished, to which Mr. Howe has agreed. The report is about two columns long. Mr. White wishes to add considerable, but may agree to it with a few amendments. The report is in the main favorable to annexation. The chief features deemed somewhat unfavorable are connected with the question of debt, boundary and grants.

FAST-DAY PROCLAMATION.

With a sense of the propriety of publicly observing a day of Fasting, Humiliation and Prayer, I hereby designate for that purpose, with the advice and consent of the Council, Thursday the sixth day of April next. And I would recommend to the people of the State, that they meet together in their usual places of public worship, to make common supplication and prayer to God, our Heavenly Father.

That He may be pleased to look with mercy upon human transgressions, to regard with pity the weakness of frail humanity, "to satisfy the longing soul, and fill the hungry soul with goodness;" to be a light to "such as sit in darkness and the shadow of death," and to give fullness of comfort to the sorrowing and the bereaved.

That He may be pleased to continue His favor unto His children during the coming year, by crowning the labors of their various industries with success, and by attracting their hearts, in the midst of earthly occupations, to the Divine love, so that their lives may be ordered in the spirit and power of the gospel of Christ.

Given at the Council Chamber in Concord, this 17th day of March, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and of the Independence of the United States the ninety-fifth.

ONSLOW STEARNS,
Governor.

BREVITIES.

Emperor William opened the German Parliament with a grandiloquent address.

The Marquis of Lorne and the Princess Louise of England have been successfully married.

John W. Forney has accepted the Collectorship of Philadelphia, proffered him by the President. Salary, $8000 per annum.

NAVAL.—It is reported that the monitors at League Island will be offered for sale soon, on account of the decay in the wooden beams, which cannot be repaired without great expense.

The Narragansett has sailed for San Francisco direct from New York via the Straits of Magellan.

☞ Henry and James Brunell, sons of Bonaparte Brunell, of Wickford, R. I., were found smothered to death under an old cave in that village on the 21st. In the morning they had gone in there to play, and the rain caused the cave to fall in, and they were buried. They were eight and six years old respectively.

☞ The new back built for Judge Butler and others, opposite the Ocean House, Newburyport, began a launch on Tuesday, and after going her length the ways broke down leaving the vessel on the timbers, whence she probably cannot be removed for some time; moral for ship builders—take heed of your ways.

☞ Newburyport boasts of a Board of Trade with one of its most prominent business men as President. It has been a felt presence recently in causing the proposed extension of the Railroad to the wharves, and the appropriations for clearing the obstructions in the Merrimack river. What has our Board accomplished?

Our Correspondence.

PORTLAND, ME., March 20.

Eds. Chronicle:—Like good medicine, the New Hampshire election will prove a great benefit to the Republican party. Your observations as to the cause of the Democratic victory are pertinent and correct. With closed ranks and united forces the Republicans can again win in the coming elections and the Presidential fight next year.

Business is dull here, although in some quarters spring trade begins to show activity. Let Congress legislate for the benefit of trade and commerce, and the universal cry of dull times will cease.

The weather is a hackneyed topic, but this year it was with propriety be frequently alluded to. The oldest inhabitant here says "he never saw such a splendid season." Garden flowers have been picked hereabouts in every month this winter except January. The trailing Arbutus is seen already. The buds on the trees are beginning to open. A gentlemen living in Westbrook informs us he has already planted peas. The physicians here regard this season as very unhealthy, there being considerable sickness.

Physical development is the great passion of young men. Base ball, boating and such sports and labors are prominent. Some doubt exists whether they do not injure as much as improve the system. A young man recently died here, a bright youth, whose death was caused by taking severe cold after rowing. Walter Brown died from exposure. A moderate exercise daily is far better than this rush and overwork in muscular improvement.

The Maine Central R. R. Co. are to put on night trains to and from Bangor and Boston, with Pullman sleeping cars attached, leaving Bangor at 7 1-2 P. M., and Boston 6 P. M.

The leasing of the P. S. & P. road by the Eastern gives much satisfaction here, as the Eastern is an enterprising and prosperous road, and the union will be mutually beneficial. SANCHO.

—Republican journalism in Texas is fast becoming a power. The State Journal alone has a circulation of 4000 copies and its editorials by the accomplished Mr. Wheelock will compare favorably with any we ever read for ability, resinableness and political orthodoxy. Everywhere able and influential Radical papers are springing up. In 1869, we whipped the Democracy with five or six organs to their hundred. Now with twenty or thirty journals and a good cause, we ought literally to devour our enemies. Let the Ku-Klux-Klans hunt their holes.—Jefferson Radical.

DEMOCRATIC REFORM.—Those who expect great reforms under Democratic rule may be gratified to know that in the N. Y. Legislature a resolution calling up the notorious Erie Railway Directors' act was voted down by 56 yeas to 60 nays. Every one of the nays were democratic and every one of the yeas republican. The Democratic party are good on promising reform.—Boston News.

☞ William K. Davis, believed to be an American, fell or leaped from the top of the Pyramids lately, and broke his neck. His conduct had been so strange for some days that the probability is that he intended to commit suicide.

☞ The Mount Washington Glass Works Corporation at New Bedford has chosen W. L. Libbey, agent, and Henry Libbey, superintendent. The capital stock is $100,000 and is held by ten men.

☞ The political campaign in Connecticut is being conducted vigorously, and the indications are that a heavy vote will be polled April 3d.

New Hampshire Items.

On the 13th, in Lancaster, Mr. Frank Smith was seized by the nose by a vicious dog, and the nose was badly damaged.

The Supreme Court of the State has given a decision in the case of John L. Perley vs. the Boston, Concord and Montreal Railroad, reversing its decision in the case of Col. J. H. George vs. the city of Concord, involving the legality of the legal tender act.

Keene has organized a military company.

The Concord new city government was inaugurated on the 21st. The net debt of the city is $359,198, having been reduced $19,000 the past year. The valuation of the city is $5,851,918; number of taxable polls, 3187.

The Democratic Representatives from New Hampshire took their seats in the House of Representatives on the 22d.

☞ James Wilson, the murderer of Warden Willard, of the Connecticut State prison, now under sentence of death, and who fasted over nine days last fall, is again trying starvation. He has taken nothing for two days.

☞ Old newspapers for sale at this Office—35 cents a hundred.

☞ In a Massachusetts town, recently, a child, while playing with a spool, holding it in her mouth, fell, the fall forcing the spool down her throat far enough to bring its head below the tonsils and roots of the tongue, and so wedged into the mouth as to render it impossible to withdraw it without danger of taking the tongue with it. Fortunately the hole in the spool was large enough for the child to breathe through until the arrival of the doctor, who, by splitting the spool, was able to take it out in pieces, thus saving the little one's life.

☞ A Cape Neddick correspondent asserts that Mr. Donnell Weare has a cow that gave birth to a calf that weighed 140 lbs.

☞ THE NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE for this week, is now ready for delivery, at the Chronicle Office. Each number contains all the reading matter of the week's Dailies. Price $2 a year; single copies 5 cents,—in wrappers for mailing, if desired. Six copies for $10 per year, to Clubs—per mail or city carrier.

☞ ADVERTISEMENTS, whether transient notices or by yearly contracts, are inserted in both the Daily Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, or in either one of these papers only, as desired. And while there is no better advertising medium in this County, our rates are reasonable, especially to regular yearly patrons.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING.—We have made great additions to our Jobbing facilities—a mammoth Hand Press (the largest in Portsmouth,) new Display Type, Borders of various styles, &c.—and are prepared to execute with neatness and dispatch, all orders for FULL SHEET POSTERS, DATE SLIPS, PAMPHLETS, SERMONS, ADDRESSES, AUCTION BILLS, CONSTITUTIONS, BY LAWS, PROGRAMMES, HANDBILLS, CIRCULARS, ORDERS DANCES, BLANKS, BILL HEADS, RECEIPTS, TICKETS, BUSINESS, MARRIAGE, ADDRESS AND VISITING CARDS, LABELS, TAGS, and in fact PRINTING OF ANY DESCRIPTION, at SATISFACTORY PRICES. Orders received by mail, express, or at the CHRONICLE OFFICE will be promptly filled.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

LONGER AND BETTER—the wearing of boots and shoes made with the CABLE SCREW WIRE, than any other class of goods. Many heavy firms deal exclusively in them, and all first-class retailers have them. Comfortable, economical and durable, they need only a trial.

For Coughs, Bronchitis and Consumption in its early stages, nothing equals Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Medical Discovery. It is also a great blood purifier and strength restorer, or tonic, and for "Liver Complaint," Costive Conditions of the Bowels it has no equal. All Scrofulous and skin diseases as Pimples, Blotches, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas and Eruptions, yield to its wonderful properties. Sold by druggists.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Be Guided By What You Know.

There is an old proverb which says, "Experience is the safest guide." To this guide the sick and ailing naturally turn when casting about for the means of relief. They inquire what a medicine has done for others, before they adopt it themselves. Of all the remedies and preventives in use, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS meets the test most triumphantly, and hence its immense popularity and vast sales. The sufferer from indigestion is sure to find some one among his friends who has been cured of that ailment by the famous vegetable stomachic. The victim of fever and ague, liver complaint, constipation, nervous prostration, or general debility, has only to make inquiry in the neighborhood where he resides in order to discover what this standard restorative has effected in cases similar to his own. In the published testimony to its merits he will find a volume of proofs of its sanitary properties, which it is impossible for his common sense to resist. He tries it, and the result is that this old system adds another to the host of witnesses in its favor. Thus, its reputation, founded on facts, not asserions, continually grows and spreads. Charlatans and imposters, some of them mere local tricksters, and others who take a somewhat wilder range, attempt to thrust into the hands and down the throats of invalids, their haphazard concoctions, as substitutes for the great tonic which for so many years has been a standard medicinal staple throughout the United States, Spanish America, Canada and the West Indies, but only succeed to a very limited extent. In this reasoning age, the people, having ascertained what is really deserving of their confidence, decline "running after strange gods."

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

"Against what?" asks the reader. Why, against the POISONS, vile, maddening and deadly, advertised as "superior to all Hair Dyes." But, on second thoughts, the call "to arms!" is unnecessary. The wretched trash is already being driven out of the market. It has received the coup de grace from Crisindoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The popularity of this time-tried article increases every hour. Everybody is talking of the "natural shades" it imparts, and there is no conceivable reason why it should not be used, being (as Professor CHILTON states in his certificate) PERFECTLY HARMLESS. As a dressing after dyeing, use 1mdawfeb27

☞ The work of remodeling the block owned by Jones and Mendum, corner of Market Street, has commenced.

☞ Trafton's Masquerade this evening; Mr. T. has received a large assortment of costumes from Boston, to let for the evening.

☞ That great Bobadil, Henry L. Dawes, has again expressed an opinion that the Navy Yard at this Station should be abolished; yet the earth still revolves.

☞ A fine new car from the Ranlet Works, Laconia, arrived here over the C. & P. Road on Wednesday, bound east for the Knox & Lincoln R. R. It is the second car for the same destination which has passed through here this Spring and is of fine construction.

☞ At a special meeting of the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Tuesday, the proposal of Sampson L. Russell to locate the Stone Crusher on his wharf, Water Street, and to furnish the stone for 60 cents per ton, was accepted. The Mayor and Committee on Streets were authorized to make the contract, and to secure the erection of a building to cover the Crusher, if necessary.

☞ The Pawtucket (R. I.) Gazette says of Frost's Allegory and Tableaux:

We feel sure that no exhibition of tableaux and allegorical representations ever given here has produced such universal satisfaction as those above mentioned, and Mr. Frost has certainly shown a great ingenuity and skill in the arrangement and combination of the interesting scenes and beautiful tableaux. The "Rock of Ages" and "the Lord's Prayer" were really splendid.

In Trouble.—The former (original) editor of the copperhead organ in this city, who has recently retired from the editorial chair of the New Haven (Conn.) Lever, is in jail there and unable to obtain bail, charged by Colonel W. L. Tidball, who bought the paper of him, with having deceived him as to its assets, and by Mr. Wright, the original founder of it, with embezzlement. There are four cases in all, two civil and two criminal. Bonds to the amount of $5000 have been required in the civil cases, and $800 on the criminal complaints.

☞ Gilbert Spear, a shipbuilder at Kittery Point, was robbed of $100 at Charlestown, Mass., on Monday. He went there to purchase a house in that vicinity, and succeeded in purchasing one at Chelsea. After the papers were passed he passed the balance of his money, $300, in a wallet, and put it in an inside pocket. He went to his boarding place, Mr. Chas. Day's in Charlestown, Monday evening, slightly intoxicated, and Day assisted in putting him to bed, and, obtaining his pocket book placed it under Spear's pillow. Early Tuesday morning the latter awoke, and on examining the contents of his wallet found that one of the $100 bills was gone. He entered a complaint against Day, and he was arrested. On searching him at the police station the money was not to be found, and a warrant will be obtained and his house looked over.

☞ The death of Mr. J. H. Sanborn of Kittery, Me., which has already been briefly mentioned in our columns, was unusually sudden and singular. He was a man of regular and temperate habits, and was regarded as possessing sound health. He had been slightly indisposed for a few day prior to that on which he was taken ill but on the morning of Monday last—the day before he died—he was uncommonly bright and cheerful, arising early, eating quite a hearty breakfast and riding a distance of nearly two miles to attend a town meeting held at Armory Hall, Kittery Foreside, on that day. Here he was as active as usual in the business of the meeting until about three o'clock in the afternoon, when he arose to address the citizens in reference to a matter under consideration and in anticipation of which he had stated that he had prepared a resolution which he wished to read. He commenced reading, but had not finished the first sentence ere he was seen to falter, and was soon borne from the Hall to the residence of a friend near by, where he died the next evening. His disease is supposed to have been paralysis of the brain, although we have not learned the opinion of his attending physician, Dr. Wentworth.

Mr. Sanborn has filled many important offices of trust within the gift of town and State, and had but recently returned from a session of the Maine Legislature, where he was somewhat conspicuous in advocating the interests of the locality he represented.

Communication.

Ann X Speaketh.—The decay in shipbuilding, and a general feeling that something must be done to vitalize business among us, is a good text to preach from; and one of your correspondents, who wields a graceful pen, wrote a discourse with this idea as his starting point, but he didn't annex his sermon to the text, and preached entirely away from it. He admitted that something must be done, and then proceeded directly to rap the knuckles of the first hand that took hold to do something.

There are many Rip Van Quixotes in the world, ever ready to ride antiquated Rozinantes full tilt against any windmill, the noise of which may disturb their profound meditations upon the glorious times when their grandfathers made the money which enables them to sit in mischievous idleness, and block the wheels of active enterprise. "Strawberry Bank" and his echo have much to say against the annexation of Newcastle. What do they propose to do? If they have any better scheme for the promotion of business, why do they not bring it forward? And if it promises half the advantage to the public that the proposed increase of territory and population does, they need not fear opposition from any live man.

There was one idea of great practical value to the "trio" of Newcastle, in the communication referred to, viz., that a school of mackerel will bite at bare hooks. If that is so the information should to be published for the benefit of fishermen; the knowledge of such a fact would save a great amount of toll, and be of more importance than a free bridge. It is to be feared common schools of mackerel are not properly instructed—they would not bite at a bare hook the last time I paid them a visit. Would it not be well for our savant to drop them a line on the subject?

Our friend says "we are asked to do this simply because a few persons doing a very profitable business at Newcastle may have their taxes lessened, and go toll free. That is the whole of it." It may be all he can see of it. But when the "few people" go toll free, the public will enjoy the same privilege.

It is easy to discourage a new enterprise, or heap abuse upon an existing institution. The Aqueduct Co. supplies the people with very pure water, the full benefit of which we do not realize until through some accident the quantity is diminished, or cut off for a day. When there is plenty of water, we waste it lavishly; when the flow ceases we lavish naughty words, and scold the company. The logs were put into the ground, and brought water into the town, long before many of the establishments now using large quantities were in existence. Let us acknowledge how much the aqueduct has done for the city, before we begin to grumble about what it has not yet accomplished. I do not think this old and respectable company limits the growth and welfare of our city. It may though, interfere with its well-fare some.

Portsmouth is a "close corporation," and can never be anything better so long as it is shut in by toll gates. Now is it not puerile to hope for a better state of things so long as we patiently submit to this great nuisance? To say nothing of our safety, our prosperity must come of action. We are told our panacea lies not in the direction of Newcastle. Must we look towards the jail, the pound, or the cemeteries for it? Or has your correspondent got it in his pocket? Something must be done to keep our young men at home, and to induce others to settle among us, or we shall lose the little business importance we have in the active world.

Ann X.

☞ Frank W. Miller, Esq., of this city, bought the trotting horse Loafer, in Boston, Saturday, and a friend drove him down Monday, but he took cold on the road and died Tuesday night of inflammation.

☞ The Auction sale of dry goods by Mr. Wendell, at Mr. Joseph A. Grace's store on Market Street, will be continued to-day, Thursday. There is a good chance for bargains, as all articles are put up without reserve.

☞ The James Mill at Newburyport, which has been idle for many months through insolvency is about to be put in operation by new owners.

DEATHS.

☞ The Funeral of the late Mr. Samuel Lord, will take place at the Stone Church, on Friday afternoon at 2½ o'clock.

In Raymond, 17th inst., Mr. Timothy Osgood, aged 64 years.

In Portland, Me., Capt. James Sullivan, aged 61 years, formerly of this city.

In Somerville, March 17th, Mrs. Mary F. Canovan, widow of Michael Canovan, and daughter of the late Dominick Peduzzi of this city.

TRY IT!

How sad, we think on days that are gone!
The feelings we feel as we ponder thereon—
The sighs—the regret—
Dear days! how we long for the days that are gone!
But we can be happy
Notwithstanding the past—
It is well worth a trial, notwithstanding, I boldly assert—

Consumption,
ITS CURE AND ITS PREVENTIVE,
By J. H. SCHENCK, M. D.

Many a human being has passed away, for whose death there was no other reason than the neglected or unknown and misapplied means of cure. Those near and dear to family and friends are sleeping the dreamless slumber into which, had they only knowing, and availed themselves of his wonderfully efficacious medicines, they would not have fallen.

DR. JOSEPH H. SCHENCK'S SIMPLE TREATMENT,

Dr. Schenck has in his own case proven that wherever sufficient vitality remains, that vitality, by his medicines and his directions, may be roused, is quickened into healthful vigor.

In this statement there is nothing presumptuous. To the faith of invalids made no representation that is not a thousand times substantiated by living and visible works. The theory of the cure by Dr. Schenck's medicines is as simple as it is unfailing. Its philosophy requires no argument. It is self assuring, self-convincing.

The Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are the first two weapons with which the citadel of the malady is assailed. Two-thirds of the cases of consumption originate in dyspepsia and a functionally disordered liver. With this condition the bronchial tubes "sympathize" with the stomach. They respond to the morbific action of the liver. Here, then comes the culminating result, and the setting in, with all its distressing symptoms, of

CONSUMPTION.

The Mandrake Pills are composed of one of Nature's noblest gifts—the Podophyllin Peltatum. They possess all the blood-searching, alterative properties of calomel, but unlike calomel, they

"LEAVE NO STING BEHIND."

The work of cure is now beginning. The vitiated and unhealthy elements in the blood in the alimentary canal are ejected. The liver, like a clock, is wound up. It arouses from its torpidity. The stomach acts responsively, and the patient begins to feel that to is getting, at last,

A SUPPLY OF GOOD BLOOD.

The Seaweed Tonic, in conjunction with the Pills, permeates and assimilates with the food, whatever cutting it may require, without its previous tortures. Digestion becomes painless, and the cure is seen to be at hand. There is no more flatulence, no exacerbation of the stomach. An appetite sets in.

Now comes the greatest Blood Purifier ever yet given by an indulgent father to suffering man. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup comes in to perform its functions and to hasten and complete the cure. It enters at once upon its work. Nature cannot be cheated. It collects and ripens the impaired and diseased portions of the lungs. In the form of gatherings it prepares them for expectoration, and lo! in a very short time the malady is vanquished, the rotten tissue that it occupied is renovated and made new, and the patient, in all the dignity of regained vigor, steps forth to enjoy the manhood or womanhood that was GIVEN UP AS LOST.

The second thing is, the patients must stay in a warm room, until they get well; it is almost impossible to prevent taking cold when the lungs are diseased, but it must be prevented or a cure cannot be effected. Fresh air and riding out, especially in this section of the country in the fall and winter season, are all wrong. Physicians who recommend that course lose their patients, if their lungs are badly diseased; and yet, because they are in the house they must not sit down quiet; they must walk about the room as much and as fast as the strength will bear, to get up a good circulation of blood. The patients must keep in good spirits—be determined to get well. This has a great deal to do with the appetite, and is the great point to gain.

To despair of cure after such evidence of possibility in the worst cases, and moral certainty in all others, is sinful. Dr. Schenck's personal testimony to the Efficacy of his cure was in these modest words:

"Many years ago I was in the last stages of consumption: confined to my bed, and at one time my physicians thought that I could not live an hour. Then like a drowning man catching at straws, I heard of, and obtained the preparations which I now offer to the public, and they made a perfect cure of me. It seemed to me that I could feel them penetrate my whole system. They soon ripened the matter in my lungs, and I would spit up more than a pint of offensive yellow matter every morning for a long time. As soon as that began to subside, my cough, fever, pains and night sweats all began to leave me, and my appetite became so great that it was with difficulty that I could keep from eating too much. I soon gained my strength, and have grown in flesh ever since."

"I was weighed shortly after my recovery," added the Doctor, "then looking like a mere skeleton; my weight was only twenty-seven pounds; my present weight is two hundred and twenty-five (225) pounds, and for years I have enjoyed uninterrupted health."

Dr. Schenck has discontinued his professional visits to New York and Philadelphia. He or his son, J. H. Schenck, Jr., still continue to see patients at their office, No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, every Saturday from 8 A. M. to 3 P. M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged $5. The Respirometer indicates the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not.

☞ Directions for taking the medicines are adapted to the intelligence even of a child. Follow these directions, and kind Nature will do the rest, excepting that in some cases the Mandrake Pills are to be taken in increased doses; the three medicines are scarcely ever disappointed when the directions that accompany them: First, create appetite. Of returning health hunger is the most welcome sensation. Secondly, cleanse it well come, let the despairing at once be of good cheer. Good blood at once follows, the cough loosens, the night sweats cease. Thirdly, In a short time both of these morbid symptoms are gone forever.

Dr. Schenck's medicines are constantly kept in tens of thousands of families. As a laxative or purgative, the Mandrake Pills are in universal requisition: while the Pulmonic Syrup, as a cure of coughs and colds, may be regarded as a proprietary medicine of the highest order of merit.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic $1.50, a bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills, 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists and dealers.

FIRST MORTGAGE
7 Per Cent. Gold Bonds,
ON A COMPLETED ROAD,
FREE OF U. S. TAX,
At 90 and Accrued Interest in Currency.

Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railway.

The completion of this Road has given to these Bonds an established character equal to any mortgage issue dealt in at the Stock Exchange. We are prepared to buy and sell them at any time, at our Banking House, at market price—thus placing them on the same basis; for temporary or permanent investment, with Governments or any other security.

These bonds are a first and only mortgage on a railroad that has cost double the amount of the issue, and which commands, without competition, all the traffic of Northern Iowa and Southern Minnesota—shortening the distance from St. Paul to Chicago 45 miles, and to St. Louis more than 90 miles.

The net earnings are already largely in excess of interest on the bonds, and no doubt exists that they will more than double within the ensuing year.

A contract has been secured with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company obligating the latter to invest 50 per cent. of gross earnings derived from traffic with the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Road in the bonds of this Company. This arrangement is a strong guarantee of the Bonds, and establishes a large sinking fund for their redemption.

The convertibility privilege in these bonds enables them to be exchanged for stock, at par, at any time. This secures to the holder, at his option, a share in any excess of earnings over the interest obligation.

An exchange of Government securities for these bonds returns 2½ per cent. interest, instead of 5 per cent., which is all that Governments pay at present price, besides leaving an immediate gain of about 20 per cent. in price for re-investment.

All marketable Securities taken in exchange free of Commission and Express charges. f23d WaS

THEY ARE NOT A VILE FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants.

They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE-GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell, provided the bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequaled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins, cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages—English, German, French and Spanish.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal. ☞ Send for a circular.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Vascular Organs. lyrdawf6b16

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD Co
OF IOWA,

have now built and equipped, in first-class manner, about

180 MILES OF RAILROAD,

which will complete their entire line, with the exception of laying the track on twenty-five miles, which is already graded. They will thus open

The First Through Line Across the State

from north to south, and, by making a slight detour at one point, they will give

DIRECT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN ST. LOUIS AND ST. PAUL.

This line of Railroad will have very special advantages for both local and through business, besides such superior railroad connections as will secure to it a large portion of the carrying trade of the Great Northwest. The

First Mortgage
7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS,

which are issued upon this road, are limited in amount to $16,000 per mile (while many roads issue from $20,000 to $40 000,) and are offered at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. About two millions and a half of these bonds have already been disposed of, leaving but a small balance unsold, which are being rapidly taken.

The most experienced financiers agree that First Mortgage Bonds, on a limited amount, upon a finished railroad, which is well located for business, are one of the very safest forms of investment.

Parties desiring to secure a first-class security, based upon a railroad practically done, and in the hands of leading capitalists who have a large pecuniary and business interest in its success, will do well to apply at the office of the Company, or any of its advertised agents, for a pamphlet and map, showing the characteristics of the enterprise.

Holders of Government Bonds may exchange them for Central Iowas at a large present profit, beside a handsome increase of interest for a long term of years. Parties making such exchange will receive for each $1,000 Bond a $1,000 Central Iowa Bond, and the following difference in cash (less the accrued interest in currency upon the latter bond,) and in annual interest, this calculation being based upon market prices of December 27th, 1870:—

NEW 7-30 GOLD LOAN.

SAFE! PROFITABLE! PERMANENT!
JAY COOKE & CO.,
Offer For Sale at Par and Accrued Interest the
FIRST MORT. LAND GRANT GOLD BONDS
—OF THE—
Northern Pacific Railroad Co.

These bonds are secured, first, by a First Mortgage on the Railroad itself, its rolling stock, and all equipments; second, by a First Mortgage on its entire Land Grant, being more than Twenty-Two Thousand Acres of Land to each mile of Road.

The Bonds are free from United States Tax; the Principal and Interest are payable in Gold; the Principal at the end of Thirty years, and the Interest Semi-annually, at the rate of Seven and Three-Tenths Per Cent. per annum.

They are issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Trustees under the Mortgage are Messrs. Jay Cooke, of Philadelphia, and J. Edgar Thomson, President of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company.

These Northern Pacific 7-30 Bonds will at all times before maturity, be receivable at Ten Per Cent. Premium (or 110,) in exchange for the Company's lands at their lowest cash price.

In addition to their absolute safety, these Bonds yield an income superior, we believe, to any other first-class security. Persons holding United States 5-20's can, by converting them into Northern Pacifics, increase their yearly income one-third, and still have a perfectly reliable investment.

HOW TO GET THEM.—Your nearest Bank or Banker will supply these Bonds in any desired amount, and of any needed denomination. Persons wishing to exchange stocks or other bonds for these, can do so with any of the agents, and will allow the highest current price for all marketable securities.

Those living in localities remote from Banks, may send money, or other bonds, directly to us by express, and we will send back Northern Pacific Bonds at our own risk, and without cost to the investor. For further information, pamphlets, maps, etc., call on or address the undersigned, or any of the Banks or Bankers employed to sell this Loan. eod3mda3mwf6t6

A LOOK AHEAD.—The past winter has in many respects been one of unusual character. There was not the usual amount of rain last fall, and winter set in during one of the most severe drouths we have experienced for years. This drouth continued throughout the entire winter. The fall of snow was unusually light. The winter has also been generally, unfavorable for business. Hereabouts there has hardly been a week's continuous good sledding for the season — the roads being bare and teaming done on wheels. The depth of snow has nowhere in the middle portion of the State admitted of clever moving in the woods and swamps. We have not for a period of twenty years past known the ground so bare the first of March. We have seen a farmer with his cart, oxen and hired men, engaged in removing rocks heaps from a mowing field—and this at the time of year when the same field is usually from one to three feet under snow. These facts indicate to some extent the remarkable character of the past winter, and thus of the opening spring. They must have some influence upon the coming season, and that farmer will be wise who receives warning from these lessons, and, so far as possible, prepares himself to make advantage thereof.

The grass roots must receive great injury from their long exposure and from the thawings and freezings to which they have thus early been subjected. For four days in succession, during the past and present weeks, the ground has thawed to a depth of three inches in sunny and somewhat sheltered positions. Every farmer knows it is far better for grass land to be evenly protected by snow, as late as the middle of April; and that the spring thawing with cold nights is what has proved so injurious to the grass. What must be the consequence, then, when the ground is entirely bare, and subjection to those extremes of temperature so detrimental to grass roots, a month before the time when such a condition is usually look for? In view of a possible reduction of the grass crop another summer from this cause, would it not be well for our farmers to make plans for putting in a larger amount than usual of fodder corn, turnips or other supplementary feeding crops for stock? We urge the planting of a large breadth the coming season, as from past experience with limited quantities all who have tried it have furnished most favorable accounts of its value, given when succulent to milch cows, or cured as a winter feed.

Again, we look for a wet season the coming spring and summer. One extreme of atmospheric condition in the passing years, usually succeeds another. We have the summer and winter of 1870-1 experienced an unusual drouth —the approaching season we shall in all probability have a far greater amount of rain than in the past growing season. The possibility (may we not safely say probability?) of such a season should govern us somewhat in the plans we now lay for the season's work. We should not attempt to seed down low-lying fields, or start early or important crops, corn for instance, on land that is easily affected by rain. With those of us who broke up last fall for potatoes, and decided where we should sow and where plant, it may be necessary that we change our plans at the same time we shift our fields—but this the prudent and foreseeing husbandman should ever be ready to do. Some of the best crops we have ever grown have been the result of some such sudden change as we have suggested the farmer should even now be thinking about. The season opens dry; we had planned the fall previous to plant our corn here, but we have an impression that if we do it will suffer from drouth. So we put something else there, and plan another piece for corn. The result proves we were wise in so doing. In some like way, we call upon all good farmers thus early in the year to lay their plans with reference to such changes the opening season; feeling sure that this foresight, followed by diligent endeavor, will, with the coming autumn, bring its reward.—Mc. Farmer.

CULTIVATE APPLE TREES.—A correspondent in Montgomery county, Pa., informs us that he can succeed with his apple orchard in obtaining a crop as well as any other field product upon his farm. He commences his orchard by selecting his trees himself in the nursery; as a farmer selects his seed before sowing; helps to take up, as a farmer secures his seed; hauls them home late in the afternoon or evening; puts them in where they are to be planted until next day; has the ground prepared before hand and the holes dug; removes and sets the trees as he needs them in the most careful manner, applying two buckets of water to each tree—one when the hole is half filled up, the other when entirely filled, leaving the ground around the tree bowl-like.—Stakes firmly; mulches; waters occasionally; keeps all cattle and hogs out; and when the trees are a few years planted, twice a year, spring and fall, scrapes the trunk, scrubs it severely with cow urine gathered in a tank from the stable, using about half a bucket to each tree, and gives them a thorough examination to ferret out any worms, etc. He says it is not nearly as much labor as any other crop on the farm.

Farmers do you hear that?—Germantown Telegraph.

—The Wyoming papers say that the people of that Territory are about to "abandon woman suffrage, as both mischievous and impracticable."

—A San Francisco judge has dismissed a complaint against a man accused of stealing one goose, solely because the word was spelled "goos."

APRIL MAGAZINES.

The Nursery is as entertaining as usual, and that is praise enough for this bright little favorite. John L. Shorey, Publisher, Boston.

Besides Mr. Field's reminiscences of Hawthorne, the Atlantic contains number three of Mr. John Hay's "Castilian Days;" a story by Mrs. Spofford; a biographical article on Count Rumford, by Edmund Quincy, and continuations of the serials. The short poem, "No Ring," is in Alice Cary's sweetest vein.

Sermons by Rev. Wm. H. H. Murray, issued weekly by J. R. Osgood & Co., Boston.

It is downright extravagance to buy music in sheet form, when you can get nearly twenty times your money's worth by subscribing to Peter's Musical Monthly.

The Technologist just the thing for the Industrial classes and others who desire useful information.

Oliver Optic's comes laden with palatable sweets to charm the boys and girls. "Cringle and Crosstree," is continued; "The Doctor's Daughter," by Sophie May, increases in interest; and Elijah Kellogg's "College Story" presents a fresh instalment of college scrapes. The illustrations are capital, the editorials spicy, and the general information given in the Pigeon-Hole Papers invaluable.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR,

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and economical for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray locks are restored to their original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.

Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a sticky, or a nasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and the scalp from excessive baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it.

If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric nor make long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a graceful perfume.

WALTHAM WATCHES.

The extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

More than 500,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enables them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watch-making originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skillful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:—

The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main-springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Fogg's patent pinion as being the best and safest.

Hardened and tempered hair-springs, now universally admitted by Watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movements from dust and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch is already a decided success, and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. But those Keyless in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mentioned improvements, which tend to ensure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

The trademarks of the various styles made by the Company are as follows:—

AMERICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.
AMX. WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.
AMERICAN WATCH CO., Crescent St., Waltham, Mass.
APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass.
AMERICAN WATCH CO., Adams St., Waltham, Mass.
WALTHAM WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass.
P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass.
WM. ELLERY, Waltham, Mass.

COMPOUND FLUID Extract Catawba GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

For Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Bilious Affections, Sick or Nervous Headache, Costiveness, etc. Purely Vegetable, containing no Mercury, Minerals or Deleterious Drugs.

H

The Pills are the most delightful, pleasant purgative, especially adapted to all ordinary cases, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give some evidence of their natural gentle yet thorough action, when taken by the weak and convalescent, whether arising from impaired tone or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugar coated, from the fact that a saccharine coating will not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving; consequently do not produce the desired effect. The CATAWBA GRAPE PILLS are as pleasant in taste and color, as not to resistate their being sugar-coated. Price 50 cents per box.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the "Copaiba," the "Balsam" the use of "powerful astringents," have dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps ruin the patient.

Use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU for all Affections and Diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. Price $1.50 per bottle.

BEN. WADE'S TROUBLES.

Santo Domingo Correspondence of N. Y. paper.

As the third week of our stay at San Domingo drew near its close Mr. Wade determined on leaving. Prof. White and Dr. Howe strenuously objected; but the Old War Horse would not be denied, and, after a stormy consultation, told them plainly that he was going on board the Tennessee, and that they might, if they wanted to, go to—well, a place hotter, even, than San Domingo. It looked as if the Commissioners would have a jolly row among themselves, and that the whole affair would end in a quarrel; but Dr. Howe, having heard that a war was raging somewhere up in the mountains, packed his baggage and left for a day, to cool off. On his return, he started for Azua overland, seemingly determined to get as far away from Ben. as he could. The Great American Vacillator, Prof. White, at first determined that he would go to Azua on the Tennessee. Next day he changed his mind—he would go to Puerto Plata on the Nantasket. The same day he again changed his intention, and determined to leave for Puerto Plata, making the journey overland. Before he had time to change again we had left the palace of the correspondents and the city of San Domingo far in the distance and until we reach Port-au-Prince we will never know whether the dainty gentleman has reached the end of his journey or not.

The rage of Wade is fearful to behold. He has turned himself into a volcano of profanity. He asserts that Grant has sent him down here with a pack of fools, who, now that their work is done, want to sport around the West India Islands, and scoop up all the snakes and lizards. The fact is, Ben. wants to go home. His work is done; and he doesn't want to loaf around any longer. He objects to being the figure-head of a gang of crazy buggists, who are incessantly talking about scarabei, umbelliferous and leguminous orders, arachnidæ, coprophagi, anthropomorphse, the phytelephasma crocorpa, lacertini, thoricles, and other "——— nonsense," as Ben. calls it. The other day one of the buggists came on board with a fat spider strung to a stick.

"What in the name of heaven is that?" asked Ben, as the kicking spider was passing him.

"That, Mr. Wade," said the happy buggist, holding up the spider, "is a beautiful specimen of the tarantulated lycosa tarantulæ. It's the finest specimen I ever saw,"

The Old War Horse gazed at it one moment, and then growled out, "The—it is. Take it away."

Soon after came another buggist came on board with a three tailed fish, and told Ben. that it was the most complete specimen of the homocersal and heterocersal platessa flesues that he had ever found. A more disgusted man than Mr. Wade was when he received this information has rarely been seen. I am told that Ben. has said that he expects next to meet a buggist with a six toed negro, or a Carib with a double row of ears all 'round his head, strung to a pole.

—The bad imitator of Bret Harte is the Chicago Republican, which thus truthfully describes that fragrant city:

Chicago? Yes Well—
The place stands on the brink
Of a stream, that, for smell,
Can't be beat; so I think;
And the way it blows dust in your eyes there would force a Gambroux to wink.

—A Miami county, Ohio, settler objects to a proposed railroad in that region in these words:—"The people is gone wild on this 'ere railroad queschina. Hosses that is now wuth forty dollars won't be wuth five dollars a hed. Waggin makers will starve to deth. Oats won't be wuth nothin, and we'll have to quit raisin on 'em. Cow skins won't be wuth a cent, and the bellerin steam waggins will skeer all the game out of the county. I'll sell my forty and git for Arkansas if you don't stop this 'ere railroad."

—Rev. T. De Witt Talmage thinks the lack of fire and force in many of our clergy is not owing to a lack of piety, but is the result of empty stomachs. He recommends more beef-steak to warm up the clergy, and save a salary of $300 is the worst style of homicide. One reason the Apostles preached so powerfully was because fish was cheap. Tea-parties and hot waffles make namby-pamby ministers. Nobody ever gave Simon Peter a pair of slippers!

—A gum-chewing match was the chaste divertisement in a Vermont town, recently. It is said the winner can chew gum in seven different languages, with both eyes shut and one hand tied behind her back. Those Vermont girls are very well educated.

—William H. Seward left Calcutta on Monday for Bombay, where he will be a guest of British officials. Mr. Seward's health is excellent.

—The first crop of potatoes for 1871 have been harvested at Santa Cruz, and barley on the Sacramento River is from two to five feet high.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR DISEASES OF THE THROAT and LUNGS, such as COUGHS, COLDS, WHOOPING COUGH, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA and CONSUMPTION.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men, it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although called Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases which this disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. Wherever the disease could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

For a Cough and Cold, no better remedy can be had. Take small doses three times a day and put the rest in warm water at night, until the disease is broken up.

For Influenza, when it affects the throat or lungs, take the same course.

For Whooping Cough, give small doses three or four times a day.

For Croup, give large and frequent doses until the disease is overcome.

No family should be without the Cherry Pectoral on hand to protect them, in case of attack, from the above complaints. Its timely use often spares the patient a great amount of suffering and risk, which he would incur by waiting until he could get other aid. Parents, keep it in your houses for the exigencies that arise. Lives dear to you may be saved by it.

So generally are its virtues known, that we need not publish certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that the best qualities it ever possessed are strictly maintained.

FRIDAY, MARCH 24, 1871.

CONGRESS.

The Senate laid the joint resolution of adjournment, passed by the House, on the table, on the 22d—30 to 23.

The following resolution was passed by a vote of 36 to 18:—

Resolved, that the Senate will consider at the present session only the deficiency appropriation bill, the concurrent resolution for the joint committee of investigation upon the South, and the resolution now pending, instructing the committee on judiciary to report a bill or bills that will enable the President and courts of the United States to execute laws in the said States, and that the report may be made by the committee on the judiciary on the subject.

☞ The Dover Enquirer says of the late election: "Our opponents in their boastings have already shown what they will do if they have the ability to carry out their programme. We have no doubt they will do all they threaten if they can. There is a great deal hanging upon that little word. The repeal of the Judiciary system; the removal of such Judges as Smith, Doe and Sargent; the repeal of the laws relating to the suppression of intemperance,—and the restoration of the old license system; the transfer of our Police Courts into Democratic hands—are but illustrations of what they threaten. The thousands of Republicans, who by their unfaithfulness and divisions have made the accomplishment of these boasts possible, can now see that they took upon themselves no slight responsibility, and they must reconcile their action as best they may to their consciences and principles."

CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS. — We have carefully footed the returns (mostly official) of the vote for Representatives to Congress, and taking the Governor vote in the remaining towns we find the following result:

District No. 1.—Small, Rep., 12,059; Hibbard, Dem., 12,462; scattering, 265. Hibbard's plurality, 403.

District No. 2.—Stevens, Rep., 10,642; Bell, Dem., 11,479; scattering, 292. Bell's plurality, 837.

District No. 3.—Griffin, Rep., 10,992; Parker, Dem., 11,128; scattering, 260. Parker's plurality, 134.—Monitor.

—The Cardiff giant is still on exhibition at New Haven. The New Haven Register says he has written several letters on the New Hampshire election, which is not surprising when you come to consider that the election has brought to life a number of fossils a great deal older than he. He is a good representative of the Democratic party, too; his head sounds hollow—he is in the hands of speculators—and he lies there all day long.—Hartford Post.

SENATOR PATTERSON, so says a dispatch from Washington, is to be held responsible for the defeat in New Hampshire, because of his opposition to San Domingo. Why not hold Mount Washington responsible? Senator Patterson found the people here all one way on that mad project, and got over it in his speeches just as easily as he could.—Monitor.

—A dispatch from New Hampshire says the people are paying more attention to Lenten services than usual. We should think they would feel in a penitential mood up there amongst the hills. Three Democratic Congressmen!—Providence Journal.

☞ A disastrous freshet occurred at Hallowell, Me., on the 22d, by the giving way of the reservoir dam on the Cascade stream in that city, in consequence of the sudden rise of water. The entire pond was drained in the space of a few minutes. The fall from the dam to the river, a distance of one-third of a mile, is 108 feet. Where the stream crossed Water street the bridge was demolished and a large two-story wooden shop, containing a large quantity of wool, was swept away. Mr. Zenas King, the occupant of the shop was carried away and drowned, not having time to leave the building. The machine shop of George C. McClinch was badly damaged; also the whiting mill owned by Sprague & Co., and several other buildings. The loss must be heavy, and the damage to business considerable. The river is rising and there is a prospect of a heavy freshet.

☞ The North Carolina legislature has removed Governor Holden from office by way of impeachment.

☞ South Carolina needs reconstructing by military force. The rebels are rampant and lawless.

☞ Bismark has been elevated to the rank of Prince of the German Empire, and Von Moltke president, with the grand cross of the Order of the Iron Cross.

The value of the hay crop and pasturage of the State is not far from $12,000,000 annually.

New Ipswich has voted to sell the town farm.

—The Maid Forlorn who was made for Lorne—Princess Louise.

WHO WINS?—The Nashua Telegraph says of the new House of Representatives:

The political complexion of the House is uncertain, and will probably remain uncertain until its organization on the 7th of June. According to the returns received at the Statesman office from the town clerks, which are accurate and complete, the House stands 166 Republicans to 164 Democrats and Labor Reformers. At the Monitor office they reverse these figures, and give the Democrats and Labor Reformers 166 and the Republicans 164. Still another result is figured out at the Patriot office, where they claim the election of 168 Democrats and Labor Reformers, and concede the election of 162 Republicans. To secure this result, the Patriot claims that Messrs. Wilson of Pembroke, Morse of Winchester, Underhill of Chester, and Legro of Lancaster are Democrats or Labor Reformers.

We think the Patriot is attempting to make the most of a doubtful case. As we understand it, the antecedents of all these gentlemen are Republican, and they owe their election more to Republican than to Democratic votes. We can think of no sound reason why men thus elected should strike hands with the Democratic party to enable its leaders to grasp the control of the Legislature and slaughter every Republican officer in the State, from the Chief Justice down to deputy sheriff. We see no sound reason why these men, or any other Republicans, should strike hands with the Democratic party to elect Mr. Weston, governor, when they have a candidate of their own who never sought the nomination.

We have no jot of doubt that the Republicans have elected a clear majority of the members of the House, and so it will remain unless a change is wrought by undue influences. Against these we charge every Republican to be on his guard. The opposition will make a desperate attempt to get control of the Legislature, and every Republican Representative should nerve himself to baffle them.

The Manchester Mirror puts the Senate 5 to 5, with no choice in Districts 1 and 10, and says:—

The House is the battle-ground now, for on that depends the election of the Senators in Nos. 1 and 10, the election of Councillor in No. 1, and the Governor.

There seems to be, according to all accounts, 330 members elected, 15 towns and wards being vacant by reason of failure to elect. Of these 336, the opposition, including Labor Reformers, claim 168 to 162 Republicans. The Republican papers claim as the greatest odds that we shall stand 164 to 166, while a majority of the authorities either make a tie or claim 2 Republican majority.

We make such additions and corrections as we find our information warrants since the returns first received, and, reckoning those men who are claimed by the Democracy that we know to be Republicans, we make the roll stand 165 Republicans to 164 Democrats and Labor Reformers, giving us a clear Republican majority of 2 over all. This gives the opposition all Labor Reformers of Republican antecedents, some of whom we know will not vote with the Democracy. It includes every man elected, waiving all questions of legality.

Our return from Seabrook, signed by a prominent Democrat, says the warrant in that town was defective, and some other towns are in similar trouble.

But, more than all the rest, we claim that only one man is elected in Ward Five instead of three. Mr. Kennedy was chosen on the first day, and is legally chosen. The other two were chosen on separate tickets at one balloting. The whole number of ballots was 442, as we understand; it necessary to a choice 222. As there were several men receiving votes, neither one of those declared elected had 222, one having 130 votes, and the other less than that number. We take it that neither of them were legally elected, as the law requires that a majority of the whole number of tickets—442—is necessary for a choice. Throwing out these two, we shall have 328 members, of which the Republicans will have 166 and the opposition 162.

This shows that the State is not lost; that though we are defeated, we are not conquered; that though in close quarters, we can get hold the control of the State and be prepared for successful work next year.

Sidney M. Morse, Esq., Representative elect to the legislature from Winchester, publishes the following letter in the Keene Sentinel. The Concord Patriot has claimed him as a Democrat.

"In the list of Representatives elected to the Legislature from Cheshire County, which you printed last week, I see you class me as a Democrat. Now, although in this State at the present time it may not detract from one's popularity to be called a Democrat, I cannot consistently claim the honor of the name. As a boy, my earliest sympathy was enlisted on the side of the old "Free Soil" party. Soon after I became a voter the Republican party was formed, and since then I have never failed not only to vote the Republican ticket, but to labor for its success to the best of my poor abilities. I never gave any man any intimation, neither this year nor any year in the past, that I would support any other measure than those upheld by the Republican party, and no man who voted for me, and who is acquainted with me, believed when he cast his ballot that I was anything but a thorough "dyed-in-the-wool" Republican.

As to the future, I shall allow no party or cliquo to do my thinking, but shall act according to the dictates of my own conscience and judgment without fear or favor, asking, as I never have asked nor sought, no political favor of any party or man. S. M. MORSE.

☞ The Bartlett Mills at Newburyport are about to import a cargo of bituminous coal for use, but State Street does not relish, its anticipated smoke.

☞ The Bellows Falls Times, referring to the result of the election in this State says;—

"Whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth."

How the Lord must have loved the Democratic party for sixteen years!

☞ Among the prominent Republicans chosen to the House of Representatives at the late election are Hon. Horton D. Walker, William H. Hackett, Esq., Hon. Asa Fowler, Hon. William C. Patten, Charles S. Faulkner, Esq., Rev. George Dustan of Peterboro', Col. Chas. H. Long, George A. Ramsdell, Esq., Prof. Hiram Orcutt, James O. Adams, Esq., Hon. George W. Nesmith, Brainbridge Wadleigh, Esq., Gen. James Wilson, Milan Harris, Esq., and George M. Herring, Esq. The most prominent Democrats are Hon. Harry Bingham, George F. Putnam, Esq., Samuel B. Page, Esq., Hon. Nathan H. Weeks and Col. L. W. Cogswell.

The Radical for April opens with a long article entitled "The Problem of the New Philosophy," by Francis Gerry Fairfield. C. C. Shackford translates from the German some of Goethe's conversations. The number also contains the usual report of the Radical Club, and other articles in its special line.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Be Guided By What You Know.

There is an old proverb which says, "Experience is the safest guide." To this guide the sick and ailing naturally turn when casting about for the means of relief. They inquire what a medicine has done for others, before they adopt it themselves. Of all the remedies and preventives in use, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS meets the test most triumphantly, and hence its immense popularity and vast sales. The sufferer from indigestion is sure to find some one among his friends who has been cured of that ailment by the famous vegetable stomachic. The victim of fever and ague, liver complaint, constipation, nervous prostration, or general debility, has only to make inquiry in the neighborhood where he resides in order to discover what this standard restorative has effected in cases similar to his own. In the published testimony to its merits he will find a volume of proofs of its sanitary properties, which it is impossible for him to common sense to resist. He tries it, and the effect it produces on his system adds another to the host of witnesses in its favor. Thus, its reputation, founded on facts, not assertions, continually grows and spreads. Charlatans and imposters, some of them more local tricksters, and others who take a somewhat wider range, attempt to thrust into the hands and down the throats of invalids, their haphazard concections, as substitutes for the great tonic which for so many years has been a successful medicinal staple throughout the United States, Spanish America, Canada and the West Indies, but only succeed to a very limited extent. In this reasoning age, the people, having ascertained what is really deserving of their confidence, decline "running after strange gods."

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

"Against what?" asks the reader. Why, against the POISONS, vile, maddening and deadly, advertised as "superior to all Hair Dyes." But, on second thoughts, the call "to arms!" is unnecessary. The wretched trash is already being driven out of the market. It has received the coup de grace from

Cristadoro's Excelsior Hair Dye.

The popularity of this time-tried article increases every hour. Everybody is talking of its "natural shades" it imparts, and there is no contradiction remain why it should not be used, being (as Professor CHILTON states in his certificate) PERFECTLY HARMLESS. As a dressing after dyeing, use lmdawfeb27

AYER'S

HAIR VIGOR,

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A Dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and efficacious for Preserving the Hair. Faded or gray Hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use.

Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remains can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor, can only benefit but not harm it.

If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.
